Colby Library Quarterly, series 3, no.16, November 1954

This Front Matter is brought to you for free and open access by Digital Commons @ Colby. It has been accepted for inclusion in Colby Quarterly by an authorized editor of Digital Commons @ Colby.

THE COLBY LIBRARY QUARTERLY is published by the Colby College Library at Waterville, Maine, under the editorship of Carl J. Weber, Curator of Rare Books and Manuscripts. Subscription price: two dollars a year. Current single numbers: fifty cents. A printed INDEX to Series One or to Series Two will be supplied free upon request to any subscriber to this QUARTERLY, as long as the supply lasts. We are no longer able to provide copies of all previous issues, but will be glad to meet requests for special numbers as long as we have copies of them.

Series One was published in the four-year period 1943 to 1946 in January, March, June, and October, but with the year 1947 the COLBY LIBRARY QUARTERLY began publication in February, May, August, and November. Series II was begun with the issue for February 1947, and Series III with the issue for February 1951.

Communications regarding subscriptions should be addressed to the Librarian; communications regarding articles in the QUARTERLY should be addressed to Carl J. Weber. Unsolicited manuscripts should be accompanied by postage stamps and addressed envelopes. In general, this QUARTERLY is interested in Maine authors (particularly in Edwin Arlington Robinson) and in Maine history, and in those books and authors from outside of Maine (Henry James and Thomas Hardy, for example) who are well represented by special collections in the Colby College Library or who have exerted an influence on Maine life or letters.
