TERMS OF ADMISSION.

The requisites for admission to the Freshman Class are testimonials of good moral character, a thorough acquaintance with English, Latin and Greek Grammar, Caesar's Commentaries or Sallust, Virgil, Cicero's Select Orations, Latin Prosody, the making of Latin, the Gospels of the Greek Testament, Jacob's Greek Reader, Ancient and Modern Geography, Vulgar and Decimal Fractions, Proportions, the doctrine of Roots and Powers, and Algebra, so far as to be able to solve Equations of the second degree. It is recommended to Students in preparation to read attentively some convenient manual of Greek and Roman History. Kühner's Elementary Greek and Latin Grammars, including the Exercises, or the Latin Grammar of Andrews and Stoddard, and the Greek Grammar of Sophocles, are required.

Candidates for advanced standing are examined in the preparatory studies, and in the various branches to which the Class they propose to enter have attended. Those who are admitted from other Colleges, must present certificates of regular dismissal. In all cases testimonials of good moral character are required.

The stated times for examination, are the day before Commencement, and the first and second days of the first term.

PARTIAL COURSE.

Individuals of suitable age and acquisitions, wishing to fit themselves for Mercantile, Agricultural, or any of the other active pursuits of life, will have every facility for pursuing a Partial Course of study, not less than one year—they selecting such studies as they may desire. They will be required to recite with the regular College classes at least twice a day, will have free access to the Libraries and Lectures, and on leaving the Institution, will be entitled to a regular certificate of their respective attainments.

In this department the regular course embraces instruction in the French and German Languages; for which, however, no additional tuition is charged.

EXHIBITIONS.

There is an exhibition of the Senior Class on the fifth Wednesday of the first term.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

All the students are required to attend some place of public worship, on the Sabbath; each student or his parent or guardian being permitted to select for attendance either of the places of public worship in the village.

EXAMINATIONS.

There is a public examination of all the classes, at the close of each term. In the Mathematical and all the English branches, the student is required to exhibit his attainments, in any part of the term's study assigned to him, without being questioned,
and to conduct the discussion himself.

The final examination of the Senior Class occurs five weeks before commencement.

TERM BILLS.

There is kept an accurate account of each student's absences from all exercises upon which his attendance is required—also,
of his general conduct and scholarship. This account, in connection with the regular term bill, is sent to the student's parent or guardian, at the close of each term. Each student is required to procure satisfactory bonds for the payment of his bills before the close of the first term.

COMMENCEMENT AND VACATIONS.

Commencement is on the second Wednesday of August. The first vacation is of four weeks from Commencement; the second is of eight, from the second Wednesday in December; the third is of one, at the close of the second term. Each term is thirteen weeks. The terms are so arranged as to give a long vacation in the Winter, which may be profitably occupied in teaching, by those whose circumstances require it.
