TRACK MEET.

Maine, 41; Bates, 39; Colby, 30; Bowdoin, 16—
Holden of Bates Ran in Spite of Arbitration Board's Decision—Nearly Every Event Was Warmly Contested.

Maine won the Maine Intercollegiate Track Meet on Alumni Field, Waterville, Saturday, May 13, with forty-one points, Bates having thirty-nine, Colby, thirty, and Bowdoin, sixteen.

Three records were smashed. In the 440-yards dash Holden of Bates took the event in 51 3-5 seconds, breaking the Maine intercollegiate record previously held by L. G. Weld of Bowdoin, 51 4-5 seconds. In the 120-yard hurdles Blanchard of Bates went in 15 3-5 seconds, but it was not allowed as a record because too many hurdles had been knocked down. The record, which still stands in this event is 16 2-5 seconds, held jointly by C. F. Kendall and H. G. Tobey of Bowdoin and J. E. Fraser of Bates. Rogers of Maine made a new Maine intercollegiate record in the pole vault, taking the bar successfully at 11.2 feet. The previous record was held by C. L. Deming of Bowdoin, 10 feet 10 inches. A new Maine record for throwing the discus was put up in sharp competition, Gove of Bates throwing the plate 120.54 feet. Shepard of Maine threw it 124 feet, but stepped out of the ring, and the throw was not allowed.

Although landing in third place, Colby had the largest number of firsts, winning the two dashes, the quarter-mile, the running broad jump and the running high jump. Capt. Nardini of Colby was the highest individual point winner of the meet, taking fifteen points.

BASEBALL.

Bowdoin, 4; Colby, 0.

In a game marked by many errors and full of spectacular plays Colby lost her second game in the Maine championship series at Brunswick, Wednesday, May 10, by a score of 4 to 0. In the fourth inning Bowdoin got three runs. Burroughs, who succeeded McDougall, kept the hits down and well scattered. In the eighth, however, he collided with Purrington at third base and suffered a badly sprained leg and bruise, so that he had to be carried from the field and Good went in and finished the game. Poor old Bates! After profiting by the admission of Holden to the track meet she was robbed of the honor of tying with Maine by what was probably a wrong decision by the judges at the finish in the hundred-yards dash. A photograph from a plate exposed in a speed camera as the men crossed the line shows that McKenney of Bowdoin, not Deering of Maine, was second in this event, thus reducing Maine's total to 39 points.

The most striking result of a canvass of the present freshman class of Wesleyan of reasons why these men selected Wesleyan as their Alma Mater, was that about one-fourth of those who answered the question attribute their choice of a college to the annual sub-freshman week. Thirteen went there as the result of the active work of the undergraduates. Some twenty-three men were influenced in their decision by friends, by members of the Wesleyan faculty or by their teachers. Twenty-two men had relatives who graduated from Wesleyan and naturally they went there. Among the other reasons presented were: the reputation of the faculty and alumni, athletics, scholarship aids, the booklet, "The Talk with a Sub-Freshman."

NEW YORK COLBY ALUMNI.

The sixteenth annual reunion of the New York Colby Alumni Association was held at Hotel Hermitage, Saturday evening, April 29, 1911.

It was in many ways the most successful dinner the Association has ever held. Besides a large attendance of members, the following guests were present: President Roberts, Prof. Hedman, Dr. H. L. Koopman, Hon. Asher C. Hinds and Mr. Asher C. Hinds, Jr. A half hour of social intercourse preceded the dinner, during which college songs and cheers, led by George A. March, '01, enlivened the courses.

Hon. Harrington Putnam, justice of the Supreme Court of New York and president of the Association, acted as toastmaster and introduced the speakers.

President Roberts was called upon first and was welcomed by a rousing cheer. He began with a very tender allusion to Dr. Hall, who was a guest of the Association a year ago. He then told the Association about the fire which demolished a part of North College and of the generosity of the people of Waterville in raising $1200 to help the students who lost so heavily. He outlined plans for building a new dormitory, to be located between North College and the gymnasium, and gave a great deal of interesting information about the life and work at the college.

Hon. Asher C. Hinds responded next and spoke of the benefits of the small college and of educational work Colby has always been doing. He said, "The man worth while is the man who searches for the truth and knows it when he finds it. There are too many men who speak well, but who cannot think well."

Dr. Harry L. Koopman, librarian of Brown University, was heard with pleasure.

He told how Prof. Hall had influenced his life and gave an interesting account of the workings of a large college library.

Hon. Richard C. Shannon was warmly received and his remarks were listened to with very great pleasure. His reminiscences of Dr. Hall, dating from the beginning of their friendship in 1858, were most impressive. In conclusion Col. Shannon offered the following resolution, which was read and adopted by a rising vote:

Resolved; That this brief Memorial be entered in the Minutes of the New York Alumni Association, and that the Secretary be instructed to forward a copy to the family of Dr. Hall.

Memorial.

It is with deep regret that the members of the New York Colby Alumni Association, as individuals and as a body, record the death of Edward Winslow Hall, LL. D., Emeritus Professor of Modern Languages and Librarian of Colby College, which occurred at his home in Waterville, Maine, Thursday, September 8, 1910.

Dr. Hall was graduated from the College with the class of 1862; in 1886, by a unanimous vote of the Board of Trustees, he was chosen Professor of Modern Languages, besides which he was occasionally Instructor in higher mathematics; in 1873, he assumed the additional duty of Librarian, and in 1891, he was relieved from further service as Instructor that he might give his entire time and attention to the Library. Thus, for nearly half a century, he was identified with Colby College, either as student, Instructor or Librarian, and in the performance of his varied duties he ever showed an unflinching devotion to the welfare of the College. His interest in its success and prosperity was marked, and to its advancement in all possible ways, he gave his best efforts. He was especially devoted to the career and lives of our Alumni; and it was from his tireless correspondence and the accurate preservation of such data that he compiled the General Catalogue of 1909. He came to many meetings of this Association, where his genial presence and addresses will long be recalled as a delight and encouragement.

It may be safely said that few members of the Faculty ever rendered so long, so varied and so useful a service to the College, and it is with this sense of his worth, and in sorrow for his demise, that the members of the Association now spread upon its records this expression of their appreciation of his character and services.

The other speakers of the evening were Mr. A. P. Soule, who brought the greetings of the Boston Colby Alumni Association and spoke very entertainingly regarding many of the graduates of Colby; Prof. Hedman, who spoke of the kindly personal relations between the Faculty of Colby and the students; Dr. C. E. Melony; Mr. George P. Phenix; and Prof. F. H. Hanson.

The following officers were elected: President, Edward F. Stevens, '89; Secretary-Treasurer, Edward B. Winslow, '04; executive committee, A. H. Bickmore, '93; Walter G. Hooke, 1900; Daniel G. Munson, '92.

THEY SAY.

That the past week has been crowded with events.

That there is a tendency among college men, when given one "cut" to take two.

That the Colby Oracle this year will be the best yet.

That the class odists are making preparations to "ode-ize."

That the Colby march composed by Cecil M. Daggett, '03, has the true Colby spirit breathing in every note.

That it lacks only the words to make it a grand rallying song.

That there never yet was need of a poem but that the poet was forthcoming.

That everyone will have an opportunity of learning it at the Coombs game, June 26.

That everyone is wondering, "If this is May, what will June be like?"

That the Lyford Prize Speaking Contest has come to be a synonym for "the annual foregathering of the brightest young men of Maine" at Colby College.

That if the presence of the delegates to the Maine Baptist Institute inspired a certain famous compact between President Roberts and the undergraduates of Colby, there is added reason for the continuance of that agreement.

That among the most relentless critics of men and manners, the sub-freshman, making up his mind where he will go to college, is keenest.

That the pained expression on the face of the statue of St. George in Memorial Hall is due to his surprise at being accosted by Sophocles of Greece and Roger Williams of Rhode Island.

That Colby is sending eight men to the New England Meet at Springfield, Friday and Saturday.

That before the Maine college track managers an unauthenticated letter bears more weight than a sworn statement.

That somebody lied.

That Colby is ever chivalrous to an honorable opponent.

DE FEMINIS.

numerous graphic cartoons and other illustrations; photographs and biographic sketches of the conspicuous personalities of the month; the most recent advances in science and discovery; the noteworthy events in religion, literature and art; critical reviews of the best fiction, dramatic and musical works; a page of the best humor and a condensation of the leading play of the month.
