TO ARTHUR R. GLEDHILL

Dear Art,--

I recd your card the other day and in reply will say that I will look for you next Saturday. We will have to entertain ~~oursel~~^a ourselves, as Father is very low (but not suffering) and Mother very weak.

But our 'domestic' is coming back Thursday,
so you can come all right, and I shall be mighty glad to see you once more.

Write as soon as you get this and let me know if you are coming. You ought to be able to stay over Sunday if not longer.
It will be no bother to Mother, so you needn't
be "scared"^b by what I have said.

Hastily,
EA Robinson.

Gardiner, Aug 10 - 1891.
