6-21-1887

Violet Paget (Kent, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)

Vernon Lee (Violet Paget)

Matilda Paget

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.colby.edu/letters_home

Recommended Citation
Lee, Vernon (Violet Paget) and Paget, Matilda, "Violet Paget (Kent, England) to Matilda Paget (Bagni di Lucca, Italy)" (1887). Vernon Lee: Letters Home. 296. https://digitalcommons.colby.edu/letters_home/296

This ACS / Autograph Card Signed is brought to you for free and open access by the The Vernon Lee Collection at Colby College at Digital Commons @ Colby. It has been accepted for inclusion in Vernon Lee: Letters Home by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Colby. For more information, please contact mfkelly@colby.edu.
13 Edward. 21st June 1887

Dear mamma - I am too awfully, awfully sorry about the house buying, & feel as if I had done a wicked thing in asking how you arrange money, also feel a pig for not having written before. But I have literally not had a moment.

To resume - This morning I called on Mr. Denne & asked if that wonderful woman had actually prepared a part of Socialite for me! Nothing up man Stepanick. "No Underground." Ripper, "perfidious man" said Newman. There was also Carnegie. I had along with Newman. He is a Teutonic man. He has been a stockbroker. Now he is up all the moneyLine is to that Crosbys of socialism among the working class.
He says that unless the working class gets agitated about its own grievances, the other is meaningless.

Stop it is. Real politics previous essays had said moreover the thinking classes won't help; it is always a question of Withering. He is an verbal duty, he is very cock

Washington man. I found him immensely incapable his own to this party.

importance. Stephenson

is a mild, dreamy person.
Evidently nothing remarkable had occurred to it by this point of Regret, according.
That afternoon I met
Mr. Baitt: a nice young man. The evening I spent at alone with Alice Calender, and, though I don't remember much in the way of a talk of any kind I have heard met, there been very in all visits, like indeed, so confined with house. But in family affairs are very unproductive were wont to be able to come to me anymore.
Sunday's will be day with the British Museum in a delightful old house at Hendon, a suburb north of Hampstead, when nearer in miles to miles away. He is a pleasant, clever man, a fascinating one who has taken to artistic bookbinding. Annie Calden is more improved by her marriage. She has two nice babies. There was a Mr. Loewy in the great electrical invention of Tesla-Pythagoras. Mr. Kingston.
He succeeded in Buddhism is King, or, Laden himself into indifferenta attitude & preparation for

5 Via Caribaldi,
Florence.

He seems quite sane.

I never knew Ford want me to meet Lady m'r Temple.

2.00 pm just in time from Heathrow to have for the dinner. It was a big dinner party. Burrey was there. I talked most of the evening with lady Dolly North, who's delightful.

I was taken to dinner by Mr Chamber.
Excuse me, sir! He is the most ridiculous character I have ever met: false, cheat, knavish bookish man.

We postponed breakfast but not at all with an easy mind, clearly.

Yesterday morning we went down to the beautiful city of (whomever asked me to Cambridge) saw

Solly Blomfield.
mum of Aide's. Lady Dolly was there, Lady Shrewsbury and Lyle and Frank Schneider. I didn't see Robinson girls.

Parents were county.

At his house morning was in D. Wolfeley's room at the Cambridge.

Bill was at his office.
The Ambroffs (my old editors) & some other nice people were there. The reception
Was very grateful for Smith's help on the earlier of the Flavours paper now I must rush to replace with the hacini have, close by.

so from Sat. 6. Monday & Miss. Peters near Cambridge well

somewhere

7/6
Mrs.Pager
Farmacia dell'Villa
Bagni ai Lucca
Italy