COLBY, 2; MAINE, 1.

A ringing single off the bat of "Ginger" Fraser sent Lowney across the pan and nosed out a ninth inning victory over Maine in the second championship game, Wednesday afternoon. The ninth inning opened with the score one all, and the visitors went out in order. The first two Colby men did likewise, but "Jack" Lowney smashed out a two bagger. Coach Daley then sent Fraser up in place of Simpson, and "Ginger" came through with the winning hit.

Captain James, smarting under his defeat by Bates, pitched one of the greatest games of his career. He was simply invincible. Such sluggers as Baker, Abbott, and Gilman were helpless before his twist-ers. Not a hit was made off "Jimmie" up to the seventh inning and only two were made after that, one of which was but a scratch hit.

Colby found Driscoll's benders very much to their liking and hit him hard throughout the game, yet in all but two innings the visiting twirler closed up like a clam and refused to let the home team score.

Colby's first run came in the fifth inning. "Swipes" Simpson, first man up, drove a terrific three-bagger to deep centerfield, and only some fast sprinting by "Ty" Cobb kept the drive from being a home run. Campbell then followed with a timely drive over second and "Swipes" counted. A couple of sacrifices put Campbell on third but Smith failed to bring him in.

Maine got her one lonesome run in the seventh. The speedy Lawry led off with a slow roller to Cauley and streaked for first. Cauley made a neat pick-up but seeing the runner nearing the bag threw quick and hard with the result that the ball broke through Smith and Lawry reached second. A sacrifice and an infield out then sent in Maine's only score. The visitors looked dangerous again in the eighth when they got men on second and third, but Cauley made a pretty play off Lawry and retired the side.

The ninth opened with both teams out for gore; and right here a very unusual incident occurred. Cobb of Maine hit a high foul out among the autos and Simpson, starting with the crack of the bat, made a spectacular running catch. The whole play could be plainly seen from the bleachers, but an automobile barred the vision from the plate and the "Ump" refused to give a decision. When pressed by both teams, however, the official borrowed a nickle and flipped, Maine winning the toss. It was then called a foul strike, but "Jimmie" got revenge by fanning Cobb. Hackett and Baker were easy and Colby came in for her last try.

After Nutting and LaFleur had both whiffed, the game looked good for extra innings, but Lowney came through with his two base screamer and "Ginger" in the role of pinch-hitter scored him with a hot bingle between first and second. This smash capped the climax of one of the greatest games ever staged on Alumni Field.

COLBY TROUNCES BOWDOIN, 8-4.

The effective twirling and heavy hitting of Captain James contributed largely to Colby's 8 to 4 victory over Bowdoin at Brunswick, Saturday afternoon. Bowdoin negotiated six bingles off "Jimmie," but only two of these brought tallies. The Blue and Gray boys had the ability to connect with the Bowdoin pitcher's offering, and earned the victory by heavy and timely batting. The contest waged "nip and tuck" until the eighth session, but in that interview Colby, with the count standing 5 to 4 in her favor, propelled three men around the circuit and boxed the game.

Among the headline incidents of the artillery argument was the batting specialty of Captain James, who lost the ball on a home-run drive over the right field stakes and also drove out a triple and a single in the same direction. Fast fielding was contributed by Cauley of Colby and Eaton and Weatherill of Bowdoin. Captain LaCasce of Bowdoin played well, throwing to bases with deadly effect.

Lowney of Colby nailed the first run in the initial period, being passed, reaching second when Fraser issued a pass to Cauley and coming home on Nutting's drive to right field.

Colby sealed the game in eighth, when Campbell's single, Simpson's sacrifice, James' home run and Weatherill's error wrought a combination that pushed Campbell, James and Fraser all the way round.

THE HOLY CROSS MEET.

Colby was a close second in the triangular track meet with Holy Cross and Worcester Polytech, at Worcester, Saturday. Holy Cross won by the narrow margin of five points, and W. P. I. captured fifteen points. Colby was strong in every thing but the dashes. Two Colby records were broken: Thompson, '17, won the mile in 4 m 35s; and Murchie threw the hammer

131 ft 6½ in. The summary:

100-Yard Dash—Won by Trowell of Holy Cross; Boland of Holy Cross, second; Kelley of Holy Cross, third. Time 10s.

THE MASSACHUSETTS TRIP.

The baseball team made a trip to Massachusetts last week, playing Harvard on Thursday and Boston College on Friday. Second string pitchers were used in both games and thus James was saved to trim Bowdoin.

Steves pitched a good game against Harvard but lost out 10 to 2. Mahan was touched up for eight hits, but they were too well scattered to produce many runs. Campbell made two singles, and Simpson made a fine double off Mahan's delivery. Schuster and Lowney scored Colby's runs.

The score:

Harvard 3 0 3 0 2 0 0 2 0—10

Lowney started the Boston College game and pitched good ball for five innings, retiring in favor of Steves. Both teams hit the ball hard and often. Lowney and LaFleur both hit for two bases; Coach Daley believes that the team is experiencing an epidemic of batting fever. The game was called at the end of the sixth, on account of rain.

The score:

Colby 0 1 2 0 0 3—6

Boston College 4 0 2 0 1 0—7

"JACK" COOMBS VISITS COLBY.

John W. Coombs, '06, who led the Colby team to the state championship in his senior year and has since achieved world-wide fame as the "Iron Man" of the World's Champion Athletics of Philadelphia, is spending a few days at the college. His appearance at chapel Monday morning was the signal for wild ovation, the enthusiasm of which is rarely equaled. He was out on the field Monday and Tuesday afternoon and showed the team many valuable points on the "inside" game. An informal reception was given in his honor Monday evening, at the chapter house of the Delta Upsilon fraternity of which Mr. Coombs is a member. The coach and baseball squad attended, also, graduate manager Ervin, Dr. Merrill, Prof. Maxfield and Coach Cohn. Mr. Coombs' health is improving rapidly and he expects to return to active service for Connie Mack by the first of next month.

President Roberts visited preparatory schools in New Hampshire last week.

Mr. Brown addressed the students of Hebron Academy, Sunday. He is to give his address, The Creation Story, tonight, before the Cumberland County Sunday School Association, at Freeport; and next week the same address before the Kennebec Association, at Clinton.

H. H. Upton, '17, spoke in Augusta, Sunday.

The D. U. fraternity entertained the Coburn seniors, last Wednesday evening.

Mr. Merle F. Hunt, '15, has been appointed managing editor of the ECHO and will direct its publication for the remainder of the year.

For lack of space, the ECHO is able to touch only briefly upon a coming event of great importance. Everybody knows that everyone else is going to Lewiston, Saturday, to the intercollegiate meet. A special train, bearing 269—minus the contestants—men, and a hundred or more co-ords, to say nothing of two hundred more friends of the college, will leave the railroad station at eight o'clock, Saturday morning. It will be the "Colby special." The excursion rate fare of only $1.25 will allow everyone to go, and any lone man who "can't afford it" will be there just the same. Athletes bearing the Colby colors will compete at Bates; and every possible Blue and Gray arm band will be needed to give them the support that they deserve from their fellow students. If the student body goes onto the Bates field with the Colby spirit just bursting out in all directions, there'll be nothing to it but Colby. If we believe this ourselves, we shall impress it on everyone else, and the team will convince them that we are right. The train will leave Lewiston on the return trip at 7 P. M., but that's a matter of secondary importance. Let's get together! There will be a rally in the chapel, Friday evening. Upperclassmen know that this will be the best rally of the year, and freshmen will see the most active spirit that they have ever known.

The one best rallying cry for next Saturday will be COLBY THE LONG WAY!

LETTER FROM REX DODGE, '06.

To the Students of Colby College:—

Special efforts are being made by the officers of the General Alumni Association to bring out the largest attendance of the alumni at the coming Commencement that we have ever had in the history of the College, and the evidences are at the present time that these efforts will be well rewarded.

A number of changes have been made in the Commencement program which it is believed will make this occasion more interesting than ever and the complete program will be announced shortly.

From experience I know that there is a considerable number of students who for one reason or another do not remain in Waterville during Commencement, and it is a matter of regret to them later that they have not taken advantage of this opportunity as it has presented itself. It is undoubtedly a great stimulus to college loyalty and enthusiasm to see and meet the returning alumni and especially the older graduates, who appreciate attentions which you might show them during their stay. I am taking this opportunity to urge upon all who can possibly so arrange to make their plans for the summer in such a way that they can remain over this year for Commencement and join with us in the good times which we expect to have. I feel very sure that if you do so you will feel well rewarded and also that in years to come you cannot afford to miss Commencement whenever it is possible for you to avoid it.

President Roberts is in hearty sympathy with this idea of urging you to remain for Commencement, and it is a matter of regret that greater emphasis has not been laid upon this point in previous years. I hope that you will make your plans as suggested above.

Yours very truly,

REX W. DODGE,

President General Alumni Association.

COMMUNICATION.

The following letter was sent to Professor Libby, and was read in the Y. M. C. A. meeting, last week. It is printed here by request.

My dear Brothers at Colby:

Professor Libby has given me the very pleasant opportunity of sending a message for your meeting, next Tuesday. This I am truly glad to do. The days we spent together were few in number, but they were crowded so full of interesting hopeful things that they have left a vivid impression on my mind and the memory of friendships, which I shall always cherish. It is easy for me to picture you as you will meet and it is my joy to pray our Heavenly Father to bless you and by His love and power, through your fidelity, to make Religion in the College a thing to be honored more and more and Jesus Christ the Master of all hearts there.

The message I want to offer is this: seek to fit your life into the Divine plan. Horace Bushnell, one of the greatest of our preachers, once made a sermon which has become classic on the subject: "Every man's life a plan of God". It is this above all else that gives wonder and happiness to our lives, that God in His infinite comprehension has a place and work for us all. We do not see this plan as it reaches out before us, but every next step in life taken prayerfully and honestly serves to bring us into harmony with its purpose.

You men stand at the very place in life where this is of greatest importance and inspiration. You wonder what you will do, where you will go. Don't make the fateful mistake of leaving God out of your plans, since He has not left you out of His plans.

It is strange, when we reflect over our past days, how our lives turn on seemingly commonplace events. We did not think much of them at the time; but as we look back, we realize that these were the very places where God set His guide posts for us. Some common circumstance, for example, may have determined you to enter Colby. The influence of the College, let us hope, has brought you closer to God and prepared you the better for the great task of living. Some other circumstance growing out of your life there may determine the work you are to do in the world.

With all my heart, let me urge every man of you to put himself in the place where God's plan will work in his life.

With earnest good wishes to you all I am

Your Friend,

E. C. HERRICK.

ALUMNI NOTES.

Rev. Cyrus Flint Stimson, D.D., '93, Field Secretary of the Playground and Recreation Association of America, is meeting with encouraging success in his work. Recently he made the preliminary draft for an ordinance providing for a Board of Public Recreation, in connection with the Welfare Department of the city of Dayton, Ohio. This board will have responsibility for playgrounds and recreation parks, children's gardens, social centers, organized games and sports, field days, etc., regulation of commercial recreation, and similar lines of welfare work in Dayton. Dr. Stimson's work in Scranton, Penn., resulted in similar constructive legislation. The lives of from forty to fifty thousand children and youth in each city will be vitally bettered from now onward by this plan.

WOMEN'S GLEE CLUB.

Not to be outdone by the sterner sex, the members of the women's division proved their ability as entertainers of the first degree, last evening, by appearing in the limelight for the first time. The stage presented a pretty appearance, the college colors and numerals, as well as sorority banners, being displayed in great profusion. The club, which contained forty-six voices, all perfectly blended, showed the results of very careful training. Vocal solos by Misses Scribner and Wyman, a piano solo by Miss Lois Osgood, and a selection on the 'cello by Miss Marion Daggett made up the special numbers of the program. The mandolin club was characterized by the perfect unison and harmony of the varied instruments. The clubs were assisted by Miss Exerine Flood, reader, who gave several selections in an inimitable manner. Altogether, the entertainment was a great success, and it is hoped that the coming years will see an annual concert.
