INDOOR MEET.

Last Saturday evening for the first time in the history of college athletics in the state, an indoor intercollegiate meet was held, Orono being the place.

The University of Maine defeated Colby in this Exhibition Indoor Meet by a score of 50 to 19. The relative standing of the two teams is much closer than the score would indicate, as Colby was badly handicapped by giving Maine nine points in the pole vault without entering any competitors and by the fact that the track at Maine is a saucer track entirely different from the square track to which the Colby team was accustomed.

The features of the meet were the pole vaulting of Rogers of Maine and the high jumping of Herrick of Colby who won the high jump at five feet, six inches. By a clever steal, Waite of Maine got away and defeated Nardini, Colby's star sprinter. While Colby did not win this meet, her supporters came back feeling that the prospects for a winning track team this coming year were better than they have been any previous year.

The summary of the meet was as follows:

Broad Jump—First, Phillips, Maine; second, Nardini, Colby; third, Kimball, Colby. Distance 18.25 feet.

Shot Put—First, Sheperd, Maine; second, Bearce, Maine; third, Beach, Colby. Distance 38.5 feet.

Pole Vault—First, Rogers, Maine; second, Thomas, Maine; third, Gould, Maine. Height 10.97 feet. (New indoor record.)

25 Yard Hurdles—First, Phillips, Maine; second, Hill, Colby; third, Nardini, Colby. Time, 3.3 seconds.

25 Yard Dash—First, Waite, Maine; second, Good, Colby; third, Nardini, Colby. 3 seconds.

330 Yard Relay. Won by Maine. Time, 3 minutes, 38 seconds.

1160 Yard Relay. Won by Maine. Time, 4 minutes, 4 4-5 seconds.

165 Yard Relay. Won by Maine. Time, 1 minute, 38 2-5 seconds.

Officials:—Referee, E. R. Wingard; Clerk of Course, M. R. Sumner; Starter, A. L. Grover; Scorers, W. E. Farnhum, P. R. Hussey; Judges of Field Events, J. N. Philbrook, K. D. Woodward, B. Haskell; Judges at Finish, A. J. Adams, P. L. Bean, J. A. Gannett; Timers, F. L. Thompson, E. C. Drew, H. H. Jordan; Measurers, W. Hilton, H. E. Winn, O. W. Mountford, W. R. Witham; Announcer, R. R. Day.

COMPLETE BASEBALL SCHEDULE.

Manager Robert L. Ervin of the Colby baseball team has announced the complete baseball schedule for the season. Colby men and all who are interested in Colby will be pleased to note the excellent southern trip that has been arranged for the Easter vacation. Manager Ervin is very much pleased with the arrangement he has been able to make for this trip, and hopes

Monday, June 26, Coombs game at Waterville. ('Varsity vs. Colby championship team of 1906.)

The price of the dinner will be $1.75 per plate. If any of the students plan to attend they should notify Albert K. Stetson, '07, chairman of the committee of arrangements, Houlton, Maine.

The covers to the programs were hand made, consisting of blue linen paper, outlined in gilt, with a gilt lyre in the center, and all tastily tied with the fraternity colors, blue and gold. Program:

- | | | | |
|---|-----|------------------------|------------------|
| 1 | (a) | Impromptu | Reinhold |
| | (b) | Les Sylvaïus | Chaminade |
| | | Miss Pollard | |
| 2 | (a) | The Rosary | Nevin |
| | (b) | Serenade | Gounod |
| | | Miss Bakeman | |

- 3 (a) Cavatina Raff
 (b) Serenade Pierne
 Miss Drake
- 4 (a) O Dry Those Tears Del Riego
 (With Violin Obligato)
 (b) Spring-tide Becker
 Miss Bakeman
- 5 Silver Spring Bendel
- 6 The Wearing of the Green
 Miss Bakeman (By request)

After the Musicales the guests inspected the rooms, and the ladies took part in a contest in which they had to guess the names of places in Ireland which were put in riddle form on paper in each room. The winner was to receive a prize. Eleven of the ladies succeeded in guessing all of the riddles, and the prize was drawn for and Miss Avis Thompson, '13, was the lucky one. Prof. C. H. White acted as judge and announcer, and awarded to her a string of A. T. O. pennants.

The refreshments were served by a committee of the Alphas, assisted by Miss Coombs, '11, who was in charge of the punch table; and by Miss Blanchard, '14, and Miss Scribner, '14, who helped to serve the ices and fancy crackers.

The last thing on the program, and the climax to them all, was when the lights were turned low, the fire lit in the open fire-place, and a happy hour was spent in telling Irish stories, readings, and in song. All were loth to go when the time came to break up, and many expressed themselves as having enjoyed a delightful evening.

The faculty was very well represented, several of the alumni were back, and there were a large number of out of town guests.

The party was chaperoned by Dean Bass and Mrs. Wells, the matron.

The committee in charge consisted of, Marriner, '13, Hussey, '12, Shesong, '13, Knight, '14, Phair, '14, and Higginbotham, '11.

Columbia has made arrangements with the University of Paris for the exchange of professors.

Eleven men were awarded the insignia of the Cornell Cross Country Club.

BENEFIT ENTERTAINMENT.

The benefit entertainment at the City Opera House, Tuesday evening, March 21, was a great success. The program was varied and every feature of it was of a high order. The vaudeville acts were by far the best that have appeared at the Opera House for a long time. The work of the Musical Clubs was appreciated.

The following was the program:

- Overture,—Tadella Bendix
 "Yachting Glee" Macy
 Glee Club
- Vaudeville—"Ye Colonial Wizards"
 Kalma and LaFarlan
 Moving Pictures
- Vaudeville—Some singers and some dancers
 The Pekin Trio

DR. CROWELL OF AMHERST DEAD.

The Rev. Dr. Edward Payson Crowell, professor emeritus of Latin language and literature at Amherst College, and the author of numerous Latin works, died at his home Saturday, March 25, aged 81 years. The Rev. Dr. Crowell retired in 1908 on a Carnegie pension after a service of 50 years. From 1880 to 1894 he served as dean of Amherst. More than 20 years ago the Rev. Dr. Crowell lost the sight of both eyes, but continued his work as professor of Latin languages.

Dr. Crowell is survived by one son, Professor Robert W. Crowell of Colby College and three daughters, all of whom reside in Amherst, Mass.

Recently when several students were suspended for hazing at the University of Colorado, five hundred students walked out with them.

Manager Ervin, the baseball team, and, in fact, the whole college, are to be congratulated on the excellent schedule for this season, and particularly on the southern trip and another "Coombs game."

Owing to the illness of the editor-in-chief, the recent change made in THE ECHO board, and a peculiar combination of unfortunate circumstances, no issue of this paper appeared last week. In order to make up the full quota of numbers, an extra number will appear early next term.

Some of the defeat of the track team last Saturday may, of course, be attributed to the track and other conditions, entirely different at the University of Maine gymnasium than at ours; but not all of it. This meet should serve as a warning. If Colby expects to win in track this spring, she must put every effort available into the track team. Every man in college who ever saw a track shoe must go out for track and give the best that he has. It is going to be a hard fight to win this year; but with the spirit and work back of the team, Colby has fully as good a chance to win as any college in the state.

TRACK PRACTICE.

Monday, spring practice for track was commenced under the direction of Coach Adams and Physical Director Thompson. Mr. Adams will have immediate charge of the varsity team with the assistance of Mr. Thompson, who besides assisting Mr. Adams, will exert his efforts chiefly in the development of new material.

This spring for the first time in the history of the college, a training table is being run for the track team. It started Monday with seven men. This number will be increased during the season as the work of the team progresses.

COLBY'S TRACK COACH.

Mr. Arthur J. Adams, who will direct the Colby Track Team for the remainder of the season, was born at Concord, N. H., October 24, 1878.

His record in the 100-yards dash is 10 1-5 seconds and his record in the 220-yards dash is 22 seconds.

He coached Concord High School for five consecutive championships, 1899 to 1904, the teams winning the New Hampshire state championship and the Dartmouth interscholastic championship.

He coached Pinkerton Academy for the seasons of 1906 and 1907, and the team of the latter year was a winner.

Brewster Academy secured his services for 1908 and 1909, and the Brewster team was third in the Dartmouth interscholastic meet and won the New Hampshire state championship in 1909.

Mr. Adams assisted in the development of Abbot and Robinson, distance runners, and Hill and Schumacher, old Dartmouth runners. Swasey, Dartmouth's fastest sprinter in 1905 and 1906, was developed in preparatory school to 10 1-5 under Mr.

Adams' coaching. Frank Nardini, captain and star sprinter of Colby, was developed by Mr. Adams.

He has coached at least one N. E. I. A. A. championship relay team, and had the world's record relay team in 1904.

Mr. Adams has taken hold of his work at Colby in an excellent manner. He has the united support of every member of the track squad and the entire student body.

RESOLUTIONS.

WHEREAS, Almighty God, in His infinite wisdom and power, has seen fit to take from this life the mother of Burleigh Benton Mansfield, be it

Resolved, That we, the class of 1913, extend our deepest sympathy to our classmate and to the bereaved family in their great sorrow; and be it further

INTERCOLLEGIATE NOTES.

A bronze Memorial tablet is Bowdoin's tribute to the services of the late Professor Franklin C. Robinson, who for thirty-seven years was connected with the college as undergraduate, teacher and investigator.

The editors of the Harvard Monthly devote their entire last issue to showing in fifty-seven different ways that the Harvard student daily paper, the Crimson, is a crime against journalism; the editors of the Crimson in return say the editors of the Monthly had better stick to short fiction stories about embroidering doilies for the centre table. Writers in the Harvard Bulletin, the graduates' weekly paper, say football as played at Harvard is too rough, and that soccer football is better. The Lampoon came out recently with its 'human infinities' cartoon showing what purported to be the shades of the Rev. Lyman Abbott and Miss Eva Tanguay flirting about in the Elysian fields. The editors hint that the issue of the Lampoon was ordered suppressed by the faculty. The officials have handed down an official 'not true,' but the fact is you can't buy one today.
