MUSICAL CLUBS MAKE A BIG HIT WITH THE MAINE COASTERS.

The Musical Clubs, last week, took a trip along the Maine coast, giving concerts at Camden, Vinalhaven, Rockport, Brooks, and Augusta. With the exception of the first day the weather was unusually mild, and the twenty-five men who took the trip report a fine time.

On February seventh, the combined clubs started for Camden. The weather was wet and disagreeable on the morning of their departure, but by the time Belfast was reached the sun was out and the clouds had disappeared. From Belfast the clubs took the "Islesboro" to Camden, where the first concert was to take place. Webb, '17, the leader of the glee club and a member of the orchestra, was taken sick shortly after arriving in Camden, and the clubs were greatly handicapped because of his absence on the rest of the trip. The concert at Camden went exceedingly well, considering the fact that it was the first one of the season.

On Tuesday, a successful concert was given at Vinalhaven, which is situated several miles out in Penobscot bay. The bay was unusually calm, so the boys did not have a chance to see any of the fish. At Vinalhaven "Pus" Soule, '13, took care of the "bunch."

The next day, the clubs returned to Rockland, and from there went to Rockport. The concert, that evening, was given at the Glen Cove Grange hall, to a large and enthusiastic audience.

Thursday saw the clubs at Camden once more, waiting for the boat to Belfast. Two noble "gentry" carried Ingersolls, and consequently spent the rest of the day at Camden. From Belfast, the rest of the musicians took carryalls to Brooks some twelve miles away. It was a cold ride, and all were glad when it was over. The concert and dance at Brooks was especially successful.

Friday afternoon, an entertainment was given at the State Insane Hospital, Augusta. It was a good concert. Some of the boys wanted to stay longer.

Perhaps the climax of the whole trip was reached, Friday evening, when a concert and dance was given at the Augusta City Hall. The hall was well filled with an audience that was particularly appreciative, and the dance after the program was the best of all.

Saturday, at an early hour in the morning, the clubs returned to Waterville, tired and extremely glad to get home once more.

Mr. William Smith Knowlton of the class of '64 was a most welcome visitor at the D. K. E. House, Monday.

NATIONAL CONVENTION OF COMMONS CLUBS HERE NEXT WEEK.

With the completion of mid-year's, plans for the National Convention of Commons Clubs, to be held here Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, are progressing rapidly. Committees have been assigned to the various phases of preparation, and all are working hard to make the convention a splendid success. Several special features have been added to the original plans, all of which promise to add much to the success of the occasion.

The convention will officially open Monday night with a banquet at the Elmwood. The importance of the occasion, together with the excellent list of speakers, will make this event especially interesting and enjoyable. After the regular business sessions, covering all day Tuesday, the evening will be given up to a "smoker." Entertainment, "smokes," and refreshments will be provided in abundance, and a jolly evening is anticipated. Following the completion of the business, Wednesday, sight-seeing excursions will be the order of the day. The various manufacturing plants of the city and other places of interest will be visited. A theater party, followed by a "feed" will consume Wednesday evening. About thirty delegates, representing the fifteen chapters of the Federation, will attend the convention besides several alumni of the local chapter.

SENIORS TO CARRY CANES.

The senior class, at a meeting in the chapel at one o'clock today, voted to include canes in the Commencement regalia. The following committees were appointed:

Senior Hop Committee—D. E. Putnam, B. F. Greer, A. F. Bickford, R. A. Hussey, C. M. Joly, W. C. Lincoln, W. K. Schuster.

Nominating Committee for Class Day Officers—J. H. Campbell, I. W. Merrill, Hubert Barker, I. R. Stanwood, A. W. Allen, H. A. Eaton, F. M. Dyer.

Cane Committee—F. L. Irvin, I. W. Merrill, A. W. Riley.

Since the United States was founded, only one man in seven hundred and fifty has gone through college; yet from this group have come 17 of the 26 presidents, 19 of the 27 vice-presidents, and 17 of the 84 persons in the Hall of Fame. Only 1 per cent. of our present population are college people, yet this small percentage furnishes 29 of the 51 governors of states and territories, 61 of the 98 United States Senators, 272 out of 395 Congressmen, and 9 of the 9 Supreme Court Judges.—Exchange.

NEW ENGLAND MEET AT CAMBRIDGE

Despite the efforts of Bates and of the business men of Lewiston to persuade the New England Intercollegiate Athletic Association to hold its annual track and field meet, scheduled for May 19 and 20, at that Maine college city, the executive and advisory committees of the association, in meeting at Boston, February 5, decided not to change the place of the meet from the M. I. T. field, Cambridge, Mass., where the annual event has been held for several years. It was brought out that the facilities at Bates, including the hotel accommodations, size of track, seating capacity of the field, dressing-rooms and other features which Lewiston could offer, would prove inadequate for the successful outcome of a meet as large as the New England. The argument was offered that the support of the four Maine colleges could be counted on materially to help the gate receipts, but this was considered not altogether convincing.

Harvard students have tabooed the wrist watch as a badge of effeminacy.

WESTERN MAINE COLBY ALUMNI MEET IN PORTLAND.

A large gathering of alumni met at the Congress Square Hotel, Portland, last Thursday night, on the occasion of the annual meeting and dinner of the Western Maine Colby Alumni Association. The good old spirit of loyalty and appreciation for what the college has done and is doing for education, characterized the meeting.

Charles E. Gurney, Esq., the president of the association, presided and prefaced his introduction of the different speakers with several good stories.

He first introduced President Roberts, who was enthusiastically received.

President Roberts spoke of the conditions and progress at the college, and of the needs of the institution. He told of an organized effort that is to be made to double the present endowment, and showed how such an increase can be used to splendid advantage.

Perhaps the liveliest feature of the evening was a fiery pro-German speech by Dr. Marquardt, who expressed himself in no uncertain terms as believing that the Fatherland is in the right, and that German arms will triumph. He said he knew that everyone present was against him and that he did not expect to convert them, but that time would prove the correctness of his assertions.

Several other bright and interesting speeches followed, one and all expressing love and loyalty to Colby, and interest in her welfare.

Officers were elected as follows: President, Ernest E. Noble; secretary and treasurer, Clifford H. Libby; executive committee, Wilford G. Chapman, George Gould, Prince A. Drummond.

Those present were: President Arthur J. Roberts, Mayor Wilford G. Chapman, '82, Charles E. Gurney, '98, Prof. Anton Marquardt, Kiel, '86, Edward F. Thompson, '82, Fred F. Owen, '87, William F. Tuthill, '94, Charles M. Woodman, '98, Allen P. Soule, '79, J. F. Liscomb, '62, William H. Looney, '77, Ernest E. Noble, '98, C. W. Foster, '71, Alfred King, '83, E. H. Phillips, '82, Eben G. Russell, '82, F. Harold Jones, '14, George A. Gould, '08, P. A. Drummond, '15, W. B. Jack, '00, W. G. Chapman, Jr., '12, Rex W. Dodge, '06, Charles D. McDonald, '00.

Harry Waldo Kidder, '10, who is a student at the George Washington University law school, Washington, D. C., writes to Professor Libby that he has been chosen a member of the university debating team, which is to meet the Pittsburgh University trio, sometime in March, on the question, "Resolved, That there should be an international police force to enforce the international treaties and preserve international peace." Mr. Kidder is the assistant secretary in the United States Senate Library.

DEBATING TEAMS SELECTED.

The complete Murray Prize Debating teams are composed of the following men: Lester E. Young, '17, Fred A. Pottle, '17, Norman D. Lattin, '18, Herbert L. Newman, '18, Raymond H. Parker, '18, and J. Gleason Perry, '18. The proposition for the debate, which will immediately follow the Intercollegiate Debate, has not been selected, but will probably concern international relations.

Professor Libby announced, yesterday, the names of the men composing the Intercollegiate Debating teams: Norman W. Lindsay, '17, Carroll B. Flanders, '17, Fred A. Pottle, '17, A. Raymond Rogers, '17, Norman D. Lattin, '18, and Herbert L. Newman, '18. The teams will debate with the University of Maine at Waterville and at Orono in March, on the proposition "Resolved—That the Monroe Doctrine should be Abolished."

Ira Waldron, '64, has had recently an experience which is worthy of record. In 1865, soon after graduating from college, Mr. Waldron took out a life insurance policy in a well-known company. He paid the premium for the first year and then forgot the matter. No further payments were ever made. Late in October, 1915, the company, which had long been searching for Mr. Waldron, located him within a few doors of its home office, and paid him the amount due him on his policy, amounting to nearly three times the sum he had paid fifty years before.—Colby Alumnus.

It is interesting, as well as gratifying, to note the decrease in deficiencies of last semester over the number of previous years. Out of the ninety members of the senior class, the largest senior class in the history of the college, only six men failed to pass all their courses. Although the percentage in the other three classes was considerably larger than this, yet we are pleased to announce the record for the semester as being remarkable.

The question as to who is to coach our football team, next fall, is as yet unanswered. A large number of men have applied for the position, among them being "Ginger" Fraser, captain of Colby's 1914 championship eleven, and former heroes of Harvard, Yale and Dartmouth gridirons. The matter of adopting the dual coach system has been a subject of conversation on the campus, but it is hardly possible that our athletic association could finance such a project. At the February meeting of the athletic council, probably next Monday evening, the selection of a coach will most likely be considered.

FREE SCHOLARSHIPS.

REVIEW OF REVIEWS AWARDS THEM FOR SUMMER WORK.

College men who earn a large part or all of their college expenses will doubtless be greatly interested again this year in the free cash scholarships offered under the direction of Mr. H. W. Frey, to self-supporting students. During the past seven years over 1600 students have won free cash scholarships worth $100 to $1000 apiece.

President Wilson, together with five prominent college presidents, has endorsed this plan of awarding free scholarships to ambitious students. A certificate of such endorsement is placed in the hands of every student whose application for enrollment is accepted.

These scholarships are not competitive, in any sense of the word, but are available to any student of good character. Each student is apportioned an exclusive radius. The scholarships are won, not for class room proficiency, but for practical work during the summer months or in spare time through the college year.

College employment bureaus from Maine to California recommend this plan as a sure means of meeting college expenses for self-supporting students. The work possesses a dignity and distinction which invariably appeals to the ideals of college men. It is always congenial and eminently satisfactory financially. Over 400 scholarships were awarded students the past summer, Mr. Arthur Henkel, of the University of Michigan, winning a $1000 scholarship by 10 weeks' work.

Any self-supporting student can secure full particulars without obligation by dropping a postcard at once for "Pepper of Princeton" to the Review of Reviews Scholarship Fund, 24 Irving Place, New York City.

DELTA UPSILON CONVENTION.

The northeast district convention of Delta Upsilon fraternity is being anticipated by the Colby chapter with much careful preparation. The delegates will arrive in Waterville, Friday noon, March 8, and the program of events will be as follows:

Friday afternoon.—Business meeting.
Friday evening.—Formal theater party.
Saturday morning.—Business meeting.
Saturday afternoon.—Smoker.
Saturday evening.—Banquet.

The banquet will be the occasion of the joint-banquet, which is held annually with the Bowdoin chapter of Delta Upsilon. The uniting of the two events promises a gala occasion for all concerned.

CAMPUS CHAT.

The handsome illuminated sign, just placed on the west wall of the Commons Club House, has caused much favorable comment. It is modeled after the pin worn by the members and incorporates the colors of the club. The background is maroon with a gray band about the interlocked "C's," which are of gold color. The lights are ruby and gray. The whole makes a very handsome combination and is a credit to its designers.

Barron Johnson, ex-'18, has returned to college.

Mark R. Thompson, '17, and "Jud" Merrill, '16, have returned from New York.

"Pad" Drummond, '15, is at his home in Waterville on a short vacation.

Professor Libby spoke at Bucksport Seminary one day last week.

President Roberts is to be the speaker at the Y. M. C. A. Conference at Fairfield, Sunday night. Professor Libby is to act as toastmaster at the banquet, Friday night.

John Harriman, '16, represented the local chapter of Alpha Tau Omega at the initiation banquet of the Worcester Polytech chapter at Worcester, Saturday.

Raymond Thompson, '15, stopped over night at the A. T. O. House, Friday, on his way to the Bowdoin Interscholastic meet.

Ivan Waldron, '18, attended the Bowdoin Interscholastic meet.

The Mystic banquet will be held at the Chop House, tonight.

Robert Carey, '19, is sick with the grippe.

President Roberts announces that a celebration in commemoration of the three hundredth anniversary of the death of Shakespeare will be held at Colby either on, or near, the day of the month on which the great English poet passed away. A feature of the program is to be a lecture by a prominent man.

Wilbur B. Dexter, '14, has been a guest at the Commons Club for several days.

Randolph E. Tedford, '18, preached at North Fairfield, Sunday.

James Conlon, '19, accompanied the Oakland High School basketball team to Winthrop one night last week and acted as referee for the game.

The Dramatic Club will give its play at Higgins Classical Institute, Charleston, the night of February 22nd.

Professor Trefethen returned today from Wilton, where he was called by the serious illness of his mother, who is 85.

The Colby Comets were defeated by the Augusta Y. M. C. A. team at Augusta, one night last week.

Ex-captain Stanwood and Captain Cawley visited Hebron Academy, last Thursday.

An interfraternity auction whist tournament has been started. Teams have been picked, and the project is already well under way. The prize is a card table.

Norris Stevens, ex-'17, was a visitor at the A. T. O. House, yesterday.

Wallace G. Hastings, '18, is going through the throes of a severe cold.

Richard J. Kimball, '16, went to Bangor on Feb. 9, to meet his mother, who was stopping there for the day.

Frank J. Howard, '18, better known to his friends as "Death" Howard, is recovering from the grip.

Lincoln Heyes, '19, returned to college on Monday, after a week's visit to his home in Attleboro, Mass.

Mark R. Thompson, '17, and Irving W. Merrill, '16, arrived in Waterville on the "two o'clock," Sunday morning. They had visited during the past week at the home of the former in New York City.

Semester marks are to be issued Thursday afternoon.

COLLEGE MEN'S BIBLE CLASSES.

Congregational, Professor Libby.

Thirty-five Colby men have enrolled in the college men's Bible class of the Congregational church, which is being conducted by Professor Herbert C. Libby. A series of addresses by Colby professors has been arranged for the coming five months, and everything points to a success for the organization. All Colby students are invited to join the class, which, at present, includes the following men: C. V. Anderson, '19; C. M. Bailey, '19; F. D. Blanchard, '19; E. W. Campbell, '18; W. Chittenden, '19; J. F. Choate, '19; W. W. Chute, '19; E. M. Cook, '19; L. A. Craig, '19; I. M. Derby, '18; F. Eaton, '17; F. C. English, '16; C. B. Flanders, '17; H. W. Goodrich, '18; A. S. Heath, '19; F. E. Heath, '17; L. D. Hemenway, '17; J. A. Klain, '19; J. A. Knox, '19; P. B. Libby, '18; A. C. Little, '17; I. D. Love, '19; T. B. Madsen, '17; N. L. Nourse, '19; R. H. Parker, '18; W. R. Pedersen, '19; F. J. Pope, '17; B. M. Ranney, '18; C. W. Robinson, '18; H. L. Robinson, '18; V. H. Tooker, '19; W. L. Webb, '17; O. C. Wilbur, '17; H. D. Eaton, Jr., '16; E. S. Adams, '18.

Class at First Baptist.

WORKING ONE'S WAY.

Reports show large increases in the freshman classes. In this country of wealth, more and more people are finding the money to pay the college bills. Also more people are appreciating the value of the training. And there is an increasing number of students who work their own way.

A reasonably bright young person can work his way through any college without any great difficulty. He need not enrich John D. greatly for "midnight oil" either. Nor need he be an object of pity or overwork. It is simply a question of where he will put in his daylight.

When other fellows are frolicing and gossiping at the fraternity houses, will he have the resolution to get up his next day's lessons? He may often have to study while others are playing tennis or football. This is regrettable. Yet he is no worse off, not so badly off, as his comrades that have gone into stores and factories. Half an hour in the gymnasium daily will keep his heart, stomach, and nerves working.

He may miss some fine aspects of college life. Certain enriching personal intimacies may be impossible. Not because of any social discredit attaching to work, but because he must limit his expenses and travel a different path. He will make his own friendships. They may lie largely among other earning students. These boys may come from obscure families, but they have a rugged strength. Their persistence and ambition will make them heard from. In ten years these friendships may be more helpful than association with rich men's sons.

So let no anxious parent hold back an ambitious boy. Give him his chance to work out the faith that is in him.—Fort Wayne (Ind.) Journal-Gazette.

The Junior Y. W. C. A. social, held Saturday evening in the Foss Hall gym was a grand success. The room was made attractive with banners representative of the different college fraternities and sororities. During the course of the evening home made candies were on sale. The first part of the evening was given over to a program which was both unique and pleasing. This program consisted of a piano solo, by Hazel Robinson, '17; vocal solo, by Mr. Choate, '18; readings, by Flora Norton; vocal solo with guitar accompaniment, by Marion Daggett, '17; and a little skit entitled, "Why I Never Married."

Those participating in this part of the entertainment were: the Misses Clarkin, Bean, Norton, Taylor, Duff, Brown, Vincent; and Messrs. Thompson, Everett, Whittemore, Pottle, Leseur, Deasy, and Wood. Another feature was "Her Gentlemen Callers," a scene in which the popular young hostess solved the difficulty of disposing of each succeeding caller by turning him into some piece of furniture. After the program was completed, games furnished amusement for all. A good sum of money was realized, which will be for the benefit of the Y. W. C. A.

Rehearsals have begun, under the efficient supervision of Miss Stockbridge, for the glee club concert which this year is to be in the form of a Japanese Operetta.

Phyllis Prescott, '19, entertained her mother, Saturday and Sunday.

Professor Johnson led the Y. W. C. A. meeting, Tuesday night. He gave an interesting talk on missions.

Iris Crosby, '16, substituted in the sixth grade at the North Grammar School, Tuesday of last week, and Thursday afternoon in the Myrtle Street sixth grade.

Clara Mae Harvey, '19, who left college near the end of last semester on account of illness, visited at Foss Hall, Monday.

Frederick Sully, '16, gave an enthusiastic talk in behalf of the Athletic Association at Tuesday's chapel.

The Y. W. C. A. has been celebrating Jubilee Week in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of its founding. Interesting meetings have been held, which have aroused enthusiasm to take up the good work with renewed determination to win. Each member has done her best to make this week an epoch making one in the history of the association.

Mary Foss, '19, who has been at home with the grippe, has returned to college.

Esther French, '16, spent Sunday at North Vassalboro, the guest of relatives.

Flora Norton, '17, read at the Union Defenders' Day exercises, Monday evening, at the G. A. R. Hall.

Alice Clarkin, '16, entertained the mandolin club at her home on Center street, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Robert Owen called on her sister, Edith Pratt, '16, Sunday.

Miss Hilton, a teacher at M. C. I., called on Marion Starbird, '18, Saturday.

Anne Caswell, '18, who has been in the Sisters' Hospital for the last week, is slowly improving.

Mrs. Deborah Knox Livingston of Bangor, a woman of international fame, who is to address a union service at the Baptist Church, Thursday night will be a guest at dinner at Foss Hall. Immediately after dinner, she will speak to the girls for a few minutes.

The Chi Omega fraternity gave a farewell party to Marie Stanley, Friday night, at the chapter rooms.

The Newton Theological Institution

(FOUNDED 1825)

Eight miles from the Boston (Mass.) State House situated in superb grounds of 52 acres belonging to the institution.

An Eminent Faculty, Fourteen Professors and Instructors, Convenient Dormitories and Lecture Rooms, Beautiful Chapel, a Noble Library, an Unsurpassed Library building, and Equipment for Laboratory Work.

Courses leading to B. D. degree, and special provision for Post-graduate students.

Harvard University offers special privileges, without cost, to Newton Seniors of approved standing on recommendation of the Newton Faculty.

There are many opportunities for engaging in missionary and philanthropic work by which students acquire clinical experience and contribute to their self-support.

Address GEORGE E. HERR, President,

NEWTON CENTRE, Mass.

The party took the form of a cabaret dinner and masquerade. Music was enjoyed during the dinner, and fancy dancing was given between courses. The gay costumes and showers of confetti made the whole scene a very brilliant one. Miss Stanley was presented with a bar pin bearing the fraternity emblems.

Miss Phyllis Cole, '18, entertained, last week, her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cole, and her brother, Vernon, of Barre, Mass.

The "Palmer House Gossip" will be published, Saturday, as usual. Last week's edition was exceptionally interesting, a new column having been introduced: The Penny Wise Column, in which problems relating to college girls are discussed.

The F. E. F's enjoyed a Valentine dinner, Saturday night, with Marguerite Bradbury as hostess.

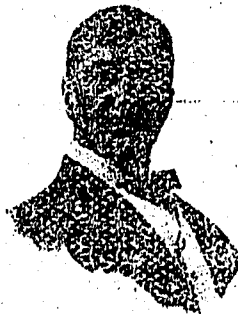

Mrs. F. E. Gregory of Glen Cove was the guest of her daughter, Martha Gregory, '19, over Sunday.

Belle Longley, '19, spent the week-end at her home in China.

Attalena Atkins, '17, who has been at home on account of illness, visited at Foss Hall, Monday. She was accompanied by her mother.

Jennie Farnum, '15, visited friends in college, Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Elizabeth Bass, dean of the Women's Division in 1909—1912, is visiting Mrs. B. F. Carter.
