THE COLBY COLLEGE LIBRARY has recently acquired a collection of twenty-eight letters written by various well-known literary figures to Henry Bamford Parkes. Professor John Mizner's article in this issue explores the significance of one of these letters. A checklist of the letters appears as an appendix to the article.

There will be a seminar entitled "E.A. Robinson: Fifty Years after Tristram" at the 1977 MLA convention, which meets in Chicago from December 27 to 30. The seminar has been organized by Professor Nancy Joyner of Western Carolina University. Other participants will include Wallace L. Anderson, Richard Crowder, and Scott Donaldson. It is hoped that CLQ will have the opportunity to publish some papers from this seminar.

The pictures on the front and back covers of this issue are from designs by Henry Fuseli which were published in the Hunter translation of Johann Casper Lavater's Essays on Physiognomy, 3 vols. in 5 (London: John Murray, 1789-98). They have been reproduced, with permission, from a copy in the library of The Western Reserve Historical Society. Both pictures are illustrations to Professor Trawick's article on "William Blake's German Connection."
