THE NEW COACHES.

Track and Baseball Teams Will Have Efficient Training.

Monday afternoon there arrived on the campus the two men on whom Colby's success this spring in track and baseball, largely depends. We refer, of course, to Mr. B. F. Sullivan, the track coach and to Mr. Frank J. Shea, who will look after the baseball squad. The former has had much success for the past four years, as physical director of the Cambridgeport gymnasium.

Mr. Sullivan comes to Colby most highly recommended and has been active in track work for the past ten years. During his four years at Cambridgeport, the participants under his training never lost a dual meet. That the degree of success which he has attained during his ten years experience has been great, is seen by the fact that during that time he has won something like two hundred prizes. For four consecutive years he held the championship in New England for the half-mile run and in 1892 for the ten-mile cross-country run as well. Colby is indeed fortunate in securing as track coach the services of one who has had so long and successful experience as has Mr. Sullivan, and it is now to be most earnestly hoped, that the students who are at all interested in track athletics, will put themselves in that attitude which will make his instructions count for the most, that Colby this year may have a team which will follow up the good start made at the meet last year.

Mr. Shea, of Nashua, N. H., the new baseball coach, also comes highly recommended, with fifteen years experience as a professional ball player back of him. He has played on the following well-known teams: Brockton, Mass., Lewiston, Me., Binghamton, N. Y. and Auburn, N. Y.; has successfully coached the nines of Middlebury college, Montpelier seminary, Cushing academy, New Hampshire State college, and for the last two years has acted in the capacity of captain and manager for Senator Whitney's independent team at Lebanon, N. H.

Directly upon his arrival at 3 P. M., Monday, Mr. Shea assumed charge of the team and gave the boys some lively work on the diamond. He inspires the confidence of the men in his ability as a baseball coach and ought to turn out a winning nine, if he receives the enthusiastic support of all the ball players in college.

MR. VINTON'S ADDRESS.

The students who gathered at the college chapel Sunday afternoon to listen to the address of Rev. Sumner R. Vinton of Burmah were amply paid for both their time and effort. The address was one of those simple, straight-forward, heart searching talks which never fail to leave an impression and are always listened to with a great deal of interest. Mr. Vinton had a message for the students of Colby and he delivered it in a most attractive and enthusiastic manner.

The message was based on the Nashville Convention. He said that in coming away from Nashville the thought was brought home to him by the remark of a friend that after all the keynote of the convention was not new, only an old thought clothed in new terms. This keynote was obedience to Christ. This was the thought that ran through the whole convention and characterized all the addresses, especially those of Campbell

White and Bishop McDowell.

The question that confronts us as Christians today is, Are we living up to the standard of obedience which recognizes the lordship and ownership of Christ? In the matter of becoming a Christian the difficulty is not metaphysical but whether we are willing to abdicate the throne of self in favor of Christ, letting Christ rule in our lives.

The whole volunteer movement is based upon this foundation, obedience to Christ. This obedience will reduce the friction to the minimum and Christ will be able to accomplish most through our lives. The work and the need in foreign fields, especially in Burmah, is very great, but the workers are few. It is for us to face the question not selfishly, but from this standpoint of complete obedience.

FRIDAY NIGHT'S CONCERT.

The concert by the Musical Clubs, Friday evening ought to be patronized by every man and woman of the college, not simply because it is a college affair but because it stands for a great deal of work and training on the part of the members of the clubs. Judging from the concerts already given this season it will be safe to say that this concert will be one of the best ever presented by the Colby Musical Clubs to a Waterville audience. The selections by the Glee Club and Mandolin-Guitar club, are bright and full of spirit and cannot fail to please. The vocal solos by Messrs. Dodge and Richardson and the violin solo by Mr. Allen, are of a very high order and must be heard to be appreciated. Add to these the humorous and dramatic selections rendered by Mr. McCombe and the evening's entertainment is complete.

Tickets may be had at Hawker's drug store for fifty cents each.

PRIZE DEBATE.

Written arguments will be due Monday, April 30th; oral arguments, Saturday, May 5th.

COLBY CLUB MEETING.

The April meeting of the Colby Club was held at Chemical Hall a week ago Tuesday evening. Owing to the stormy weather the attendance was small. Two additional members were appointed to the committee on decorations and furnishings for the club room: Rev. George D. Sanders and Charles W. Atchley. The business session was followed by a lecture by Dr. Black on the British Parliament, which was illustrated with photographs and was much enjoyed by those present.

COMMENCEMENT ARTICLES.

Junior articles will be due Monday, May 21st; Senior articles, Monday, May 28th.

'04. William A. Cowing of Waterville, is acting in the capacity of night clerk at the Elmwood hotel, during the absence of Mr. Judkins, the proprietor, on an extended trip abroad.

'01. Will H. Sturtevant of Foxcroft has been elected superintendent of schools for the towns of Dover and Foxcroft. His election is very gratifying to his friends. Inasmuch as there were nine other aspirants for the position.

Mr. Frank Smith, who so successfully coached the track team last spring, spoke very highly of the new coach, Mr. Sullivan, in a recent conversation with one of the students, here.

BASEBALL PROSPECTS.

Outlook Very Encouraging—New Material Showing Up Well.

For the third time this season the ball team has started in its out-door practice and if the old time charm of this number still exists the squad will be out for daily work from now on.

Because of the small amount of practice so far it is not an easy or safe thing to attempt much of an estimate of this year's chances. Of last year's team we have our battery, Captain Coombs and Dwyer, readily conceded by all to be the best in the state. Besides these there are left Willey, Tilton and Craig who covered the bags and Tribou our left-fielder. The mere fact of their making positions on the 'varsity last year, however, is no guarantee of similar positions this spring and there is promise of considerable competition. Buker and Burton are both aspiring for a position behind the bat and Willey and Peterson are each looking for honors at first base. Palmer, Reynolds and Hammond have all been looking for infield jobs though Palmer's playing in the field during the last two practice games points toward his being a valuable man at either center or right. Palmer is strong in backing up plays, covers considerable territory and his speed should count in his favor in running bases. Hammond comes from Ricker with an enviable reputation as a hard hitter. Gould, Whitten, Sherburne and numerous others are aspiring for out-field positions and the one or ones who show up as the best hitters will be the lucky ones. Our pitching staff is much stronger than for some years past. With "Cy" Coombs to do the heavy twirling and "Rip" Shaw as an able assistant things certainly ought to keep moving.

Manager Stetson is doing his prettiest to get the diamond into good working condition and if the weather will only help him out a bit now it should be in excellent shape by the last of the week.

Coach Shea is expected by Wednesday and then things will begin to zip in earnest. Mr. Shea comes highly recommended and much is expected of him. Batting is a strong point with him and the hope is that he will be able to impart some of his knowledge of the subject to the candidates.

On Wednesday the 'varsity will play a practice game with Coburn, the first scheduled game being with the Lewiston Athletics on Fast Day. On the 27th the team will start on its Massachusetts trip playing games with Amherst, Amherst Aggies, Andover, and Exeter.

MEETING OF DEBATING SOCIETY

The debating society will hold its first meeting of the term at 8 o'clock tonight in the chapel, with the following programme:

THE OUTLOOK IN ATHLETICS.

In recent years Colby has never enjoyed a brighter prospect in outdoor sports than lies before her this spring. Both in baseball and in track athletics the outlook is decidedly encouraging. The nine lost but one or two men by graduation last June and the entering class has brought in some very promising material. As a result the team should be stronger this year than last. Another matter of great advantage to the baseball nine this spring is the hiring of a professional coach who can give his undivided attention to the development of the team. Captain Coombs did admirable service last year as both captain and coach but found that a man on the squad could not as successfully do the coaching as an outsider. These two facts alone furnish good grounds for our hopes of winning the state baseball championship this year but there is still another, the relatively weaker teams in the other Maine colleges as compared with those of last year. However, championships have been lost many times by teams with even brighter prospects, simply through overconfidence and carelessness. Colby never needed to work harder to gain the much desired goal nor ever needed more loyal and hearty support from the student body. Let every ball player then come out for practice and train faithfully, and let every other man see to it that the team at all times receives his enthusiastic support.

The prospect for a good track team is also a matter of encouragement. We do not get here at Colby, because of several reasons, exceptionally brilliant track athletes but we do have a few very good men, who with careful training and hard work can surely develop into point winners. If we can wrest third place from Bates this year as we did last, on her own ground, it will deservedly reflect much honor on the college.

MUSICAL AND SOCIAL.

Last evening the women of the college gave a very delightful musical entertainment at the Coburn gymnasium. There was a very good attendance and the proceeds will materially increase the fund for the new piano in Foss hall. The program, given below, was of a high order and every number was greatly enjoyed. The banjo duet took especially well. Miss Lander's solos were as usual a rich musical treat and the selections by the quartet of young ladies were extremely well rendered. The Mandolin club at the conclusion of their second selection received an ovation of loud applause. The readings, varied in character, were very well given and were much enjoyed. Following is the programme:

Selection Mandolin Club
Vocal Solo Beatrice Caldwell
Piano Solo Agrandecce Record
Reading Alice Henderson
Quartet
Misses Lander, Kennison, Davies and Peterson
Piano Solo Hope Davies
Banjo Duet

Olive Taylor and Carrie Hill
Reading Marion Goodwin
Selection Mandolin Club
Selection Quartet
Piano Solo Edith Kennison
Reading Grace Stetson
Vocal Solo Jessie Whitehouse
Selection Mandolin Club
Vocal Solo Nora Lander

After the program, which occupied an hour and a half, a brief social was enjoyed with Tucker and a few marches.

CAMPUS CHAT.

Quite a number were out for track work Friday afternoon.

W. C. Washburn, '03, and L. A. Hammond, '03, were in the city last Thursday.

Dwyer '08 and Shaw '09, spent Sunday at Hebron Academy, Hebron, Me.

The track team coach has come and began his work with the boys, Monday afternoon.

C. H. Libby '08 has been nominated as captain of the basket-ball team for the next season.

The new baseball coach arrived Monday and gave the boys a good practice on the diamond in the afternoon.

North College was fitted out during the vacation with modern fire escapes at the ends of the building.

J. O. Wellman, '93, principal of Colby Academy, New London, N. H., was visiting on the campus Thursday and Friday.

Karl R. Kemison, '06, has accepted a position for the summer as a draftsman with the American Bridge Company of East Berlin, Conn.

At the meeting of the Maine Library Association, to be held in Auburn, April 25, 26, Dr. Hall, the college librarian, will have a part in the program, as will also the librarians of Bowdoin and the University of Maine.

A meeting of the track men was called Friday after chapel. Manager Thorne and Captain Ross both spoke encouragingly of the outlook. Captain Ross thinks that Colby can make a better showing this year than last year.

Mr. Ralph H. Keniston, instructor in Latin here last year and now a tutor in the Hotchkiss School, was visiting Rex W. Dodge at the A. K. E. House from Saturday until Monday night. Mr. Keniston made many friends in the college last year, who were very glad to see him again during his short visit. He expects to teach for another year at the Hotchkiss School, after which he will undertake studies for a doctor's degree at Harvard in the department of romance languages.

Last Friday evening about fifty of the students gathered in the Chapel and listened to an instructive talk on insurance, given by Mr. Bertrand C. March of Portland. Mr. March's main thought was that people have come to look upon insurance companies in a prejudiced and unfair way because of the evils which have been recently exposed. While he is an agent for an insurance company himself, yet he alluded to that company in no way throughout the entire evening, but dwelt upon the organizations as a class, bringing out the great good that they do and the inducements they offer; and illustrating as plainly as possible by means of various charts, many of the statements not clearly understood by the majority of people.

STOVER—ALLEN.

The many friends of Miss Florence E. Stover, ex-'06, and of Elmer W. Allen, '03, will be pleased to learn of their marriage, which occurred Tuesday evening, April 4, at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Stover, 17 Pickering St., Boston. Among the guests present were Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Martin of Franklin, Mass., formerly of China, Dr. H. W. Jones of this city, Mr. and Mrs. Loren C. Allen, parents of the groom, of 115 college avenue, Waterville; George E. Tolman, '04; Miss Christie Donnell, '06, Miss Carrie S. Allen, '05, and a large representation of the Beta Phi fraternity, which was unavoidably delayed until a part of the ceremonies were over.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen after a short wedding trip will make their home in Waterville, where the groom is carrying on a successful insurance business.

See Me About a Position

I want to have a personal talk with every Colby 1906 man who will be in the market for a good position in business or technical work after July 1st. Call and see me at the Elmwood at any time to suit your convenience, from April 30th to May 1st, inclusive. I can tell you frankly just what the prospects are of securing the sort of position you want and are fitted to fill. I can give you full information concerning the best opportunities for college men in all lines of work in the United States and several foreign countries. It will pay you, to see me before deciding definitely what to do after graduation.

EASTER LUNCH FOR CHI GAMMA THETA.

Last Saturday evening Chi Gamma Theta 1908, was entertained by Misses Eastman, Eaton, Goodwin and Gower, 1909. One end of the dining-room was prettily decorated and separated from the rest of the dining-room by screens. The first table was decorated with yellow and white with jonquils in the center. Grape-fruit was the first course. Then some screens were taken away and revealed another table decorated with green and white and on each napkin a little chicken bade us welcome. Creamed chicken, olives and pickles were served at this table. At the third table were salted nuts, rolls and salad. At the last table the Chi Gamma Theta colors, (green red and black) were in evidence and in the center of the table a vase of Gamma Theta pinks and ferns. Red candles furnished the light and at this table the spread was finished with ice cream, cake, nabiscoos and coffee. Afterwards the girls took some flash-lights and sat around the open fire until it was time to go home. After the yell had been given Chi Gamma marched out of the dining-room singing:

"Stuff to eat and stuff to drink,
And stuff to stuff and stuff."
