Nick Jans at the Colby Bookstore

A Place Beyond

Jans leads us into his “found” home—the Eskimo village of Ambler, Alaska, and the vast wilderness around it. In his essays, the rhythms of daily arctic life blend with high adventure—camping among wolves, traveling with Inupiat hunters or witnessing the Kobluk River at breakup.

Hardcover $22.95

Tracks of the Unseen

In his latest book, Jans makes Alaska’s wildlife and landscape visible in a collection of beautiful essays with 26 accompanying full-color photographs.

Hardcover $22.95

The Last Light Breaking

Jans’s first book, The Last Light Breaking presents 23 essays about life on the western edge of Alaska’s Brooks Range; life among a people whose Stone Age culture has collided with the 20th century.

Paperback $14.95
