THE CANTATA "RUTH"

Successfully Presented by the Christian Association.

Under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A., nearly fifty of the college students participated in the production of a most interesting recital, that of "Ruth, the Moabitess," at the Baptist Church on last Friday evening. The purpose of the presentation was to increase the fund for the expenses of the delegates to the Northfield and Silver Bay conferences. The complete attainment of this object through the large audience present and the consequent financial success of the occasion was extremely gratifying to all concerned.

But the neat sum realized, pleasing though it proved, represented only a small part of the actual pleasure of the affair. Its great success from a musical standpoint was far more satisfactory, and words of praise sufficient to describe the height of excellence attained in this direction cannot easily be found. A large share of the commendation is due Miss Alma Morrisette, who had charge of the chorus from the beginning and excellently directed the representation. But the faithful attention and untiring efforts of all those who took part deserve equal praise.

So well rendered was every number on the program, an attempt to select any especially worthy of mention would be very difficult. The work of the chorus was above criticism and the solos were even more appreciated. Miss Lander as Naomi, and Miss Morrisette as Ruth won merited applause and no less could be said of the trio composed of Misses Lander, Morrisette, and Peterson. Of the solos by the gentlemen, perhaps the "Slumber Song" by Mr. B. F. Jones excelled; but all were deserving of the highest praise.

The complete program follows:

"A GOOD GRIP"

Rev. W. W. Bustard of Boston Speaks to Men in the Colby Chapel.

A mass meeting for men of the college and city was held in the chapel Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. At this meeting Rev. W. W. Bustard of the Dudley Street Church, Boston, spoke on the theme, "A good grip."

He said there are four grips of which we should never let go. The first is the grip on conscience. The thing most needed in this country today is a revival of conscience that we may be kept honest in business, pure in society and truthful in politics. In the second place, keep a good grip on character. Character is a man's most valuable asset, his stock in trade. The whole test of our life is that of character.

The third grip should be on the Bible. Hold fast to the Bible. Critics have attacked it, but still it continues to be the guide of mankind in the formation of character and in the living of right lives. It is the greatest book of the world because it reveals God.

And last, but by no means least, hold fast to Jesus Christ. He is the greatest friend any man can have. At the close of the address, Mr. Bustard asked those who had not taken Christ as their personal Savior to do so at that time. Several men responded to this invitation.

COLBY 6; TUFTS 5.

Colby defeated Tufts at Medford in the first game on the Massachusetts trip by the score of 6 to 5. In the fourth inning Tingley went up in the air and Colby started to score, making three runs. In the sixth, Tufts made five runs before the third man was out. This put them in the lead but Colby took a brace in the eighth and scored three more runs. The features of Colby's fielding were the three double plays in the second, seventh, and eighth innings.

NEW LECTURE COURSE.

Hon. Wm. J. Bryan Speaks to the Students.

At the last Commencement it was announced that a friend of the college had given a trust fund, the income of which was to be expended for the maintenance of a lecture course in the college to be known as the "Arthur Jeremiah Roberts Lecture Course." The agreement on which this gift was accepted by the college provides "that speakers shall be selected who have done something worthy of mention, who have a message and who can deliver it in such a manner as will be helpful to college students."

On Tuesday afternoon the students had the pleasure of listening to the first speaker in this lecture course, Hon. Wm. J. Bryan of Nebraska. His subject was "The value of an ideal." In his introductory remarks he gave the students some very interesting and helpful suggestions on public speaking. He said that four essentials are necessary to successful public speaking: (1) A thorough mastery of the subject, (2) enthusiasm, (3) clearness, and (4) brevity.

When he turned to the subject of the hour, Mr. Bryan proved himself the true orator and scholar. The subject is a lofty one, but Mr. Bryan handled it in a masterly manner. Until the last word was spoken, he held the closest attention of his hearers, and when he closed few realized that he had been speaking for nearly two hours. His lecture was strong, eloquent and wholesome, full of apt illustrations and brilliant flashes of wit.

BOSTON COLBY ALUNNAE.

The eighth annual meeting of the Boston Colby Alumnae Association was held at Hotel Thorndike, Boston, on Saturday afternoon, April 20. Luncheon was served at one o'clock to about twenty members of the association. Interesting post-prandial exercises were participated in, consisting of short toasts, vocal solos, and an address given by Mr. Jeremiah E. Burke, Supervisor of Schools, Boston, the guest of the occasion. An original song was greatly appreciated by all and they joined in it heartily.

REUNION SONG.

Air: Fair Harvard.

Again in a joyous reunion today,
We daughters of Colby here meet,
Old ties to renew and old scenes to recall,
And our loved Alma Mater to greet.
That kindest Mother who guided our steps
When unknown and untried was the way,
Whose influence strengthens and hallows
our lives—
Our homage to her would we pay.
How she broadened and brightened our outlook on life,
How she fostered the courage of youth,
How she jealously guarded 'gainst errors of thought,
How she laid deep foundations of Truth!
All thanks, Alma Mater, for blessings untold—
But the dearest and truest we know,
Are the friendships we formed in those four
golden years,
Ever truer and dearer they grow.
NELLIE BAKEMAN DONOVAN,
Colby '92.

At the meeting which followed, the following officers were appointed for the ensuing year:

President, Miss Linda Graves, '95; vice president, Miss Lenora Bessey, '98; secretary, Miss Martha D. Tracy, '97; treasurer, Mrs. Helen S. Richardson, '98.

The college quartet sang at the Universalist church Sunday afternoon.

The visit of Mr. Bryan to Waterville is without doubt one of the most important events of the year. Seldom do the students of Colby have the opportunity of hearing a speaker of such wide reputation as Mr. Bryan. Many of us do not agree with some of his political doctrines, but we cannot help respecting him as a true American, and admiring him as an orator. With his strong attractive personality and the masterly manner with which he handled his subject, he made an impression on his hearers that will not be soon forgotten. Perhaps few men in the country could bring to us more sound teaching and lofty thought on "the value of an ideal" than Mr. Bryan. By the power of his own high ideals he has steadily climbed upward until today he is one of the most widely known citizens of the United States. From this eminence he can select as few men can, the ideals that lead to the success that is true and worthy. Certainly the students of Colby and the people of Waterville are to be congratulated on the opportunity of hearing such a distinguished orator.

The Dexter Club held its regular meeting Saturday evening. Following is the program: Piano Duet, Jennie Grindle and Agrandee Record; Reading, Ethel Butler; Vocal Solo, Maude Weed; Paper, The Railway Question, Bertha Bangs; Piano Solo, Mary Donald.

Rev. W. W. Bustard of Boston conducted the chapel service Monday noon. After reviewing briefly his sermon of the preceding Sunday, on the subject of authority, he went on to speak of the Christian life in its threefold aspect of character, conduct and attainment. In the realm of character our ideal is no less than the perfect holiness of God. Our ideal of conduct should be the serving our fellowmen with that perfect love for them that Christ has shown to us. Lastly our possibilities for attainment are limited by the circumference of the globe—"Go ye into all the world."

ATHLETIC EXHIBITION.

The Athletic Exhibition given in Coburn Gymnasium Tuesday evening, April 23, showed beyond a doubt that much has been accomplished during the past winter in the way of the physical training of Colby girls. It was not strictly speaking an athletic exhibition, but was simply a demonstration of the usual daily gymnasium exercises with some additional features. The floor work consisting of various body movements was accomplished without a mistake by a large class. A rather complicated and very pretty wand drill came next and this was followed by contests in jumping and vaulting. Perhaps the most interesting event of the evening was the basket-ball game between the Freshmen and a team composed of members selected from the three upper classes. There had been little opportunity for basket-ball practice previous to the exhibition, but the game of the evening showed that there is material in every class. The Freshmen were defeated by a score of 12 to 0.

Following is the lineup:

UPPER CLASS TEAM.		FRESHMEN.
Inez Card	rg	Joy Hinckley
Annie Harthorn	lg	Helen Robinson
Angie Corbett	c	Jennie Grindle
Georgia Conner		Grace Whittier
Dorothy Hopson	rf	Edith Lord
		Elizabeth Monohan
Margaret Clark	lf	Nellie Keen

Dr. Croswell has put great enthusiasm into her work and has toiled untiringly to make the gymnasium training interesting and profitable. Tuesday evening's work certainly did her credit.

F. H. Palno, '09, was in Winslow Monday.
