scientific knowledge of the dietetic value of the different food-stuffs, but a change in long-established national habits. I have, moreover, made no allowance for waste incurred through carelessness. Even the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries, over which I am allowed to preside, has been so full of good resolutions that it cannot be expected to make any more progress than the last hundred years. It is idle to talk of the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries as if it were a work of art. The Ministry is a collection of men who are not afraid to make mistakes, and who are prepared to learn from their mistakes. They are not afraid to make mistakes because they are not afraid to learn from their mistakes. They are not afraid to learn from their mistakes because they are not afraid to make mistakes. And this is true of all the best minds in the world. The Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries is the best example of this. It is a body of men who are not afraid to make mistakes, and who are prepared to learn from their mistakes. They are not afraid to make mistakes because they are not afraid to learn from their mistakes. They are not afraid to learn from their mistakes because they are not afraid to make mistakes. And this is true of all the best minds in the world. The Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries is the best example of this.
