TERMS OF ADMISSION.

Candidates for admission into the Freshman Class are required to be well acquainted with English Grammar, common Arithmetic, including Vulgar Fractions, Proportion, and the doctrine of Roots and Powers, with some compendium of Geography, both Ancient and Modern; and to be able to write Latin grammatically, to read, construe, and parse Cicero's Select Orations, Virgil entire, the four Evangelists of the Greek Testament and Jacob's Greek Reader. They must produce satisfactory evidence of good moral character, and if they have been members of any other College or University, they must produce, before they can be admitted to examination, a certificate from the Faculty thereof, that they have been regularly dismissed. For admission to an advanced standing, the candidate, in addition to the requisites for the Freshman Class, must be acquainted with the studies pursued by the class of which he seeks to become a member.

N. B. The times appointed for the examination of candidates for admission are the day preceding and the day succeeding the annual Commencement, and the last day of each Vacation.
