What is the Colby Fund

In the past you may have made contributions to the Alumni Fund, the Annual Fund, reunion giving, or an anniversary program. Now the Colby Fund includes all of these. Your gifts will be used in the same manner and will credit your class or reunion effort in the same way—only the name has changed.

By making an annual gift to the Colby Fund, you are investing in the future success of all Colby students by enhancing their educational experience and ensuring a continued tradition of academic excellence.

Be a part of the tradition. More than 10,000 alumni and nearly 1,500 parents made a gift to Colby last year.

FEATURES

10/The Art of Theft

When it comes to art theft, Noah Charney '02 is an expert. Charney's study of this nefarious niche of the art world has made him a household word in museum and gallery security circles, and a new novel and television programs in the works have propelled the art-history major's career.

14/Tracking the Forest People

Erin Vogel '95 studies orangutans up close in the rainforest of Borneo. An anthropologist at UC Santa Cruz, Vogel wants to know what these orangutans eat and why, in hopes that the knowledge will help protect this dwindling species.

20/The Diplomat

Newly appointed Ambassador Patrick Duddy '72, a career diplomat, looks for common ground with Venezuela's outspoken president, Hugo Chávez.

24/Making of a President

Candidates lean on Colbians in bids for the White House; alumni who are staffers and aides ride the roller coaster of a presidential campaign.
