BATES AHEAD.

Colby Was Defeated in a Good Exhibition of Baseball.

On Saturday, June 8, Bates defeated Colby in the last championship game of the season by the score of 3 to 1. The game was fast and close throughout. Colby played one of the best games she has played this season making only one error and being strong at the bat; the hits however came at inopportune times and the men were left on bases. The pitching of Shaw was a feature of the game. Colby scored the first run of the game in the third inning and held that lead until the sixth when Bates succeeded in crossing the home plate twice. No more scoring was done until the ninth when Bates made one more.

Wilder, the first man up for Bates walked to first. Johnson hit a hot one to Cotton who made a pretty stop and caught Wilder at second. Johnson did not get to first in time so the game opened with a pretty double play. Rogers was hit by Shaw but Bridges hit to Baker and it was all over. Good was out, Rogers to Bridges and Dwyer went down, Wilder to Bridges. Shaw walked and Tilton fled out to Wight. Wight and Boothby fanned in the second and Cobb popped a foul up to Dwyer. Colby went down with no scoring in her half and Bates did the same in the first of the third. Colby began the scoring at this time, Hammond was caught out by Cobb and Good struck out. Dwyer hit to center field and was safe. He went to second on the first ball pitched. Boothby threw wild to second and Dwyer went to third, Shaw hit to center field and Dwyer scored the first run of the game. Tilton hit safe but Cotton hit a little fly to Rogers.

No more scoring was done until the fifth and this time it was Bates turn. Before the inning was over they had succeeded in hitting Shaw for two, Wilder and Johnson bringing in the runs on a three-bagger by Rogers. The seventh and eighth passed without scoring, but in the ninth Bates drew one more. Sherburne hit for Hammond in Colby's half but after hitting out two or three fouls, struck out. Good was out, Johnson to Bridges and Dwyer was out by Bridges alone.

This was perhaps the best game played in the whole series. Its result landed Bates in second and Colby in third place.

WON FROM BOWDOIN.

Colby Wins the Ivy Day Game at Brunswick.

Colby defeated Bowdoin in the game played at Brunswick on Ivy Day by the score of 7 to 3. Thompson pitched a first-class game for Colby. He was a little wild at times but his curves puzzled the Bowdoin team. Files was hit rather freely and was poorly supported in the field. The game was interesting and at times exciting. Bowdoin led off with the scoring in the first inning when McDade crossed the plate. Colby scored once in the fourth and Bowdoin twice. In the fifth however Colby tied the score by making two runs and made victory certain by adding two more in both the seventh and ninth.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF BIOLOGY.

On account of the absence of Mr. Chester during the next college year the work in Biology will be omitted. Students intending to elect Biology in 1908-1909 should choose their courses in 1907-1908 so that there will be no conflicts with it during the following year.

In 1908-1909 Biology 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 will be offered as given in the catalog for 1906-1907. Courses 7, 8 and 9 may then be taken by any who have already taken 1, 2 and 3 if 5 and 6 are to be taken in the same year. This makes it possible for any student who wishes to take any of the courses in Biology to obtain them even tho the work may be dropped for one year.

Earned runs—Colby 1. Three-base hit—Rogers. Stolen bases—Dwyer, Johnson, Bridges, Boothby. Sacrifice hits—Baker, Cole. Base on balls—off Shaw; Wilder, Jordan, Cobb, Boothby; off Rogers, Shaw. Struck out—by Shaw, Wight, Boothby, Jordan; by Rogers, Good; by Johnson, Hammond, Sherburne. Hits—off Rogers, in six innings, 7; off Shaw 6; off Johnson, two in two innings. Double plays—Cotton and Baker, Tilton and Good. Hit by pitcher—Rogers. Time—1.40. Umpire—Hassett.

NEW COURSES.

The Following New Courses Will Be Offered the Coming Year.

PHYSIOLOGY AND HYGIENE.

Dr. M. S. Croswell.

Fall term: A general consideration of physiology as a whole. Special consideration of the problems of diet, sleep, fatigue and exercise. Winter term: Special physiology and applied personal hygiene. Spring term: General hygiene, sanitation private and public, and a short course in emergencies.

The courses will include such laboratory work as will render the subjects clearer and more practical. Students will be required to prepare and read to the class supplementary papers on important subjects. Elective for Sophomores and Juniors of the women's Division.

The required one-hour course in hygiene will be given as during the past two years to Freshmen alone.

GENERAL HISTORY OF ART.

Professor C. H. White.

A year's work in the general history of art. Elective for Juniors and Seniors.

COLBY DEFEATED.

Colby lost to Bates by the score of 11 to 3 on Wednesday afternoon, June 5. The game was slow throughout and stopped several times on account of rain, being finally called at the end of the eighth inning. The work of both teams was poor Bates however doing well at the bat.

The Young Men's Christian Association last evening was led by Mr. Herbert C. Libby. Mr. Libby has always manifested a keen interest in the Colby students and his influence for good has been strongly manifested especially during the past year. His address last evening was a simple, straight-forward, practical, heart-to-heart talk. It was the kind of address that makes a man feel like going into life with a purpose to make his life count for all that is good and noble.

BOWDOIN WINS.

Championship Goes to Bowdoin with a Clean Slate.

Bowdoin defeated Colby at Brunswick on Saturday, June 1, by the score of 5 to 1, thus winning the championship for the season. The game was slow at times and interesting at others. Bowdoin started scoring in the second inning, three men crossing the plate before the third man was out. She scored again in the fourth. Colby made her single run in the fifth and Bowdoin made her fifth and last score in the eighth.

In the third inning Shaw lost control of the ball for a time. Files struck out but Lawrence waited and walked. Manter fled out to Guptill. Bower and Sparks were passed to first. At this point Good took a hand and pitched for the remainder of the inning. The bases were full and two were out. G. Bower hit to Cotton who fumbled and one score was made. Abbott singled and Bowdoin scored two more. McDade fled out to Guptill.

Bowdoin scored once more in the fourth and in the fifth Colby tallied once. Baker hit to Bower but Stanwood fumbled and he was safe. He went to second and third on outs of Guptill and Hammond and came home on Good's single. No more scoring was done after Manter crossed the plate in the eighth and the score was 5 to 1.

In this issue of the ECHO we wish to remind our alumni readers that commencement is only two weeks ahead. The small number of alumni at some of the recent commencements has been the cause of serious comment among the friends of the college and considerable criticism from both students and alumni in Waterville. We recognize the fact that the majority of our alumni are very busy men and that many of them live at long distances from the college, consequently a visit to Colby at this time of year means a considerable expense and loss of time. But does not the alumnus owe it to his college as a sacred duty to make some effort to be present at the commencement exercises? Not only does he owe it to the college but he owes it to himself. The college means something to every student to-day; it has meant much to the students who have been here in the past; and it should still have the love and interest of every alumnus.

The contemplated changes in the "Bricks," and the new relations which the fraternities are about to enter into with the college, should call back many more of the alumni this year. The students need the advice of those who have had more experience, and to whom should they look but to the alumni? Since the founding of Colby there has been no time when the alumni could do more for their Alma Mater by showing a keen interest in its welfare than the present. The success of any college depends upon the interest and loyalty of its alumni, and Colby is no exception.

The championship series of games is completed and the pennant has gone to Bowdoin. Although Colby stands in third place there is no reason to be down hearted at the result or discouraged at the outlook for another year. It is too much to expect that our baseball teams should win championships every year. With the amount of new material furnished him Coach Rawson did remarkably well to put a team in the field that could win second place. Two championships in four years is a record to be proud of, and with the material now in College and that which will be added from year to year, there is no reason why another championship cannot be landed before four years more have passed.

PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION.

A reception was given by President and Mrs. White on Monday evening, June 10th, to the Senior class and friends of the college. A large number were present during the evening. The receiving line consisted of President and Mrs. White, H. B. Betts and Miss Ellen Peterson, presidents of the two divisions, Prof. and Mrs. J. Wm. Black, Dean Berry and Prof. Chester. The music of the evening was rendered by the De Koven Trio of the city. Refreshments were served in the dining room over which Mrs. Hedman and Mrs. Parmenter presided.

John E. Hatch left for West Point this morning. President White leaves for a visit to Higgins to-day.

The Senior last chapel exercises will be held next Saturday at 12 o'clock.

Last Friday the following officers were elected for the Glee Club for the ensuing year: Manager, L. C. Guptill, '09; Geo. A. Gould, '08.

At a meeting of the Dramatic Club held in the chapel Monday afternoon, Isaac R. McCombe, '08, was elected president, and V. Ray Jones manager.

There has recently been added to the equipment of the Geological Department a large picture of Mount Washington in colors. This picture was presented by the Maine Central Railroad Company.

W. A. Judge took a picture of the Track Team Thursday. The pictures are now on sale at seventy-five cents each.

Frank Montgomery, ex-'08, of Hudson, visited friends at the College the latter part of the week returning home Monday.

Cleveland Thurston, '10, who has been confined to his room the past week with an abscess of the throat is able to be about again.

North and South College crossed bats on the diamond Wednesday of last week which resulted in a score of 9 to 0 in favor of South College.

Miss Alice Thomas of Livermore Falls has recently been the guest of Dr. Croswell.

Dean Berry and Anne Roberts, '08, were at Hebron Academy a few days last week in the interests of the college.

Marion E. Stone, ex-'04, died at Greenland, N.H., May 28, after a short illness. She was born at Charlestown, Mass., twenty-six years ago, and prepared for college at Higgins Classical Institute, graduating with the class of '99. Since leaving Colby she had been a very successful teacher and was engaged in that vocation at the time of her last illness. Funeral services were held from the home of her sister, Mrs. Angier L. Goodwin, Melrose Highlands, Mass.

Saturday evening the Dexter Club held its last meeting of this term. The Executive Committee aimed to make it the best and most enjoyable of the year and certainly the result justified their efforts. The assembly room of Foss Hall emptied of its rows of chairs, was transformed by couches, tables, easy chairs, pillows and banners into an attractive and cozy sitting room. A good musical program was presented and refreshments of ice cream and wafers were served. A social hour followed the program.

The final game of basket ball for class championship in the women's division of Colby College took place on the grounds back of Foss Hall, Wednesday afternoon, June 5. The beautiful leather banner was presented by the alumnae over a year ago but has never been contested for until this spring. Some time ago the Juniors defeated the Seniors and the Freshmen defeated the Sophomores, and Wednesday the Freshmen challenged the Juniors to play the final game. In spite of the uncertain weather quite a large number of students and friends collected at 3 p. m. to witness the game. This was exciting and close throughout but the Juniors came off victorious with the score of 4 to 0.

After the game there was much excitement and rejoicing and the bells of Foss Hall loudly announced the victory. In the evening the Junior class celebrated their success by a spread in the dining room, the basket balls being suspended over the table. After the spread the girls adjourned to the parlor where Dr. Croswell, in behalf of the Alumnae, presented the championship banner to the class of 1908.
