COLBY FINISHES SIXTH AT NATIONAL RELAY CARNIVAL.

Colby's two-mile relay team, composed of Waldron, '17, Mark Thompson, '17, Mathew Golden, '17, and Tom Reynolds, '14, competed in the National Intercollegiate Relay Carnival held by the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia, Saturday, April 25th.

Eight teams started: Illinois, Michigan, Chicago, Dartmouth, Princeton, Colby, University of Virginia, and Pennsylvania. They finished in the order named, Colby having the honor of leading Pennsylvania to the finish and being only eight seconds behind the winners whose time for the race was 8 minutes 4 4-5 seconds.

Waldron, the first man for Colby, got away with a fair start and on the first turn was crowded back to next to last place. Going down the back stretch he improved his position to second place and held it until the final hundred yards, at the finish being sixth. Thompson, our second man, ran a steady race and at the finish was just beaten for fifth position. Colby by this time was fifty yards behind the leader. Reynolds, the third Colby man, ran a fine steady half and gained a little on the leaders. Golden, the anchor man, also put up a good performance and, coming down the home stretch ahead of Pennsylvania, darted ahead at greater speed and passed the University of Virginia. In a few more strides he would have beaten Princeton, as their man was tiring, but the line was reached. The individual times of the men were, Waldron, 2.04; Thompson, 2.04; Reynolds, 2.02; Golden, 2.02.

The race was run on a heavy, soggy track and in a heavy rainstorm, but it showed that Colby has a few half milers that under better conditions will beat two minutes for the distance. Great credit must again be given to our coach, Harvey Cohn, as it is another victory to his credit even to have a place in such a large meet when he has so few men comparatively, to pick from. The coach expressed himself as more than pleased at the showing that his team made and only wishes that he could thank each student and professor individually for the financial support they gave, as it was through them that it brought Colby before the college world and the public. This showed, even though we did not win, that Colby is wide awake and able to compete against the larger colleges.

BASEBALL TRIP.

The baseball team returned from Portland, Monday afternoon, after taking the measure of Dartmouth and forcing the strong University of Vermont team to go its fastest to keep ahead. The game with the Portland New England League team was cancelled because of the wet grounds.

Our team started out with a victory over Dartmouth and it is safe to say that the string of victories would have been longer if the boys had not run into so much arctic weather. The air was extremely cold, and at both places the snow lay on the campus. This made it impossible for the batteries to do very much strenuous work and still keep their arms in condition. This showed itself with telling effect in the Vermont game of last Saturday. "Jimmie" held the fast Green Mountain boys to scoreless ball until the fifth inning, when he weakened, and that, too, at a time when the score was four to nothing in our favor. Captain James was not the only one to be affected, for Nutter and Harriman found it almost impossible to toss the ball to second base during the last game.

The boys, however, showed their ability to hit. Fraser led with .600 and LaFleur came second with .437. Coach Daley believes that, on the whole, it was a successful trip, and he is well satisfied with the boys, especially when the handicaps are taken into consideration. Some of the men have been unable to attend practice, and several of those who have been out have received injuries that keep them out of the game for the present.

James and Steves worked well for so early in the season. In three days, Steves pitched twenty-two innings, and he is improving all the time. Our catching department is our weakest just now; but this will soon be remedied. There is one consolation in the fact that we were playing with exceptionally fast teams. The University of Vermont always puts out one of the best teams in the East, among the smaller colleges, and everyone knows that Dartmouth's team is almost second to none.

COLBY WON THE FIRST DARTMOUTH GAME.

When Nutting started a ninth inning batting rally by hammering out a two bagger, it was the signal for a general bat fest which ended only when two runs had been scored, thus breaking the 3-3 tie. Mendall made the first run of the game in the first inning. James issued a complimentary to him, he stole second, and Loudon advanced him to third. He scored on a passed ball. The Green's scoring ended in the third when Mendall and Roland were sent home by Loudon's double to centre field.

Hallet of the Green was touched up in the fourth for three hits that netted two runs. Another run came our way in the sixth and two more in the ninth. Colby played errorless ball.

SECOND GAME.

The effective pitching of Parrot for Dartmouth and the bunching of the Green's hits lost the game for Colby. Neither Steves nor Parrot were able to do their best on account of the intense cold.

During the first part of the game, Steves was a trifle wild but the latter part found him highly effective. Colby touched Parrot for seven hits, while Steves allowed nine. Ginger turned in two singles. LaFleur again got three hits while Nutting gave a good account of himself, as did Harriman, also. Nutting and LaFleur scored for Colby.

FIRST GAME WITH VERMONT.

Through the wonderful pitching of Malcolm for Vermont, the Colby team was defeated 7-0. Steves pitched good ball for us, but he was a trifle wild and issued a few passes. His support was not of the highest order.

SECOND GAME AT BURLINGTON.

The game Saturday, under any other conditions than those under which it was played, would have been a victory for Colby. Captain James held the home team scoreless until the fifth inning, when a cramp seized his arm and Vermont scored five runs. It was principally a batting game and two pitchers were used by both teams. Steves finished the game for Colby. A strong ice-cold wind swept the field, blowing in the pitchers' faces.

The score by innings:

The ECHO commends the action taken by the student body in the meeting called after chapel this morning, by the Student Council. Such a step is surely a move in the right direction, because it makes it evident to certain members of our faculty who are entitled to all the respect and regard that we can show them that the doings of a few rowdies are not the will of the students in general.

AMATEUR BASEBALL.

Last Saturday was a gala day for baseball. Five distinct teams of college boys were playing on five different diamonds. Almost all the men in college of any previous active experience were pressed into service.

Only one team of the five, however, pulled out a victory and that was a team representing Delta Upsilon. Winslow High school was the unfortunate victim, by the score of 12 to 3. Webster and Dobbin composed the winning battery.

The tale of the other games is best passed quickly. The least said the better.

A team known as the "All Stars" was completely extinguished at Kent's Hill, 11 to 1, in a game in which Lowney and Burton were at the plates.

Another team was unfortunate at Good Will in a game with the High school boys of the "Farm." We've been asked not to print the score!

Meanwhile, the Freshmen were having troubles of their own on Alumni Field, when they were taken into camp by the Coburn team, with a score of 8 to 3 in seven innings. Tucker started the game for the Freshmen and the Coburn sluggers had a picnic, scoring six runs in the first round. Brunnelle stopped the bombardment, however, but the lead was too great for the Freshmen to overcome. The line up for the losers was: Deasey, c.; Tucker, p.; Leseur, 1b.; Brunelle, 2b.; Carroll, ss.; Jacobs, 3b.; Davis, lf.; Lawrence, cf.; Leeds, rf.

On Friday afternoon Delta Upsilon crossed bats with Zeta Psi and succeeded in trimming her old rivals to the tune of 6 to 2. Brann started in the box for the Zetes but couldn't stand the "guff" and was soon forced to retire in favor of Ramsdell, who was treated more kindly. The feature of the game was the fast fielding of the D. U. infield and the batting of Staples.

The make-up: Zeta Psi: Deasey, c.; Brann and Ramsdell, p. and ss.; Leseur, 1b.; Marston, 2b.; T. Crossman, 3b.; Nye, lf.; Barker, cf.; Blades, rf.

D. U.: Tozier, c.; Webster, p.; Tracy, 1b.; Allen, 2b.; Willard, ss.; Jacobs, 3b.; Staples, lf.; Hunt, cf.; Erbb, rf.

CAMPUS CHAT.

Roy K. Greeley, '13, was a recent visitor at the Deke house.

Murray E. Morgan, '15, spent Friday and Saturday with friends in Pittsfield.

Irving R. Stanwood, '16, and Vernelle W. Dyer, '15, have returned to college, after an extended illness with scarlet fever.

Everett P. Smith, '16, led the postponed Y. M. C. A. meeting Thursday evening.

Gardiner High won from Waterville High on Alumni Field, Saturday afternoon.

Herbert Rockwell occupied the pulpit of the Second Baptist church on the Plains Sunday.

Professor Libby spoke at Dexter, last Sunday.

"From the Manger to the Cross," the motion picture of the life of Christ, was shown at the Assembly Theatre, last Friday afternoon and evening, under the auspices of the college Y. M. C. A. A large number of students and townspeople witnessed the picture, there being four performances. The proceeds are to be used toward sending a delegation to the coming Northfield conference.

Professor H. C. Libby gave a most impressive talk at the Young Men's Christian Association service last evening.

The preliminaries in the Hallowell prize speaking are being held this afternoon.

Twelve members will be chosen for the finals.

President Roberts was at Kents Hill, yesterday, on business.

Sophomores and freshmen wishing to try out for the assistant managership of tennis are requested to hand in their names to Arey, '15, at once.

There will be a special meeting of the Outing Club, Thursday, at 7.30 P. M., in the chemical lecture room, for the purpose of completing the election of officers. The election will be followed by an informal talk and demonstration on photography, by Dr. Parmenter. A full attendance is requested. A souvenir will be given to each member present.

The Outing Club has subscribed for four appropriate magazines which will be found on the reading tables in the library, at an early date. It is hoped that those interested in out-of-door activities will make free use of these papers.

Mrs. H. C. Cohn of New York is visiting her son, Coach Cohn, for a few days.

Frederick A. Hunt, '13, is visiting friends at the college. Mr. Hunt is, this year, athletic director of Taunton, Mass., High school. Under his coaching, the Taunton football team won the Massachusetts championship.

President Roberts was one of the speakers at the Aroostook Alumni meeting, last Wednesday.

A meeting of the Commencement committee was held, last evening. It was decided to change the time of the alumni baseball game to Tuesday afternoon. This will allow the juniors an opportunity to go back to the old time of Monday afternoon for their class-day exercises. The college is to give badges to all the returning alumni, so that they will have the college colors and the year in which they graduated.

Robert Hussey, '16, was visited by his father and mother, Friday and Saturday.

A NEW LINE OF COLLEGE ACTIVITY.

The Outing club wishes to announce that it will hold a canoe tournament about the first of June, provided enough interest is shown in the event.

We have plenty of canoeists in college; what kind of "hunch" would it be to get together for an afternoon and see who's the best man? Besides double and single canoe races, it is planned to have some tilting matches, which everyone agrees are more ludicrous than "Mutt or Jeff," but which call for no small degree of skill on the part of the contestants. It's not too early to try your hand at a little speed and get into shape for the tournament. Watch the ECHO for further notices.

WOMEN'S DIVISION.

IDELLA KATHRINE FARNUM, Editor.
MARION EDITH DODGE, Business Manager.

The tennis courts at Foss Hall have been put into fine shape, and are now in frequent use.

Baseball teams are to be organized this week among the girls.

Alice Beckett, '14, has been entertaining Miss Marion Straghan of St. Stephen, N. B.

Mrs. Thompson of South China visited her daughter, Dean Carll, this week.

Miss Mary J. Corbett, the Territorial Secretary of the Y. W. C. A., visited the college, April 24 to 28. She gave a series of interesting talks on Christian Fundamentals, and conducted question hours, in which she answered a great variety of problems. Sunday afternoon, a coffee and musicale was given at Foss Hall.

Miss Elizabeth McGarrigle, of Calais, Me., was the guest of Emily Hanson, '14, on Wednesday.

The Glee Club is holding frequent rehearsals, in preparation for the concert to be held May 12.

The many friends of Ruth Trefethen, '15, are very glad that she is gaining so well, after her critical operation for appendicitis at the Sisters of Mercy hospital.
