This map depicts the locations of primary, secondary, and post secondary education facilities in downeast Maine in relation to township boundaries and major roads.

The colleges layer (which shows the location of post secondary education facilities) and the schlib layer (which shows libraries, primary, and secondary education locations) were added and clipped to show only locations in Washington and Hancock counties.