Dearest Mamma. J)
Chester has just come,
so I write a line
before going up to town to thank you a thousand thousand times.

as I wrote you
yesterday, I don't think I shall at all need it. But I shall pay its amount in the bank, as representing ~~half~~ my October draw allowance.

and, please, please
remember that

You must ask me
back for it if you want it.

I am better, but still have a bad
cough at night —
only at night, so

I suppose merely nervous. I am very sorry to have his kind

very original woman; &
heriver, when I like.

Helin Danham has asked me to go to Whitley in Yorkshire. The air is good, but the journey long & expensive.

So, if I can get well within I shan't go. And Maund Cuthwell wants me to go on a house boat somewhere near Oxford with her. But it might be a ver damp.
So much love

J. V.
