in·i·ti·a·tive

(i-nish-ee-uh-tiv) n.

an introductory act or step; leading action; one's personal, responsible decision; enterprise and determination.

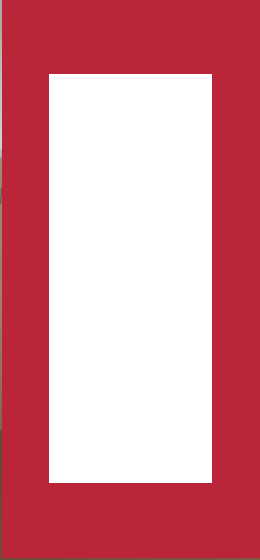

Each year the Colby Fund supports the vital initiatives that span virtually every part of our students' educational experience, from scholarships and financial aid to athletics, clubs, and faculty support. The Colby Fund is essential in making the full measure of a Colby education available to all students.

But initiatives take initiative—from each and every one of us. Please take a moment to make your gift to the Colby Fund. You'll be initiating a world of change.
