THE COLBY ALUMNUS.

In the January issue of "The Colby Alumnus" we read of another Colby man who is making marked progress in the busy world of affairs. Mr. Randall J. Condon, of the class of '86, has been recently elected to the superintendency of schools in Cincinnati, a city of about 375,000 people. Mr. Condon was born in Friendship, Maine, July 10, 1862. From Coburn Classical Institute he entered Colby in 1882, and at the end of four years was graduated with high honors. In the September following his graduation he was elected to the Maine House of Representatives from his home district. Since 1889, Mr. Condon has served continually as superintendent of schools, his last position being at Providence, R. I., from which place he was released with considerable reluctance after the business men and various clubs of the city had made strong efforts to retain him. Concerning the public school system, Mr. Condon has progressive and original, yet safely conservative, ideas, whose real worth has been proven by the excellence of school conditions under his direction.

Another contribution of great interest is the report of the formation of the Chicago Colby Club last month. This club is made up of thirteen of the Colby men in Chicago, and it aims at being of assistance to the College and to Colby men, at any time and in any way that it can. Its officers are: Albion Small, '76, president, and Franklin W. Johnson, '91, secretary.

There is also, a resumé of the football season of 1912, and two very interesting articles concerning the times when football was young at Colby. Although several attempts had been made at organizing teams, and a few minor games had been played, the first college games were played in the fall of 1892, with Bowdoin and Maine. To Bowdoin, the team lost, but it succeeded in defeating Maine. The next year, Bates was added to the list of competing teams, and the first game was played with an out-of-the-state college, Boston University. With ups and downs, the game at Colby has increased, both in popularity and in strength, and today the football team is one of our proudest assets.

The magazine also contains the usually large number of alumni notes, which, with several smaller paragraphs, help to bring this issue up to the regular high standard.

Theodore Fieldbrave, '16, gave an address on India at the Free Baptist church, Sunday evening.

GIFT.

The College has lately received seventy-five thousand dollars from the Hon. D. D. Stewart of St. Albans, an honorary graduate of Colby. The gift is in memory of Mr. Stewart's brother, the late Levi M. Stewart, Esq., of Minneapolis, who spent the first year of his college course here at Colby. Mr. Stewart's generosity is greatly appreciated by all friends of the College. May other men of wealth follow his example!

REV. CYRUS F. STIMSON.

At the annual meeting of the Congregational church, Tuesday evening, the twenty-first instant, Rev. Cyrus Flint Stimson, of the class of 1893, tendered his resignation to take effect on, or before, April first. For the past five years, Mr. Stimson has served as pastor of the Congregational church, and has been closely associated with all the religious, civic, and educational activities of the city.

Mr. Stimson has given up his position here in order to take up new duties as field secretary of the Playground and Recreation Association of America. The work he has done in Waterville adequately fits him for his new position, and it is safe to say that the measure of his success here, is a good indication of the success that awaits him in his larger field.

LECTURE.

The second lecture in the series for the library benefit was delivered Tuesday evening, in Chemical Hall, by Professor Webster Chester, his subject being "A Biologist in Bermuda." The lecture dealt primarily with the flora and fauna, especially the marine forms, of the islands. Incidentally, Professor Chester touched upon the geological structure of the region and the history, and customs of the people.

The lecture was largely attended, was very interesting and instructive throughout, and was illustrated by the stereopticon.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL.

At the regular meeting of the Athletic Council, Monday evening, John Wells was appointed to represent the Athletic Association at the annual meeting of the Maine Arbitration Board, which will be held in Boston, February 8.

The baseball schedule for the coming season was submitted by Manager Carroll, and approved.

It was voted to hold the next meeting February 17.

TRACK.

Interest in track athletics now centres upon the selection of the relay team which will represent Colby at the B. A. A. meet to be held in Boston, February 8. A series of trials is being held on the board track to determine the fastest men. At the trials, last Saturday, among those who made the best time were: Bowen, '14, Meanix, '16, Small, '13, Royal, '15, Dunn, '15, and Reynolds, '14.

It is expected that the team will be much faster than that of last year and the prospects are very bright for Colby to win another victory.

At a meeting of the Junior Class held last Saturday the following committee was elected to make arrangements for the annual Junior Promenade: Harvey Knight, Everett L. Wyman, Don J. Whitney, Milroy Warren, William A. Tracy, Frank S. Carpenter, and Wilbur B. Dexter.

At the same time a committee was elected to draw up a slate of speakers for Junior Class Day, and that committee has made the following report: orator, Robert H. Bowen; chaplain, Chester F. Wood; historian, Vinal H. Tibbetts; presentation of prizes, Robert E. Owen; marshal, Wilmer A. Mooers; ode committee, Harold C. Morse, George W. Pratt, and Earle H. Davis.

BOWLING LEAGUE.

Owing to the fact that the Y. M. C. A. alleys were being scraped and leveled, it was possible for only two games in the Bowling League to be rolled during the past week. On Thursday last, Delta Kappa Epsilon defeated Zeta Psi, by the score of 1304 to 1278.

MUSICAL CLUBS, WATERVILLE, FEBRUARY 14.

Whereas, the editors of the ECHO will be preoccupied with other than professional duties next week, and

Whereas, also, the student body will have no time to devote to reading newspapers, therefore, be it

Resolved, that the next edition of the ECHO be published Wednesday, February 12, and that copies of this resolution be sent to all subscribers.

A strenuous and trying period in the college work, both for professors and students alike, has almost come. The whole attitude of the student body now finds expression in the words, "Work for exams. are coming," and true to their meaning, a seriousness and quietness usually pervades the campus at this time. But, remember, no matter what the outcome next week may be, the reaction will bring freedom and relief.

No more welcome news has come to the college this year than that which was announced last Saturday morning of the gift, by Hon. David D. Stewart, of St. Albans, of $75,000. The students showed their appreciation and pleasure by singing with feeling and strong spirit, "Alma Mater." Colby's prosperity and continued progress are further assured; and this magnificent gift, at this stage, places the college under deep obligation to her generous benefactor.

General regret was felt among the student body when President Roberts announced this morning, in chapel, that, at the meeting of the Board of Trustees yesterday, in Portland, it was impossible for them, this year, to change the date of commencement.

Y. M. C. A.

The service in the Methodist church at North Vassalboro, last Sunday evening, was led by a deputation team representing the Colby Y. M. C. A. The following men took part: Chester F. Wood, '14; Arthur D. Gillingham, '14; V. W. Dyer, '15; and Harold S. Campbell, '15.

Evangelistic services will be held there throughout the week under the direction of various members of the association.
