OLD GRADS REMEMBER THEIR ALMA MATER AT CHRISTMAS.

Colby received, this year, $3,438 in Christmas gifts from 385 donors, according to a statement which has just been issued by President Roberts. "It should be remembered," says the statement, "that this number does not include all those who are rendering the college substantial service. The friends of Colby who are sending students here—their own children or other people's—are the year's largest benefactors, even if their names do not appear in the Christmas list."

Among the number of givers is Ephraim Hunt of the class of 1850, the oldest living graduate of the college. Mr. Hunt, who was 86 years old last October, spent his active life in school work, being at the head of several institutions and once serving as superintendent of schools of Portland. He has an LL. D. degree after his name.

The summary of the other graduate givers by classes is as follows: '53-1; '57-1; '62-2; '63-4; '67-1; '68-4; '70-1; '72-2; '73-1; '74-2; '75-5; '77-6; '78-2; '79-8; '80-3; '81-4; '82-7; '83-3; '84-5; '86-5; '87-6; '88-6; '89-4; '90-12; '91-7; '92-11; '93-7; '94-8; '95-10; '96-10; '97-6; '98-9; '99-1; '00-6; '01-4; '02-12; '03-8; '04-8; '05-10; '06-7; '07-8; '08-10; '09-8; '10-7; '11-9; '12-14; '13-17; '14-22; '15-14.

DEBATING TEAMS ACTIVE.

The long looked for debate between the Democratic and Republican clubs seems at last about to materialize. During the past week, representatives of the two clubs have met and made arrangements for the debate. The date decided upon is Monday evening, February 14.

This contest promises to be a lively one. Both clubs expect it will increase their membership roll, for they claim that, after this debate, no man will want to be an independent.

The two teams, which were chosen some time ago, are:

Democratic Club—A. R. Rogers, '17, H. G. D. Scott, '18, and D. J. Sullivan, '18.

Republican Club—A. F. Bickford, '16, C. B. Flanders, '17, and A. R. Fraser, '18.

As a result of the first trials for the intercollegiate debating teams, three men were chosen: C. B. Flanders, '17, F. A. Pottle, '17, and N. D. Lattin, '18. The trials for the remaining three places and the two alternates are to be held this afternoon.

RELAY PROSPECTS NOT BRIGHT.

The relay situation at Colby is far from bright, Walter F. O'Brien, one of the stars of last year's quartet, being laid up with a broken arm, which he sustained in a basketball game during the Christmas vacation, George E. Ferrell and Raymond Merrill, two of the most promising candidates of the squad, just recovering from the grip, and a fourth man; Ivan Waldron, the quarter-mile champion of Maine in 1914, facing scholastic difficulties with the college office. Of these men, O'Brien and Waldron are on the list of "unables" for certain, and it will be a miracle if the other two, Ferrell and Merrill, are able to get into form for the Boston A. A. races at Mechanics Hall, Boston, February 5.

The remaining candidates for the team, a number of whom are by no means in the pink of condition for the coming competition, include Captain Irving W. Merrill, '16, Lincoln Heyes, '19, Mark R. Thompson, '15, Martin Wiseman, '19, and Norman D. Lattin, '17.

Colby will run with University of Maine in the trials of the B. A. A. races, the winner to compete in the final race with the winning team of the Bowdoin-Bates heats, for the Maine championship.

THE COLBY ALUMNUS

The January number of the Colby Alumnus, which was received from the press this week, is especially interesting and newsy. Among the numerous contributions is an autobiographical article, entitled, "A Colby Boy in the Civil War," by William Goldthwaite, '75. The department of book reviews includes comments on "The Political, Economic, and Social Views of Spenser," by Frederick M. Padel-ford, '96; "The Landloper," a political story, one of Holman Day's ('87) latest novels; and "Calculation of the Maximum Force between Two Coaxial Circular Currents," by Professor Grover of the department of physics. A short sketch is given of the life of George M. Smith, A. M., '73, professor of German in the University of South Dakota, Vermillion, S. D., who has recently written a history of South Dakota, covering the period from the admission of the state into the Union to the present day.

NEW FACULTY RULING.

More rigid rules concerning the eligibility of students to represent the college were passed by the faculty board at its last meeting, Friday night. The new ruling is as follows:

"Beginning with the fall semester of the next college year, the custom of granting the election of an extra course as an equivalent to the removal of a deficiency for eligibility to represent the college, will be discontinued."

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Galen Hollis of Allston announce the engagement of their daughter, Marion Ferguson, to Mr. Philip Goulding Curtis, Colby, '16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herran Curtis of Jamaica Plain.

OUR ALUMNI.

George W. Perry, '14, is reaping success in Y. M. C. A. work at Columbia university, according to the following, in the Columbia Alumni News:

"Mr. Perry's duties are to enlist as many of the students of Columbia as possible in the organized religious work of the campus and to stimulate them to participate in and take an active part in the worship and service of the church." After graduation, "George" accepted a position with the Y. M. C. A. in Gary, Indiana, where in addition to his regular Association duties, he was an active participant through the Baptist church in Professor Wirt's plan of religious education. He is a member of the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

"Mr. and Mrs. Howard F. Woodbury of Essex, Mass., announce the engagement of their daughter, Ruth W., to Rev. Edward H. Cotton of Danvers. Miss Woodbury, who is a teacher in the Beverly public schools, is a graduate of the Salem Normal school. Mr. Cotton is a graduate of Phillips Exeter, Colby College in the class of 1905 and Union Theological seminary. He is a member of the Phi Delta Theta Fraternity and he is chaplain of the Amity lodge of Masons. The Rev. Mr. Cotton became the minister of the Danvers Unitarian church in 1911 and under his charge the church has prospered and widened its activities. He is prominent in Boy Scout movements and is well known in greater Salem."—Boston Herald.

Donald H. White, '13, has recently accepted the position of superintendent of the new sulphur chloride plant of the Berlin mills in Berlin, N. H. The Berlin mills are among the largest pulp mills in this part of the country and they have a large chemical department. The plant of which Mr. White is to be superintendent contains large chemical laboratories and forms an important part of the Berlin mills. Mr. White, who was a graduate of Colby in the class of 1913, continued his work in chemistry at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, taking a B. S. degree there in chemical engineering.

"A truth," said Dr. Marquardt before the college men's class of the Congregational Church, "is an asset; a lie is a liability."

PRESS OF THE CITY JOB PRINT

As that baleful spirit which embodies study, mystery, and gloom, otherwise known as the jinx, is always the dominant character on the campus during the direful period designated as mid-year examination week; and, as that spirit is about to ascend to his pedestal for the purposes of dire revenge, the ECHO will not appear again until February 9; by which time, it is hoped, we shall have emerged from the dingy depths of the Plutonian chasm into the realm of previously enjoyed existence.

Students and graduates of the college should not forget the generous prizes which the class of 1895 is offering for new Colby songs. Every man realizes our need of lively, snappy original and distinctive music, and it seems about time that someone should "get together," so to speak, show a little real spirit, and compose a song which shall deserve to be sung as a permanent memorial to its author. The prizes which the "ninety-fivers" are offering aggregate fifty dollars. The class desires words that can be sung to the tune of "Marching Through Georgia," to replace "Phi Chi," which is not a distinctively Colby song. Anyone writing such words will do well to consider the purpose of such a song,—it is to be used by a crowd of men to urge their team on to victory, or to celebrate the achievement of it, and for any other important college event. The contest will close May 15th, 1916, and no contributions after that date can be considered for a prize.

ONLY ONE CROSS COUNTRY "C."

At a meeting of the athletic council, Tuesday night, a cross-country "C" was awarded to Mark R. Thompson, '17, the captain of the 1915 hill and dale team. Thompson is also the possessor of a 'varsity track letter, having won honors in the one-mile event.

COMING EVENTS.

- Jan. 27.—College Chapel. "A Girl in a Thousand," by the senior girls.
- Jan. 28.—6 P. M., First Semester ends.
- Jan. 30.—College Men's Bible Class, Cong'l church, "Readjustments," Professor Homer P. Little.
- Jan. 31-Feb. 5.—Midyear examinations, Monday, Jan. 31, to Saturday, Feb. 5.
- Feb. 8.—8 A. M., Second Semester begins.
- Feb. 14.—College Chapel. Debate, Republicans vs. Democrats.
- Feb. 21-23.—National Convention of Commons Clubs with Colby Chapter.
- Mar. 10.—Annual Dual Debate with the University of Maine.
- Mar. 14.—Annual Goodwin Interscholastic Prize Debating Contest—Forenoon, afternoon, and evening.
- May 12.—Seventh Annual Lyford Interscholastic Prize Speaking Contest—afternoon and evening.

Monday evening was the occasion of an informal "get-together" of the Railroad Y. M. C. A. members and a large number of the college men. It took the form of a banquet tendered by railroad officials, and was presided over by Division Superintendent McLaughlin. President Roberts spoke briefly on the true purpose of a man's coming to college. Other speakers and the good humor of the hundred or more men present made the evening one long to be remembered. A short entertainment was furnished by the Y. M. C. A. orchestra, Upton, '17, and the college quartette, composed of Webb, '17, Adams, '18, Scribner, '17, and Choate, '19.

It was necessary to postpone the gym night, scheduled for last Friday, on account of changes being made in the gymnasium. A new chimney is being built and the heating facilities will accordingly be much improved.

CAMPUS CHAT.

Much interest was manifested in the regular monthly meeting of the Physical Society, Friday evening. Arthur Craig, '16, read a paper on "Glass Blowing." There was a good attendance, and the discussion among the members was both interesting and instructive.

T. B. Madsen, '17, preached at Winslow, Sunday.

"Dutch" Schuster announces that Ex-President William H. Taft will be unable to stop off here, on his trip to Bangor, to address the local Republican Club.

George Skillin, '18, who went to the hospital, Friday, for treatment for the grip, is recovering rapidly.

All the college men planning for Christian activity as a life work gathered at the home of Dr. Phelps, Monday evening. "The Minister in Society" was the subject of the fifth of the series of talks given to these men by Dr. Phelps. A pleasant and profitable evening was enjoyed.

The prospects of the dramatic club are dimmed by the illness of Robert Matthews, '18, one of the leading characters.

Professor Brown gives his lecture, "The Creation Story," in Portland, Thursday night.

Harry H. Upton, '17, who occupied the pulpit at the First Baptist Church, Skowhegan, Sunday, proved to be a very pleasing speaker and excellent sermonizer, says the Skowhegan Independent-Reporter. Mr. Upton was engaged in supply work at Belfast, last summer.

Milton Philbrook, '18, is ill with the grip.

President Roberts leaves, tomorrow, for a trip to Chicago.

E. R. Miller, '16, has returned to college after a week's illness at his home in Wellington.

H. H. Upton, '17, is back at his studies, having been confined by an attack of grip while visiting friends in Belfast.

The glee club has been cut to the following men who will make up the personnel of that branch of the musical organization during the proposed trip to the coast: Adams, '18, Webb, '17, Nye, '17, Marston, '16, Tracy, '18, Greer, '16, Davis, '17, Campbell, '16, Hughes, '19, Scribner, '17, Hastings, '18, Paikowsky, '18, Choate, '19, Robinson, '18, Newman, '18, and Cary, '19.

Whitney, '18, is handling a full line of pumps, acting as agent for Gallert's Shoe Store.

"Mother Wells," matron of the D. U. House, has resumed her duties after a short sickness.

G. E. Ferrell, '18, who has been ill with the grip, is out again.

F. J. Pope, '17, is in the clutches of the grip.

A. B. Riley, '16, attended the banquet of the Tufts chapter of A. T. O. fraternity as a delegate from the Colby Chapter.

"Don" Tozier, '17, is on the sick list.

MORS AMORIS.

They stood within the hallway, he and she,
With sharp lookout for that relentless eye—
That omnipresent orb, that more doth spy
Than one would deem it possible to see.

His hand was on the latch, that he might flee,
Should creaking step reveal that harm drew nigh;
For round the Hall vague dangers ever lie
That squelch the ardent swain's most fervent plea.

Forgotten were gay jest and merry quip;
His eyes were speaking what his lips dared not;
He bent his head—fond love and good sense
Fought,
Sense conquered—"Can't be done—you've had the grip!" G. G. W., '17.

WOMEN'S DIVISION.

Edited by the News Department of the Colbiana.

1916—Effie May Hannan.

1917—Marion Ruth Daggett.

1918—Isabelle Hervey Wing.

1919—Mary Elizabeth Tourtellott.

Business Manager—Carolyn Isabel Stevens, '16.

The seniors will present the play, "A Girl in a Thousand," at the chapel, Thursday evening, for the benefit of the Y. W. C. A. and the Colbiana.

Miss Sarah S. Arnold, Dean of Simmons College, gave a very interesting talk to the girls, Saturday afternoon, on the history and motive of Simmons.

Violet French, '17, who has been at the Sisters' Hospital for the last two weeks, has gone home. She hopes to return to college after "mid-years."

Eva Hackett of Houlton called on Marion Buzzell, '18, Monday.

Mildred Dunham, '19, gave a card party, Saturday afternoon, for seven of her friends at Foss Hall. The guests were: Myra Cross, '17, Eunice Chase, '18, Helen Kimball, '18, Anne Caswell, '18, Bertha Terry, ex-'18, Almira Schaubel, '19, and Ruth Holbrook, '19.

Katharine Drummond entertained at her home on Burleigh street, Friday night.

The Y. W. C. A. meeting, this week, was a missionary meeting, led by Mrs. Foster.

Mary Jordan, '18, entertained her sister over Sunday.

On Thursday evening, the "Chi Gams" were entertained by Bertha Terry, ex-'18, at her home on Silver street. At six o'clock, a very delicious beef-steak dinner was served. The evening passed quickly with the singing of "Chi Gam" songs.

Norma Goodhue, '18, entertained her father, Mr. A. F. Goodhue of Fort Fairfield, one day last week.

Miss E. Iola Haskell, '17, has gone home for a few days on account of illness.

Helene Blackwell, '19, returned to college, Monday after passing a few days at her home in Brunswick.

Emily Kelley, '19, has returned from Fairfield, where she has been for the past two weeks, suffering from an attack of "La Grippe."

Helen Baldwin, '19, returned to college, Monday, after passing a week at her home in Derby.

Belle Longley, '19, spent the week-end at her home in China.

Minerva Bradstreet, '19, has returned from Monticello, where she has been detained since the Christmas holidays, by the illness of her brother.

Alice Barbour, '19, went to St. Barnabas Hospital, Tuesday, for an operation for appendicitis.

Sunday Night Topic

First Baptist Church

The Newton Theological Institution

(FOUNDED 1825)

Eight miles from the Boston (Mass.) State House situated in superb grounds of 52 acres belonging to the institution.

An Eminent Faculty, Fourteen Professors and Instructors, Convenient Dormitories and Lecture Rooms, Beautiful Chapel, a Noble Library, an Unsurpassed Library building, and Equipment for Laboratory Work.

Courses leading to B. D. degree, and special provision for Post-graduate students. Newton students of a year's approved standing have special privileges at Harvard University without cost.

The proximity of the Seminary to Boston and Cambridge makes it easy for students to attend lectures by eminent specialists and the Lowell Institute Courses.

There are many opportunities for engaging in missionary and philanthropic work by which students acquire clinical experience and contribute to their self-support.
