COLBY TIES FOR THIRD IN ANNUAL TRACK MEET.

O'BRIEN AND MARK THOMPSON FEATURE.

The 22nd annual Maine intercollegiate track meet was held on Whittier field, Brunswick, last Saturday. The day, but for a strong wind, was an ideal one for a track meet. Five records were broken, and two equalled; but on account of a favoring wind, two of the new records and the two that were equalled were not allowed. Although Maine had the meet much her own way, every event was interesting and close.

The features of the day from a Colby viewpoint were the mile run in which O'Brien finished second, and the two-mile event in which our own Mark Thompson led the field. The fine showing of Mark's younger brother, Paul, in the mile is also worthy of mention. Paul was dangerous from the first and made Herrick of Maine exert himself to capture third place.

O'Brien's mile was without doubt the prettiest race of the day. Staying with the bunch until the last lap, he let out a sprint that carried him by Thompson and Herrick, and when Bell broke the tape "Red" was right behind him. The Colby cheers for the game little runner could be heard for many minutes after the event was over.

Coach Cohn kept Mark Thompson out of the mile and half-mile and saved him for the two-mile event. His judgment was vindicated; for Thompson romped home an easy winner.

The other point winners for Colby were Joyce, who scored a second in the hammer and a third in the discus; and Mayers, who scored a point in the pole vault, tying with three others for second place. The new men to make their "C's" were O'Brien and Mayers.

In the dashes, Rice of Maine equalled both state records, but they were not allowed because of the favoring wind. Likewise, Savage of Bowdoin was deprived of the honor of clipping 2-5 of a second from the low hurdle record, and 1-5 of a second from the high hurdle mark. The new records allowed were made by Palmer of Maine in the high jump with a gain of 3 1-4 inches; French of Maine who added 5 inches to the broad jump record; and Allen of Maine who passed the state record by two feet in the shot put.

The summary:

100-yard dash—Won by Rice, Maine; O. Lawry, Maine, second; Ziegler, Maine, third. Time, 9 4-5s.
220-yard dash—Won by Rice, Maine; Ziegler,

Maine, second; Donovan, Maine, third. Time, 21 4-5s.

440-yard dash—Won by Lawrence, Bates; MacBride, Maine, second; Turner, Bowdoin, third. Time, 53 4-5s.

880-yard run—Won by Bell, Maine; Crosby, Bowdoin, second, Dempsey, Maine, third. Time, 2m. 21-5s.

One-mile run—Won by Bell, Maine; O'Brien, Colby, second; Herrick, Maine, third. Time, 4m. 34 4-5s.

Two-mile run—Won by M. Thompson, Colby; Gregory, Bates, second; Preti, Maine, third. Time, 10m. 9 2-5s.

120-yard high hurdles—Won by Savage, Bowdoin; French, Maine, second; Webber, Bowdoin, third. Time, 15 4-5s.

220-yard low hurdles—Won by Savage of Bowdoin; French, Maine, second; Webber, Bowdoin, third. Time, 24 2-5s.

Broad jump—Won by French, Maine, Pierce, Maine, second; Rowe, Maine, third. Distance, 22ft. 9 3-4 in. (New record).

High jump—Won by Palmer, Maine; Pinkham, Bates, second; White, Bowdoin, third. Height, 6ft. 1 1-4 in. (New record).

Pole vault—Won by Sampson, Bowdoin; Warren of Bowdoin, Hutton of Maine, Drew of Bates, and Mayers of Colby, tied for second place. Height, 10ft. 6 in.

Shot put—Won by Allen, Maine; Leadbetter, Bowdoin, second; Adam, Bates, third. Distance, 46.35ft. (New record).

Hammer throw—Won by Leadbetter, Bowdoin; Joyce, Colby, second; Stanley, Maine, third. Distance, 155.02in.

Discus throw—Won by Moulton, Bowdoin; Leadbetter, Bowdoin, second; Joyce, Colby, third. Distance, 123.38 ft.

BOWDOIN "COMES BACK" 1 TO 0 IN A GREAT PITCHER'S BATTLE.

On Alumni Field, last Wednesday, was witnessed one of the greatest battles seen there in recent years. The Bowdoin nine, considered almost down and out since its crushing defeat by Colby, three days before, came back strong and won the second in the series of championship games by the score of 1 to 0. For the greater part of the time both sides played perfect ball, hits were rare, though some hard drives, which looked good for two or more bases, were smothered by the outfielders.

The game was essentially a pitchers' duel between White and "Bob" Matthews. White allowed only two hits and fanned six, while "Matty" allowed four hits and fanned three. Both had good support and succeeded pretty well in fighting shy of tight places.

The only score came in the fourth, when successive doubles by McElwee and Finn put one run across the plate. Three double plays were made, two by Bowdoin and one by Colby. Driscoll, at third, featured by accepting ten out of eleven chances, his only error coming when Chapman smashed out a hard grounder along the base line in the ninth.

Colby fought hard to put some runs across. In the last inning, especially, aided by deafening cheers from the grandstand, the Blue made a great effort to win, but the breaks of the game seemed always against her.

Mark Thompson and the cheering section worked together until the last minute of play; but there was no such yagging as marred the conduct of the Colby rooters at the Maine game.

ROUSING RALLY FOR TRACK MEET.

The reception to the Lyford prize speakers was combined with an enthusiastic rally in the chapel, Friday night. Colby's slim prospects for the track meet did not dampen her spirit, for the affair was one of the most enthusiastic and spirited of the year. The excellent list of speakers, the responsive cheering section, ably assisted by the band, all contributed to stimulate interest and college loyalty.

After a few words of greeting in behalf of the students, Frank Foster, '16, introduced Professor H. W. Brown, who extended a hearty welcome to the visiting preparatory school men in behalf of the faculty and college. In his inimitable style, Professor Brown urged this representative body of secondary school men to resolve to go to some college, and to prepare themselves to enter upon their life work equipped to attain their greatest possible usefulness as the leaders of the day.

Foster then introduced Frederick F. Sully, '16, as president of the athletic association and chairman of the evening. "Scoops" expressed his pleasure at the presence of the visitors and the hope that they would be here next fall as genuine freshmen. "In your choice of a college," said the speaker, "remember that it is not fine buildings that make a college, but the men you meet there." In closing, "Scoops" urged all Colby to be at Brunswick the next day with lots of spirit and "pep."

"Eddie" Cawley, captain-elect of football, Captain "Swipes" Simpson, of the baseball team, "Okie" O'Neal, and "Ginger" Fraser responded with short, enthusiastic speeches. "Colby-the-Long-Way" and "On to Victory" fittingly closed the program.

DUAL TENNIS MEET WITH U. OF M.

A dual tennis meet with U. of M. will be held here, Friday afternoon and Saturday morning. The Colby team has not yet been chosen, but will be picked from the following men: Fieldbrave, '16, Capt., Leseur, '17, Lattin, '18, Gibson, '19, Foster, '16, Flood, '17, Putnam, '16, Barker '16, R. Smith, '18.

This meet will serve to give a line on the state meet to be held at Orono, May 25.

CLOSE CONTEST IN HALLOWELL PRIZE SPEAKING.

On Monday evening, the seventh annual Hallowell prize speaking contest was successfully held in the chapel before a larger audience than has attended other speaking events of the year. The speakers were unusually interesting and showed careful training, ease, and self-confidence. Competition was keen, every speaker pressing the winners for honors.

The decision of the judges gave William B. West, '18, the first prize of $50, Fred A. Pottle, '17, the second prize of $25, Herbert L. Newman, '18, the third prize of $15, and Norman D. Lattin, '18, the fourth prize of $10.

West's article, "America's Greatest Problem," was strong and touching, and possessed of rare personal interest. The speaker compared the downfall of the Indian with the rise of the Negro. He showed how the Negro had faced his greatest task, that of rising from the ranks of slavery, and how it was that directly after the civil war, "He pulled back the curtain of time and looked into the future." With his eye upon the goal, he has so pushed his way along the highways of industry and economy that, today, he is indeed "America's Greatest Problem."

Pottle's speech on "The Higher Patriotism," was an exceptionally good appeal for peace. Mr. Pottle emphasized the result of the division of the world into nations, "formed by hatred, jealousy and meanness," and faithfully brought out the uselessness, the devastation and the unjustifiableness of the great European strife.

Newman's address, "The Dragon's Tooth," was an impressive review of the slaughter and annihilation of martyred Belgium and Poland. The speaker likened war to a cruel monster, breaking hearts and destroying homes.

Lattin gave a carefully worked out article entitled "The Red Fiddler." He told of the awful siege of Verdun and of the thirteen weeks of suffering; of the desperate charges, and of the terrible "Red Fiddler,"—Death, playing above the field of battle.

President Roberts presided. The judges were Hon. Fred W. Clair, Principal John W. Partridge of Lawrence High School, and Mrs. Carl R. Green.

The program follows:

"The Higher Patriotism," Fred Albert Pottle, '17; "The Power of Public Opinion," Eliot S. Adams, '18; "The American Indian," Lester Edward Young, '17; "The Laborer's Due," Roy Mitchell Hayes, '18; "Woodrow Wilson, President," Daniel J. Sullivan, '18; "The U. S. and War," Maurice B. Ingraham, '17; "The Secret of Self-Mastery," Oswald H. Rankin, '17; "Trades-Unions and the Laborer," Raymond H. Parker, '18; "The Dragon of War," Herbert L. Newman, '18; "America's Greatest Problem," William B. West, '18; "The Red Fiddler," Norman D. Lattin, '18; "Prussianism," Jonas Gleason Perry, '18.

SOPHOMORES VOTE TO PUBLISH THE YEARLY "WALLOP."

At a meeting of the sophomore class, held in the chapel, last week, it was decided to publish the annual "Wallop." The paper has grown to be a tradition of the college, and the sophomore class could not see it abolished even at the urgent request or the sincere wish of one class society in Colby. The "Wallop" is to be edited this year under a known board of editors, whose duty it shall be to see that the paper is kept free from personal prejudices, clean, humorous, and altogether a well-written sheet. No class realizes more than the present sophomores that the paper in the past few years has been too caustic and unclean in expression. It has not reflected the right kind of Colby spirit. It is the purpose this year to substitute a real paper for the once scurrilous and abusive "Wallop."

The one thing that marred the meeting was the attempt of an upper classman to "run" the class affairs. It is hoped that in the future this gentleman of the class of 1916 will realize that his days as a sophomore are over.

SOPHOMORE DECLAMATION.

The annual sophomore prize declamation was held, last Thursday evening, in the chapel. Professor H. W. Brown, who acted as chairman, announced that the participants were the sophomores who had secured the highest averages of each division for the first semester in first year rhetoric. He also announced that the men's division was not entered in competition with that of the women "for obvious reasons."

The men's parts were thoughtful and well delivered. Norman Lattin, who received the first award of ten dollars, spoke on "The Woe of Belgium," which, as anticipated by the subject, was an appeal to honor. Herbert Newman in an impressive way presented "The Philosophy of the Abolition Movement," and was awarded second prize. The other contestants were Hugh Robinson, Howard Boardman, and Ray Smith, all of whom were close competitors.

The women's topics were brighter and more vivacious in character, and did much to amuse the audience. Miss Jennie Sanborn interpreted "Teckla's Lillies," in a most pleasing manner, and Miss Helene Buker spoke "Billy Brad and the Big Lie" in a manner that delighted all. Miss Sanborn was awarded the first prize for the women's division and Miss Buker second. The other speakers were Miss Laura Spaulding and Miss Lyda Turner, both of whom pressed the winners closely for honors.

The judges were Mr. Charles N. Perkins, superintendent of schools; Mr. Nelson I. Mixer, principal of Waterville High School; Mrs. Nelson I. Mixer; and Professor Alan D. McKillop of the English department.

The lawless spirit which has resulted in the recent destruction of college property is as fiendish in character as it is unaccountable. What could possess a normal human being,—to say nothing of one having a spark of college loyalty—to perpetrate those acts is beyond comprehension.

The recent action of the sophomore class regarding the "Wallop" is a step in the right direction. While not a complete concession to the recent suggestions of the athletic association of the college and a representative society of the junior and senior classes, it is perhaps all that could be expected the first year. The class has gone on record as believing that the paper should be less scurrilous and abusive in character. This may not serve to prevent the publication from degenerating again in the future; but, it may make possible the total abolition of the paper, next year. We believe that the "Wallop" has never been justified in the wrong that it has done. It has been a disgrace to the student body and a detriment to the welfare of the college. It may be a tradition, but it IS a relic of barbarism. The avowed purpose of the present class to better this paper will be watched with a great deal of interest. If 1918 succeeds, the "Wallop" may receive a new lease of life. If 1918 fails, the united action of the student body should be brought to bear to abolish the publication forever.

LYFORD PRIZE SPEAKING.

The seventh annual Lyford Interscholastic Prize Speaking contest was held in the college chapel on Friday of last week. Nearly thirty preparatory schools of Maine and New Hampshire were represented and the contest was in every way successful. Of the forty-two contestants in the preliminaries held on Friday afternoon, twelve were chosen to take part in the finals, Friday night.

The program of the evening contest was as follows:

Mountains (Moody), Earle G. Clement, Good Will High; The Man for the Crisis (Adapted), Louis Burton Dennett, Bangor High; Centennial of the Birth of O'Connell (Phillips), Robert Dennen Newton, Kents Hill Seminary; A Plea for Cuba (Thurston), George Lawrence Evans, Hebron Academy; Napoleon, the Little (Hugo), Karl Howland, Phillips High; To the Lions (Brooks), Lacy Winslow Judkins, Dixfield High; Appeal to Italy (Maeterlinck), Lawrence McElwee, Coburn Classical Institute; The Last Words of Robert Emmet (Emmet), Raoul J. DuFail, Edward Little High; O'Connell's Eloquence (Phillips), Michael Joseph Ryan, Bangor High; The New South (Grady), Millard Bennett Smith, Colby Academy; Cause of the Gracchi (Craven), Maynard Jones Wartman, Tilton, N. H., Seminary; The Independence of Cuba (Thurston), Willard Gordon Wyman, Coburn Classical Institute.

The first prize of $50 was awarded to George Lawrence Evans, of Hebron Academy, the second of $25 to Louis Burton Dennett, of Bangor High, and the third and fourth prizes amounting to $25 were divided equally between Edward Clement, of Good Will High School, and Michael Joseph Ryan, of Bangor High School, these men being tied for honors.

The board of judges consisted of Professor Henry W. Brown, Professor H. C. Libby, Rev. Paul A. Phalen of Augusta and Hon. William H. Fisher of Augusta.

The preparatory school visitors were entertained at the various fraternity houses during their stay at Colby, and were given a taste of real college life. On Friday afternoon, the visitors were taken about the city in automobiles provided by the Chamber of Commerce; and preceding the final contest on Friday night they attended a grand old Colby rally in the chapel, where Professor Henry W. Brown delivered an address of welcome to them. Other speakers, the band, and some good cheering added to the spirit of the occasion.

UPSILON BETA INITIATION.

On Thursday evening, the Upsilon Beta society held its final initiation and banquet. The banquet was held at the Chop House, there being eighteen members present. Captain Harold Leon Pepper, one of the founders of the society, gave some very interesting recollections of Upsilon Beta in earlier days. The banquet adjourned at 12.30 P. M., no more "eats" being in sight.

The initiates were: J. Chester Ashworth cxxvii, Arthur S. Heath cxxviii, Guy R. Whitten cxxix, Robert T. Carey cxxx, Newton L. Nourse cxxxi, Sidney P. Wyman cxxxii, John W. Stinson cxxxiii, Gerald S. Porter cxxxiv, Horace O. Coolidge cxxxv, Lincoln Heyes cxxxvi.

CAMPUS CHAT.

President Roberts made a trip to New Hampshire, last week, in the interest of the college.

"Ben" Leseur, '17, "Joe" Deasy, '17, Marsh Derby, '18, L. L. Davis, '17, and Howard Hill, '18, were guests at the home of E. Reginald Craig, '18, in Fairfield, Sunday.

B. P. Libby, '18, visited friends in Portland, Saturday and Sunday.

Professor H. C. Libby spoke at Skowhegan, last Sunday.

Oliver C. Wilbur, '17, is sick with laryngitis. He is staying at the home of Mrs. Young at 5 Walnut Street.

Under the direction of Professor Carter, the members of the Math. 16 class are preparing a topographical map of the college property.

A deputation from the college Y. M. C. A. conducted a service at the Oakland Baptist Church, last Sunday night.

A. W. Allen, '16, passed the week-end as the guest of his parents in Camden.

Alumni field presented an animated appearance, Saturday, with preparatory school activities. Skowhegan High School won the annual track meet of the Kennebec Valley Athletic Association in the morning. In the afternoon, Waterville High's baseball team lost to Cony High to the tune of 4-3.

As is usual at this season, Messalonskee is having its quota of devotees.

Workmen have commenced grading in front of Hedman Hall.

Dr. Webster Chester of the biology department was a guest at a banquet at Bangor, Thursday night, given by the U. of M. faculty in honor of Dr. Raymond Pearl, who has recently been elected to the National Academy of Science. This honor, which has just been conferred upon Dr. Pearl, is one not lightly conferred, as this body elects to membership only a select few in the whole country. In this connection, it is interesting to note that before the election of Dr. Pearl, only one man in this state, Professor Rogers, formerly of the Colby physics department, had ever been granted this signal honor.

Hervey Allen, '12, stopped in at the Phi Delt House, Monday.

The Maine rooters celebrated their track victory in Portland, much as they did their football victory last fall.

Burton B. Blaisdell, '16, has been confined to his bed for nearly a week with a severe cold. His mother is attending him. His condition is better, although he is quite weak. We hope, however, that "Three-B" will soon be seen about the campus again.

Next Tuesday evening the Y. M. C. A. will omit its regular service and attend the evening session of the Missionary Education Convention at the Baptist Church. Noted speakers will be present and there will be a stereopticon lecture open to all.

W. H. Erbb, '17, spent Sunday at his home in Hallowell.

"Bob" Willard, '15, has been visiting friends at the D. U. House for several days. Last Saturday, he acted as scorer at the track meet at Brunswick.

Ira E. Creelman, '19, is ill with pleurisy at the Sisters' Hospital.

Theodore Fieldbrave, '16, has recovered from his throat trouble, and is hard at work with tennis practice.

The Student Volunteers are conducting Sunday afternoon services at the sanatorium at Fairfield.

Ray C. Young, '15, instructor in physics, was called to Lakeport, N. H., last week by the death of his grandfather. The funeral services were held at Lakeport, Friday.

Paul Thompson, '18, led the Y. M. C. A. meeting last night, speaking on "Christian Running."

President Roberts will address a union meeting of the College Men's Classes of the Congregational and Baptist Churches, next Sunday noon. His topic will be "Student Initiative and the College Ideal."

The Murray Prize Debate has been postponed until Mr. Murray, the donor of the prizes, can be here to preside. The date will be announced later.

Dr. Homer P. Little delivered a lecture on "Extinct Monsters" at the Congregational Church, Tuesday evening.

In the Maine League games of the past week, Maine won from Bowdoin, 13-2; and Bowdoin from Bates, 8-5.

FREIGHT-RIDERS APPREHENDED.

Forty-three students,—eight from Bowdoin and the rest from U. of M.,—were nabbed in the Waterville freight yards by the police, early Friday morning, and were compelled to spend several hours in the police station. Through the efforts of President Roberts and other interested parties, the culprits were set free, late in the forenoon, on the payment of the amount of their fare from Bangor and the costs.

It would seem that indiscriminate freight-jumping is to become a thing of the past.

WOMEN'S DIVISION.

Edited by the News Department of the Colbiana.

Alpha Delta Pi sorority celebrated the sixty-fifth anniversary of its founding, Monday evening, with a beefsteak fry in the pine grove near the lower Mesalonskee. Dean Cooper, Mrs. Robert Crowell, Miss Evelyn Rutter, from Rho chapter, Boston University, and a number of alumnae were among those present. After a "soul-satisfying" feed the rest of the evening was spent in singing sorority and college songs round the camp-fire.

Hazel Whitney, '18, spent the week-end at Skowhegan.

Phyllis Cole, '18, visited friends in Dexter over the holidays.

Margaret Wilkins, '18, was the guest of relatives in Augusta, last week.

Miss Marguerite Starbird of Oxford was the guest of her sister, Marion Starbird, '18, the past week.

Norma Goodhue, '18, spent the week-end in Augusta.

Barbara Chase of Brownville is spending a few days with her cousin, Iris Crosby, '16.

Leila Washburn, '18, spent the week-end in Augusta.

Flora Norton, '17, attended the D. U. house-party and also the track meet in Brunswick, last week.

Caroline Stevens, '16, is at home, resting.

Marion Miller, '16, spent the week-end at her home in Portland.

Miss Florence Carll, '12, is taking Miss Abbie Sanderson's place at Ricker for the next few weeks. Miss Sanderson, '14, was forced to give up her work on account of illness.

Floy Strout, '17, visited Christine Whittemore, '14, at Livermore Falls over Sunday.

Mina Titus, '16, is at her home in Madison.

Lucy Taylor, '17, and Madeline Daggett, '17, spent the holiday at the latter's home in Dexter.

Miss Claire McIntire, ex-'16, is visiting Esther French, '16, for a few days.

Berle Cram, '16, had as guests, last week, her mother and grandmother.

Marian Whipple, ex-'15, called on friends at Foss Hall, recently.

Mrs. Cooper spoke at the Congregational Church at Winslow, last Sunday.

On Monday afternoon, from 3.30 to 5.30, the bi-weekly meeting of the Y. W. C. A. Advisory Board was held in Foss Hall with Dean Cooper as hostess.

Plans are being made for Ivy Day, which will come on Saturday, June 3. In the afternoon of that day, the class dances, under the direction of Miss Hastings, will be given, and the tennis tournament will be played by members of the four classes. In the evening the annual junior play will be presented. This year a Shakespearean play, "Twelfth Night," under the supervision of Miss Exerene Flood, will be given. The cast will be as follows: Orsinio, Marian White; Sebastian, Flora Norton; Antonio, Mildred Greeley; A Sea Captain, Lillian Tuttle; Valentine, Madeline Daggett; Curio, Helen Cole; Sir Toby Belch, Lucy Taylor; Sir Andrew Aguecheek, Eva Bean; Malvolio, Grace Farnum; Fabian, Ruth Murdock; Feste, Margaret Brown; Olivia, Hazel Robinson; Viola, Phoebe Vincent; Maria, Marion Daggett.

On Thursday afternoon, at 5 o'clock, the new initiates took the present members of Kappa Alpha to the famed Chop House around the corner, and fed them on small mountains of strawberry short-cake with whipped cream gleaming on top. It was a jolly party, and when over all felt "plump" full and glad.

Miss Helen D. Calder, Home Secreary of the Congregational Board of Foreign Missions led the Y. W. C. A. on Tuesday evening.

Grace Fletcher, '17, gave a "Bridget Party" at her home in honor of her guest, Irma Talpey. Those present were: Barbara Chase of Brownville, Iris Crosby, '16, Effie Hannan, '16, Lucy Taylor, '17, Mildred Greene, '17, Flora Norton, '17, Madeline Daggett, '17, and Phoebe Vincent, '17.

The initiates of Chi Gamma Theta gave banquet to the sophomore Chi Gams in Foss Hall dining room one evening last week.

Alta Davis, '18, spent the week-end at her home in Newport.

Alberta Shepherd, '18, spent the week-end at her home in Corinna.

Phyllis Eturdivant, '19, has been passing a few days at home in Cumberland Center.

Helene Blackwell, '19, passed the week-end at her home in Brunswick.

Marion Williams, '19, and Mollie Tourtellotte, '19, passed the week-end in Bath and attended the track meet at Brunswick, Saturday.

THE COLLEGE MAN AND POLITICS.

We often hear a man accused of voting a certain ticket simply because his father voted that way. I do not consider such an action always derogatory to a man's character. Many of us would do well to study the lives of our fathers. On the whole I think we are apt to undervalue the old man, and to think ourselves a vast deal cleverer than he was. However, we should know why we vote as our fathers did. To do this we must understand why father voted as he did. Perhaps then we shall discover that, even if the same name heads the ticket we cast, we are really not voting as he did at all. Surely we should not say, lo, I am a republican or a democrat, and then proceed to seek out information to justify our stand. Rather, we should compare the positions of the parties when our fathers and grandfathers voted with the present attitudes of the parties, and courageously let these considerations bring us with-in whatever party they will. The time to do this is now, when, as college men we have not as definite a place in the community as we may have later, and are uninfluenced by the pressure of the place in which we shall find ourselves when we get out of college.
