TO HARRY DE FOREST SMITH

Harvard University.

Cambridge, Mass., Oct 6 1891<sup>a</sup>

My Dear Smith:

Your most welcome letter has been received and in response I will make this proposition: If you will write next Sunday I will do the same. I have been so stirred up for the past week, and in fact am still, that I hardly find time to swear. When I write I will let you know how I feel and what I am doing.

Sincerely

Robinson
