Provident Talks for Colby Men

To the student who has borrowed money to put himself through college will come the disquieting thought:—

"What if I do not live to repay this?"

"If I do live it is only a question of time, for Colby men make good."

"If I should die upon whom would the burden fall, my people, my endorser, or the man who had faith enough in me to make the loan?"

Why not protect all three and lay the foundation for later insurance by taking out a low cost policy in the Provident, temporarily assigned to the creditor for the parents?

INTERSCHOLASTIC DEBATING LEAGUE.

Arrangements for the preliminary debates of the Colby Interscholastic Debating League have been perfected, and the questions are in the hands of the respective contestants.

The league consists of the following schools,—group A: Coburn Classical Institute, Higgins Classical Institute, Maine Central Institute, Oak Grove Seminary; group B: Waterville High School, Skowhegan High School, Good Will High School, Madison High School.

Two preliminary debates are to be held in each group, a semi-final in each group, and a final between the winners from each group. Student coaches have already been assigned.

Three of the preliminary debates have been scheduled for the evening of March 14. Good Will and Waterville High debate upon the question: "Resolved, that the American Congress should repeal the legislation which exempts from the payment of Panama Canal tolls American ships engaged in the American coastwise trade." Good Will has the affirmative and Waterville the negative. The affirmative of the question: "Resolved, that the present protective tariff is beneficial to the American farmer," has been assigned to Oak Grove Seminary, the negative to Coburn Classical Institute. Skowhegan High School has the affirmative, and Madison High School the negative, of this question: "Resolved, that the State of Maine should permit the transmission of its water powers beyond the state limits." The last of the preliminary debates is set for the evening of March 21, with the question: "Resolved, that the present protective tariff is beneficial to the American working man." Maine Central Institute has the affirmative, and Higgins Classical Institute the negative. Judges are to be chosen by the participants, and presiding officers and timers assigned by the society.

The prizes for which these debates are held amount to $100 and are the gift of Hon. Forrest Goodwin, a graduate of Colby in the class of 1887. The sum is to be divided on the basis of $75 to the winning team, and $25 to the losing team. First prize was awarded last year to the team representing Maine Central Institute, and second prize to Waterville High School.

THE ANNUAL CONCERT.

At the Opera House, last Friday evening, the Musical Clubs displayed their talent before a large and appreciative audience. The performance, as a whole, was pronounced, by those attending it, to be of a very high order, surpassing the concerts of previous years. Most of the numbers presented were more classical in their nature than those of the years past, and the clubs showed true artistic taste in the interpretation of them.

The orchestra of fourteen pieces surprised everybody by its playing of the Overture from Lucia di Lammermoor. For encores it played several marches with a snap and accuracy that reflected great credit on the leader, Royden Greely. The Glee Club showed to best advantage in "The Beauteous Night," by Offenbach, with Harold F. Jones singing the solo part. The Mandolin Club was one of the best that ever represented the college, and it played with a breeziness that was electrifying. "Spike" Loan in his first appearance as reader before a local audience made a distinct impression by the pleasing manner in which he handled humorous subjects. The violin solos of George W. Pratt were of professional grade and were among the most pleasing features of the program.

One of the best things of the concert was not on the program. It was an impromptu sketch in which a quintette, consisting of Cushman, Lincoln, E. A. Carpenter, Gilbert, and Jones, played a medley of popular airs. For an encore, they sprang a great surprise on the audience by appearing in Colby blankets with feathers on their scalps, presumably representing the Five Nations.

Manager Keyes has been making dates for other concerts. He has made arrangements for several concerts during the Easter vacation, the itinerary to include entertainments in Milo, Presque Isle, Caribou, Fort Fairfield, and Houlton.

Y. M. C. A. CONFERENCE.

The fifth annual Maine Students' Y. M. C. A. Conference will be held at Bowdoin College, February 28 to March 2. Every effort is being made to make this the most successful Students' Conference ever held in Maine. Upon the list of speakers is the name of Dr. Robert E. Speer, of New York.

After the opening meeting, on Friday evening, a reception will be given by the Bowdoin Y. M. C. A. The chief features on Saturday will be an address by President Hyde, of Bowdoin, and an illustrated lecture by Harrison S. Elliott, of New York, together with a model cabinet meeting.

On Sunday, Dr. Speer will give two addresses.

BOSTON COLBY ALUMNI ASSOCIATION.

The Thirty-Second Annual Reunion and Banquet of the Boston Colby Alumni Association will be held at the Boston City Club, 9 Beacon Street, Friday evening, February 21. The principal speaker of the evening will be President Arthur J. Roberts. Short speeches will be made by George E. Brock, Chairman of Boston School Committee; Dr. F. B. Dyer, Supt. of Schools, Boston; Rev. A. C. Archibald, Brockton; Harry L. Koopman, '80; Lincoln Owen, '89; Emery Gibbs, '88; W. N. Donovan, '92; M. C. Freeman, '94; and William B. Jack, '00. Professor T. Bryce Ashcraft will represent the faculty and Ernest C. Marriner, '13, the student body. Arrangements have been made for the best Annual Dinner the Association has ever had. Good-fellowship, college songs, short speeches, and some new, special attractions are guaranteed every Colby alumnus in attendance.

Stanley B. Miller, '14, is back to his classes again, having undergone a slight operation at the Libby hospital.

BOWLING LEAGUE.

The draw for the third and last round of the Inter-fraternity Bowling League is as follows:

February 18.—Delta Kappa Epsilon vs. Zeta Psi.

February 20.—Alpha Tau Omega vs. Delta Upsilon.

February 22.—Zeta Psi vs. Phi Delta Theta.

February 25.—Delta Kappa Epsilon vs. Alpha Tau Omega.

February 27.—Delta Kappa Epsilon vs. Delta Upsilon.

March 1.—Alpha Tau Omega vs. Zeta Psi.

March 4.—Delta Kappa Epsilon vs. Phi Delta Theta.

March 6.—Alpha Tau Omega vs. Phi Delta Theta.

March 8.—Delta Upsilon vs. Zeta Psi.

March 11.—Delta Upsilon vs. Phi Delta Theta.

At the end of the second round the standing of the teams was as follows:

	Won	Lost	P. C.
Delta Upsilon.....	7	1	.875
Zeta Psi	6	2	.750
Delta Kappa Epsilon.....	4	4	.500
Phi Delta Theta.....	3	5	.375
Alpha Tau Omega.....	0	8	.000

The first game in the third round was played, Tuesday afternoon, between Delta Kappa Epsilon and Zeta Psi, and resulted in a win for the latter by a margin of 7 pins.

LIFE-WORK TALK.

The second of the winter's series of life-work talks was given before more than fifty young men, at the Y. M. C. A. room, Monday evening, by Rev. H. E. Dunnack, pastor of the Methodist church of Augusta, on the subject, "The Ministry." Mr. Dunnack held his audience spellbound with his eloquence and with his earnest and powerful appeal to Colby men to consider carefully the choice, as a life work, of "this queen of all professions, the Christian Ministry." The third life-work talk will be given, Tuesday evening, March 4, by Rev. Geo. W. Hinckley, of Good Will Farm. His subject will be "Philanthropy."

DELTA UPSILON ENTERTAINS.

The Delta Upsilon fraternity pleasantly entertained the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, at their chapter house, last Saturday evening. An evening of good fellowship was spent in social conversation and singing college songs, which pleasures were accompanied by refreshments appropriate to such an occasion.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL.

The regular meeting of the Athletic Council was held Monday evening. It was decided to call a joint meeting of the Athletic Association and the Student Council, next week, to consider some plan whereby the recent pilferings in the gymnasium may be investigated.

Lyman I. Thayer, '16, is confined to his room, at the Delta Upsilon House, with a severe attack of tonsillitis.

BOSTON COLBY ALUMNI CITY CLUB, FEBRUARY 21.

On account of the lecture recital to be held in the Congregational church, February 24, the last lecture in the library fund series, to be given by Dr. George F. Parmenter, has been postponed until March 3.

Like very many other colleges, Colby had its origin in a secondary school.

The one hundredth anniversary of the granting of a charter by the General Court of Massachusetts to establish a Literary and Theological Institution in Waterville, Maine, falls on February 27; but the trustees of the college have decided not to celebrate the event at this time. They maintain that this institution commenced its work as a college when the legislature of the State of Maine, in June, 1820, empowered the trustees to grant degrees. As this latter date is considered to be the more important, the one hundredth anniversary of the founding of the college will not be observed until 1920.

Judging from the number of black eyes and other minor injuries about the campus, it is our impression that "gym." work is a rather strenuous course this winter. The form of basket ball, more properly called "rough-house," now required, considering the "gym." equipment, is, to say the least, dangerous. If this sort of "systematic" exercise is to be continued, it will be well for all participants to furnish themselves with catcher's masks, head gears, shoulder pads, and shin guards, and a liberal supply of life insurance. Even with these safety appliances, the wise ones will best "warm the bench."

DEBATING.

From the disputants in the four preliminary debates which have been held in the college chapel, during the past two months, for the purpose of selecting a team to represent the college in the coming contest with Clark College, the following teams have been chosen: First team:—Ernest C. Marriner, '13, Leo G. Shesong, '13, and David Jack, '14; Second team:—John Wells, '13, Roger A. Putnam, '15, and Leonard W. Grant, '15. The question submitted to Clark College is: "Resolved, That the United States should adopt such a broad and generous legislative policy in the subsidizing of American shipping engaged in our foreign trade, as to enable American shipowners to operate their ships profitably, and to compete successfully with the vessels of foreign countries."

CAMPUS CHAT,

William A. Tracy, '14, of Cary, returned Saturday afternoon, from a short business trip to Aroostook.

George H. Mooers, of Ashland, representative to the Maine legislature, was the guest of his son, W. A. Mooers, '14, at the D. K. E. House, over Sunday.

Rev. George B. Nicholson, of the Episcopal church, led chapel exercises, Monday morning.

H. W. Nutting, '14, made a business trip to Canaan last week.

R. P. Luce, ex-'14, of Belgrade, visited at the D. K. E. House over the week end.

G. O. Dudley, '14, has returned to college, after several weeks' absence on account of sickness.

E. W. Pratt, '15, who has been ill for several weeks, has returned to college.

The A. T. O. basket ball team was defeated by M. C. I., 53-5, last Friday evening.

President Roberts has been confined to his house by a slight cold.

Professor Brown addressed the students of the Ministerial Association, Tuesday evening.

The Student Council held an important meeting, in Chemical Hall, last Wednesday afternoon.

Gersham B. Rollins, '13, has changed his college residence to Fairfield, temporarily.

James Perry, '11, of Andover Theological Seminary, and Thomas Jones, of Hartford Theological Seminary, visited the college, last week, to interest students in the session of the Ninth Annual Conference of Eastern College Men on the Christian Ministry, to be held at Cambridge, Mass., March 7-9.

Florian G. Arey, '15, has gone home on account of the illness of his mother.

The Kennebec Teachers' Association will hold an all day conference in Winslow, Friday, February 21. Professor H. C. Libby is President. Professor H. W. Brown will be one of the speakers.

DAY OF PRAYER.

The Day of Prayer for American colleges will be observed Sunday, February

23. The Colby Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. will hold a joint service in the Baptist church, next Sunday evening, at which Rev. George A. Martin, '99, of Bangor, will preach.

WOMEN'S DIVISION.

MARY PHYLLIS ST. CLAIR, Editor.
MARIAN E. INGALLS, Business Manager.

Edith Washburn, '14, who has been in the Libby hospital for some time, returned to her home, Monday.

Fossie Seekins, '15, who was dangerously ill at the Libby hospital, last week, has returned to Foss Hall.

Helen Campbell, '07, was the guest of Mary Abbott, '08, during the past week, and spent Sunday at Foss Hall.

Marjorie Meader, ex-'14, has been in town the past week.

Alice Beckett, '14, and Adelaide Klein, '14, are in Mount Vernon, to attend the wedding of Edith Klein, ex-'14.

Caro Chapman, '10, spent Sunday at Foss Hall.

Edith Klein, ex-'14, and George F. Wilson, Bowdoin, '13, of Albion, were married at the bride's home in Mount Vernon, Wednesday morning, February 19.

Angie Beckford, ex-'12, has returned to college, and has taken up work in the senior class.

The lecture recital to be given by Mrs. Nellie Bakeman Donovan, '92, under the direction of the senior class, is to be held, next Monday evening, February 24, at the Congregational church. The proceeds are to go to the Silver Bay Fund of the Y. W. C. A. The recital will be well worth attending.

Mrs. Elizabeth Foster led the Y. W. C. A. meeting, Tuesday evening. Her topic was, "Ancestor Worship among the Chinese."

Dora Libby, '13, who has been obliged to leave college for a while on account of ill health, was at Foss Hall, last week.

MAINE COLLEGES.

James Adrian Gannett, '08, Maine, has been appointed registrar of the University of Maine to succeed the late Mrs. Elizabeth Abbott Balentine.

The Bates Student is now being issued weekly, instead of monthly as heretofore.

Bowdoin's track coach for this year is P. J. Finneran. Last year, he was one of the Yale coaches during the fall track work.

According to the records kept by the department of Physics at the University of Maine, last month was warmer by about two degrees than any January which preceded it for the past 44 years.

Candidates for the Bates baseball team have commenced cage practice.

The Sophomore Owls, of the University of Maine, have offered two cups, one for the best football punter and the other for the best all round kicker.

Bowdoin will hold an Interscholastic Indoor Meet, in the new athletic building, March 15.

Write Ideas for Moving Picture Plays !

YOU CAN WRITE PHOTO PLAYS AND EARN $25. OR MORE WEEKLY
WE WILL SHOW YOU HOW !

If you have ideas—if you can think—we will show you the secrets of this fascinating new profession. Positively no experience or literary excellence necessary. No "flowery language" is wanted.

The demand for photoplays is practically unlimited. The big film manufacturers are "moving heaven and earth" in their attempt to get enough good plots to supply the ever increasing demand. They are offering $100. and more, for single scenarios, or written ideas.

We have received many letters from the film manufacturers, such as VITAGRAPH, EDISON, ESSANAY, LUBIN, SOLAX, IMP, REX, RELIANCE, CHAMPION, COMET, MELIES, ETC., urging us to send photoplays to them. We want more writers and we'll gladly teach you the secrets of success.

We are selling photoplays written by people who "never before wrote a line for publication." Perhaps we can do the same for you. If you can think of only one good idea every week, and will write it out as directed by us, and it sells for only $25. a low figure,

YOU WILL EARN $100 MONTHLY FOR SPARE TIME WORK.

FREE SEND YOUR NAME AND ADDRESS AT ONCE FOR FREE COPY OF OUR ILLUSTRATED BOOK, "MOVING PICTURE PLAYWRITING."

Don't hesitate. Don't argue. Write now and learn just what this new profession may mean for you and your future.
