DR. G. D. B. PEPPER.

On the evening of January 30, Rev. George Dana Boardman Pepper, a former president of the college, died at his home on Pleasant street, in this city. It was known that Dr. Pepper had been in ill health for some time, but his sudden death came as a shock to all.

Dr. Pepper was born in Ware, Mass., February 5, 1833. He attended Williston Seminary, and later entered Amherst College, being graduated with honors from that institution in 1857. He then attended Newton Theological Seminary, completing his course in 1860. In September of that year he was ordained pastor of the First Baptist Church in this city, and, in the following November, was married to Miss Annie Grassie of Bolton, Mass. As pastor of the Baptist church, he served for five years, working untiringly under very adverse circumstances to build up the church. Upon resigning, he returned to Newton Theological Seminary, where he became professor of ecclesiastical history. He also taught at Upland, Pennsylvania; and, in 1868, accepted a professorship of systematic theology at Crozier Theological Seminary. Here he remained for a period of fourteen years.

In 1882, Dr. Pepper succeeded President Robins as head of Colby College. For seven years he directed the affairs of the college with faithful and able leadership, and successfully brought about many improvements in the departments of instruction. Coburn Hall and Shannon Physical Laboratory were added to the college during his administration.

Failing health obliged him to give up his work, in 1889, and the next two years were spent in traveling. However, in 1892 he returned to Colby as head of the department of Biblical Literature, which position he held until 1900. Dr. Pepper received the degree of D. D. from Colby in 1867, and from Amherst in 1882. From Lewisburg University he received the degree of LL.D., in 1862, and from Colby in 1890.

On November 29, 1910, Dr. and Mrs. Pepper celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in the parlors of the First Baptist Church, where they welcomed hundreds of their friends. For months past, Dr. Pepper has been in poor health, although but few believed him to be so low. The funeral services were held in the Baptist church, Rev. E. C. Whittemore, D.D., officiating. The church was filled with friends, and with representatives from the faculty and the student body of the college. Later, the remains were taken to Newton Centre, Mass., for burial. On Sunday morning, Rev. Dr. Whittemore preached a memorial sermon on, "The Character and Work of Dr. G. D. B. Pepper." The tribute paid to Dr. Pepper was noble and elevating, and worthy of the man who had given a long life of rich and glorious service for the welfare of mankind.

LECTURE.

Professor White gave the third of the series of library fund lectures in Chemical hall, Monday evening. The lecture, entitled, "The Sea Kings of Crete," proved to be very instructive and interesting throughout. The romantic story of Professor Henry Schlieman, his life of struggle and final success, was a fitting introduction to a discussion of the results of the excavations of the cities of Mycenae, Tyrenns, Troy and some others of Crete. Minos and the fabled Minotaur, Professor White showed to be more than a mere legend. The lecture was closed by an interesting prophecy that the date 776 B. C. would in the near future, no longer merely mark the end of legendary lore, but would indicate a remarkable epoch in Greek history.

The fourth and last lecture of the series will be given by Dr. George F. Parmenter, Monday evening, February 24th.

B. A. A. MEET.

For the third successive time, Colby's relay team defeated Bates's relay team at the B. A. A. games in Boston, last Saturday night. The race, which was very close, was not decided until Bowen, by splendid running, passed Dennis of Bates on the last lap. Meanix started for Colby against Nevers of Bates, and had no trouble in giving Reynolds a substantial lead; but Reynolds, in a mix-up on the last corner of his relay with Deering, stumbled, thus giving Bates a lead of about ten yards. Small ran an even race with Thompson of Bates. On the last relay, Bowen had a handicap of ten yards to make up, yet he not only made up the distance, but came in ten yards ahead of Dennis. The time 3.15 3-5 was 1.2-5 seconds better than that of last year.

ARBITRATION BOARD.

The annual February meeting of the Maine Intercollegiate Arbitration Board was held at the Boston City Club, Boston, last Friday morning. The secretary, Professor Pomeroy of Bates, reported that the amendment to the Board constitution, giving the Board power to fix penalties for technical and trivial violations of the eligibility rules had been accepted by the three athletic councils of Bates, Maine and Colby.

The first case to come up under the new amendment was that of Charles Anderson of Bates College. After carefully considering his case, the arbitration board voted to reinstate him and to declare him eligible for college athletics after April 1, 1913.

The old officers of the Board—president L. C. Southard (Maine), of Boston, and Professor F. E. Pomeroy (Bates), of Lewiston, were re-elected for the ensuing year.

MURRAY PRIZE DEBATE.

The successful contestants in the preliminaries of the Murray Prize Debate were announced in chapel last week by Professor Libby. The sides and the question for debate will be chosen immediately. The contestants are as follows: Leo G. Shesong, '13; John Wells, '13; Robert H. Bowen, '15; David Jack, '14; Charles H. Jones, '15; and Roger A. Putnam, '15. Alternates: Jason Hagan, '13, and Ervin M. Miller, '16.

DEBATING.

The following men have been appointed coaches for the eight schools which have entered the Colby Interscholastic Debating League. Preparations will begin immediately for the preliminary debates.

Wyman, '14; Skowhegan High School, Roger A. Putnam, '15; Madison High School, Florian G. Arey, '15; Good Will High School, Leo G. Shesong, '13; Waterville High School, Leslie F. Murch, '15.

WATERVILLE CONCERT.

There should not be a light burning on the campus, Friday night, when the song birds of the college line up in the Opera House for their annual hum.

All the leading musical star performers will be there with abundance of happy surprises, including, "Ted" Jones, George Pratt, the quartet, and our inimitable "Spike" Loan.

Every effort is being made to have this the best concert ever given by the college musical clubs. There will be no disappointment about this either, for never before has there been such a wealth of musical talent here. Every student ought to plan to be in the Opera House when the curtain rises, at 8.15 p. m., next Friday evening, not only to show his interest in, and appreciation of, the musical clubs, but, also, as a matter of college loyalty.

Following is the treat that is in store for all:

"The Ministry," address by Rev. H. E. Dunnack, February 17.

For the past four years Colby has run against Bates at the B. A. A. meet. Again, as on two previous occasions, she has been victorious. The race was spectacular throughout, and it was only within a few yards from the finish that Colby got the lead and wrested the victory from the fast Bates team. Colby appreciates the work of Bowen.

It might be to the point to suggest that the rules of the library be observed by the faculty as well as by the student body. "Gentlemen will be quiet" should be applied universally and surely "others must be" should take in all the rest.

MUSICAL CLUBS.

Fresh from their mid-year examinations, the students comprising the musical clubs journeyed to Bath, Friday night, and there presented their program. The concert was given under the auspices of the Young Men's Class of the Baptist Church. The audience filled the large church to overflowing, and, although somewhat impatient at the late arrival of the clubs, showed great appreciation of the numbers rendered. After the concert, a reception was given the clubs and light refreshments were served.

Saturday morning, the musicians went to Augusta. The concert in the evening was given in the city hall, before a fairly large audience. What was lacking in numbers was more than made up for by the manifestations of approval which the Augusta audience expressed. After the concert, the Colby orchestra furnished music for a dance, which lasted until twelve.

The work both of the Glee Club and Mandolin Club was especially commendable, while Mr. Loane received storms of applause for his interpretation of "Biff Perkins's Toboggan Slide".

This coming Thursday evening, the combining clubs will present their program at North Vassalboro.

Y. M. C. A.

The first of a series of life-work talks, which is again being offered by the college Y. M. C. A., was held in the association rooms, Tuesday evening, when Mr. H. S. Smith of the Springfield Y. M. C. A. College spoke to a large and attentive audience on the subject, "The Young Men's Christian Association." Mr. Smith gave briefly the history and present importance of the association in its work of training young men, and made an earnest appeal to Colby men to consider carefully Y. M. C. A. work as an opportunity for the most profitable investment of life and service. The second life-work talk will be given next Monday evening by Rev. H. E. Dumnack, of Augusta. The subject is, "The Ministry."

Provident Talks for Colby Men

To the student who has borrowed money to put himself through college will come the disquieting thought:—

"What if I do not live to repay this?"

"If I do live it is only a question of time, for Colby men make good."

"If I should die upon whom would the burden fall, my people, my endorser, or the man who had faith enough in me to make the loan?"

Why not protect all three and lay the foundation for later insurance by taking out a low cost policy in the Provident, temporarily assigned to the creditor for the amount hired, the balance payable to the parents?
