This map shows the relationship between inland waterfowl and wader habitat and the different hydrological features of Maine. The hydrological and Maine hillshade data were obtained from ESRI. The waterfowl and wader habitat layer and the county layer came from the Maine Office of GIS. Political boundaries of Canada and the United States was downloaded from the Commission for Environmental Cooperation.