Exercise, Work, Health.

A WORD TO FARMERS' GIRLS.—In some recent words of encouragement to farmers' boys—boys how we love them, and why should not we, since half the hopes of the country rest in them, and we have a prodigiously long row of our own—

With regard to boys, all would agree that they should grow up healthy, strong, robust, broad-shouldered, and deep-chested, inhaling at least a quart of heaven's elixir at every breath, and that any education which does not produce this result is miserably defective.

But we have not yet learned why the girls do not need very much the same things—good health, strong mind, and kind heart.

Knowledge too, is as necessary for your sex as for ours. In addition to your school education, read. Do not read too long at once. Read sitting erect.

To say that woman should be as reverent as man, as conciliating, as kind-hearted, and as large-hearted, would sound strangely.

PARAGRAPHS.—The Petersburg (Va.) Express commends the President's rejection of Powers' status of America.

What does the editor think of that coat of arms of Virginia and the Star-Spangled Banner? Is it not an "insidious document"?

SOLEMNITY OF THE OLDEN TIME.

The schools—the schools of other days! These were the schools for me; When in a flock and trousers dressed, I started my A. B. C.

An Appeal for Kansas.

The slave power has been encroaching upon the freedom of the North ever since we were a nation; but it has done this with fearful rapid strides since the annexation of Texas, in 1845.

My friends, the terrible struggle still goes on. While we are talking here in safety, men, guilty of no other crime than defending their homes, which the law would not protect, are starving in prison, under the false charge of treason.

who came from the North or the South, and they required no man to give a pledge what he would do or say concerning the introduction of slavery.

That was a mainly a free course so far as it went; was it not? Well, that constituted the whole essence of the free soil emigrants in Kansas.

EARLY RISING.—Finally, it is taken for granted by early risers, that early rising is a virtuous habit, and that they are all a most meritorious and prosperous set of people.

of the hypocrite, saying his prayers so early in the morning, before those are awake whom he intends to cheat and swindle before he goes to bed.

And what is the response to their cry! Lo, the Legislature of Texas votes to give $50,000 to help Missouri ruffians to convert Kansas into Slave States.

How the President and Vice President are Elected.

The following is a summary of the constitutional requirements and the acts of Congress upon the election of President and Vice President of the United States.

WHAT WILL FREMONT DO FOR KANSAS?—To this question that able and truly conservative paper, the Providence Journal, makes the following reply:

CHINESE SUGAR CASE.—At the Sagadahoc Agricultural and Horticultural Society, held at Topsham last week, Prof. Cleveland of Brunswick, exhibited a specimen of the cane, raised in his own garden.

of the hypocrite, saying his prayers so early in the morning, before those are awake whom he intends to cheat and swindle before he goes to bed.

The Duty of Voting.

Let the American people take warning from this example! It has been too much the practice of late years for the quiet, the indolent, the busy or the money-making to stay away from the polls.

CHINESE SUGAR CASE.—At the Sagadahoc Agricultural and Horticultural Society, held at Topsham last week, Prof. Cleveland of Brunswick, exhibited a specimen of the cane, raised in his own garden.

and with as much ease as Indian corn, producing an article of molasses as good as that now selling for sixty cents per gallon, in our market, and doubtless, sugar of an equally good quality.

BURNING OUT A WELL.—An Albany correspondent tells us how his friend Bill accomplished a New York Dry Goods Drummer lately in these diggings.

Bill and Drummer were riding along, and stopped to get some water at a newly located farm in the lower part of Benton County.

'Never,—nor did I ever hear of such a thing I would like to have it explained.'

Nothing simpler, says Bill. Throughout this section of the country the soil is strongly impregnated with highly inflammable salts, and all we have to do when a well is needed, is to dig a hole a foot deep and four feet square at the top; wet the ground around the surface to keep the fire from spreading; fill the hole with pine-knots, set fire to the knots, and in a week's time you have a first rate well.

'Do tell!' exclaimed the wondering Go-thamite.

'Yes,' said Bill, warming with the subject, 'the fire burns straight down, just the size of the hole at the top; it burns slowly, and thus bakes the sides as hard as a brick, and continues to burn until it reaches water, when, of course, it ceases to burn.'

But, says the Drummer, 'I should think the mass of ashes and cinders would extinguish the fire long before the water is reached.'

'A very natural conclusion,' replied Bill; but this is the strangest of the whole process, there is no ashes. I am not chemist enough to explain it, but Professor Drummy, of the University, attributes it to the volatile principle contained in the inflammable salts.

FEEL WHAT YOU SAY.—However highly gifted he may otherwise be, it is a valid objection to a preacher, that he does not feel what he says; that spoils more than his oratory.

MUCH OF PULPIT POWER, under God, depends on that—admits of that explanation, or of one allied to it. They make others feel who feel themselves.

PURIFYING AND SOFTENING HARD WATER.—Dr. Clark, a distinguished English chemist, is the originator of a process for softening water, applicable to water from chalk strata, water from new redations, and waters which contain carbonate of lime in solution from any strata.

FARMERS CONFERRING DIGNITY.—A recent gathering of the Agricultural Society of Connecticut, the President introduced the speaker of the occasion, a professor Orange Judd, of the American Agriculturist, &c., &c.

MASS. MOLASSES.—We are indebted to J. P. C. Hyde, Esq., of Newton Center, for a specimen of molasses which he has manufactured from the Chinese Sugar Cane, grown upon his farm in that town.

PRINTING.—In Oct. and Nov.—In 1846, the Democrats elected their candidate for Consul Commissioner at the State election in October by a majority of 2,620 votes.

AGENTS FOR THE MAIL.

V. P. PALMER, American Newspaper Agent, is Agent for the Eastern Mail at Waterville...

Letter from Portland.

Messrs. MARRAM & WING.—After writing you Wednesday we visited the Reform School. It is situated about two miles from the city...

Mr. Burleigh took the first premium of $4 on drawing oxen; the second, of $5 on two-year-old steers; and the third, of $4 on matched oxen.

THE STATE FAIR.—None of the reports of committees, in official form, are yet published. In various papers we find flying notices of this and that...

THE GREAT NATIONAL MATCH.—The great national match between Fremont and Buchanan is hardly more conspicuous in the public eye, just now, than the match of last week at Boston...

THE CONFLUENCE OF MOSCOW.—With an interesting and amusing accompaniment of music and dancing, the Russian Exhibition opened at Appleton Hall...

Accident.—The reported injury to Mrs. Partridge, at the State Fair, from a kick by the mare's horse...

OUR TABLE.

THE POETRY OF THE EAST. By William Somersville Alger, Boston: Whittemore, Niles & Hall.

This will be a very acceptable volume to the scholar interested in Oriental literature, while at the same time it will prove attractive to the general reader.

A SIGN.—One of the signs that trade is not so very dull, or money so very hard, or Waterville so badly "wilted," is seen in the large and choice stocks some of our traders are exhibiting.

SWEETSTAKES.—Messrs. George E. Shores and H. C. Burleigh, who entries at the State Fair we mentioned last week, seem to have left a stronger mark upon the exhibition than we expected.

THE TEACHERS' INSTITUTE for this county is now in session at this place, with a good number in attendance.

Judge Parker, of the Cambridge Law School, and Prof. Felton have been making Fremont speeches in Roxbury. The Boston Journal says: "Prof. F. during his remarks stated that he was a Webster Whig, so much so that in 1848 he voted for Mr. Webster in preference to Gen. Taylor."

WHAT THE SOUTH DEMANDS.—The N. O. Delta makes the following demand for the South, which the supporters of James Buchanan in this section will please make a note of.

Mrs. STOWE and the MAINE LAW.—Mrs. Stowe has been invited to attend a public meeting in Derby, Eng., and in her reply declining the same on account of the absence of her husband...

ONE OF THE DENTISTS!—The Albany Knickerbocker says: "A fellow not long since called on Dr. Brockway, the distinguished dentist, and desired to have some cavities in his teeth filled up."

FREE SCHOOL TRIUMPH.—There has been in operation since 1848, in Jefferson county, Va., a system of free-schools, at which every child in the country can receive an education for a small amount.

OXENBROOK BUREAUS.—We hear of fresh triumphs every day from the use of the Oxenbrooke Bureaus. This case is affecting on every side are without precedent.

The orders to clear the space in front of the hall has been repeatedly given, and the propriety of the order had been fully shown.

THE CORNER'S JURY in the case of Mr. Frazer, lost overboard from the steamer Sanford some weeks since, have returned a verdict against the officers of the boat of gross negligence of duty in not having made an attempt at rescue...

THE TRUTH CIVILIZER.—It is told of a late missionary to Turkey, that finding his converts proscribed in their relations as business men, by the authorities of the church which they had left, he borrowed ten thousand dollars...

THE YEARLY EXTENSION of these colonies along a vast extent of coast, their internal peace, order, happiness and wealth, no less than the powerful protection they were able to afford, has made their alliance courted by the natives...

SOLD.—Have you heard that story about number 288? inquired the facetious Mr. C., addressing his fun-loving neighbor B. "No, I have not," replied B. "let us have it."

It is too gross, remarked C., hesitatingly. "Oh, never mind, I can stand it; let me have it by all means," eagerly exclaimed B.

has already advanced an army towards its frontiers, and they had nothing but courage to vent upon those who had influenced them to leave their native State.

Half a century or so ago, the British government, at a vast expense of treasure and of life, founded the colony at Sierra Leone. The place at which it was located was so badly selected, and dead to the white man, that on an average about one-fourth of all the troops stationed there died yearly, and yet an imposing force had to be kept up to overawe the natives.

Several years later, a young Congregationalist Minister in the State of Maine conceived his plan for the introduction of civilization into Africa by colonies of the free colored people of this country.

And yet it was sufficiently homogeneous with the natives, to influence and affect them. It did not so much inspire terror by force and by the airs of a haughty and superior race, but brought back to them men of their own color, who could sometimes even speak their own language...
