Corporate Name: The President and Trustees of Colby College

Chartered as Maine Literary and Theological Institution by the General Court of Massachusetts, February 27, 1813. Authorized to confer degrees by the first Legislature of Maine, June 19, 1820. Name changed to Waterville College, February 5, 1821; changed to Colby University, January 23, 1867; changed to Colby College, January 25, 1899. First Commencement: 1822.

Independent College of Liberal Arts for Men and Women (women first admitted, 1871); non-sectarian, founded under Baptist auspices.

Degree Conferred: Bachelor of Arts. No other degrees in course and no graduate courses.

Enrollment: 600 men, 400 women. Faculty: 81

Endowment: $4,000,000. Library: 135,000 volumes

Location: Waterville, Kennebec County, Maine.
OBJECTIVES

According to the best authorities, the "liberal" arts are those worthy of a free man. Colby is a college of liberal arts in the sense that it tries to provide an education worthy of the man or woman who is free from the narrowing effects of provincialism and prejudice. It is dedicated without reservation to the aims of unrestricted inquiry and to the task of seeking the truth wherever it may be found. Realizing, however, that academic freedom from partisanship has too often served as an excuse for evading the responsibilities of action, those who administer the college have made a definite effort to provide the proper balance between the detachment of library and laboratory on the one hand, and on the other the decisive commitment that personal and social issues alike require.

The liberal arts college must reach out after truth for its own sake, since to seek it for any other purpose is to miss it. At the same time, the truth as men experience it is never completely detached, but appears always in a context where ends that are "practical" and "useful" play an important part. Colby College attempts to recognize this double aspect of the academic life by graduating students who, in Professor Whitehead's phrase, both know something well and can do something well.

Into the curriculum itself the faculty has not hesitated to introduce certain subjects commonly labelled "vocational." Students at Colby may prepare for careers such as business, medicine, law, theology, government service, teaching, nursing, and social welfare. These courses have been adopted in the belief that the distinction between "liberal" and "vocational" actually has less to do with subject matter than with methods of instruction. A course is "liberal" when the teaching is such as to free the mind from prejudice, to point out the relation of the material in hand to the larger background of learning, and to stimulate further inquiry.

Instruction at Colby is organized in five principal divisions: Languages, Literature and the Fine Arts, concerned primarily with acquainting the student with skills in expression and in the appreciative disciplines; Social Studies, in which the teaching is devoted to consideration of the problems of social environment and of man and his values; Sciences, the mission of which is to familiarize the students not only with the scientific method, but with scientific progress as a great international enterprise; Health and Physical Education, a division devoted to nurturing and conserving physical vitality as a guaranty of eager, interested learning; Nursing and Medical Technology, directed to developing in its students a mastery of vocational skills combined with a cultural background and humanitarian viewpoint.

LECTURES

One outstanding type of educational opportunity outside the classrooms is found in the visits of notable scholars, lecturers and artists to Colby each year. The Averill Lecture Series is unique in that it brings to the campus men of renowned scholarship not merely for a lecture, but for a visit of two or more days during which the students and faculty in his field of learning have the privilege of meeting and talking with him informally. These lectures are held on an average of once a month. The Gabrielson series of lectures in government provides one lecture a week during the second semester by a person prominent in public life.

MUSIC

The Colby-Community Symphony Orchestra, composed of students and townspeople, under the direction of Dr. Ermanno Comparetti of the college faculty, gives at least two concerts a year. The Glee Club, under Mr. John White Thomas, offers a rewarding experience for those who seriously enjoy vocal music. The educational value of these activities is recognized by the granting of academic credits to those who participate regularly after the first year’s trial period.

What was formerly the Colby Concert Series has now become a community enterprise and brings to Waterville each year a series of enjoyable musical events.
Throughout the century and a quarter of its history Colby has been a Christian college maintaining and cherishing its religious heritage. It was founded under Baptist auspices, and throughout the decades the College has received much of its leadership and support from the Baptists. In turn, it has given many outstanding leaders to the denomination. The original by-laws of the College, however, in a spirit of tolerance which was remarkable for those days, specified that the College should be non-sectarian in practice.

By every means consistent with its belief in religious liberty Colby seeks to develop the religious character of each student. Chapel services give opportunity for worship and reflection. The churches of Waterville welcome the close affiliation of Colby students. Sunday Chapel services give opportunity for students to hear messages by the College Chaplain and notable visiting preachers. The activities of the Interfaith Association under the charge of the Director of Religious Activities give full play to the talents of all religious-minded students. Academically, the College offers attractive courses in Religion.

GUIDANCE

During his first year a student is assigned to a freshman adviser who assists him in electing a program of studies, in making needed adjustments to college life, and in meeting various problems which arise. When a student selects his field of concentration (major), his adviser is a member of the department in which he majors, or in the case of pre-professional major or so-called combined major, the adviser is the faculty member assigned to head the specified program.

EXTRA-CURRICULAR LIFE

There is a full and varied complement of student activities which serve to enrich the campus life; included are athletics, musical clubs, outing club, Interfaith Association, several fraternities and sororities, and numerous clubs with specialized interests (described in detail in the Freshman catalog).
GENERAL INFORMATION

THE LIBRARY

In the modern college the library is the focal point. On the Mayflower Hill campus of Colby College the Miller Library is at the center of the spacious architectural plan. Its lofty tower may be seen for many miles in all directions. It is the college's largest building, designed to meet library requirements for a century or more. Its immense reading room, with full southern exposure, its separate reserved book room, its Edwin Arlington Robinson Treasure Room, and its six tiers of stacks, all in charge of a competent and highly trained staff, serve the needs of the faculty and students.

There is continuous effort to improve and to expand the Library and to broaden its services. Not only does it supply materials for required and supplementary reading, for research papers and general information, but it also stimulates interest in recreational reading and in contemporary civilization. It compiles bibliographies, prepares exhibits and in the Colby Library Quarterly makes available to the scholarly world the more distinctive materials that it contains.

In its courses in Bibliography the library staff offers a program of instruction designed to put students in touch with the resources of the Library and the mechanics of its operation. During Freshman Week, and by later cooperation with the Department of English, each new student becomes acquainted with the card catalog, the principal reference works and the basic bibliographical tools. Students look behind the scenes, not only noting the arrangement of reference and stack shelves, but also observing the technical processes of cataloging and classification.

The main collection of the Library, exclusive of rare books and manuscripts, contains more than 135,000 volumes, to which are added about four thousand volumes annually. The Library receives more than 300 periodicals, including many important publications from foreign countries, and is a partial depository for publications of the U.S. Government. It is one of a few libraries designated as a depository for the Army Map Service. The book collection is classified according to the Library of Congress system.

The Colby Library has achieved distinction through its special collections. Outstanding are the Thomas Hardy, Edwin Arlington Robinson, Sarah Orne Jewett, Henry James, and Book Arts collections. Of these the Hardy Collection numbers thousands of items and is the most complete and varied Hardy Collection in existence. The Library has been made the custodian of the books, manuscripts, and personal papers of Edwin Arlington Robinson, the most valuable Robinson Collection that can ever be assembled. The Book Arts Collection contains notable examples of outstanding book designers and presses. There is also a virtually complete collection of the more than four score editions of A. E. Housman’s A Shropshire Lad; and there are collections of note of the writings of the early American economists, Mathew and Henry C. Carey; of the martyr in the cause of freedom of the press, Elijah Parish Lovejoy; and writings of many productive scholars who have been associated with the life of the College. These collections, under charge of the Curator of Rare Books and Manuscripts, are housed in the beautiful Edwin Arlington Robinson Treasure Room.

The Colby Library Associates is an organization of alumni and friends of the College who have a particular interest in the Library and its work. Its object is to increase the resources of the Colby College Library. Membership dues are devoted to the purchase of special books, manuscripts, or other material which lie outside the scope of the Library’s regular budget. Since the founding of the organization in 1935, the Colby Library Associates has added to the Colby Library an impressive list of valuable bibliographic tools and rare collectors’ items. The Associates also conduct meetings at the College from time to time during the year with programs devoted to various topics of interest to book lovers, and award annually the Library Associates Book Prize.

THE COLLEGE PLANT

The College has nearly completed its removal from the original site in the city to a new plant located on a six-hundred acre hilltop two miles from the center of Waterville. By the fall of 1950 all of the academic work except possibly one of the sciences will be conducted on the new campus; all of the housing for men and much of the housing for women will be there. The erection of a second building for science and an additional dormitory for women will then complete the abandonment of the old campus.

The beautiful new campus, with its Colonial brick buildings in harmonious arrangement over the hill-slope gives Colby one of the most attractive college locations in America. The view from the steps of the Lorimer Chapel is magnificent. Just below sparkles the college lake. To the west are the Rangeley mountains, to the east the Camden hills. In the nearer distance lie spread the homes, factories, schools and churches of Waterville.

Instead of letting new buildings be placed here and there among old ones, as is usually done at a college, the new Colby plan has from the beginning been designed for a full century ahead. As demand arises and funds are available for additional buildings, the plan shows where each shall go and what its general structure shall be.

In the fall of 1950 fifteen buildings will be fully completed and in use: the Miller Library, The Lorimer Chapel, the Keyes Science Building, the Field House, the Roberts Union, the Women’s Union, four dormitories for men and two for women, two fraternity houses, and the President’s home. Foundations have also been laid for a second science building and for six other fraternity houses.

The Miller Library is the focal point of the campus, its lofty tower serving as a landmark for miles around. Ultimately the whole building will be used for library and seminar purposes, but for the present it also contains a number of classrooms, faculty offices, the general college offices, the bookstore and spa. The library proper occupies the central section with the stacks to the rear. Its facilities include the public catalog and exhibition room, the main reading room, the reserved book room, offices and work rooms, and the Edwin Arlington Robinson Memorial Treasure Room for Colby’s outstanding collection of rare books and manuscripts.

The Lorimer Chapel is the gift of the late George Horace Lorimer, distinguished editor of the Saturday Evening Post, a member of the Class of 1898, memorializing Mr. Lorimer’s father, the renowned pastor of Tremont Temple in Boston for many years. This chapel is the college church, built in the style of the early New England meeting house, with raised pulpit, side galleries, and simple white pews. It crowns the western slope of the campus and overlooks all the other buildings.

Dormitories for Men. Two large dormitories, so built that each is divided into three separate sections, house the upper-class men. Two still newer dormitories, opened in 1950, house the freshman men. Most of the accommodations are in the form of sleeping and study room suites for two or more boys, the rest being single rooms.

Fraternity Houses. All eight of Colby's fraternities plan to have houses on the campus, and most have laid foundations for their structures. In 1949 Delta Kappa Epsilon and Alpha Tau Omega completed their new houses and took occupancy.

Dormitories for Women. The two dormitories for women, though connected under one roof, are in effect two separate buildings, with separate dining halls and other units. The appearance resembles a New England colonial inn, rather than an institutional building. These dormitories are named for the first two women graduates of the College, Mary Low and Louise Coburn. They house 170 girls. Two additional dormitories, to be similarly constructed, will complete the housing for women on the new campus.

The Roberts Union serves as the dining commons and social center for the men students. There are attractive lounge, reading and game rooms, offices for major student activities, and other facilities. It commemorates the name of one of Colby's former presidents, and funds for its erection were contributed by 2,000 Colby men. It contains the Sherman Perry Memorial Infirmary.

The Women's Union is located near the dormitory and serves as a social center. The Martha Baker Dunn Lounge is used for receptions, concerts, dances and art exhibits, while the adjoining Grace Coburn Smith Room provides opportunity for various social purposes and small meetings. Connected is a small dining room with kitchen facilities. The Ilsley Room is available for group meetings and small lectures. On the ground floor the Lucile Jones Beerbaum Room is set aside as a lounge for day students. Sorority chapter rooms and faculty apartments occupy the top floor. The building represents the combined gifts of some 1,200 Colby women.

The Women's Gymnasium adjoins the rear of the Union and contains a floor 101 by 54 feet in area, large enough for four badminton or two basketball courts. Other smaller rooms and a ski room in the basement complete the indoor physical education facilities, while an athletic field, and archery range are nearby. The Gymnasium also has a stage at one end, making the building a suitable auditorium for large assemblies or all-college balls. Stage equipment and a dramatic arts workshop beneath provide for theatrical activities.

Athletic areas. A battery of 14 tennis courts was constructed on the new campus as a memorial to Walter M. Wales, who gave his life in World War II. Seven of the Wales Courts are built with an all-weather asphaltic composition for general use and the other seven, intended for team and tournament play, are of clay with a quick-drying red surfacing. The new football field was dedicated in 1948 as Seaverns Field, in honor of Charles F. T. Seaverns, '01. The baseball field is named for "Colby Jack" Coombs, '06, one of the immortals of big league baseball. Beside the Women's Gymnasium is a playing field for outdoor sports, and a new hockey field for women has been constructed east of the dormitories, Several ski runs have been developed on the slopes of Mayflower Hill itself at the rear of the buildings, and the College has obtained exclusive use of the well-known Mountain Farm Ski Slope.

The Gymnasium-Field House provides indoor athletic facilities. Here are two basketball courts and a cinder running track. Permanent spectator seating is afforded for 1,600 with opportunity for temporary bleachers for 800 more. The main structure is surrounded by a one-story extension containing offices, lockers and shower rooms. It is located at the north end of the campus across the road from the football field.

The Keyes Science Building was erected as a memorial to the late Martin L. Keyes, inventor and industrialist of Fairfield, Maine. Funds were provided in a bequest by Mrs. Keyes, augmented by donations from Dr. George G. Averill of Waterville, former business associate of Mr. Keyes. In 1950-51 this building houses the departments of Chemistry, Physics, and Geology, but is ultimately planned for Chemistry alone.
The President's Home. Opened in 1949, this attractive house, built like the other buildings of the now familiar Colby brick, is the first building which the visitor encounters, as he approaches the campus from the city. The house is the gift of Dr. George G. Averill, and the decorations and furnishings of the spacious living room are the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Milroy Warren of Lubec, Maine, both members of the Class of 1914.

The Downtown Campus. In 1949 the College sold certain facilities at the northern end of the old campus to the City of Waterville and the State of Maine. During 1950-51 it will continue to use Coburn Hall for the teaching of biology, six dormitories for women, and such other of the old campus buildings as may be needed. Free bus service between the two campuses will be continued as long as both are in use.

How to Reach the Mayflower Hill Campus

Visitors coming by automobile will find the shortest route to the new campus to be the following: On U.S. 201 from Augusta, the driver enters Waterville by crossing the Kennebec River from Winslow. U.S. 201 takes him up Main Street through the business section to Post Office Square. At the traffic light there, with the post office on his left and the intersection of Main Street and College Avenue, with its Elmwood Hotel, directly ahead of him, he makes a left right-angled turn across the point of the post office triangle, and enters Gilman Street, with the furniture store on his left and the Esso filling station on his right. Then he simply keeps straight ahead to the Mayflower Hill campus.

Administrative Regulations

Admission

Separate admissions offices for men and for women are directed respectively by the Dean of Men and the Dean of Women. Communications should be addressed accordingly.

Acceptance of candidates for admission is determined by a selective process during which character, health and personality are considered in conjunction with academic records. Interviews with a college official or representative graduate are required whenever it is possible to arrange them. The college reserves the right to select for admission those candidates who appear most likely to profit by attendance.

Admission requirements are both quantitative and qualitative, and have been determined for the purpose of evaluating applicants' preparatory schooling.

QUANTITY

In quantity of preparation fifteen units of acceptable work are required. A unit represents a course satisfactorily pursued in a secondary school, four or five periods a week, for one school year, with the exception that three units of credit are allowed for four years of preparatory English. The minimum quantitative requirements are as follows:

QUALITY

The quality of a candidate's competence and preparation will be judged by his school record, the recommendations of his principal and teachers, and his scores on certain tests administered by the College Entrance Examination Board.

College Board Tests

All applicants are required to take the Scholastic Aptitude Test. In individual cases the Dean may require one or more of the subject-matter examinations, called achievement tests.

The College Board Tests are given five times a year at designated centers in each state. No applicant, in whatever part of the country he may live, need travel far to take the tests.
At each testing period all tests are given on a single day. The morning is devoted to the Scholastic Aptitude Test in two sections, verbal and mathematical. That is the test which Colby requires of all candidates for admission. In the afternoon the candidate may take one, two, or three achievement tests, each one hour in length. Whether or not the Colby applicant takes any of these tests, and which ones he takes, depends upon his or her individual instructions from the Dean. The Board offers achievement tests in the following subjects: English Composition, Social Studies, French Reading, German Reading, Latin Reading, Spanish Reading, Biology, Chemistry, Physics, Intermediate Mathematics, Advanced Mathematics. Examination dates from May, 1950 to August, 1951 are as follows:

- Saturday, May 20, 1950
- Wednesday, August 9, 1950
- Saturday, December 2, 1950
- Saturday, January 13, 1951
- Saturday, March 10, 1951
- Saturday, May 19, 1951
- Wednesday, August 15, 1951

Arrangements for the Tests

Either from his preparatory school or from the College Entrance Examination Board, Box 592, Princeton, N.J., the applicant may secure a form on which he makes specific application for whatever examinations the Dean at Colby College has told him he must take. The application is sent directly to the Board, not to the College, and must be accompanied by the required fee, which is $6.00 for the morning aptitude test alone, $8.00 for the afternoon achievement tests alone, or $12.00 if both morning and afternoon programs are taken. The Board publishes a detailed Bulletin of Information, which is sent to all applicants for examinations.

Most of the larger, and some of the smaller secondary schools, maintain excellent guidance service, ready to assist students in making application for the College Board tests. In some schools the applications are collected and sent to the Board by a guidance officer. In any event, it is well for the student to consult his principal or guidance officer before submitting his formal application for Board tests.

WHEN TO TAKE THE TESTS

Colby College advises each applicant to take the Scholastic Aptitude Test either in May of junior year in secondary school, or certainly not later than January of senior year.

ACCEPTANCE INTO COLLEGE

In general, Colby College decides on acceptance of its applicants as soon as possible after the reports of the spring tests have been received.

ADMISSION PROCEDURE

1. Write to the Dean of Men or the Dean of Women for an application form.

2. Fill out the form carefully and return it according to instructions. No payment of any kind is required with application.

3. Await a letter of instructions from the Dean. If that letter instructs you to take certain tests, arrange for them as stated in the foregoing section on College Board tests. Remember that, in any event, you must take the Scholastic Aptitude Test.

4. As soon as selection can be made after the spring tests, you will receive from the Dean a letter of acceptance or rejection. If accepted, you must then make the required deposit of $25. This is not an extra charge, but is an advance payment on college expenses, and is not refundable.

5. Read carefully all notices which you receive from time to time preceding your matriculation at the college. These notices will cover such important matters as room, board, details of registration, selection of freshman courses, equipment, finances, and veterans' affairs.
Admission of students by transfer from other colleges, including junior colleges, is limited to a few carefully selected students. A student wishing to transfer to Colby from another college should request and file a formal application for admission. After this application has been received, the student will be instructed to proceed as follows:

1. Make arrangements to take the Intermediate Tests for college students, given by the College Entrance Examination Board in May, at centers throughout the nation.

2. Request the Registrar of his present or previously attended college to send an official transcript of his academic record at that college.

3. Request the Dean of that college to write a letter of personal recommendation.

4. Send to the Dean at Colby College a catalog of the college which he attended or is attending with the courses taken or in progress clearly marked.

Transfer students cannot be accepted for less than two years of residence at Colby.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

The degree of Bachelor of Arts is the only degree-in-course conferred at Colby College. To qualify for this degree a candidate must meet certain specifications in quantity, quality, distribution and concentration.

QUANTITY

Twenty year-courses, or their equivalent in semester courses, regardless of the number of credit hours in excess of three for each semester course.

Two years of Physical Education (Physical Education 1, 2, 3, 4), or the equivalent.
GENERAL INFORMATION

QUALITY

A total of at least 196 quality points. These are computed as the product of weekly hours for a course and index numbers (A-4, B-3, C-2, D-1). For example, a mark of B in a three-hour course for one semester yields (3 x 3) nine quality points.

DISTRIBUTION

1. English Composition (English 1-2) in the freshman year.

   Any student whose average in English 1-2 is passing, but below 70, and whose low mark, in the opinion of the instructor is caused by deficiency in English usage, is required to take a course in corrective English Composition (English 35-36) and must pass this course as a requirement for graduation.

2. Literature (English 11-12) in sophomore year.

3. One year-course, or two sequence semester courses, in each of two of the following: Biology, Chemistry, Geology (not including Geography), Mathematics, Physics.

4. Two year-courses, or equivalent in sequence semester courses, selected from those offered in the Division of Social Sciences. (Effective for classes of 1951 and 1952.)

   Beginning with the Class of 1953, the social science requirement for graduation shall be met by taking one year-course, or its equivalent, in each of three departments in the Division of Social Sciences (divisional courses considered as a department thereof), provided that not more than one of the following courses may be counted toward this requirement: Business Administration 01, 02; History 1, 2; Social Science 1, 2; Religion 1, 2; or any other course in the Division of Social Sciences which is open to freshmen.

5. A basic knowledge of one of the foreign languages taught at Colby. This requirement may be met by the classes of 1951 and 1952 in one of the following ways:

   (a) Passing an achievement examination designed to test the student's ability to use a chosen foreign language both orally and in writing. This must be in a language taught at Colby.
(b) Successful completion of any year-course numbered above 1-2 in a foreign language taken at Colby College.

(c) A student who has conscientiously, yet unsuccessfully, attempted the work of foreign language study at least once during each of his first two years at Colby College, may, with the permission of the department in which the unsuccessful attempts have occurred, meet this requirement by passing an appropriate course in a foreign culture; namely, a course in Germanic or Romance literature and culture in place of a modern foreign language, or a course in classical civilization (History 21, 22) in place of a classical language.

Beginning with the class of 1953 (freshmen entering in September 1949 and later) the requirement can be met only by one of the ways explained in (a) and (b) above.

Students who look forward to graduate study in arts and sciences are warned that the minimum requirement for the Colby degree may not give them enough knowledge of foreign languages to assure their admission into graduate work. Since the leading graduate schools require a reading knowledge of both French and German, and since some also require Latin for work in language and literature, the student who desires graduate study should be careful to take more than the minimum required for graduation.

CONCENTRATION

Near the end of freshman year each student must elect a major, the field of study to which he wishes to devote his chief attention during subsequent college years. The major may be chosen in a single subject, such as English, Chemistry, History, or in one of a few designated combinations.

The respective academic departments specify those courses constituting a major in the department. Prior to selecting a major each student should acquaint himself thoroughly with the requirements of the proposed field. These requirements are stated immediately preceding the description of courses offered in each department.
Three-fifths of a student's program in junior and senior years may be determined by his major department, but need not consist wholly of courses offered by that department.

Each student is required to maintain a cumulative average of at least C in his major. Any student whose cumulative average in courses completed toward the major falls below C at the end of sophomore year or at the end of junior year is not permitted to continue with that major. Such a student may change to another major with the consent of the head of the department in which he wishes to attempt a new major; provided, however, that at the end of junior year a student can be accepted into a new major only if he has completed, with an average not lower than C, at least the equivalent of two year-courses which may be applied toward fulfillment of the new major. If, at the end of junior year, a student finds no department in which he can be accepted as a major, he cannot continue in college. If the work of senior year results in the cumulative average in courses completed toward the major falling below C, the major requirement shall be considered as not fulfilled and the degree shall be withheld.

Combined Majors

In order to offer a subject major, a department is obligated by faculty regulation to require at least four year-courses or their equivalent in semester courses in a single subject.

In order to offer a combined major, permitting the student to divide his concentration between two subjects, or among more than two subjects, a department must have each proposed combination approved by vote of the faculty, subject to general regulations which the faculty has laid down for combined majors.

As this issue of the Catalog goes to press, the only combined majors approved by faculty vote are the following:

Pre-Medical
American Civilization
History-Government-Economics

Students who had been accepted into other combined majors previous to January 1, 1950, are permitted to continue those majors until graduation, but subsequent to January 1, 1950 no student is permitted to begin any combined major except those specifically authorized by faculty vote.

The general regulations voted by the faculty, which are referred to in the second paragraph above, are as follows:

1. A single major shall be in a single subject (not merely in a single department) and shall consist of a minimum of four year-courses or their equivalent in semester courses in this subject.

2. A combined major in two subjects shall consist of a minimum of three year-courses or their equivalent in semester courses in each of the two subjects.

3. A combined major in three subjects shall consist of a minimum of three year-courses or their equivalent in semester courses in each of two of the subjects, and two year-courses or their equivalent in semester courses in the third subject.

4. A combined major in more than three subjects, built around an approved central theme, shall consist of a minimum of eight year-courses or their equivalent in semester courses, at least three of them being in one subject.

REGULATIONS

The rules respecting student residence, organizations, social activities and inter-collegiate athletics are published in the Colby Gray Book and Women’s Handbook. All students are held responsible for knowledge of those regulations as well as for those which are published in the following paragraphs and in other sections of the catalog.

The administration of the college is concerned fully as much with the social habits and character of the students as with academic standing. Students who are persistently negligent in their academic and social obligations, or who consistently violate regulations of the college or community, may be required to terminate their attendance. The college reserves the right to dismiss any student whose presence its officers believe to be detrimental to the general welfare, and such dismissal may be effected without the preferment of specific charges.
REGISTRATION

Registration consists of preparing and filing with the Recorder certain records in accordance with specific instructions issued at each registration period. For registration later than the date specified for a particular student for any registration period a fine of one dollar for each day of delay is charged on the student's semester bill, provided, however, that the maximum fine shall not exceed five dollars.

Normally no student will be permitted to register later than the tenth day after the first day of classes. The Recorder may permit registration later than the tenth day only if the Dean of Men or the Dean of Women certifies in writing that exceptional circumstances justify such registration.

Preceding registration for any semester a student must secure from the Treasurer's office a receipt for the required tuition fee and any other required advanced payments, and to gain permission to register he must present that receipt at the Recorder's office.

The Treasurer is not authorized to permit deferred payment of any fees concerning which the Board of Trustees requires advanced payment before registration. It is important that students shall understand the distinction between payment of fees and registration. These are two distinct procedures administered by two different offices of the College. Each student must complete the financial procedures preliminary to registration, as laid down by the Treasurer, before he can perform the act of registration at the Recorder's office.

ELECTION OF COURSES

In the spring of each year all students except seniors elect tentatively, with approval of advisers, programs of study for the ensuing year. These elections with approved revisions are confirmed during the two registration periods of the following year. A student's academic program must bear his adviser’s approval and be properly filed with the Recorder, since credit will be suspended for work in a course for which a student is not correctly registered. A continuing student registering in the fall without election in the previous spring is fined $2.00 for failure to make spring election.

With the approval of the adviser voluntary changes in a student's program may be made during the first eleven calendar days of a semester, the first day of classes being considered the first day of the semester, and a fee of $1.00 is charged on the semester bill for each such voluntary change. After the eleventh day no students will be permitted voluntarily to change from one course or section to another, but during a semester a student may drop a course and receive a mark of "Dr." provided both his adviser and dean consent. If the adviser and dean agree that a course may be dropped, but that it must be considered as having been taken and failed, the mark shall be "F." If a course is dropped without permission the student shall, in addition to receiving an "F" in the course, be placed on probation. A course dropped after receipt of mid-semester warning therein shall necessitate a mark of "F" instead of "Dr." for that course; likewise a course dropped within 30 days before last class.

With the consent of his adviser a student may elect one, but only one course in excess of the usual five courses, provided his over-all average in all courses taken in the previous semester is at least 70. Under no circumstances is a student permitted to pursue more than six courses in any one semester.

If, on the insistence of his adviser or of the department concerned, a student repeats, as an extra course, any course which he has already passed, he shall not be charged an extra course fee; but such a student shall not be permitted to carry such a course in addition to six courses.

A student who has failed a year-course may not secure credit for it by repeating merely the second semester of the course, even if his tentative mark at the end of the first semester was passing. He must repeat the entire year if he is to get credit for that particular course. By definition a year-course is one which has no finally recorded mark until the end of the year and no credit until the final mark is recorded. The tentative mark, showing the student's progress is a year-course at the end of the first semester, is not a permanent record and carries no credit toward graduation.
WITHDRAWAL

Voluntary withdrawal from the college may be effected officially only by filing with the Recorder a "Notice of Withdrawal," a form which may be obtained from the office of the Recorder or one of the deans. No refund will be paid by the Treasurer until he has received from the Recorder the formal "Notice of Withdrawal" and in computing refund the date on the official withdrawal notice shall be considered the date of withdrawal. A student who withdraws from college and neglects to effect official withdrawal until later cannot collect refund for the elapsed interval.

SPECIAL STUDENTS

Subject to limitation of enrollment in individual courses, the College permits adult persons to enroll as special students to take not more than three courses. Such persons must present evidence that they are qualified to pursue the intended courses, and they must pay the regular per-course tuition fee. They are not required to pay the Student Activities Fee.

ACADEMIC STANDING

A student's class standing is determined by the number of semester hours earned; that is, Freshman — 0 to 23 hours; Sophomore — 24 to 53 hours; Junior — 54 to 83 hours; Senior — 84 or more hours.

At the end of the first half of each semester the faculty issues, through the Recorder's office, mid-semester warnings. A major warning means that a student's standing at that time is below passing; a minor warning that, while passing, it is so low as to indicate final failure of the course is possible.

At the end of each semester the faculty issues, through the Recorder's office, course marks. These marks are reported to students in letters according to the following scale:

A = 90 to 100  B = 80 to 89  C = 70 to 79  D = 60 to 69  E = 50 to 59 (for first semester of year-courses or designated "E" courses.)
There is no fixed method of computing the final mark in a course; the final examination must, however, count not more than half in the total computation.

The first semester mark in a course designated as a year-course is only a tentative mark. For designated year-courses no credit is given until completion of the full year's work, and there is only one final mark for the entire year.

A mark of "F" means that a course has been failed and that the credit hours thus lost must be made up by an additional course in some subsequent term. If the failed course is specifically required for the degree, it must be repeated.

A mark of "Abs." indicates that a student has been absent from final examination. Such mark must be made up as soon as possible after the beginning of the following term, and before the close of such term. After the expiration of one term a mark of "Abs." is changed to "F."

A mark of "Cr." indicates that a student has been awarded credit but no specific mark for a course.

A mark of "Dr." indicates that the course has been dropped with permission.

A mark of "Inc." indicates that a course has not been finished for some other reason than failure to take the final examination when scheduled. For the latter the mark of "Abs." is used, as explained above. The uncompleted work must be made up within limits prescribed by the instructor; otherwise the mark will be changed to "F." In any event, after the expiration of one term, any remaining mark of "Inc." will be changed to "F."

The letter "R" is used together with an appropriate mark when a student has repeated a course, and in such a case there can be no credit in terms of semester hours.

Whenever a student's academic record shows serious deficiency, the question of a student's retention or dismissal is decided by the Committee on Standing, in which the faculty has vested complete power to deal with such cases.

HONORS

The degree of Bachelor of Arts with Distinction is awarded in three grades; cum laude to those who attain an average mark between 88 and 92 per cent throughout their college course; magna cum laude to those whose average mark is between 92 and 95; and summa cum laude to those whose average mark is 95 or above.

In American colleges it is generally considered that the highest honor an undergraduate can receive is election to Phi Beta Kappa. This nationally famous society, founded in 1776, restricts its chapters to leading colleges and universities, and it maintains very high scholastic standards. The Beta Chapter of Maine was organized in 1895. Election to membership is based upon academic record at the end of seven semesters and on recommendations then made by instructors.

A student who has not obtained a cum laude grade but who has done work of marked distinction in one department may, upon recommendation of that department and by vote of the faculty, be mentioned on the Commencement Program for honors in that particular subject.

An important annual event of the late spring is Recognition Assembly, when a general assembly with a prominent guest speaker is held for the purpose of recognizing those students who, during the year, have earned honors. Among those recognized are the following: newly elected members of Phi Beta Kappa; winners of College Prizes; recipient of the Condon Medal; newly elected members of Cap and Gown, the honor society for Senior women; recipients of certificates from Phi Beta Kappa, awarded to members of the three lower classes for distinction in scholarship.

COLLEGE PRIZES

General

Condon Medal. The gift of the late Randall J. Condon, of the class of 1886, awarded to the member of the Senior class who, by vote of his classmates and with the approval of the Faculty, is deemed to have been the best college citizen.

In 1949 the medal was awarded to Alice Elizabeth Covell, '49.

Lelia M. Forster Prizes. From the income of the Lelia M. Forster Fund awards are made annually "to the young man and the young woman of the preceding entering class who have shown the character and ideals the most likely to benefit society."
In 1949 these prizes were awarded to John Allen Briggs, '52, and Marjorie Anne Austin, '52.

STUDENTS LEAGUE SCHOLARSHIP. Awarded annually to the Junior girl who best fits these requisites: average scholarship, leadership, participation in extra-curricular activities, friendliness — and who has contributed toward her college expenses by her own efforts.

In 1949 this scholarship was awarded to Mildred Jeanine Fenwick, '50.

DELTA DELTA DELTA SCHOLARSHIP AWARD. Given annually by the sorority for scholastic ability and school participation to a well-deserving girl at Colby.

In 1949 this award was made to Catherine Mabel Johnston, '50.

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION PRIZE. Awarded to the student majoring in Business Administration who in the opinion of the faculty of this department combines the highest qualities of scholarship, personality and extra-curricular interests.

In 1949 this prize was awarded to Haroldene Whitcomb, '49.

ERNEST L. PARSONS PRIZE. Awarded to a senior in Business Administration who in the opinion of the faculty of this department combines high quality of scholarship, personality and extra-curricular interests.

In 1949 this prize was awarded to Ivan Albert Yeaton, Jr., '49.

CLASSICS

FOSTER MEMORIAL PRIZES IN CLASSICS. One or more prizes of $50 each, in memory of the late Professor John B. Foster, are awarded to students from either Division for marked excellence in advanced Greek or Latin courses.

In 1949 award in Latin to Barbara Eilene Hamlin, '52; in Greek to Edgar Wesley Freeman, '51.

ENGLISH

MARY LOW CARVER PRIZE FOR POETRY. A prize of $50 is offered annually to a student in the Women's Division for an original poem of merit in the English language. No limitation is placed upon the form or nature of the poems submitted.
GENERAL INFORMATION

In 1949 this prize was awarded to Hope Ruth Harvey, '49.

SOLOMON GALLERT ENGLISH PRIZE. A prize of $20, given by Mrs. Joseph L. B. Mayer in memory of Solomon Gallert of the class of 1888, is awarded yearly for excellence in English.

In 1949 this award was made to Chester Albert Brigham, '50.

LIBRARY ASSOCIATES' BOOK PRIZE. Under the auspices of the Colby Library Associates, a book prize is annually awarded to the senior who has, during his or her four years in college, assembled the best collection of books. This prize has been partially endowed by the class of 1941.

In 1949 this prize was awarded to Donald Eugene Nicoll, '49.

MODERN LANGUAGES

FRENCH CONSULATE PRIZE. Offered by the French Consulate in Boston for excellence in French studies.

In 1949 awarded to Jeanne Frances Pelletier, '49.

GERMAN PRIZES. A first prize of $10 and a second prize of $5 are awarded to members of the Men's Division for excellence in German courses. Similar prizes are awarded in the Women's Division.

In 1949, the first prizes were awarded to Gilbert Roland Tibolt, '51, and Peter Honsberger, '52; second prizes to Myra Susan Hemingway, '51, and Margaret Louise Preston, '51.

DELTA PHI ALPHA GERMAN PRIZE. Awarded in 1949 to Thomas Woodworth Samuelson, '49.

Music

LOUISE COLGAN AWARD. This prize of $10 is given to the senior girl who has been a member of the Glee Club for at least three years and who has the highest academic standing of any girl who meets this three-year requirement.

In 1949 this prize was awarded to Haroldene Whitcomb, '49.

PUBLIC SPEAKING AND DRAMATICS

GOODWIN PUBLIC SPEAKING PRIZES. Special prizes aggregating $85, given by the late Mattie E. Goodwin of Skowhegan in memory of her husband, Honorable Forrest Goodwin of the class of 1887, are awarded for excellence in the delivery of original addresses.
In 1949 the first prize was awarded to Scott Stuart Wood, '52; second to Stanley Foster Choate, '50; third to Harland Horace Eastman II, '51; fourth to Donald Eugene Nicoll, '49.

HAMLIN PRIZES. Prizes of $10 and $5 are awarded to freshmen in the Men's Division and Women's Division for excellence in public speaking.

In 1949 no awards were made.

JULIUS AND RACHEL LEVINE SPEAKING PRIZES. Special prizes aggregating $100 given by Lewis Lester Levine of the class of 1916, in memory of his father and mother, are awarded for excellence in extemporaneous speaking.

In 1949 the first prize was awarded to Donald Eugene Nicoll, '49; second to Stanley Foster Choate, '50; third to Robert Averal Rosenthal, '50; fourth to Paul Briggs Kilmister, '51.

MONTGOMERY INTERSCHOLASTIC PUBLIC SPEAKING PRIZES. In addition to the prizes offered to students in the college special prizes, the gift of the late Job H. Montgomery of Camden, Maine, are awarded to young men attending secondary schools in New England for general excellence in declamation in a public contest held at Colby College.

In 1949 the first prize was awarded to Robert Bean of Newton (Massachusetts) High School; second to Lawrence Spector of Malden (Massachusetts) High School; third to Charles W. Waznis of South Boston (Massachusetts) High School; fourth to Freeman Frank of Edward Little (Maine) High School; fifth to Gerard Dorgan of St. John's Preparatory (Massachusetts) School.

MURRAY DEBATING PRIZES. The sum of $100 is available each year to the college through a bequest of the late George Edwin Murray of the class of 1879, for the best arguments presented at a public exhibition.

In 1949 first prizes were awarded to Mildred Jeanine Fenwick, '50; and Emile Leonard Genest, '52; and second prizes to Paul Briggs Kilmister, '51, and Robert Averal Rosenthal, '50.

POWDER AND WIG AWARDS. Made by Powder and Wig (the dramatics society) for exceptional achievement in dramatic enterprises of Colby College.
In 1949 these awards were made to Elizabeth M. Beamish, '49, Cynthia F. Crook, '49, Tema Kaplan Cushner, '49, Hope R. Harvey, '49, Ellen Kennerson, '51, Patricia G. Sales, '49, James A. Bradford, '50, A. Eugene Jellison, '51, Donald G. Leach, '49, Gerald Stoll, '49.

Sciences

Chi Epsilon Mu Prize in Chemistry. Awarded annually to the highest ranking freshman in Chemistry 1, 2.

In 1949 this prize was awarded to Joanne Peirce, '52.

Marston Morse Prize in Physics or Mathematics. Given by Marston Morse of the class of 1914, to a student showing excellence in exposition of some phase of mathematics, physics or astronomy.

In 1949 no award was made.

Sociology

Chi Omega Prize in Sociology. Awarded annually to the highest ranking woman in sociology.

In 1949 this prize was awarded to Chana Mitchell Marker, '49.

Albion Woodbury Small Prizes. Prizes totaling $100, derived from a fund given by Lina Small Harris of Chicago in memory of her father, Albion Woodbury Small of the class of 1876, former President of Colby and late Professor of Sociology and Dean of the Graduate School of the University of Chicago, are available for students pursuing work in the field of economics and sociology. These prizes will be given to the students in the Men's or Women's Division who present the best essays on some subject to be announced by the Department of Economics and Sociology.

In 1949 the first prize was awarded to Jean Desper, '49; second to Chana Marker, '49; third to Fay Klafstad, '49.

Attendance

Students are expected to be regular in class attendance. Any absence from class for any reason whatever is regarded as an obligation unfulfilled.
EXCUSES

Excuses for absence must be made to and secured from the Dean of Men or Dean of Women, who may grant excuses for the following reasons only: illness certified by the college physician or his representative; athletic or other organizational trips; exigencies calling for absence from town; military necessity.

Whenever a students' attendance in any course is unsatisfactory to the instructor in that course, the instructor shall so notify the Dean. Upon receipt of such a notice the Dean shall issue to the student a warning. The definition of "unsatisfactory" is left to the determination of each instructor, and must provide for two cuts per semester in each course. In fairness to students, however, who have a right to know what constitutes unsatisfactory attendance under this flexible system, it shall be the duty of each instructor to explain at the first meeting of a class what constitutes unsatisfactory attendance in that class.

Students who are absent, without excuse by one of the above four reasons, from any academic class in the two days before or after a vacation (including the brief Thanksgiving holiday as well as the Christmas and spring vacations) shall be issued a warning directly by the Dean; but not more than one warning shall be issued at each of these times, regardless of the number of classes from which the student was absent.

Any student issued three warnings in any one academic semester shall be suspended from college for the remainder of that semester, with no credit for the semester's work. The three warnings may have been issued because of unsatisfactory attendance or because of absence before or after a vacation, or both.

In order that a student may have a fair opportunity to improve his attendance record, the Dean shall not issue more than one warning because of unsatisfactory attendance to the same student in any seven-day period, regardless of the number of notices received from instructors in that period. Warnings because of absence before or after a vacation shall be issued regardless of the interval of time since any previous warning.

* When this catalog went to press, the faculty was considering changes in the attendance rules. If changes are made, they will be published in the 1950 edition of the Colby Gray Book, issued in September, 1950.
EXAMINATIONS

At the close of each semester a period of ten days is set aside for a schedule of three-hour examinations in all courses except those which the Committee on Examinations has specifically exempted. The exact proportion given to the examination mark in computing the course mark is left to the decision of each instructor.

No student may be excused from any semester examination except for illness or emergency so grave as to justify excuse, in judgment of the Dean of Men or Dean of Women. A student thus excused may be examined at a later date convenient to the instructor, but under no circumstances is a student permitted to take a semester examination earlier than the date on which it is scheduled. The schedule of semester examinations, both as to time and place, is fixed by the Director of Schedule.

With the consent of the Dean of Men or the Dean of Women, a student may, for unusual reason, accept in lieu of semester examination, a mark equal to 75 per cent of his average in the course without examination. This procedure is so costly in reduction of final mark that few students request it.

Hour examinations and shorter quizzes are given as frequently as the individual instructor wishes. Short quizzes may be given without notice, but each instructor is expected to give one week’s notice of any hour examination.

Cheating in an examination is a serious offense. The instructor may dismiss the offender from the course with a mark of “F,” or he may refer the case to the Dean of Men or the Dean of Women for more drastic action.

A student is entitled to only one semester examination in any course; failed examinations cannot be repeated.

Graduate Examinations

It is becoming increasingly common for graduate and professional schools to require formal, objective examinations for admission. Hence a center has been established at Colby College for administering the Graduate Record Examination, the Medical College Admissions Test, and the Law School Admissions Test. These tests are administered by the Dean of the Faculty, at whose office interested students may secure complete information about them.

VETERANS

Colby College accepts veterans under Public Laws 346 and 16, with the understanding that veterans must meet exactly the same requirements for admission as do all other students. Credit toward admission requirements in specific subjects is sometimes given for completion of certain schools in the armed services or for completing certain courses under the United States Armed Forces Institute.

The Dean of the Faculty serves as coordinator of veterans and represents the College in official dealings with Veterans Administration.

Before an admitted veteran is permitted to register for classes under veterans' benefits, he must present to the Dean of the Faculty a certificate of eligibility from Veterans Administration. If he is to use V.A. benefits for the first time, he may secure the initial certificate by applying at any convenient office of Veterans Administration. If he has already used some of his educational entitlement under V.A., he must secure a supplementary certificate of eligibility from that V.A. office where his veteran's folder is on file.

Upon receipt of the proper certificate, the Dean of the Faculty issues to the veteran authorization for making his charges for tuition, books, and supplies payable by Veterans Administration.

Each veteran enrolled at Colby College is personally responsible to the College Treasurer for payment of college charges for room and board. Because Veterans Administration sends the monthly maintenance allotment checks directly to the veteran, he and not V.A. is responsible for maintenance charges.

At the request of Veterans Administration, all maintenance checks mailed to veterans living in college residence halls are issued through the office of the Dean of the Faculty, where the veteran signs for his check each month.

The veteran is responsible for keeping himself informed concerning the extent of his educational entitlement, the conditions under which V.A. will accept charges in excess of $500 for a school year, and the procedure necessary to attend summer school at another institution with intent to return to Colby in the autumn.

Veterans under Public Law 16 are subject to special regulations, especially in respect to vocational objective, and they are entitled to exceptional privileges in regard to length of entitlement, maintenance allotment, and medical service.
COLBY-SWARTHMORE
SUMMER SCHOOL OF LANGUAGES

Colby-Swarthmore is a joint project of Colby College at Waterville, Maine, and Swarthmore College at Swarthmore, Pennsylvania. It recognizes the increasing need in our country for more men and women with a sound knowledge of foreign languages. It has faith that linguistically trained citizens can help to further international understanding and good will among nations. The School has been organized especially for the training of the capable and ambitious young man or woman who is looking forward to graduate or foreign study, positions or travel in foreign lands, translation work, foreign language teaching, or government service.

The third session of Colby-Swarthmore opens on Colby’s Mayflower Hill campus on June 26 and closes on August 14, 1950. The fourth session is expected to be held between corresponding dates in the summer of 1951. Courses are offered at the elementary, intermediate, and advanced levels in French, German, Russian, and Spanish. All courses are of the intensive type, covering in seven weeks one full year’s work at the college level, with no less than one hundred and five hours of classroom instruction, and with a credit of six semester hours. The faculty, drawn from many colleges, is composed of native or bilingual instructors who have had a wide experience in teaching American students. They are chosen not only for their scholarly attainments but for their personalities and their ability to maintain informal relationships with the students.

At Colby-Swarthmore the student will find an atmosphere that is particularly conducive to rapid progress in learning a foreign language. The School insists upon the exclusive use of the foreign language outside the classroom in so far as circumstances and previous training permit. The use of the spoken language is encouraged by grouping the students in the dormitories according to the language they study. A friendly relationship between instructors and students is stressed. Teachers live in the dormitories, conduct the language tables in the dining halls, and participate in all leisure-time activities such as sports, group singing, folk dancing, and various excursions. Instruction is given in small classes so that each student can receive from the instructor frequent and individual attention. Mechanical aids such as records which are prepared by instructors for individual classes, phonographs, and recorders supplement special classroom techniques and individual conferences. Through this carefully integrated program of personalized teaching and planned recreation the student is offered a unique opportunity for the acquisition of a foreign language.

All correspondence concerning the School should be addressed to Professor John F. McCoy, Director, Colby-Swarthmore Summer School of Languages, Waterville, Maine.

FINANCES 1950-1951

The charges tabulated below constitute a student's major items of expense for one semester. In addition to these there are the various expenses of a personal nature and the Student Activities Fee.

ADVANCE PAYMENTS

(No formal bills are issued for any of the following items.)

ADMISSION

Non-returnable deposit of $25.00. This payment is due when applicants for admission are accepted. This deposit is later credited on the tuition due prior to registration.
BOARD DEPOSIT

Prior to the start of each semester all students who board at the college are required to make an advance payment of $50.00.

ROOM DEPOSIT

All students attending college in any given year must, in order to reserve a room for the following college year, make a $10.00 deposit on or before May first. This deposit is paid to the Treasurer and is later credited on the Semester Bill for the fall semester. Refund of room deposit will be made if the request for a room reservation is withdrawn not later than thirty days before the following registration period.

TUITION

$250.00 a semester payable prior to the opening of each semester. The Semester per course charge is $50.00.

ACTIVITIES FEE

At the request of the students themselves a Student Activities Fee is collected annually, and is used for financing various student activities. This fee is charged on the first semester bill except in the case of students in attendance for the second semester only, who will be charged a proportionate fee on their second semester bill. The Student Activities Fee is compulsory and no items are deductible. The organizations supported and the amount of the fee may change from year to year. The Student Activities Fee for 1950–51 will be $13.50 for men and $15 for women, distributed as follows: Colby Echo $2.50, Colby Oracle $5, Class Dues $2, Inter-Faith Association $2, Music $2; and for women, Student League $1.50.

BOARD

A dining hall for men is maintained in the Roberts Union, and dining halls for women in Foss Hall and in both Mary Low and Louise Coburn Halls. All women students not living at home or with relatives are required to live in College residences and board at the College. Exceptions may be made in the case of students in the three upper classes who find it absolutely necessary to earn their entire room and board. Arrangements for such exceptions must be made with the Dean of Women. Men students electing to board at the College dining hall are obligated to pay the board charge for an entire semester. All men students are required to live in college buildings, unless excused by the Dean of Men.

ROOM

Dormitory room reservations for men students are made at the office of the Dean of Men. Room reservations for freshman women are made at the office of the Dean of Women. Room reservations for upperclass women are made with the Director of Residence of the Women's Division.

HEALTH SERVICE

Each student receives annually a thorough physical and medical examination, as many visits to the daily sick call as may be necessary, use of infirmary in accordance with established regulations and all necessary attendance by the college physician and resident nurses. It is important that students and parents understand that the college health service does not entitle a student to the services of a surgeon or specialist, such laboratory procedure as X-ray photographs, blood count, prescription medication, glasses, or dentistry, or other specialized diagnostic techniques. It is further emphasized that a student or his family must assume financial responsibility for the services of a specialist or surgeon.

Free service in the college infirmary is restricted to a total of two weeks in any college year. Infirmary meals are charged at reasonable rates. Whenever students are regularly boarding at the college there is no additional charge for meals.

MISCELLANEOUS

Group accident and sickness insurance is available to students through an arrangement with the Mutual Benefit Health and Accident Association. This insurance is supplementary to the college health service and details concerning it are published prior to the opening of each fall semester.
Shorthand and typewriting when elected concurrently, are considered as one full course for which the regular single course fee of $50 per semester is charged; when either shorthand or typewriting is elected singly the semester charge is $25.

In Chemistry courses, students are required to pay for all apparatus broken or lost. A chemistry breakage deposit of $5.00 per course is required. The unused balance of this deposit is refunded.

For the use of electrical facilities beyond those installed in dormitory rooms extra charges will be levied in accordance with rates established by the Superintendent of Buildings.

Financial Aid awards other than for work or loans, are creditable against tuition.

Unless an exception has been made by the College Treasurer, no student other than transfer students will be granted a degree until he has paid to the college the equivalent of eight semesters full tuition.

PAYMENT OF BILLS

Regulations under which college bills must be paid are established by the Board of Trustees, and the College Treasurer is charged with the duty of impartially enforcing these regulations. Unless payment is made in exact accordance with the Treasurer's specific understanding with the student, the regulations require that the student be excluded from classes until payment is made and that a fine of two dollars be imposed for neglecting to arrange with the Treasurer prior to the date due for a plan of payment. Students excluded from classes under this rule for longer than ten days will be suspended from college for the remainder of the semester. Concerning college bills students and parents must deal directly with the College Treasurer. No other officer of the college has any authority over collection of student bills.

The tuition fee and the board deposit must be paid in advance. No student is permitted to register or attend classes until these charges have been paid. Students permitted to take less than a full program must make advanced payment at the rate of $50 for each semester course. No formal bill is issued for these payments. This catalog statement constitutes notice that the payments must be made in advance. The Treasurer cannot permit deferred payment of tuition fees or board deposit.

The fee for extra courses beyond the normal load of five courses is charged on the semester bill at the rate of $50 per semester course.

Shortly after the opening of each term a bill covering various items is issued and becomes due on a designated date about two weeks later. The bill includes charges for room, board (if at a college dining hall), and the Student Activities Fee. Deduction is made for any prepayments on items charged.

While the Treasurer cannot permit deferred payment of tuition fees at the beginning of a term, he can at his discretion grant partial extension for a brief period on the semester bills. Students needing such extension must make arrangements with the Treasurer prior to the due date designated on the bill.

REFUNDS

In the case of voluntary withdrawal of students in the medical technology and nursing programs during their period of professional training, refunds will be made on an individual basis.

To all other students, in case of voluntary withdrawal, a refund of tuition and room rent is made according to the following:

From Registration Day until the expiration of two weeks .......................................................... 50% refunded
Between two and four weeks .......................... 25% refunded
After four weeks .......................................................... No refund

Refund of payment made for board to a student who withdraws either voluntarily or involuntarily, will be made at the rate of $9.00 per week for the uncompleted part of the term.

Whenever a student is required to withdraw because of unsatisfactory conduct or scholarship, no refund, other than for board, will be made.
FINANCIAL AID

Colby College has traditionally taken pride in the number of its students with limited financial resources who have been assisted in receiving a college education. Not a few of the most distinguished alumni of this college received scholarship aid and worked their way through their four years. Colby annually distributes financial aid in excess of $50,000 in the form of scholarships, Woodman grants and college employment. The amount given in the first two categories represent the cash income from invested funds given for this very purpose by generous individuals and organizations throughout Colby’s long history. Recipients, therefore, are definitely under a moral obligation to fulfill the expectations of these unseen benefactors.

A student needing financial help should write to the Dean of Men or the Dean of Women asking for a copy of the bulletin entitled Information on Financial Aid. This bulletin explains all our different forms of aid and outlines the procedure to be followed by the applicant.

Employment in the college consists of work in the library, in several academic departments and administrative offices, in dining room and kitchen service and in miscellaneous assignments. Prospective students applying for financial aid who are willing to accept employment may so designate on the financial aid application form.
CURRICULUM

LANGUAGES, LITERATURES, AND ARTS
SOCIAL SCIENCE
SCIENCES
HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION
NURSING AND MEDICAL TECHNOLOGY
Curriculum 1950-1951

The description of courses in the following pages is classified by divisions, and sub-classified by subjects in the following order:

Division of Languages, Literatures, and Arts
  Bibliography, Greek, Latin, English, Fine Arts, Music, French, German, Spanish

Division of Social Sciences
  Social Science, Business Administration, Economics, Sociology, Education, Psychology, History, Government, Philosophy, Religion

Division of Science
  Biology, Chemistry, Geology, Mathematics, Physics

Division of Health and Physical Education
  Physical Education

Division of Nursing and Medical Technology
  Nursing, Medical Technology

Courses as announced are subject to withdrawal at the discretion of the college administration.

Odd and even numbers designate courses offered during the first and second semesters, respectively; a course available for election either semester is indicated by "e" following the numeral: e.g., 7e.

Unless otherwise restricted any course may be elected by a student with the stated prerequisite.

Year-courses are designated by a hyphen: e.g., 1-2. A year-course extends throughout the college year, and may not be dropped at mid-year without loss of credit, nor can it be entered at any time except at the beginning of the year. In a year-course the mark recorded at mid-year is tentative and merely indicates the student's standing at the time. The end-of-the-year mark is the only finally recorded mark for the course, and no credit is given until that final mark is recorded.

Two closely related half-year courses are designated by two numbers separated by a comma: e.g., 1, 2. Special permission is usually required to take the second of such courses. The first of such two courses may, at the discretion of the department, be designated as an E course, meaning that a student whose mark is between 50 and 59 in the first course may make up the deficiency by passing the second course in the immediately following semester.

Independent semester courses are designated by a single number: e.g., 1.

[] Brackets indicate that the course will not be offered in 1950–51.

* An asterisk indicates that the course will probably not be offered in 1951–52.

† A dagger indicates that the course will probably be offered in 1951–52.

Except as otherwise designated in the description of a particular course each semester-course carries three semester hours of credit, and each year-course carries six semester hours of credit wherever the credit-hour system is used.

Schedule of hours and rooms, for courses listed in this section of the catalog will be available at the Recorder's office after May 1, 1950.

Mr. Comparetti
[8. OPERA FORUM]

The study of famous representative operas, operatic history, and techniques.
Prerequisite: Music 1–2

Note: Qualified students will be granted credit for one half-course (equivalent to one of the forty courses required for graduation) for each block of three semesters of satisfactory participation in glee club, orchestra, or band, in addition to a first year (two semesters) of trial period without credit. Because graduation requirements are now in terms of courses and half-courses, not semester hours, all music credits must be in blocks of three semesters, since each semester’s participation in the musical organizations is regarded as equal only to one-third of a half-course.

Total credit for musical activities is limited to the equivalent of one year-course, or two half-courses, regardless of the number of such activities in which the student participates.

Example: A student may be a satisfactory member of the glee club through all of his eight semesters in college. For the first two trial semesters he receives no credit. At the end of the fifth semester he is entitled to one-half course credit; at the end of the eighth semester he is entitled to another half-course credit, making total glee club credit of two half-courses, or one year-course. If he ceases participation in the activity short of five semesters, he receives no credit; nor is there any credit for the sixth and seventh semesters without completing the eighth.

The College offers opportunities for private instruction in piano, violin, viola, violoncello, and voice.

The Carnegie library of musical recordings is available to all students of the College; listening hours to be arranged.

Students desiring private instruction in piano are referred to Mr. Comparetti; in voice to Mrs. Edward J. Colgan, 11 Gilman Street; and in violin to Mr. Walter Habenicht.

Prerequisite: senior standing, or Sociology 1, 2

Mr. Morrow

EDUCATION AND PSYCHOLOGY

Professor Colgan; Associate Professor Smith; Assistant Professors Goulston and Gullbergh

The College, through this Department, has undertaken to provide for students to meet in full the minimum requirements established by the Maine State Department of Education for the First Provisional Professional Secondary Certificate. That certificate is granted to college graduates who have completed eighteen semester hours in psychology and education (no more than six of which may be in psychology).

Candidates for positions as Directors of Physical Education are required to obtain a special certificate; this requirement may be met by completing a year-course in biology or physiology and Physical Education 5, 6.

Students preparing for high school teaching should qualify in at least two subject fields; this may mean limiting the elections in any one subject to the minimum required for a major, and building up a second subject to approximate concentration. Both of these subjects should be such as are ordinarily taught in high schools. With respect to this and other professional factors, prospective teachers should, before the junior year, consult with the staff of this department.

Candidates for certification and recommendation would be well advised to consider the need for possessing markedly more than average endowments or acquirements in health, posture, voice, general appearance, physical and mental vigor, emotional stability, in the major personality traits and in scholarship. Special methods courses for prospective teachers may be included among the courses presented for certification. All teaching candidates must elect Education 3 and Psychology 14. Psychology 3 and 4 are required in certain states. No student will be permitted to elect more than two full courses (12 semester-hours) in education in any one year.

EDUCATION

1. HISTORY AND PHILOSOPHY OF EDUCATION

Modern education as the outcome of a long series of historic events in which present-day ideals, standards, methods, and philosophies of education have evolved. The work of the great educators and their contributions will be evaluated.

Prerequisite: junior standing

Mr. Gullbergh
2. PRINCIPLES OF SECONDARY EDUCATION

The social philosophy underlying the secondary school and its historical evolution; consideration of aims, functions, curriculum organization and current problems.
Prerequisite: junior standing Mr. Gullbergh

3. GENERAL METHODS OF JUNIOR-SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL TEACHING

Methods of classroom instruction and management; testing and marking; problems of the novice; observation of teaching in local schools; demonstration teaching in class.
Prerequisite: junior or senior standing Mr. Smith

4. EDUCATIONAL TESTS AND MEASURES

History of the measurement movement; essential elements of educational statistics; the uses of standard tests and scales; construction and use of informal objective tests; improved essay type; diagnostic values of objective-type testing.
Prerequisite: junior or senior standing Mr. Smith

5e. DIRECTED TEACHING IN JUNIOR-SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

A semester of teacher-apprenticeship, including observation of classroom procedures and actual teaching under supervision; conferences and reports. A course required in many states for certification. Offered each semester.
Prerequisite: senior standing, written recommendation of head of department of proposed teaching-subject, and special permission from instructor of this course. Additional time must be provided in student’s program for travel between campus and school. Enrolment in this course is restricted because of limited facilities. Mr. Smith

9, 10. PROBLEMS IN EDUCATION

Independent study of special problems in education. Intended for high ranking Seniors whose training and experience qualify them for the work.
Prerequisite: special permission and senior standing Messrs. Colgan and Smith
SPECIAL TEACHING METHODS

English 23, 24: The Teaching of English
French 22: Teaching French and Spanish in Secondary School
Mathematics 20: Teaching Mathematics in Secondary School
Physics 20: Teaching Science in Secondary School

Mrs. Smith
Mr. Strong
Miss Pinette
Mr. Brown

PSYCHOLOGY

Major requirements: Psychology 1, 2; 5, 6 or 7, 8; 9; and nine additional hours in psychology; Biology 1-2 or Sociology 1, 2. Psychology 21, 22 is required of Seniors planning to do graduate work in psychology. Note: courses in advanced physics, biology, and statistics, and a good reading knowledge of French and German will prove especially valuable for graduate study.

1. GENERAL PSYCHOLOGY

Human behavior and its physiological foundations; learning, memory, intelligence and its measurement; personality factors; effective adjustment to life. General biology is highly desirable as preparation for this course.
Prerequisite: sophomore standing, at least. This is an “E” course.

2. APPLIED PSYCHOLOGY

Applications of psychology to business, industry, personnel problems, criminology, psycho-pathology, medicine, and mental hygiene. Instead of this course, candidates for teaching certificates are advised to elect Psychology 14.
Prerequisite: Psychology 1
Messrs. Colgan and Gullbergh

3. PSYCHOLOGY OF CHILDHOOD

Genetic study of childhood from the prenatal period to adolescence; problems of adjustment to growth and to social environment. Observations of children; reports. Intended for students interested in teaching, social work, counseling, and parenthood.
Prerequisite: junior standing, at least; Psychology 1, except by special permission.
Mr. Goulston
4. PSYCHOLOGY OF ADOLESCENCE

A sequent of Psychology 3, with special emphasis on the psycho-physiological adjustments of adolescence, social relations, career motivations, and emotional balance. Individual case studies and reports.

Prerequisite: junior standing, at least; Psychology 1, except by special permission.

Mr. Goulston

The course will be conducted as a cooperative search, on the part of the instructors and students jointly, for a system of ethical principles adequate to deal with such topics as those listed above. Weekly readings, panel discussions, and lectures.

Prerequisite: junior standing, at least; and a grade of C or better in each of two year-courses from the offerings of two different departments in the Division of Social Sciences.

Messrs. Bixler, Clark, and Staff
13. AMERICAN THOUGHT

Prerequisite: junior standing, at least Mr. Bixler

[15. PHILOSOPHY OF RELIGION]

An analysis of the religious point of view and a consideration of some of the problems it has raised for outstanding thinkers from Plato to James.
Prerequisite: junior standing, at least

17, 18. PHILOSOPHY SEMINAR

Special topics chosen each year to meet the needs of philosophy majors.
Prerequisite: ordinarily a major in philosophy is required but specially qualified students not majoring in philosophy may sometimes be admitted with the consent of the instructor. Mr. Clark

RELIGION

Major requirements: Religion 1, 2, 3, 4 and at least four additional semester courses in Religion selected with the approval of the Head of Department.

1. OLD TESTAMENT LITERATURE

Stress on historical development, types of literature, contemporary culture and religious message.
Prerequisite: standing not higher than sophomore

2. EARLY CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

Books of the New Testament; historical background; Jesus, Paul and the early Church fathers.
Prerequisite: standing not higher than sophomore

3. RELIGIONS OF THE WORLD

Religions of Primitives, Egypt, Babylonia, Persia, India, China, and Japan.
Prerequisite: sophomore standing, at least
4. RELIGIONS OF THE WORLD

Judaism, Mohammedanism, Christianity; Slavic and Teutonic.
Prerequisite: sophomore standing, at least

[9. VARITIES OF RELIGIOUS PERSONALITIES]

A critical evaluation of the lives and work of many leaders, with particular reference to their beliefs, accomplishments, similarities, and differences, historical influence, and to the movements which bear their name.
Prerequisite: sophomore standing, at least

A study of the function and problems of modern Judaism, Roman Catholicism, and Protestantism in the United States today, with particular reference to their use of the Bible, their Theology, Anthropology, Social Philosophy. Occasional lectures by guest priests, ministers, and rabbis.
Prerequisite: sophomore standing, at least

DIVISION OF SCIENCE

Chairman: Professor Weeks

PRE-MEDICAL MAJOR

Students preparing for medical school usually take a specially arranged field of concentration called the pre-medical major. In addition to courses required of all students for graduation, this major requires the following specific courses: Chemistry 1, 2; 5, 6; 7, 8; 9, 10; Biology 1-2, 5, 6 or 7, 8; Physics 1, 2 or 3, 4; Mathematics 1, 2. All applicants for medical school are required to take the Medical Aptitude Test at some time preceding the completion of the college course.
Professor Gates; Assistant Professor McKey, ——, ——

Major requirements: Biology 1-2; 3, 4; 5, 6; 7, 8; 11. Students preparing for graduate study in biology should consult with the head of the department as to election of other science courses.

1-2. GENERAL BIOLOGY

An introductory course primarily concerned with backboned animals: digestion, circulation, respiration, excretion, chemical and nervous control, reproduction, development, with special reference to man and his place in nature, mitosis, meiosis, heredity. The macroscopic and microscopic anatomy of one backboned animal, the frog, and its development, is studied in the laboratory, as well as selected representatives of several invertebrate groups.

Each student will provide himself with a standard set of dissecting instruments (which may be purchased at the College Book Store), standard drawing paper, pencil and eraser.

Prerequisite: standing no higher than sophomore

Mr. Gates

3, 4. BOTANY

First Semester: anatomy and physiology of plants.
Second Semester: succession of plant forms from algae to flowering plants with main emphasis on reproduction and economic value.

Prerequisite: Biology 1-2; 3 is prerequisite for 4

5, 6. COMPARATIVE ANATOMY OF THE VERTEBRATES

The comparative anatomy and evolution of vertebrate animals.

Prerequisite: Biology 1, 2; 5 is prerequisite for 6.

7. MICROSCOPIC ANATOMY AND TECHNIQUE

A study of the fundamental tissues and organs of vertebrates, with consideration of laboratory methods of preparation, and practice with the paraffin method of embedding and sectioning of tissues, staining and mounting.

Prerequisite: Biology 1, 2
8. VERTEBRATE EMBRYOLOGY
A study of early vertebrate development with particular attention to the frog and chick. Consideration of the germ cells, maturation, cleavage, and early organography.
Prerequisite: Biology 1, 2

9. INVERTEBRATE ZOOLOGY
An introduction to the morphology, physiology, embryology, ecology, and economic importance of animals without backbones. (A summer course at some seashore laboratory may be substituted for Biology 9.) Enrollment limited by facilities.
Prerequisite: Biology 1–2. Messrs. Gates and McKey

10. MICROBIOLOGY
A study of yeasts, molds, and bacteria; their role in the living world, and their relation to man and his activities.
Prerequisite: Biology 1, 2; Chemistry 1, 2

11. EVOLUTION
Proofs, factors and causes of Evolution.
Prerequisite: permission of instructor

12. GENETICS
A study of the mechanism of heredity; its application to man and its social importance.
Prerequisite: Biology 1–2, and junior standing, at least
Mr. Gates

13, 14. BIOLOGY SEMINAR
Prerequisite: special permission
Mr. Gates

15. HUMAN PHYSIOLOGY
The physiology of the systems of the human body. Lectures and laboratory. In addition, visits to hospitals and other institutions.
Prerequisite: Biology 1–2 and Chemistry 1, 2
Mr. McKey
16. HUMAN ANATOMY

Lectures, assigned readings and visits to hospitals and other institutions. Laboratory work on the cat.
Prerequisite: Biology 1–2

Mr. McKey

Courses 15 and 16 are designed primarily for students majoring in Nursing or Medical Technology.

CHEMISTRY

Professor Weeks; Associate Professor Ray; Assistant Professor Jaquith

Professional Major

Requirements: Chemistry 1, 2, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12 and at least one of the more advanced courses. Physics 1, 2 or 3, 4. Mathematics 3, 4. Two years of German are recommended.

Non-Professional Major

Requirements: Chemistry 1, 2, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10. Other courses which will best suit the needs of the student should be selected in consultation with the head of the department.

1, 2. GENERAL CHEMISTRY

History, occurrence, distribution, preparation, properties, and uses of the elements and their principal compounds. Four semester hours of credit per semester.
Prerequisite: standing not higher than junior; 1 is prerequisite for 2

Mr. Weeks

5. QUALITATIVE ANALYSIS

The reactions and detection of the metallic and non-metallic ions and radicals, based upon the theory of ionization and mass action.
Prerequisite: Chemistry 1, 2

Mr. Jaquith

6. CHEMICAL PRINCIPLES

The fundamentals of theoretical chemistry, based upon quantitative measurements. The laboratory includes physical chemical measurements and some practice in semimicro qualitative analysis.
Prerequisite: Chemistry 5

Mr. Jaquith
7, 8. QUANTITATIVE ANALYSIS

Theoretical and practical instruction in quantitative analysis as illustrated by selected gravimetric, volumetric, and electro-chemical methods. Three hours of laboratory work per week in addition to those regularly scheduled are required of students majoring in chemistry.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 5, 6 (either passed or elected concurrently) Mr. Ray

9, 10. ORGANIC CHEMISTRY

The preparation, reactions, properties, and structure of the aliphatic, carbocyclic, and heterocyclic compounds. Four semester hours of credit per semester.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 1, 2; 9 is prerequisite for 10 Mr. Weeks

11, 12. PHYSICAL CHEMISTRY

The theories, fundamental laws, and methods of physical chemistry.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 5, 6; and 7, 8. Math 3, 4 either passed or elected concurrently Mr. Ray

[13, 14. APPLIED CHEMISTRY]

The more important applications of organic, inorganic, and physical chemistry to industrial processes.

Prerequisite: Chemistry 5, 6, 9, 10

15, 16. CHEMISTRY SEMINARS

Section A Analytical Chemistry Mr. Ray
Section B Physical Chemistry Mr. Ray
Section C Organic Chemistry Mr. Weeks
Section D Inorganic Chemistry Mr. Jaquith

Conferences, library and experimental work in one of the fields of Chemistry indicated above.

Prerequisites: Chemistry 1, 2, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12 (either passed or taken concurrently)
GEOLOGY AND GEOGRAPHY

Associate Professor Koons, Mr. Rush, ——

Major Requirements: Geology 1-2, 11, 12, 40, and three additional semester courses from the Department listings. Students preparing for professional work in Geology should elect at least one year in mathematics, physics, chemistry, and biology early in the college career. A reading knowledge of French and German is required of doctoral candidates at all graduate schools.

GEOLOGY

1-2. PHYSICAL AND HISTORICAL GEOLOGY

The topographic forms of the earth’s surface and the agencies which produce them: rivers, subsurface water, glaciers, winds, waves and currents; volcanism and the forces of crustal deformation. The history and structure of the earth and the record of life in the geologic past. Fossils and their significance in dating the geologic record. Local field trips.
Prerequisite: none

Mr. Koons

11, 12. MINERALOGY AND PETROLOGY

Prerequisite: Geology 1-2

Mr. Rush

23. MAP INTERPRETATION

Systematic study of the origin, history and classification of landforms, based on study of the topographic maps of the United States.
Prerequisite: Geology 1-2

Mr. Koons

24. PHYSIOGRAPHY OF THE UNITED STATES

The geologic structure, geomorphic history, and physiographic divisions of the United States.
Prerequisite: Geology 1-2

Mr. Koons
25. PALEONTOLOGY

Introduction to the study of fossils as clues to conditions in the geologic past, their classification, and their bearing on the theory of Evolution.
Prerequisite: Geology 1–2

26. ADVANCED HISTORICAL GEOLOGY

Study of sedimentary rocks and their history, development of the North American continent, index fossils and their significance.
Prerequisites: Geology 1–2, 25

[31. GEOLOGIC FIELD METHODS]

Construction of topographical and geological maps; interpretation of aerial photographs; preparation of brief reports.
Prerequisites: Geology 1–2, 11, 12 taken or elected concurrently

[32. STRUCTURAL GEOLOGY]

Analysis of rock structures and their significance; structural problems; the structure of the Waterville region.
Prerequisites: Geology 1–2, 11, 12 taken or elected concurrently

[33. GLACIAL GEOLOGY]

Mechanics of ice; history and deposits of the Glacial period, with special attention to features in Maine.
Prerequisite: Geology 1–2

35. ADVANCED PHYSICAL GEOLOGY

Study of the geology of continents and ocean basins, regional structures, crustal forces, and theories of earth origin. Regular reports and discussions.
Prerequisites: Geology 1–2, 24, 31, and junior standing, at least
40. APPLIED GEOLOGY

Geological science in modern life; mining, quarrying, geophysical problems; ground water, soil conservation; structural problems of dams and tunnels. Regular reports and discussions.

Prerequisites: Geology 1-2, 11, 12 and senior standing

Mr. Rush

GEOGRAPHY

1. METEOROLOGY

Study of the physical properties of the atmosphere, the origin and classification of weather types, air mass analysis, and principles of prediction.

Prerequisite: none

2. CLIMATOLOGY

Study of climatic zones of the world, their origin, classification, and significance in the environment.

Prerequisite: none

3, 4. GEOGRAPHIC REGIONS OF THE WORLD

Study of the geographical regions of the world, as defined by climate, soil, and topography. Impact of the environment on man, and his adaptations.

Prerequisite: Geology 1, taken or elected concurrently

[5. GEOGRAPHY OF EUROPE AND SOUTH AMERICA]

The geographic framework of Europe and Latin America; environmental zones, and man's adaptations; the political and economic consequences of geography.

Prerequisite: Geology 1, taken or elected concurrently

[6. GEOGRAPHY OF ASIA]

The geographic framework of Asia; environmental zones and man's adaptations; the political and economic consequences of geography.

Prerequisite: Geology 1
[7. PRINCIPLES OF ECONOMIC GEOGRAPHY]

The distribution, exploitation, and conservation of natural resources, and their influence on national economic policies. Prerequisite: sophomore standing, at least

[8. PRINCIPLES OF POLITICAL GEOGRAPHY]

Geographical factors in politics, including natural resources, means of transportation, access to the sea, climate, and topography, and their influence on national and international development. Prerequisite: sophomore standing, at least

MATHEMATICS

Professor Combellack; Assistant Professor Pinette; Mr. Stanley

Major requirements effective with the class of 1953: Mathematics 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12. For the classes of 1951 and 1952: Mathematics 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 9, 10.

01, 02. BASIC COLLEGE MATHEMATICS

Intermediate and college algebra, elements of plane trigonometry, introduction to plane analytic geometry. Students who elect this course and wish to elect further courses in mathematics must consult the Head of the Department. Prerequisite: one year or a year and a half of high school algebra and one year of plane geometry; 01 is prerequisite for 02. Students who have passed two years of high school algebra are not eligible to elect this course. Mr. Stanley

1, 2. ELEMENTARY FUNCTIONS

College algebra, plane trigonometry, plane analytic geometry, and introduction to calculus. Prerequisite: a year and a half or two years of high school algebra and one year of plane geometry; 1 is prerequisite for 2. Students who have passed 01 are not allowed credit for 1.
3, 4. ELEMENTARY DIFFERENTIAL AND INTEGRAL CALCULUS

Differentiation of functions; maxima and minima; related rates; velocity and acceleration; parametric and polar equations; partial derivatives; total differential; methods of integration with applications to geometry, physics, and mechanics, using rectangular and polar coordinates.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 1, 2; 3 is prerequisite for 4

Mr. Combellack and Miss Pinette

5, 6. ADVANCED CALCULUS

The more advanced topics of calculus, including detailed study of continuity and related theorems, hyperbolic functions, maxima and minima in three dimensions, Jacobians, curvilinear coordinates, line and surface integrals, infinite series, special definite and improper integrals, Beta Function, Gamma Function, complex variable, and elliptic functions and integrals.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 3, 4; 5 is prerequisite for 6

Mr. Combellack

7, 8. DIFFERENTIAL EQUATIONS AND INTRODUCTORY APPLIED MATHEMATICS

Solutions of elementary differential equations, followed by an introduction to selected topics in applied mathematics such as solutions of differential equations by means of infinite series, Bessel Functions, Fourier Series, and vector analysis.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 3, 4; 7 is prerequisite for 8

Mr. Combellack

† [9, 10. GEOMETRY]

Analytic geometry of two and three dimensions; projective geometry.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 3, 4; 9 is prerequisite for 10

[11, 12. ADVANCED AND HIGHER ALGEBRA]

Theory of equations; determinants; matrices; the concept of a group, a ring, and a field; linear transformations; bilinear, quadratic, and Hermitian forms.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 3, 4; 11 is prerequisite for 12
17, 18. INTRODUCTION TO MATHEMATICAL STATISTICS

Frequency distributions; large-sample theory; small-sample theory; Tchebycheff’s Inequality; confidence limits; statistical design.
Prerequisite: Mathematics 1, 2; 17 is prerequisite for 18
Mr. Stanley

20. TEACHING OF MATHEMATICS IN THE SECONDARY SCHOOLS

History of mathematics and a consideration of its purposes and values in the secondary school; study of school texts; demonstration teaching by each student.
Prerequisite: Mathematics 3, 4
Miss Pinette

21, 22. SPECIAL TOPICS

Content varied to meet the needs and interests of individual students; such topics as: theory of functions of a real or complex variable, theory of numbers, theory of groups.
Prerequisite: Mathematics 5, 6 or 7, 8, or by permission
Miss Pinette and Mr. Combellack

PHYSICS

Professor Brown, ---

Major requirements: Physics 1, 2 or 3, 4; and 5, 6, 7, 9, 10, and 12; Mathematics 1, 2, 3, 4; and Chemistry 1, 2. Students concentrating in physics are advised to elect additional courses in physics to provide an adequate concentration in one particular branch of the subject. Students preparing for graduate study in physics should consult department head as early as possible.

1, 2. ELEMENTARY PHYSICS

A survey of the basic phenomena of mechanics, heat, sound, electricity, and light; selected topics in modern physics. Restricted to students who received no admission credit in physics. Students who do sufficiently well will be permitted to elect advanced courses in physics. Four semester hours of credit per semester.
Prerequisite: none. Whichever course is taken first is an “E” course.
3, 4. GENERAL PHYSICS

A quantitative study of mechanics, heat, sound, electricity, light, and modern physics. Four semester hours of credit per semester.
Prerequisite: none. Whichever course is taken first is an "E" course.

[5. MECHANICS]

Statics, kinematics and dynamics with special emphasis on practical applications.
Prerequisite: Physics 3, 4; and Mathematics 3 (either passed or elected concurrently)

[6. HEAT AND THERMODYNAMICS]

A thorough study of heat phenomena and elementary thermodynamics, with their applications to practical problems.
Prerequisite: Physics 3, 4; Mathematics 4 (either passed or elected concurrently)

7. OPTICS

The more important topics of geometrical and physical optics; optical instruments, interference, diffraction, polarization, and spectroscopy.
Prerequisite: Physics 3, 4

[8. SOUND]

A study of the character of sound, the physical basis of music, acoustics of rooms, and acoustical apparatus.
Prerequisite: Physics 3, 4; and Mathematics 4 (either passed or elected concurrently)

9-10. ELECTRICITY AND MAGNETISM

The principles of direct and alternating currents and their more important applications.
Prerequisite: Physics 3, 4 and Mathematics 4, 3
12. ELEMENTARY MODERN PHYSICS

A study of the development of modern theories of the structure of matter; thermionic and photoelectric effects and their applications in electronic devices.

Prerequisite: Physics 3, 4

†[13-14. ELECTRONICS]

An introduction to theoretical and experimental electronics with its application to vacuum tubes, instruments and apparatus.

Prerequisite: Mathematics 3, 4 and Physics 9, 10 or equivalent

Mr. Brown

20. TEACHING OF SCIENCE IN THE SECONDARY SCHOOL

Consideration of special problems in the teaching of sciences usually untouched in science and education courses. Although physics is considered particularly, material is sufficiently general to apply to the teaching of any science course.

Topics include: periodical literature, visual aid, selection of textbooks, application of unit method, integration of class and laboratory, budget and inventory.

Prerequisite: eight semester hours of physics, six additional hours of another laboratory science, and an education course taken previously or concurrently.

Mr. Brown

21, 22. SPECIAL TOPICS

Research problems to meet the needs and interests of individual students.

Prerequisite: junior standing, at least, and permission of instructor

Staff
The College places special emphasis upon all measures and provisions that will promote and maintain the health and physical efficiency of its students. The immediate responsibility for this function is delegated to the Division of Health and Physical Education.

Health Service

The College Physician maintains at the College Infirmary daily office hours at which time all students may consult him. The College operates infirmaries for men and women with resident nurses under the direction of the College Physician, and has a consulting medical staff who may be called by the College Physician in cases of serious illness.

Every student is given a careful health examination soon after his arrival at the beginning of each year, and advised periodic checkups whenever necessary. It is a college requirement that each regularly enrolled student file a health statement and a physician’s certificate. It is desirable that all remediable defects be corrected before the student enters college.

The College Physician will advise each student with physical disabilities or limitations as to the proper program for his particular case.

Physical Education for Men

The Physical Education program for men is divided into three major phases: required physical education, intercollegiate athletics and intramural athletics.

All freshmen and sophomores are required to participate in organized physical education classes at least three hours a week. Selection of a regular section must be made at the time of course elections. A regulation uniform is required for students enrolled in the program, consisting of trunks, shirt, warm-up suit and rubber soled shoes. Uniforms are secured through the College Bookstore, and each student is responsible for providing himself with the necessary equipment prior to the first meeting of the regular classes.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION FOR WOMEN

All freshmen and sophomores are required to attend three classes each week in Physical Education. Each student may select her activities after she has included the departmental requirement of a team sport, an individual sport, and dance.

Juniors and seniors may participate in all physical education activities for credit in the Women’s Athletic Association.

All participation is subject to the approval of the College Physician.

Fall Season activities: archery, field hockey, and tennis; Winter Season: badminton, basketball, body mechanics, dance, varied sports, volleyball, tournaments, and winter sports; Spring Season: archery, dance, softball, and tennis. Sophomores may substitute one hour per week of riding or bowling during appropriate seasons.

PROFESSIONAL HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION

The Department offers professional training to those students who are interested in preparing for positions as teacher-coach or Physical Education instructor in public and private schools. The courses not only embody training in the coaching of athletic sports but also emphasize training in Health and Physical Education for students who are interested in securing a non-professional certificate. The six hours of credit for these courses, together with six hours in Biology, will meet the requirements for the initial Certificate in Physical Education issued by the Maine State Department of Education.
5. THE ORGANIZATION AND TEACHING OF HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION ACTIVITIES

The practice and theory of those activities included in the program of health service, health instruction, intramural athletics, and physical education in the modern school program.

Prerequisite: special permission and junior standing, at least Mr. Loebs and Miss Marchant

6. THE ADMINISTRATION OF HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Administrative policies, practices, teaching methods, and standards pertaining to the execution of a modern program of health, physical education, and recreation in the public schools.

Prerequisite: special permission and junior standing, at least Mr. Loebs and Miss Marchant

DIVISION OF NURSING AND MEDICAL TECHNOLOGY

School of Nursing

Assistant Professor Pearl R. Fisher, R.N., Acting Director

"Today," says Dr. Esther Lucile Brown, of the Russell Sage Foundation, "the nurse probably ranks close to the teacher as a social necessity." Recognizing the importance of this fact, the Board of Trustees established the Colby School of Nursing in 1943 to prepare young women as professional nurses qualified not only in the techniques and skills of nursing, but as socially competent individuals capable of assuming leadership among their co-workers and in the community at large. The curriculum, upon the successful completion of which a student is granted the degree of Bachelor of Arts and a Diploma in Nursing, provides a cultural and social background to basic nursing education carefully integrated with professional education and experience, and preparation for state examinations for certification as Registered Nurse.
Prior to the twenty-nine months' period of professional education there are three college years of academic work during which cultural, social and scientific courses provide for a foundation upon which clinical and other professional training are based. These courses satisfy in part the requirement for a baccalaureate degree.

Major requirements: Chemistry 1, 2, 9; Biology 1–2, 10, 15, 16; Psychology 1, 2; Sociology 1–2; and one additional semester's work in Psychology or Sociology.

During the semesters they are in attendance at Colby, students are subject to the same academic, financial and social regulations and responsibilities as all other students.

For the period of Clinical Education and Practice the expenses will be approximately $325 distributed as follows: Tuition $100; Board and Room during the eight-week pre-clinical period $75; Uniforms and Fees $150.

Professional Courses

The following professional courses are required of and open only to students majoring in nursing; they are given not at Colby College but at the appropriate hospitals or public health organizations. They vary in length, and credits for their successful completion are not measured in the usual standard of three semester hours per course.

3. PROFESSIONAL ADJUSTMENTS (I)

Introduction to professional problems for beginning students.

4. INTRODUCTION TO NURSING ARTS

Elementary techniques and procedures used in nursing care. Classroom demonstrations and practice.

10. NUTRITION (I)

Nutrition, foods, and cookery.

11. NUTRITION (II)

Diet therapy. A study of diets as therapeutic agents.
20. INTRODUCTION TO MEDICAL SCIENCES
A survey of the causative factors in illness.

21, 22. PHARMACOLOGY AND THERAPEUTICS
A study of the source, action, and uses of drugs.

100. GENERAL MEDICAL AND SURGICAL NURSING
A survey of the field of general medicine and surgery, including aetiology, symptomatology, treatment, and nursing care. Lectures, classroom demonstrations, and supervised experience.

110. NURSING OF ALLERGIES AND DERMATOLOGICAL NURSING
A survey of these fields, including etiology, symptomatology, treatment, and nursing care.

111. COMMUNICABLE DISEASE NURSING
Etiology, symptomatology, treatment and nursing care in the communicable diseases of children and adults.

120. NURSING IN SURGICAL SPECIALTIES
A survey of the fields of urology, gynecology, orthopedics, ophthalmology, and laryngology, including etiology, symptomatology, treatment, and nursing care.

121. OPERATING ROOM TECHNIQUE
Lectures, demonstrations, and conferences on operating room techniques and procedures.

130. PEDIATRIC NURSING
A survey of the field of pediatrics, including normal child development. The nursing care of the sick child.

140. OBSTETRICAL NURSING
Principles and practices of obstetrics, and the nursing care of the obstetrical patient. Preparation of formulas.
150. COMMUNITY HEALTH PROBLEMS
A survey of modern community organizations, with special reference to community health.

160. PSYCHIATRIC NURSING
A survey of the field of psychiatry and the nursing care of the psychiatric patient.

170. PROFESSIONAL ADJUSTMENTS (II)
Advanced professional problems for senior students.

180. HISTORY OF NURSING
Its development from ancient to modern times.

DEPARTMENT OF MEDICAL TECHNOLOGY
Julius Gottlieb, M.D., Director
Mrs. Helen M. Smith, Adviser

This department was established to supplement the regular cultural and scientific college curriculum with training in the special skills and advanced studies necessary to prepare a young woman for a career as a clinical laboratory technician or medical technologist, competent to perform the innumerable chemical, microscopic, bacteriologic, and serologic tests used in the diagnosis and treatment of disease. The successful completion of the entire curriculum qualifies a student for the degree of Bachelor of Arts and prepares her for passing the Registry Examination of the American Society of Clinical Pathologists. The "M.T." certificate of the Society is universally accepted by hospitals and medical associations as proof of competence in this field.

Prior to the period of professional training there are three years of academic work during which cultural, social and scientific courses provide for a foundation upon which clinical and other professional training are based.

Major requirements: Chemistry 1, 2 and Mathematics 1, 2 in freshman year; Biology 1–2, Chemistry 5, 6 or Physics 4 in sophomore year; Biology 15, 10, Chemistry 8, 9, and Psychology 1, 2, in junior year.
The period of clinical education will be distributed as follows: Three Months will be spent at the Central Maine General Hospital laboratories, Lewiston, for intensive laboratory training in clinical laboratory methods under the direction of Dr. Julius Gottlieb and staff. Subjects: Urinalysis; Sputum, Feces, Gastric Contents, Spinal Fluids, Basic Metabolism Determinations; Hematology; Bacteriology, Serology and Parasitology; Clinical Chemistry; Histological Technique; lectures and discussions in interpretation of laboratory findings. Three months will be spent at the Joseph H. Pratt Diagnostic Hospital laboratories, Boston. Subjects: Advanced Hematology; Advanced Clinical Chemistry; Advanced Bacteriology. Six months will be spent in training in applied Medical Technology in laboratory methods at the Central Maine General Hospital laboratories, Lewiston, or other Associated Hospital laboratories, under the guidance of Dr. Julius Gottlieb and technical staff.

During the semesters they are in attendance at Colby students are subject to the same academic, financial, and social regulations and responsibilities as all regular students. For the twelve month period of clinical education the total expense will be approximately $150 in excess of that for a normal nine-month college year.

SPECIAL NOTE

Beginning with the class admitted in September, 1950, Colby College will accept no new students in Nursing or Medical Technology. After the students now enrolled in those programs have completed the course, it will be withdrawn from the curriculum.
