Class News

Your class correspondent is looking for news for the next issue of Colby magazine. Please take a moment to respond to the questions below and on the back to let your classmates in on what you've been doing recently or hope to be doing eventually. Have you moved? Changed careers? Traveled? Read a great book?

This new questionnaire will be in each issue of the magazine, allowing alumni to contact their class correspondent four times a year. The past system for collecting news, sending separate letters once a year, was unwieldy and time consuming for the small staff in the Alumni Relations Office and the postage was expensive. Now we look forward to hearing from you more than once a year!

Please mail or e-mail your news directly to your class correspondent. The correspondents' addresses are listed within the Alumni at Large section of the magazine. Keep the news coming!

Colby Reunion 2000

Don't miss out!
See you in June!

Come home to Mayflower Hill June 2-4, 2000, as Colby celebrates its first reunion of the 2000s! Reconnect with old friends and discover new ones as the weekend unfolds.

FRIDAY, JUNE 2

The Annual Awards banquet honoring Colby volunteers sponsored by the Alumni Association.

Afterwards, in your class headquarters, classmates and their families will gather to reminisce, to catch up on each other's lives, and to simply enjoy being back on campus. Housing is available in dorms; most have been renovated and many are new.

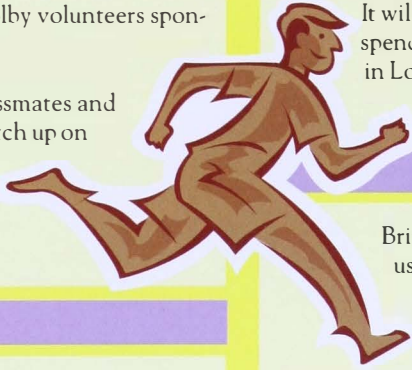

SATURDAY, JUNE 3

Start with breakfast in the beautifully renovated dining halls, then go on to the annual fun run or maybe a tennis match with friends. President William R. Cotter will deliver his last address to alumni later in the morning, followed by the Parade of Classes. A true Maine lobster bake and a chicken barbecue await you. If you prefer vegetarian, we have alternatives at every meal.

The afternoon activities round out a busy day. From lectures and panels by alumni and faculty to swing-dance lessons to alumni author book-signings and campus tours, it's difficult to choose! Chatting with friends by the pond, impromptu games of softball, and a dip in the pool—it's all here.

In the evening, your class will gather for a private reception and dinner, but the events don't end there. The night air will be filled with music and dancing. You may choose from the big-band sound, a jazz quartet, and two other venues with DJ's providing music you'll remember from your days on campus.

SUNDAY, JUNE 4

It will be time for a hearty brunch and farewells. We'll also spend a quiet moment at the Boardman Memorial Service in Lorimer Chapel remembering those who are no longer with us.

CHILDCARE PROGRAM

Bring the kids! Childcare is provided but it's not your usual babysitting! Pony rides, puppet shows, cookie decorating, visits from favorite storybook characters, face painting, games and other activities are highlights. Look for the children's tent. Children 4 and younger are cared for by a professional childcare service, while youngsters 5-12 are supervised by a crew of Colby students and local babysitters. Parents are welcome to join children for afternoon activities in the tent or to sign them up for the childcare.

WHAT THEY SAID

Candy '64: "I honestly don't know when I've ever had more fun for an entire weekend. . . . Colby looked breathtakingly beautiful, and all the activities were fantastic, the food delicious and the Class of '64 better than ever!"

Josh '94: "I think I can speak for most all of the Class of '94 when I say that we all had absolutely a great time! I wish we could do this every year!"

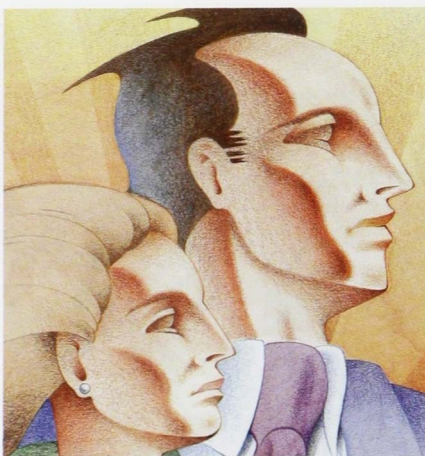

All reunion class brochures and reservation forms for the classes of '50, '55, '60, '65, '70, '75, '80, '85, '90 and '95 will be mailed in March of 2000. If you are not a member of a reunion year class but would like to join us, please contact the Alumni Relations Office for a brochure.
