COLBY-MAINE GAME.

Colby, in the first game of the season, Saturday afternoon, lost to the University of Maine by the score of five to two. The game was not very interesting, except to the coaches who were given the opportunity of seeing their new material in real action. The day was very cold and raw and the players were unable to use the regular diamond, on account of a heavy shower, which came just before the game.

The pitchers of both teams worked well—James, fanning eleven men in six innings. In the first inning, Colby scored, when Reed came home on a muffed fly, from Berry to Baker. Maine scored two runs in the second inning. Colby scored again in the third, James bringing in the run. In the sixth inning, Maine scored another run. James went out of the box at the end of this inning and Coach Daley sent in Steves who did very creditable work. Maine gained two more runs before the game finished, and these came in the eighth inning.

The final score was: Colby, 2; Maine, 5.

TRACK.

Nardini! After three weeks of anxious waiting, there was not a man in Colby who did not feel exultant thrills chasing themselves up and down his spine when, early one morning of last week, thirty-odd grinning Phi Delts announced that "Dini" was back.

With the return of the man "who has made track a major sport at Colby," Colby's chances have increased a hundred fold; for not only is Frank Nardini a great sprinter, but he is also one of those very rare persons who can inject "pep" into a track team. He is the only man who could have saved Colby from disaster in the meets this spring; for we have lost our old and true friend, Coach Adams, and no other man in college is able to fill the double office of coach and captain, as Nardini is now doing.

For sure point winners this year we can depend upon Nardini, Bowen, Meanix, Small, Murchie, Royal, Reynolds, Wood, and we suspect that, in Curtis, we have a little surprise package. From the size of the squad now at work on Alumni Field, we feel confident that, in the Inter-collegiate, this spring, our rivals will experience a very great surprise.

The track schedule, for this spring, is very interesting; and a great deal of credit is due Manager Howes, for Colby is to be represented at more meets than ever before in her history. We shall have teams at the Pennsylvania Relay Races, and the Maine Duals. Holy Cross pays us a visit on May the tenth; the Maine Inter-collegiate Track Meet, at Orono, follows, one week later; and for the next two week-ends, we are entered in the New England Meet, at Swampscott, Mass., and in the National Collegiate Meet at Durham. In the latter part of June, a team will start for Australia; and it is hoped that each of the Maine colleges will be represented by one man.

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE-MASSACHUSETTS TRIP.

The last baseball practice before the New Hampshire-Massachusetts trip and, perhaps, the hardest one of the season was held Monday afternoon, on Alumni Field. Coach Daley kept the men at work until well into the evening, giving especial attention to the infielders. Tuesday morning, the team left for Hanover, where it will play Dartmouth, Wednesday and Thursday. On Friday, Colby will meet Boston College, and Harvard on the following day.

The men chosen at the close of practice, Monday, were: James and Steves, pitchers; Moores and Lowney, catchers; Captain Reed, Campbell, LaFleur, Harlow, Nutting, Simpson, Bowker, and Cummings to fill the other positions. Coach Daley and Manager Carroll went with the team.

COBURN-OAK GROVE DEBATE.

The preliminary debate in the Goodwin Interscholastic Debating League between Coburn and Oak Grove was held at Oak Grove Seminary, Friday evening, April 18. The question under discussion was: "Resolved, That the present protective tariff is beneficial to the American farmer." Oak Grove supported the affirmative, and Coburn, the negative.

Presiding officer: L. P. Spinney, '15.

Board of Judges: E. M. Miller, '16; Robert A. Cony, Augusta; E. R. Farrar, '16.

Coaches: Oak Grove Seminary, E. L. Wyman, '14; Coburn, R. H. Bowen, '14.

J. Crouch, opened the case for the affirmative and clearly proved that the present tariff was more beneficial than harmful to the farmer.

Lester Young, of Coburn, outlined the argument for the negative and showed wherein the lumber and woolen schedules were distinctly advantageous to the farmer.

M. Mogannam, the second speaker for the affirmative, took up the argument of his colleague and contended that the budgets were not excessive.

William Smith, for the negative, took up the tariff on paints and varnishes, leather, and steel and their manufactures. He then told of the indirect effect upon the farmer of the high cost of living in the city.

Lawrence Merriam was the last speaker for the affirmative, and he briefly traced the history of the tariff, showing the prosperous condition under the high tariff.

Charles Piston closed the debate for Coburn by arguing that the farmer, although he bought his goods at a protected market, had to sell the products of the farm in an unprotected one.

The judges rendered their decision in favor of the affirmative.

COMMONS CLUB.

The annual initiation banquet of the Colby Chapter of the Commons Club was held, Wednesday evening, April sixteenth, at the Royal Café.

Toasts:

Subscriptions for the ECHO are now due, and should be handed immediately to the Business Manager.

In years past, the tennis courts have received careless usage at the hands of some of the students. This is one of the reasons why the courts are so broken up and why they will need such a large expenditure of money and labor to bring them into good condition. It is to be hoped that the student body will lay this cause of grievance to heart and not attempt to play tennis, or to walk upon the courts, with other than shoes made for the purpose. Since a word to the wise is sufficient, it ought to be so in this case.

The loss of Coach Adams, who, for the past two years and a half, has done so much to build up track athletics at Colby, is being keenly felt by the squad, in particular, and by the college and alumni, in general. His presence now on Alumni Field, within three weeks of the State meet, would greatly help to develop a winning team. Colby has a strong nucleus of fast track men, who should be under careful training. The captain, who now has charge of the men, is under a heavy responsibility, and should be relieved of it. The Athletic Association is making every effort to secure a special coach within a few days.

PENNSYLVANIA'S RELAY RACES.

Pennsylvania's relay races, which are to be held, April 26, will excel those of all other years in attendance and warmth of competition. Seventy-three colleges and one hundred and ninety-eight schools, representing educational institutions east of the Rocky Mountains, have entered these contests. Such colleges as Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Columbia, Dartmouth, Syracuse, Brown, Wesleyan, Michigan, Chicago, and Colgate will send their best men. Such men as Craig, Richards, Burdick, Wendell, Nicholson, Lippincott, Meredith, Thomas, Cable, and Wright will compete. Several class relay races for the colleges will be held. Colby has been registered in the fifth class, and will run against Lehigh, New York Law, Vinola, Washington and Lee, and Washington and Jefferson.

TENNIS.

Active preparations are being made to put the courts into good condition so that trials for the tennis team may commence immediately. The Inter-collegiate Tennis Tournament will be held at Lewiston, May 12, 13, and 14. The following men are trying out for the team: Captain Morse, '14; Foster, '13; Cushman, '13; Joy, '13; Marriner, '13; Baum, '13; MacGhee, '13; F. Gillingham, '14; Pratt, '14; Wyman,

'14; Owen, '14; Knight, '14; Hawes, '14; Campbell, '14; Kelsey, '15; Ramsdell, '15; Robinson, '15, and Fieldbrave, '15. From these men, two teams will be chosen, and, later on, the four best men will be picked to go to Lewiston.

COLBY-CLARK DEBATE.

The Colby-Clark Debate will be held at Worcester, Mass., Friday evening, April 25. The question for debate will be: "Resolved: That the United States should adopt such a broad and generous legislative policy in the subsidizing of American shipping engaged in foreign trade, as to enable American shipowners to operate their ships profitably and to compete successfully with the vessels of foreign countries." Colby will debate on the affirmative side of the question and will be represented by the following men: Ernest C. Marriner, '13, Leo G. Shesong, '13, and David Jack, '14.

JUNIOR PROM.

With mingled sighs of regret and relief, the dress suit has been packed away among the moth balls for another season. The Junior Prom is now an event of the past, to be recalled only with pleasant memories. A large company of students and their friends gathered at Assembly Hall, last Friday evening, and, under delightful conditions, "tripped the light fantastic toe" until well on into the morning. The committee in charge is to be highly commended for its taste in the arrangement of every detail and its efficiency in conducting the program. The scheme of decoration which subdued the lights and concealed an excellent orchestra was decidedly original and pleasing.

The committee of arrangements consisted of: Harvey Knight, Frank S. Carpenter, Don J. Whitney, Everett L. Wyman, Milroy Warren, William A. Tracey, and Wilbur B. Dexter. In the receiving line were: Professor and Mrs. H. C. Libby; Dr. J. W. Black, Edith C. Washburn, and Harvey Knight. The patronesses were: Mrs. John Hedman, Mrs. H. C. Libby, Mrs. George A. Washburn, Mrs. Webster Chester, and Mrs. George F. Parmenter.

CAMPUS CHAT.

Theodore Fieldbrave, '16, led the Y. M. C. A. meeting, Tuesday evening. A Bible Study training class, led by Professor Brown, met immediately afterwards.

Leo G. Shesong, '13, and Miss Lillian Gray, of Waterville, were united in marriage, February 23. Rev. David Jack, '14, was the officiating clergyman.

S. C. Cates, '12, who is at present teaching at Saltsburg, Pa., has been appointed an instructor in the Physics Department of Pennsylvania State College. He will begin his duties there in September.

Chester R. Mills, '15, who has been at his home since vacation, on account of the serious illness of his mother, has returned to college.

Hon. Payson Smith gave his second lecture, entitled "Contemporaneous Problems of the Elementary School," before the class in Education, Monday morning.

The second baseball team will play M. C. I., at Pittsfield, Saturday.

The Junior League games will be held May 9 and 10.

Florian G. Arey, '15, Leon W. Crockett, '15, and Wilhelm H. Kelsey, '15, are trying out for assistant manager of tennis.

Wilford G. Chapman, '12, was a visitor on the campus last week.

Thomas Farnsworth, ex-'15, who is now in Worcester Polytechnic Institute, won both hurdle events in the inter-class track meet, held at Worcester, Saturday.

M. A. Sorenson, of Woburn, Mass., was the guest of Chester Wood, '14, last week.

At a senior class meeting, Tuesday morning, John Wells was elected Historian in the place of I. L. Cleveland, resigned.

WOMEN'S DIVISION.

MARY PHYLLIS ST. CLAIR, Editor.
MARIAN E. INGALLS, Business Manager.

Ruth E. Goodwin, '12, spent Saturday and Sunday at Foss Hall.

Lois Osgood, '16, has returned to college after an absence of nearly five weeks.

The Colbiana has gone to press.

Phyllis St. Clair, '13, led the Y. W. C. A. meeting, Tuesday night. The subject of the meeting was, "The Girl in the City."

The date for the Silver Bay banquet, to be held at Colby, this year, is set for May 9. It is hoped that there will be a large delegation from the other colleges and from the preparatory schools in the state.

Miss Jean Bishop, of Fort Fairfield, has been visiting her niece, Blanche Farrington, '14.

The Junior class will hold a twilight musicale at the Congregational Church, Friday afternoon, at four o'clock. The proceeds are to go to the Silver Bay fund of the Y. W. C. A. There are to be selections by Lucille Soper, reader; the Harudo Trio; Marjorie Scribner, '14, soloist; George Pratt, violinist; and the Mandolin Club. Tickets, twenty-five cents. Don't forget to come!
