BOWDOIN DEFEATED 7-6.

Exciting Game Loosely Played on Both Sides.

The crowd of about 175 that accompanied the ball nine on the special train to Brunswick last Wednesday afternoon were hopeful, but not confident, of winning a victory from Bowdoin on her own field. There was a feeling of suspense in the air for Colby supporters up to the end of the ninth inning when John struck his last man out with a Bowdoin man on third and another on second. Bowdoin was also anxious but hopeful to the last.

The weather was cloudy, cold, and cheerless and a stiff breeze was blowing down the field directly in the face of the pitcher. As a result the game was very loosely played and Bowdoin managed to get twelve hits off from Coombs, whose pitching was way below his usual standard and less effective than that of Files, who kept Colby's hits down to eight. Shaw did by far the best work in the field for Colby, playing a remarkable game at center field, successfully taking three very difficult chances out of a possible four. With the wind blowing as hard as it did, fielding was extremely difficult. Tribou made one put-out while Palmer had no chances. There was little work for the in-field, Tilton making the best showing with but little to do. Willey played his usual good game, on first and Craig landed successfully two chances. Reynolds played a weak game at short. At the bat Willey and Tilton did the best work, "Pete" knocking two two-baggers and bringing in two scores, and "Mose" making the only three-base hit of the game and getting two safe hits. Coombs also made a two-bagger.

Files pitched an excellent game for Bowdoin and was ably caught by Abbott. Hodgdon, Bowdoin's captain, played a remarkably loose game making four costly errors. At the bat Sparks easily led and banged out the longest fly of the game, on which, however, he got only to second, owing to Shaw's good fielding.

The critical points in the game for Colby were the second parts of the seventh and ninth innings, when Coombs braced himself for the occasion and saved the day. In the seventh Bowdoin started out with four safe hits, Files was out to Reynolds on second and the bases were full. Bowdoin's band struck up Phi Chi and "Bowdoin Beata" in an effort to carry the day. But Coombs was equal to the crisis and struck the next two men out—to the great relief of the Colby crowd. Again in the ninth a similar tight place occurred, with Bowdoin men on second and third. John again showed his staying qualities and delivered the necessary strike outs.

The Colby band made a brave showing and added much to the interest and enjoyment of the game. The fellows on the field were more than once cheered by the familiar strains from the band of the blue and gray.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

Bowdoin Easily Wins Both Singles and Doubles.

The annual intercollegiate tennis tournament was played on the college courts Monday and Tuesday of this week. Bowdoin won the two cups showing superiority in both singles and doubles. The tennis throughout the tournament was below the standard—all the teams showing a lack of practice doubtless due to the weather conditions this spring.

The doubles were played off Monday leaving Tuesday for the matches in singles. Play was scheduled to begin at ten a. m., but because of the delay of the Bates team only one match was run off Monday morning. This was between Mitchell and Jewett (Maine) and Guptill and Dunn (Colby) which was won by the latter team 9-7, 8-6. In the afternoon the remaining preliminaries were played. Jordan and Austin (Bates) won from Roberts and Johnson (Bowdoin) 6-4, 6-2, Palmer and Stevens (Colby) losing and Lovett and Tabor (Maine) 6-4, 7-5 and Tobey and Paine (Bowdoin) winning from Sally and Fisher (Bates) 7-5, 6-3. In the semi-finals the Colby and Bates teams were beaten out, Lovett and Tabor winning 6-3, 8-6 and Guptill and Dunn losing to Tobey and Paine 6-3, 6-4. The finals in the doubles were run off late Monday afternoon but were one-sided and uninteresting as the Maine team had been playing steadily throughout the afternoon. Tobey and Paine won 6-1, 6-1, 6-0.

The singles were begun early Tuesday morning and were played off in quick time. Weather conditions were a little better for tennis than on Monday and the playing was more interesting to watch. In the preliminaries the results were as follows: Jordan (Bates) lost to Tobey (Bowdoin) 6-2, 6-0. Lovett (Maine) won from Stevens (Colby) 6-0, 6-2. Austin (Bates) was beaten by Paine (Bowdoin) 6-3, 4-6, 7-5 and the match between Tabor (Maine) and Palmer (Colby) resulted in a victory for the former 6-3, 6-3. In the first match of the semi-finals Tobey (Bowdoin) won from Lovett (Maine) 7-5, 6-4. The semi-finals were finished Tuesday afternoon Paine (Bowdoin) securing the match from Tabor (Maine) 6-4, 9-7. This left the two Bowdoin men for the finals and virtually closed the match. These two will play it off at some future date for the state championship.

From a Colby standpoint the tournament was rather disappointing, none of the men being very successful in their matches. Hardly more could be expected, however, from the amount of practice that the men have been able to get in on the wet courts.

JUDGE BONNEY TAKEN ILL.

Judge Percival Bonney suffered an ill turn at his home in Portland Sunday morning and is still confined to his bed. Last evening, however, word was received from his home that yesterday he passed a much more comfortable day and will probably be himself again in a short time. He had not been well all winter and went away for a rest in April. He was in his place on the bench of the Superior Court all last week but was not feeling well enough Saturday to attend to his duties. He is suffering from a complication of diseases including a disease of the heart.

U. OF M. WINS TRACK MEET

Bowdoin Barely Got Second—Bates Made Great Gains.

The twelfth annual track meet of the M. I. A. A. was held on Garcelon Field, Lewiston, on Saturday of last week. A close contest was expected between Maine and Bowdoin for first, Colby and Bates for third places. Maine won the meet by a good margin, Bowdoin losing places of vital importance in the two-mile run and the jumps. Bates showed unexpected strength, taking four first places. Colby did good work in the weight events. Close finishes were the rule rather than the exception, the two-mile, especially, proved a surprise to the wise ones, Bosworth of Bates winning from Shorey of Bowdoin in 10 min. 23 2-5 sec., breaking the old M. I. A. A. record by nearly five seconds. The meet by events:

Half-mile run—Won by Bearce, Maine; Blair, Bowdoin, second; Phillips, Bates, third. Time, 2m. 10 1-5s.

BOWDOIN NOT RESPONSIBLE.

The Echo and Manager Stetson received letters last week from respectively the editor of The Orient and Manager Wilson of the Bowdoin nine in regard to the write-up of last Wednesday's game that appeared in the Lewiston Journal dated at Brunswick. They say that no Bowdoin man had anything to do with it and that there is a strong feeling of indignation at Bowdoin over the matter. Indeed so far as can be learned it was written by no one in Brunswick. The following taken from one of the letters shows Bowdoin's sportsmanlike and gentlemanly spirit:

"We hold it just as important to be good losers as good winners and any article such as the one mentioned is as distasteful to us as it is to you."

Miss Edith Harmon, of Waterville, was the guest of Jennie Cox, '09, Sunday.

Caro Bevorge, '07, was the guest of friends at Oak Grove Seminary, Vassalboro, from Friday until Monday.

THE TRACK MEET.

One thing demonstrated at the intercollegiate track meet in Lewiston last Saturday was the fact that the meet is to be no longer, as for some years past, practically a dual meet between Bowdoin and Maine for first place. Bates came very near wrestling second place from the Brunswick team, while Colby with fourteen points to her credit made a far better showing than three years ago when we had the meet here. It is time that Colby paid more serious attention to this most interesting and useful branch of athletics, for with some outdoor work in the fall and consistent training in the winter and early spring, a team might easily be developed here which could make a good try for second place. Maine and Bowdoin need no longer to have so easy a victory over Bates and Colby on the field and track. One great advantage, however, which the two former colleges have, is that they have regular indoor meets in the winter and maintain relay teams which are practically in training the year round. Yet Colby might do the same without great difficulty. In the fall at least, a feature might be made of cross-country runs—the best sort of training for the track—and even in the winter, gymnasium instruction might be given especially adapted to the training of track men. It seems to the Echo that either these ideas or some other better ones should be carried out so that Colby might be represented at the meet which is to be held here in a year in the way that she may and ought to be represented.

Y. M. C. A. CONVENTION.

Associations of the State Meet at Portland

The Thirty-fourth Annual Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of the State of Maine was held in Portland May 11, 12, and 13. At its organization the following officers were elected:

President, Hon. Horace Purinton, Waterville; 1st Vice President, C. S. Burrage, Rockland; 2nd Vice President, C. D. Alexander, Portland; 3rd, Vice President, R. W. Carleton, Rockport; 4th, Vice President, W. C. Jordan, Bates College; Secretary, A. P. Norton, Lewiston; Assistant Secretary, D. A. Chandler, University of Maine.

Of marked importance is the fact that an Assistant Secretary for state work was voted by this convention. This Secretary is to have work entirely with the students and boys of the state. Thus begins a new era in the life of the Maine Y. M. C. A.

Colby sent 15 delegates, Coburn, 12, and Waterville, 9, Bates sent 22, Maine 8, and Bowdoin, 1.

Perhaps the addresses of the most moment to the spirit of the convention were those of Robert Sutcliffe, F. L. Willis, General Secretary, Clayton S. Cooper, Bible Study Committee, G. W. Hinckley of Good Will Farm, W. B. Millar, R. R. Secretary, and Dr. Seerley, at the Jefferson Theatre.

A few extracts may not be amiss.

Mr. Sutcliffe spoke concerning Heroic Christianity. Jesus appealed to the heroic. It is the difficulty in a thing that makes a boy want to do it. It is natural for a boy to be wide awake and into mischief. No patience with the other kind. Youth is the best time to serve God. Much depends upon the start. The past always stands. Sin can't be wiped out.

Mr. Willis in his "Message from the Word," conducted a self-examination meeting. We want a vision.

There are four kinds of sight,—the outside man; the man his friends see; the man he sees himself; the man God sees. The query, not can I trust God, but can God trust me. Get the right kind of vision by study of the Word, prayer, and absolute obedience.

Perhaps the most vital meeting of the convention was the Bible Study Conference for Students, conducted by C. S. Cooper, of New York. If the Bible is not studied in college it will not be in the rush that follows. Every man should bear a heavy burden,—something big enough to hold him down. "Young man, have a resolute purpose,—don't get scared, don't get mad." Be a genuine man. Be so genuine in your study of the Bible, and in your life, that your life will speak louder than anything else. The results of the discussion following Mr. Cooper's introductory remarks cannot be crowded into this small space. They were invaluable for Y. M. C. A. work.

Mr. Hinckley of Good Will presented some of the rarest gems of the whole thought of the convention;—"No compromise with sin." When they called me I responded with the best there was in me. "The boy is valuable because he is a boy." "He can because he thinks he can." "God has a plan for every life."

Carroll D. Wright, President of Clark College and formerly United States Commissioner of Labor, spoke at the banquet, which was held at the New Falmouth Hotel Saturday evening, in a scholarly and vigorous manner and as the result of Dr. Seerley's address at Jefferson Theatre, approximately a hundred men gave their word to try to lead a nobler manhood.
