RESOLUTIONS.

FACULTY OF COLBY COLLEGE.

The Faculty of Colby College wish to record in this minute their profound sorrow at the death of their esteemed colleague, Professor John Hedman, head of the Department of Romance Languages in the College. Professor Hedman was a man of the highest principles, sound in character and habit, a lover of truth, a Christian gentleman, sincere and earnest in his convictions, ripe in scholarship, mature in his judgments, successful in attainment, and a devoted friend of his students.

His ability as a teacher was conspicuous, and he won the respect and gratitude of a host of students who were fortunate enough to come under his influence, and who now mourn his death. Professor Hedman was always a willing and unselfish worker, and the Faculty wish to record their appreciation of his energy, his faithfulness, and his varied and indefatigable labors on behalf of the administrative work of the College, and further their admiration of the progressive and fair-minded attitude which characterized all his administrative tasks and his relations with students and officers alike.

Professor Hedman was a natural born teacher and leader of students, and as such his loss is severely felt in classroom, in Faculty council, in committee room, in student conclave, and in the general activities of College life. As a public-spirited citizen, an advocate of civic righteousness, a worker for moral and social reform, his loss will be equally felt in the community in which he lived.

In our sorrow, and in our recollections of Professor Hedman's great usefulness in the College, we are not unmindful of the model, straightforward life that he led in the midst of his immediate family circle; and in this tribute to a faithful husband and a kind father,—as well as a noble teacher,—we extend our sincerest sympathy to the loved ones he has left, and wish them God's richest blessing in bearing their bereavement.

It is voted by the Faculty that this minute be inscribed upon the permanent records of the College, and that a copy be sent to Mrs. Hedman.

Committee on Resolutions:—

JULIAN D. TAYLOR.

J. WM. BLACK.

CLARENCE H. WHITE.

PROFESSOR SAMRA IS NEW FACULTY MEMBER.

Emille Samra has lately been appointed to take the course in French formerly taught by Professor John Hedman. Mr. Samra was born in Beynorth, Syria. Nearly all of his education was obtained in the schools and colleges of France, where, after eight years of special study in French, he received his degree from the College O'Antoura.

Mr. Samra has had extensive experience as an instructor and teacher in this country, as well as abroad. In 1906, he was placed at the head of the French department of Dickinson Seminary, Williamsburg, Penn., where he remained until 1911. In September of that year, he went to University of Maine, where he was instructor in French. In 1913, he took charge of the Seminary in Utica, N. Y., which position he resigned to come here.

Mr. Samra begins his work at once. He will continue along the lines which Professor Hedman had mapped out.

WINNERS IN PEACE CONTEST.

There were fourteen contestants in the preliminaries of the Peace Prize Contest, last Wednesday afternoon. The names of those who will participate in the finals are: Theodore Fieldbrave, Harry P. Fuller, David Jack, Harvey Knight, Leon P. Spinney, Herbert M. Rockwell.

The judges were Professors Libby and Trefethen.

WESTERN MAINE ALUMNI MEET.

A meeting of Colby Alumni of Western Maine was held in Portland, Thursday evening, February 19. Charles E. Guernsey, '98, the newly elected president, presided over a large gathering of prominent men. Among the speakers were Hon.

William H. Looney, '77, Fred V. Matthews, Rev. Charles M. Woodman, '98, William B. Jack, '00, Rev. William B. Tutill, '94, Dr. Alfred King, '83, Walter C. Emerson, '81, Prof. J. W. Black, Rex W. Dodge, '06, president of the general alumni association, and Pres. A. J. Roberts, '90.

Comment was made upon the growth of the college, its scholastic standing and its needs, and much loyal spirit was shown.

The Boston Colby Alumni Association will hold a banquet next Friday evening, March 6. President Roberts and Doctor Taylor will speak for the faculty, and Harvey Knight, '14, will represent the student body. It is expected that Librarian Chipman will also attend.

MEN AND MAXIMS.

The lecture upon "Men and Maxims" by Professor Julian D. Taylor, in the chapel, Monday evening, was a real treat to the college. Rarely do Colby men listen to so able an address. Professor Taylor brings to bear the results of ripe scholarship, acute analysis, knowledge of men and things, and a genial good nature. From a broad field of history, science, and life he brought together an address that will not soon be forgotten; for it was a source of inspiration to every person in the large audience that had gathered to hear him. He set off the foibles of some of the present day leaders in the world in a manner that was keenly appreciated on account of his aptness of expression, his wit, and his graphic characterization. Professor Taylor should speak to us more often.

MYSTICS INITIATION.

The Mystics, the honorary society of the Sophomore class, held its third annual initiation banquet, last Wednesday evening, at Buzzell's Chop House. There were nearly thirty members present, including several charter members. Ralph Bramhall, '15, of Belfast, acted as toastmaster and responses were heard from the following men: Chester Wood, '14, of Woburn, Mass.; Roland Hutchins, '15, of Lawrence, Mass.; George Perry, '14, of Camden, Me.; Frank Carpenter, '14, of Madison, Me.; and Donald Putnam, '16, of Houlton, Me. The society voted to give a scholarship cup to that fraternity whose Freshman delegation maintains the highest honors in scholarship, the cup to be awarded permanently if won five consecutive years by any fraternity. Following are the Mystics initiates: Donald Putnam, of Houlton, Me., John Campbell of Cherryfield, Me., from Delta Kappa Epsilon; Albert O'Neil, Nashua, N. H., and James Prince, South Poland, Me., from Phi Delta Theta; Frances Irvin, Dorchester, Mass., and Philip Curtis, Jamaica Plains, Mass., from Zeta Psi; Arthur Riley, Bridgton, Me., and Ralph Gilmore, Concord, N. H., from Alpha Tau Omega; Lyman Thayer, Ballston Spa, N. Y. and Scott Staples, North Haven, Me., from Delta Upsilon; Albert Moulton, Kittery Depot, Me., and Cecil Rollins, Vassalboro, from Commons Club.

Y. M. C. A. OFFICERS.

At the Y. M. C. A. meeting last evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Harold S. Campbell, '15; Vice-President, Merle F. Hunt, '15; Secretary, Lester E. Young, '17; Treasurer, Norman W. Lindsay, '16.

Theodore Fieldbrave, '15, is to lead the mission class in the study of "India."

KNOX COUNTY CLUB.

At a meeting of the men from Knox county, last evening, officers were elected as follows: President, George W. Perry, '14; vice-president, Scott D. Staples, '15; secretary-treasurer, Alexander G. Miller, '16; executive committee, Lester H. Shibbes, '15, John Richardson, '16, Arthur E. Gregory, '16, and Leland Hemenway, '17.

D. U. WINS BOWLING CUP.

Delta Upsilon won the cup in the Interfraternity Bowling League, this year, taking ten games out of twelve matches. There are still a few matches to be rolled off, but these cannot affect the leaders.

This week, the "D. U's" won from the "A. T. O's" by a total of 1346 pins to 1160; the "A. T. O's" defeated Zeta Psi, 1249 to 1206; and "D. U." rolled 1310 to 1306 against the "Zetes".

The present standing is:

	Won	Lost	P. C.
Delta Upsilon.....	10	2	.833
Delta Kappa Epsilon....	6	3	.667
Zeta Psi.....	5	5	.500
Alpha Tau Omega.....	3	8	.273
Phi Delta Theta.....	2	8	.200

GOODWIN DEBATES.

The debates in the inter-scholastic debating league will be held as follows: Hebron vs. Oak Grove, at Hebron, March thirteenth; Madison High vs. Good Will High, at Madison, March twentieth; Skowhegan High vs. Waterville High at Skowhegan, March twentieth; Coburn vs. Maine Central Institute, date not yet settled.

DRUIDS.

The Druids, the senior honorary society, held its annual initiation banquet last Friday evening. The following men were elected: L. F. Weeks and M. F. Hunt of Delta Upsilon; W. J. Pendergast and L. H. Shibbes of Zeta Psi; R. B. Hutchins and P. F. Fraser of Phi Delta Theta; L. F. Murch and L. W. Grant of Delta Kappa Epsilon; and R. R. Thompson and C. R. Mills of Alpha Tau Omega.

COLBY TO HAVE PROHIBITION CLUB.

Colby is to have a Prohibition club. Mr. Neil D. Cranmer, Ph.M., of Syracuse University, Intercollegiate Secretary of the Intercollegiate Prohibition Association has been about the college and has so far signed up over seventy men as being interested in the prohibition movement in the colleges. A Prohibition club is to be organized in a few days, and it is expected that there will be at that time at least one hundred members to join.

The Musical Clubs went to Bangor, Monday evening. They were given the largest attendance they have had this year. The hall was filled to its utmost capacity.

Hon. Charles P. Barnes, '92, was a visitor at the college, yesterday.

Mrs. Washburn of China visited her daughters, Edith Washburn, '14, and Mary Washburn, '15, this week.

Last week we gave an account of the public services in honor of the late Professor Hedman. This issue contains resolutions of respect from the faculty and student body. The ECHO recognizes the appropriateness of all sentiments expressed, and joins the thousands of sincere mourners who have come under Professor Hedman's influence in the expression of a deep sense of loss and of a feeling of profound sympathy for the bereaved family. Professor Hedman has certainly left his mark for good upon the college.

In what was designed to be a highly appreciative article, in a recent issue of the ECHO, was contained this ill-advised sentence, "Colby is really advancing into civilization." A loyal alumnus and good friend of the ECHO takes exceptions to the expression, saying that Colby arrived years ago. Our critic is correct. The sentence was intended as a pleasantry by our contributor, and, certainly, in no sense as a "slam." Colby has been in the forefront of every force making for civilization from the days long before the immortal Lovejoy to the present hour. The recent progress of the college gives a sense of exhilaration, however, which may sometimes lead the "undergrad" into unconsidered license of expression, as in this case. Yes, indeed, "Colby, although she hasn't everything and needs much, doesn't need to take a back seat, educationally, for any one."

Your attention is called to a notice on another page of this issue, by the business manager, concerning your unpaid subscription. The manager's plan is to collect all subscriptions in one week and so to do away with the continual "dun," which is so disagreeable to all.

NEW HAMPSHIRE CLUB.

The students from New Hampshire met in the New Dormitory, Thursday evening, for the purpose of organizing a New Hampshire Club. The following officers were elected: President, Lorenzo Warren, '14; Vice-President, Ray Haskell, '14; Secretary, Leon Crockett, '15; Treasurer, Ray Young, '15.

CAMPUS CHAT.

President Roberts is in receipt of the photographs of two of Colby's most prominent men: Hon. Richard Cutts Shannon, '63, and Hon. Leslie Colby Cornish, '75. They have been placed in the college office.

Merle F. Hunt, '15, was called home, yesterday, by the illness of his father.

George Gould, '08, was a recent visitor at the Delta Kappa Epsilon house.

Colby was recently admitted into the National Intercollegiate Athletic Association without a single dissenting vote. This means quite a little to Colby's athletics, and we are proud of it and in view of the improved work done during Coach Cohn's administration we cannot feel but that the honor is deserved.

Don't forget the lecture at the Baptist church, Friday night by Sumner R. Vinton on India.

The semester reports and the term bills were both given out Monday.

What might have been a dangerous fire at the Zeta Psi House yesterday was averted by the quick response of the students.

E. R. Wheeler, '14, is sick with the mumps at his home in Oakland.

Forty-eight men will take part in the preliminaries for the Purinton Temperance Prizes, next Saturday afternoon, at one fifteen in the chapel.

Professor Trefethen led the Y. M. C. A. meeting in the chapel, last night.

At the meeting of the Outing club, last Thursday evening, it was voted to accept the constitution drawn up by the committee appointed for that purpose. Saturday afternoon, the members went on a snowshoeing party to the Sulphur Springs in Winslow.

The series of addresses which are to be given by students will begin next week, in the chapel.

John Harriman, '16, and Emmons B. Farrar, '14, were visitors in Farmington, Friday.

WOMEN'S DIVISION.

IDELLA KATHRINE FARNUM, Editor.
MARION EDITH DODGE, Business Manager.

Mr. Justice G. M. Hanson of Calais, visited his daughters, Emily L. Hanson, '14, and Helen N. Hanson, '15, last Friday and Saturday.

Margaret Forbes, '15, entertained at Foss Hall, Monday, Miss Elizabeth Wells of Good Will.

Vesta McCurda, '16, entertained her sister, Miss Margaret McCurda of Davidson, last week.

Have You Paid Your Subscription to the ECHO?

Next week will be ECHO WEEK at Colby. The ECHO board will call on you sometime during the week and collect your subscription. Our printer's bill is now overdue, but it is not feasible as yet to commence the collection of advertising which is usually contracted for by the year. Therefore, we must call on you to pay your subscription NOW and thus to give your paper a boost. Bills will be sent to out-of-town subscribers, and in this way we expect to reach every subscriber who is in arrears.

Now don't excuse yourself, but have your dollar ready when the ECHO man calls on you next week.

This is your part in the making of our College Paper.

ARE YOU WITH US?

Miss Nettie Walker of Skowhegan recently visited her niece, Evie Learned, '17.

Hazel Cole, '11, now a teacher in Taunton, Mass., visited her sister, Florence Cole, '14, Saturday.

Marion Steward, '15, is taking a vacation at her father's home in Skowhegan.

Blanche Farrington, '14, is suffering from an attack of the mumps.

Miss Emma Leighton, '12, now teaching in Danville, N. H., visited friends here, last week. Announcement has been given of Miss Leighton's engagement to Mr. Stanley Walden of Greenville.

Ethel Chamberlain, '15, was a guest of Ruth Whitman, ex-'15, in Bangor, Monday.

Professor Trefethen will speak at a special meeting of the Y. W. C. A. at Foss Hall, this week, Thursday evening.

At the annual election of the Y. W. C. A., Monday evening, the following officers were elected: President, Helen N. Hanson, '15; Vice-President, Edith Pratt, '16; Secretary, Vivian Skinner, '16; Treasurer, Margaret Forbes, '15.

The Senior-Junior Mission study class meets each Friday, 6.45 to 7.30. All seniors and juniors are invited to attend this course, which is to be under the instruction of Rev. C. F. Robinson.

The freshman entertainment for the benefit of the Y. W. C. A., was given on Saturday evening, and was a success both socially and financially. It consisted of Yama-Yama dances by six girls in masks and costumes; a farce, "Murder Will Out;" and a charming solo with violoncello accompaniment by Miss Marion Daggett.

The Chi Gamma Thetas had a sleigh-ride last week, Monday, to Fairfield and Benton, and a dinner at the Chop House, upon their return. They were chaperoned by Dean Carll.

The officers of the Reading Room Association for the coming year are, President, Dorothy Webb, '15; Vice-President, Ruth Dresser, '16; Treasurer, Effie Hannan, '16.
