The special exercises commemorating the seventy-fifth anniversary of the opening of the school will be the feature of the week's program. Following these formal exercises will be held a reception to the former pupils and graduates of the school at the City hall, after which will occur the annual dinner at the Armory. Prominent alumni and others will speak at the dinner. It is expected that the occasion will be one of glad reunion and that a large number from far and near will assemble to do honor to this old school.

COLBY, 5; BOWDOIN, 2.

Last Saturday's game with Bowdoin again put us in the running and all the teams are now tied at 500 per cent. Only two championship games remain to be played and these are between Colby and Bates. The winner will have a clear title to the championship, but an even break would result in a quadruple tie.

The game was intensely interesting, and although their errors were costly, the Bowdoin team were outplayed at every point. Coombs was in the box and got revenge for the drubbing he received at Brunswick in the previous game. Not one clean hit was made off his delivery. He used less speed than usual but had perfect control and pitched a magnificent game. Cox, although rather outclassed, also pitched a good game but received poor support.

White opened the game with a fly to Dunn. John took Stone's grounder and Leighton made a fine catch of Clarke's fly. Cowing opened with a two-bagger to left which Clarke should have had. Coombs flied out to left and Bill went to third. Willey fanned and Pug hit to short but White threw low to Wiggin who dropped the ball, Cowing scoring. Craig was out to Clark.

Cox went out, Tilton to Willey, and Wiggin could not connect. Hodgson drew John's only gift for the game but was still on first when Willey took Oakes' foul. Cox retired Tilton at first, but Dunn nailed a slow one over short for a single. Leighton followed with a pretty one between first and second. Gould missed the throw from right field and Dunn scored, Leighton taking third. Pile was out at first. Cowing hit to White who threw over first. Leighton scored and Bill took third, but Coombs was out, Hodgson to Wiggin.

Gould opened the third with a grounder to Tilton and was out. Pug took Kinsman's fly and White fanned. Willey fanned again. Pug flied out to Clarke. Craig reached first on White's error but was out trying to steal.

Stone poked out an easy grounder to Tilton. Clarke fanned and Cox gave Leighton a chance to make a running catch. Tilton was out, second to first; Dunn struck out and Leighton raised a fly for White.

Wiggin fanned and Gould and Kinsman gave easy grounders for Coombs. Pile was an easy out at first. Cowing singled and took second on a passed ball, but Coombs and Willey put up flies for second and short.

John took care of Gould's hit in the first of the sixth. Kinsman flied out to Dunn and White fanned. Pug was out, second to first. Craig drew a base on balls and Tilton did the same. Dunn could not connect and Leighton was an easy out at first.

Pug disposed of Stone's fly. Clarke sent a wicked one out to right field. Dunn made a fine try but slipped and could not hold the ball, Clarke taking second. Cox was cleverly fooled for three strikes. Wiggin sent a hit over second which Tilton made a pretty stop of but could not field, Clarke taking third. John threw to second to catch Wiggin and Clarke went home. Hodgson fanned. Pile struck out but Stone dropped the ball and threw low. Bill hit to Cox and Pile was out at second. Coombs made the best hit of the day, the ball going over the cinder track. Clarke was playing well back and held him at second. Willey fanned, but Pug got a pretty hit and took second on the throw in. Gould fumbled Craig's hit, but caught Pug when he overran third.

Oakes opened the eighth with a fly to Tilton and Gould flied out to Leighton. Kinsman's slow grounder was fumbled by Tilton and he was safe, but Pile easily disposed of White's fly. Colby went out in order, Tilton and Leighton sending grounders to second and Dunn fanning. Stone came up for the last time and sent an easy one to Coombs. Pug picked up Clarke's hit cleanly but threw a little wide. Clarke took second while Tilton retired Cox at first. Wiggin sent one down to Willey that John tried to cut off and in the mixup he was safe and Clarke had scored. Hodgson closed the game with a strikeout.

The Senior Reception will occur next Monday evening.

Dr. Black returned Thursday afternoon from his trip to Baltimore.

The Sophomore Declamation will occur next Tuesday evening at the Baptist church.

Miss Nead, '07, spent the recent holidays with Miss Buzzell, '05, at her home in Larone.

Starkey, '05, and Thompson, '07, attended the commencement exercises at Oak Grove this week.

Miss Pinkham, '03, left Friday morning for her home in Farmington, N. H., where she remained until Tuesday.

FACULTY, 32; SENIORS, 20.

The anxiously awaited game between the Faculty and the Seniors was at last played on Wednesday. After considerable discussion Cowing and Leighton were barred out, their positions on the Varsity team rendering them ineligible. The '04 team was also weakened by the absence of Soule, while Dr. Black, who was expected to be one of the Faculty's most reliable men, was also absent.

As was to be expected, the game was extremely interesting. It was characterized by loose fielding, heavy batting and peculiar base running. The Co-ords turned out en masse to encourage the teams with ingenious songs and cheers. Much enthusiasm was displayed although the game began to drag after six or seven innings. The first five innings were close and it was anybody's game, but then the Faculty forged to the front and maintained a good lead. Many good plays were turned off during the afternoon, but there were many others when it was best to look the other way.

President White played left field for the Faculty and was one of the stars of the game. He hit well and slid bases like a veteran. He also caught a difficult fly and made a pretty throw to the plate. Professor Sorenden pitched a strong, heady game and, Captain Hedman covered first in good shape. Atchley had a fine string of hits when the game was over, and the rest of the team did their share of the work.

For Seniors, Tarbell at second played by far the best game, covering lots of ground and hitting well. Captain Tapley was unable to stand the pace and was knocked out of the box in the second inning. Tarbell succeeded him but soon retired in favor of Bryant who finished the game in good shape. The Seniors based a part of their hopes on the expectation that the Faculty team would be unable to stand the full nine innings. The latter showed a remarkable amount of agility, however, and won out on their superior staying qualities. The summary:

The game last Saturday resulted in a victory that was highly creditable to the team and to the college. Much enthusiasm was manifested in various ways, but that some of it was misspent is only too apparent to even the casual visitor to our campus. We refer to the score, painted in large letters, which appeared that night on the dome of Shannon Observatory. Now there is such a thing as a good joke and there is such a thing as vandalism. We do not hesitate to say that the above mentioned act belongs to the latter class. Commencement is fast approaching. In the few remaining weeks everything possible will be done towards putting our campus into its most attractive condition. A large sum of money is being expended in an effort to make our grounds even more beautiful than they have been before. The dome of Shannon Observatory is a conspicuous object throughout the campus. Ordinarily it forms a pleasing background for the eye to rest upon, but now its beauty is disfigured. There was no need for blazoning the score on the dome of Shannon; it was graven deep in the mind of every Colby student and alumnus and to the visitor who has no interest in the college the figures will represent only a foolish prank on the part of foolish students. Much expense and trouble will be required to erase the objectionable figures, but we trust that it will be done and the perpetrators should be foremost to atone for the injury which they have done to the beauty of our campus.

MEETING OF MOUNT HOLYOKE ALUMNAE.

The spring meeting of the Maine State Alumnae Association of Mount Holyoke College was held at the Palmer House on Saturday, May 28th. The business meeting was called at 10 a. m., by Miss Nettie Burleigh of the class of '08, from Vassalboro. Mrs. Mary Tuttle Bourdon, the President of the National Association, made an address on the needs of the college, and the possibilities of the Alumnae Associations. The proposed Carnegie Library was discussed, and generous pledges made toward the $50,000 necessary to be raised in order to claim the $50,000 promised. Another matter now becoming prominent in all colleges is the need of Fellowships, which enable graduates of the college to do graduate work in Universities. Mount Holyoke has two such fellowships, but more are needed at once. The Association was entertained by Colby College at Ladies' Hall. After lunch, a literary program was enjoyed, consisting of a talk by President White on "The 1903 law of Maine for the better education of youth;" an original poem by Miss Julia Harris May of Auburn, and readings by Miss Livermore of Portland. The following members were present: Mrs. E. S. Osgood, Miss May Achorn of Portland; Miss Nettie Burleigh of Vassalboro; Mrs. Treby Johnson of Augusta; Mrs. Henry S. Webster,

Miss Emma Day, Miss Sara Moore, of Gardiner; Miss Mertie Aldrich of Hallowell; Miss Kate Reed of Boothbay Harbor; Mrs. Lyman K. Lee of Foxcroft; Miss Alice McDonald of Bath; and Miss Eliza Barrett and Miss Grace E. Berry of Waterville.

COLBY JUNIOR LEAGUE.

The annual games of the Junior League were played on the college field, Friday and Saturday of last week. Hebron brought down an unusually fast team for a preparatory school and carried off the pennant without much difficulty. Coburn and Hebron drew for the first game at 10.30 Friday morning, while Higgins and Ricker fought it out at 2 p. m. The winners met at 10 Saturday morning.

In the first game Coburn went down to defeat without a struggle. The game was extremely tiresome and uninteresting.

The summary :

Innings	1	2	3	4	5
Hebron	4	7	1	5	4-21
Coburn	1	0	1	0	x-2

The afternoon game was the best of the series. Higgins sent her second pitcher into the box but soon repented and he was relieved by French. The latter struck out the next seven men and proved himself one of the best prep pitchers in the state. The damage had already been done, however, and Higgins could not catch up. They were unfortunately in their batting while Ricker played a steady game.

The summary :

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Ricker	1	0	0	0	1	2	0	0	x-7
Higgins	0	0	0	1	0	1	0	0	0-2

In the final game Havey was in the box for Hebron and had a big string of strikeouts to his credit. He was unsteady however, and had Ricker played a more careful game the score would have been much closer, for her fielding was far below that of the previous day. Higgins, on second, played in hard luck as he was hurt three times, but he showed good pluck in finishing the game.

The summary :

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Hebron	0	0	1	0	0	5	0	0	3-9

COLBY, 17; PORTLAND, 10.

The game played here Memorial Day was a decided novelty. It was far worse than the Senior-Faculty game, for in this case two supposedly good teams were playing. Yet it seemed more like a comic opera than a championship ball game. The "dopeiest" kind of playing was in evidence throughout the entire game. Portland reckoned up the most hits, but that does not mean that they ever had a chance to win out. Pug, in the box, set the example and the entire team followed his lead, many balls going for hits which should have been outs. The Portland team, however, needed no example to urge them on. They made thirteen errors and would probably have made more if the chance had been given. Pugsley occupied the box and merely tossed them over after the game was safe. Our team had a picnic on bases and a general jollification all around.

What Next

after Lace Curtains adds most to the attractiveness of a room? Portieres, without any doubt. The latest thing in this line are the nobby Tapestry Portieres, which we have in a variety of colorings, mostly oriental floral designs, from $2 to $10 per pair.

In "self-colored" Portieres we have some beauties in reds, greens, golden-browns, and old-rose ranging from $5 to $8.

Couch Covers from $1.25 to $5.00 in the oriental effects, Roman stripes, and Bagdad designs, with pillows to match from 40c to $1.

Call and let us take you through our store. We are always at home.

CAMPUS CHAT.

Puzzle picture; who painted the dome of the observatory?

Charles Fogg, '00, was about the campus the first of the week.

Dr. Edward W. Hall has returned from a business trip to Squirrel Island.

Chipman, '06, was at his home in Damariscotta over Memorial Day.

Dean Berry made a business trip to Portland on Thursday of last week.

Miss Richardson, '05, visited friends in Pittsfield from Saturday till Tuesday.

Masterman, '07, and Norton, '05, spent Memorial Day at their homes in Farmington.

Gould, '04, has been at Higgins Classical Institute this week in the interests of Colby.

Miss Grace Warren, '03, who is teaching in North Fairfield, was in town Saturday.

Miss Lubelle Hall, '07, returned Tuesday evening from a visit of several days at Hebron.

President White preached at the Friends' churches in Winthrop and Winthrop Centre last Sunday.

Miss Iva Safford, R. C. I., '03, of Blaine, was the guest of Miss Whenman, '06, from Friday till Monday afternoon.

George W. Thomas, '00, instructor of English at Hebron, accompanied the Hebron ball team to Waterville last week.

Each week sees a progression in the work of improving the campus. The shrubs are now all in place about the buildings and at the entrances.

Miss Florence Wyman of Skowhegan was in town, Wednesday, on her return from Livermore Falls, where she had been visiting Miss Clara Martin, '03.

The Colby 2nd team went to Skowhegan Saturday and crossed bats with the local team. The home team was too much for them and they were defeated to the tune of 9 to 6.

The annual spring tennis tournament for the championship of Colby College will commence next Tuesday. All entries must be handed to H. N. Jones, manager, before Monday night.

Miss Ellen M. Patten of New York was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. E. F. Caswell, on Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Miss Patten goes as a missionary to India in October.

Dean Berry and Miss Farwell, '06, attended the basket meeting of the Kennebec Woman's Missionary Association at Hallowell on Tuesday. Miss Farwell is Junior Secretary of the Association.

The many friends of Mr. Frank M. Kanaly, who coached the track team this spring, will be pleased to learn that he won with ease his seven-mile race on Memorial Day against Samuel J. Myers, a noted distance runner.

Manager Roberts has secured special rates to Lewiston tomorrow and it is hoped that as many as can will go down to the game as the team needs our support at this time. The rates are $1.75 for the round trip.

Miss Ethel Hayward, '07, who has spent the winter and spring in Washington, D. C., visited college friends from Saturday until Monday. She started Monday afternoon for Mars Hill, where she will teach a term of school. Miss Hayward expects to resume work at Colby next year.

The friends of Miss Lydia Foss, ex-'03, will be glad to know that she has been elected to the position of librarian proctor for next year at Boston University. This is an honor conferred each year upon three men and three women. Those have certain duties to perform and are also supposed to be an intermediate step between the faculty and the student body.

What Hapgoods Has Done.

During the year 1903, Hapgoods secured high grade positions in business and technical work for over 500 young college, university and technical school graduates. Our campaign for 1904 is now in progress. More firms than ever are looking to us for capable graduates, and we wish to get in touch at once with every senior who is seeking a position in business or technical work. Write nearest office for booklets. DEPARTMENT OF MEDICINE.

The next session begins Sept. 26, 1904. The course is carefully graded and covers four sessions of eight months each.

Instruction thoroughly practical. Free quizzing in all branches; ward-classes, limited in size; clinical conferences and modified seminar methods of teaching. Particular attention to laboratory, bedside and ward-class work. Clinical facilities unexcelled, and the largest and finest clinical amphitheatre in America. Thoroughly equipped new laboratories and a modern hospital, remodeled and reconstructed throughout.

The College has also Departments of Dentistry and of Pharmacy, in each of which degrees are granted at the end of graded courses. For announcements or further information, address

SENECA EGBERT, M. D.,

Dean of the Department of Medicine, Cherry St., Philadelphia, Pa.

I Tell No Secrets

When I say that I am selling as good drug sundries and make up as efficient prescriptions as is possible, I look upon the drug business as a very serious one. I give my entire energy to it and the result is I trust a pretty nearly perfect drug store. Your trade I solicit no matter how small.
