San Marcellus P. Friar. Tuesday afternoon - Dearest mamma. I had a very good journey, not at all hot, arriving in the village at 9.30 & walking up here through Cini's beautiful garden. I have a delightful cool room built since I was here last & an fitted with plain deal, in wh: with both windows open (basit looks North) the temp. is 70.
I am now - 2.30 sitting in the wood above the house in a little patch of shade, the sun at noon but deliciously cool. Only everything is steep & not for goats than men. They are not very well, ^{but} ~~the~~ he can only get close to the house. It is very sad none of this delight perhaps & he be for him. I hope you will have a cool night. Thank E. for waking me. M.
