My dear Smith,

I need your card to know that and I wish to see you a very satisfactory

The Copyright Society cannot legally import the book and they tell me that the only chance

I have of getting it is either to ask the U.S. to import a copy or to send the money to England myself. I do not know just how the new copyright law works and cannot seem to find out. The book is published by Messrs

W. Black of London.

I have sent to Mr. Black for two copies, to be sent, one of the originals, and then, for two weeks, cloth, 32s. 6d. This seems to be the regular price of English books when mailed.

The 4th edition of Weston's book contains

McIlvaine
If our complete chapter, which it so want does not materially affect the book. I show above you to buy it, bishops write to me like "La Foi". The latter will make up for the missing chapter.

Sincerely,

Robinson.
