COLBY CHAPTER OF COMMONS CLUB TO ENTERTAIN NATIONAL CON-VENTION IN FEBRUARY.

One of the most important events in the history of the Colby Chapter of Commons Clubs will take place during the coming winter. It has just been announced that the local chapter will entertain the tenth annual convention of the National Federation of Commons Clubs in 1916. This gathering comprising twenty-five or thirty men from the various colleges in the United States, is important not only to the fraternity, but to the college, as well. The convention is scheduled for February 21, 22, 23, 1916; and, at that time, the visitors from other states will have a splendid opportunity to observe the life and environment of a Maine College.

The program of the convention will open with a banquet, Monday evening, February 21, which will also be the occasion of the fifth annual initiation banquet of the Colby chapter. On Tuesday morning and afternoon, the regular business of the convention will be transacted, and, in the evening, a "smoker" will be held at the chapter house. All other fiscal business will be acted upon, Wednesday morning, and the afternoon will be devoted to sight seeing trips and general enjoyment. There will be a theatre party, Wednesday evening, which will complete the regular program of the convention. The delegates will take their departure, Thursday morning.

With its broad principles of fellowship and democracy, the Commons Club spirit is spreading and is making a place for itself in the largest colleges of the country. Already the Commons Club is nationwide in its influence, having chapters in Maine and Washington and as far south as Virginia.

There, at present, twelve active chapters in the National Federation: Wesleyan Commons Club, Wesleyan University; Pyramid Chapter, Union College; Tufts Chapter, Tufts College; Syracuse Chapter, Syracuse College; Colby Chapter, Colby College; Massachusetts Chapter, Massachusetts Agricultural College; Hobart Chapter, Hobart College; Connecticut Chapter, Connecticut Agricultural College; New Hampshire Chapter, New Hampshire State College; Alleghany Chapter, University of Alleghany; West Virginia Chapter, University of West Virginia; Independent Union Chapter, University of Washington.

The Colby chapter has enjoyed a short, but active existence, having been founded in 1912. It is, however, a strong organization, and splendidly equipped in its new quarters to entertain the delegates from the sister colleges.

MYSTICS ELECTIONS.

At a meeting of the Mystics, the sophomore honorary society, last week, the following men were elected from the class of 1918: Delta Kappa Epsilon,—Robert A. Matthews and Elwood A. Wyman; Zeta Psi,—Preston B. Libby and Ralph K. Hurley; Delta Upsilon,—Howard G. Boardman and Raymond C. Whitney; Phi Delta Theta,—Alan R. Fraser and Ellsworth Prince; Alpha Tau Omega,—George E. Ferrell and Daniel Sullivan; Commons Club,—Alfred H. Patterson and E. Bliss Marriner.

It was decided to hold the initiation and banquet immediately after the Christmas vacation. At this time, the Mystic prize cup which is to be awarded each year to the fraternity whose freshman delegation attains highest average rank for the year, will be given over to the new members. The plan for the purchase of this cup has been long agitated, but at last it is a reality.

COLBY GRADUATE IS ELECTED MAY-OR OF PORTLAND.

In the Republican landslide which characterized the recent municipal election in Portland, Wilford G. Chapman, Colby, '83, was elected mayor, with a plurality of 1333 over his Democratic rival, Hon. William M. Ingraham. In the election of 1912, Mr. Chapman was defeated by nine votes in the race for this office.

Mr. Chapman is a lawyer by profession, having been admitted to the bar in 1885. He was City Solicitor of Portland from 1894 to 1897. He was graduated from Colby in the class of 1883. In 1903, he was elected a member of the board of trustees of the college; in which capacity he is serving at the present time, being secretary of the board. He is a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

GERALD LEEDS ELECTED FOOTBALL MANAGER.

Gerald E. Leeds, '17, of Allston Mass., was elected manager of the Colby 1916 football team, Friday, at a special meeting of the athletic association. Leeds is a graduate of the Boston English High school. He is a member of the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity and of Upsilon Beta, the freshman honorary society.

Harris B. McIntire, '18, of Houlton and Howard F. Hill, '18, of Waterville were elected assistant managers. The former is a member of Phi Delta Theta and the latter of Zeta Psi.

RELAY MEN STAR	 		ING FOR
THE B. A.	A. K	AUE.

The relay men are fast rounding into form for the hard season which is ahead of them. Although it is rather early to make predictions, it is certain that there is some excellent material in the process of development. Of the freshmen, Cook, Heyes, and Weisman will bear watching, while the veterans, Merrill,' 16, O'Brien, '16, Ferrell, '18, Howes, '18, and Lattin, '18, are showing up well.

Winter track work has begun with far more than usual interest. The board track is a busy place every afternoon; for, in addition to the regular squads, many freshmen and sophomores prefer track to gym work. Besides the usual gym classes, which are now in full swing the gymnasium is the scene of various indoor track performances including the shot put and the high-jump. Needless to say, Coach Cohn is being kept busy most of the time with so many forms of sport under his direction.

Walter Camp's selection of an All-America football eleven in Collier's Weekly for December 18, is as follows: Ends, Baston of Minnesota and Shelton of Cornell; tackles, Gilman of Harvard and Abell of Colgate; guards, Spears of Dartmouth and Schlachter of Syracuse; center, Peck of Pittsburgh; quarterback, Barrett of Cornell; halfbacks, King of Harvard and Macomber of Illinois; fullback, Mahan, Harvard.

ORACLE EDITORS APPOINTED.

Editor-in-chief Arthur B. Riley, '16, of the Colby Oracle has appointed the following associate editors for 1915-16: Lester A. Young, Delta Kappa Epsilon; Mark R. Thompson, Phi Delta Theta; Donald B. Flood, Zeta Psi; Fred A. Pottle, Alpha Tau Omega; Harry H. Upton, Delta Upsilon; E. Donald Record, Commons Club; William B. Smith, Non-Fraternity; Hazel L. Robinson, Chi Omega; Mildred S. Greene, Delta Delta Delta; Lillian N. Tuttle, Alpha Delta Pi; Helen D. Cole, Sigma Kappa.

At a meeting of th board at 1.30, this afternoon, several important matters were discussed. It is probable that the new Oracle will differ materially from the previous forms. A limited number of copies will be bound in leather, which is rather an innovation. Two other facts are of interest: Phi Delta Theta is again in the association; and the non-fraternity men are represented on the board for the first time, for which a provision has always existed in the constitution.

DELTA UPSILON BANQUET.

The Colby Chapter of Delta Upsilon held its sixtythird annual initiation banquet at the New Augusta House, Augusta, Monday evening. Frederick F. Sully, '16, as toastmaster, introduced the following speakers: Harry H. Upton, '17; Charles N. Perkins, '93; Alfred H. Crossman, Bowdoin, '16; Harold W. Haines, '00; Guy R. Whitten, '19; and Glen W. Starkey, '05. Ernest R. Sribner, '17, was choragus.

Among the alumni members present were: Merle F. Hunt, H. R. Dunham, J. F. Larabee, C. A. Lewis, Maurice Blanchard, Russell Lord, Professor E. K. Maxfield, Daniel P. Tozier, Ralph Webster, Donald Jacobs.

The committee in charge was composed of Arthur D. Craig, '16, chairman, Ernest Scribner, '17, and Harold L. Brown, '17.

The initiates:

1916.—Ervin M. Miller, Wellington.

1918.—James H. Dunn, Scituate, Mass.

1919.—Herbert H. Fletcher, Waterville; Aubrey E. Greenlaw, Masardis; J. Harold Johnson, Concord, N. H.; Isaac D. Love, Lonaconing, Md.; Gerald S. Porter, Camden, N. J.; Milton C. Stephenson, Belfast; Galen F. Sweet, Lincoln Center; Guy R. Whitten, Prospect Harbor.

The Y. M. C. A. is arranging for a week of special religious meetings, to be held in the chapel, January 13-19. The Rev. George R. Stair of the First Baptist church of Portland, who conducted a similar series last spring, has accepted an invitation to take charge again. He will be warmly welcomed by the students.

ZETA PSI BANQUET.

The sixty-fifth annual initiation banquet of Chi Chapter of Zeta Psi fraternity was held at the Elmwood, Friday evening. Arthur F. Bickford, '16 served as toastmaster, and Roger A. Nye, '17, was choragus. Speeches were given by Francis L. Irvin, '16; A. Raymond Rogers, '17; Willard B. Arnold,. '19; Carroll N. Perkins, '04; Professor Herbert C. Libby, '02; and Judge Warren C. Philbrook, '82.

The initiates were:

1918.—Irving M. Derby, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Ralph K. Hurley, South Hanson, Mass.; Harold J. Cloutier, Waterville.

The committee in charge was composed of Wilbur Blades, '17, A. Raymond Rogers, '17, and Donald Flood, '17.

"JIMMIE" JAMES MARRIED.

Frank A. James, '15, captain of Colby's 1914 baseball nine, was married to Miss Edith J. Gilbert of Bangor, Saturday noon. Mr. James is now instructor in the science department of Ricker Classical Institute. He was Colby's 'varsity twirler for four years.

The bride is a well-known Bangor young lady, having graduated from the Bangor High School in the class of 1908. She is a trained nurse.

FOOTBALL DANCE.

The football dance, which has been in the "wind" ever since "Eddie" Cawley's election to the captaincy of the eleven, will be held, Tuesday evening, January 11, at the Silver Racquet. The proceeds will be expended for the purchase of sweaters for the "C" men. The committee-in-charge consists of Captain Cawley, Ex-Captain Stanwood, and Ex-Manager Hussey.

A PUN.

"The only objection there is to a pun is the titanic mental strain required to perpetrate one. It is so obviously artificial that we don't for a minute think of the idea smothered by it, but of the author who is chuckling over the clever juxtaposition of cognate sounds."—Cecil A. Rollins, '17, in rhetoric 7.

During the three years which Harvey Cohn has served as coach of the Blue and Gray track squad, our athletes have shattered nine Colby records and equalled two more. Of the marks in the fourteen events, only those in the high jump, broad jump and pole vault remain untouched by "Harvey's" charges.

PRESS OF THE CITY JOB PRINT

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND HAPPY NEW YEAR! The holiday recess will begin at 6 P. M., Friday, December 17, and continue until 8 A. M., Tuesday, January 4.

Despite the occasional remark that the columns of the ECHO are largely filled with "rehashes" of the college news which appears in the daily newspapers, we are, today, publishing, exclusively, two stories which are of special local importance and interest. Although faced with many difficulties owing to the fact that the ECHO appears only once a week, we endeavor, by efficient co- operation among the editors, to score a "scoop" occasionally. It is our policy to produce a live weekly publication. Are we doing it or not? Your suggestions and support are solicited.

The letters which President Roberts and Graduate Manager Ervin of the athletic association are sending out to the alumni are merely a reminder to the graduate of his duty to his alma mater. After having been graduated from college and having reached a position in the world, a man should rightly look back over the past years and consider the factors which have possible for him his present status. A man should NOT feel that his success in the world has been the result of his sole efforts; instead, he should take into consideration those influences which have played a prominent part in his advancement. The scholarship funds, by the aid of which needy students are able to obtain an education, are memorials to the names of those who contributed to the worthy cause.

By the aid of the generous gifts given by the alumni last Christmas, the college for the sixth consecutive time ended the fiscal year without a deficit. This admirable record reflects upon the efficiency of Colby's administrative department; and it also is a tribute to the alumni whose gifts have made the record possible. With a larger endowment fund, it is said, Colby could offer more courses and better in struction. As it may be a good many years before some rich old bachelor will die and leave a fortune to our college, we should endeavor to accomplish the desired end in some other and more immediate way. The responsibility which rests upon the alumni is one which deserves their sincere consideration. They are under moral obligation to support their alma mater in the good work which she is doing for mankind; they owe a debt to her which only life-long support to her can cancel. We congratulate our alumni on their loyalty to old Colby and sincerely hope and trust that the future recruits who will, in due time, join the grand army of the faithful ones will continue with increased devotion the work started by the veterans.

THE 1916 COLBY CALENDARS.

The 1916 Colby calendars, which were received on the campus this week, are better than those of any previous year. The cover design, a neat finish in leather, is new and artistic. The calendars are made up in the same form that is used at Harvard, Yale, Dartmouth and other large colleges. The pretty features include clear half-tone engravures of Hedman Hall, the football squad, the baseball nine, the track squad, the captains and coaches of the various teams, the musical clubs, the orchestra, and a number of new views of the campus.

The calendar will make a very pleasing Christmas gift, or a souvenir which will ever be a source of recollection of the good old college days. The price of the calendars is 75 cents. They are for sale by G. E. Leeds at the Deke House and "Chick" Fraser at the Phi Delta Theta House. As there is only a limited number of the calendars this year, the students are requested to file their orders early.

MURRAY MORGAN STILL DOING HIS BIT IN THE TRENCHES.

"I have seen considerable of the ravages of war," says Murray A. Morgan, ex-'15, now fighting for the Allies in France, in a letter to Ernest R. Scribner, '17, "and I will say that my heart goes out to the innocent who have suffered the loss of home, loved ones and even their country, in order to gratify the ambitions of some war-mad maniacs.

"We sleep in ruined houses and stables when out of the trenches, and the recent cold weather has caused us some inconvenience. We get good food and plenty of it. It has been said that the British army is the best fed of any in the world, and I believe it. We have numerous parties here, but they are mostly working parties.

"Well, Scrib, I have only been a soldier about a half year; I have seen war and endured a few hardships, and I know that there are more to come; yet I have never been sorry for one minute that I took the step I did. I am only one in many million who are in this struggle, but my conscience is clear, and I feel that man never fought for a nobler cause. You would share this belief too, if you could see devastated Belgium.

"I must close now as the candle is getting low, and already some of the boys are in their beds. My warmest regards to all the boys, and tell them to write to me, as a letter is very acceptable from the U. S. I have heard from none of them, and sometimes I fear that I am forgotten."

PHI DELT BANQUET.

The members of Maine Alpha Chapter of Phi Delta Theta feasted and made merry at the Elmwood, last Wednesday evening, on the occasion of the thirty-first annual initiation banquet of the fraternity. Pithy impromptu remarks were made by Professor Charles P. Chipman, '06, and a number of the active members of the chapter.

1916.—Frederick C. English, Bridge water.

CAMPUS CHAT.

President Roberts was the principal speaker at the weekly meeting of the Y. M. C. A., last evening. About sixty men were present, all of whom enjoyed the forceful and inspiring words of the president.

The carnival festivities in Waterville are attracting a large number of out-of-towners to the city; and, if you will take special notice, you will see that most of them are making their purchases of Colby Echo advertisers. You can't fool the people, they know where they can get satisfaction!

The D. U. boys enjoyed a very pleasant sojurn at the Augusta trolley station, Monday night, from 12.30 to 3 A. M., waiting the home car, which was several hours late on account of the storm.

The Republican club has not yet announced its disputants.

The A. T. O. checker team, composed of Harriman, '16, Flanders, '17, Hayes, '18, and Tyler, '19, were entertained at North Vassalboro, one night last week.

Dramatic club rehearsals have been postponed until after the Christmas vacation. At the first rehearsal, Wednesday, Jan. 5, the coach, Price Webber, will be present.

His topic was, "The Duty of College Men in the Fight for National Prohibition."

SIGMA KAPPA BANQUET.

The 40th annual initiation of Sigma Kappa was held Saturday evening at the sorority hall and was followed by a banquet at the Elmwood. Many alumnae were back for the occasion.
