Artists Active in Maine

This list of artists active in Maine in the twentieth century is the first publication of the Archives of Maine Art. It includes amateurs who have exhibited, professionals who have visited the state for longer or shorter periods as well as permanent residents. This list is the result of many exchanges of letters with organizations and with individuals. Thanks are herewith extended to all who have supplied information. In addition newspaper articles and exhibition catalogues have been consulted as they have been available. Although this list includes 1,000 names there is no certainty that it is a complete list of artists active in Maine from 1900-1963. Indeed it is here acknowledged that the list is incomplete and may well contain errors. It is, however, the first such list to have been compiled.

The Archives of Maine Art, begun only three years ago, has sought to collect information and documents about artists in Maine from the eighteenth century to the present. Within the limits of time and resources there have been gathered books, listings, references, photographs and color transparencies. These are filed and arranged for consultation. Many artists responded to a questionnaire and contributed photos, news clippings and catalogues for the Archives. For these we are most grateful, and we would welcome more such biographical and documentary material at any time.

The Archives have been supported by the Friends of Art at Colby and by the Department of Art. A special room in the Bixler Art and Music Center has been made available for files, bookcases and desks. Volunteer help from the members of the Friends of Art has kept the filing up to date. The Archives are open to interested persons during museum hours throughout the year.

Artists have been listed alphabetically followed by the place in Maine where they have worked. The place name is not necessarily a current address. The letter P indicates "Painter", S for "Sculptor", G for "Printmaker, draughtsman, illustrator", and Ph for "Photographer".

Readers noting errors and omissions on this list are urged to communicate with the Director.
