HCL EAR misdated this letter 1890.

1. December 31, 1890.

2. The poem was especially appropriate for this particular New Year's Eve, for the opening lines read as follows:

   "Full knee-deep lies the winter snow,
    And the winter winds are wearily sighing;"

3.