FEATURES

10/Reinventing Waterville

Local leaders, including Waterville City Administrator Mike Roy '74, envision a renaissance for the city—and a boon for Colby. Paul Boghossian '76 proposes a new creative community perched on the banks of the Kennebec River.

18/Join the Crowd

A majority of Colby graduates go on to graduate school. They find that, one, they're well prepared, and two, the degrees are advanced but grad school sure isn't Mayflower Hill.

22/Nothing But the Truth

Forensic psychologist Ann LeBlanc '74 manages cases in which crime and mental illness overlap.
