DR. ALFRED KING, '83.

Dr. Alfred King, class of 1883, died Sunday evening at his hospital in Portland. His death was caused by quick pneumonia. He was born in Portland on July 2, 1861, and his early education was obtained in the Portland public schools and the high school, from which he was graduated in 1879. In the fall of that year he entered Colby, and during his course took an active interest in various college activities.

After his graduation in 1883, Dr. King entered the Maine Medical School, from which institution he received a diploma in 1886. His connection with this school was never entirely severed, as he acted throughout his life in various positions on its faculty. From 1912, he had been a professor of surgery.

Dr. King's professional career was most successful. He was considered the most excellent surgeon in Maine, and his reputation had spread considerably outside of the state. Among the numerous offices, relating to his profession, which he held were those of city physician of Portland, and the founder and surgeon of "Dr. King's Hospital" at Portland. He was for several years a trustee of Colby College.

Dr. King has been actively identified with several prominent medical organizations, being a member of the American Surgical Association and various state and national societies. He was a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity. In his death Colby has lost a true son and active alumnus, who through his merits has brought honor and distinction to his Alma Mater.

PROHIBITION CONTEST HERE TOMORROW NIGHT.

The annual oratorical contest of the state inter-collegiate prohibition association is to be held, Thursday evening at eight o'clock, in the college chapel. Colby, Bates, U. of M., and Bangor Theological Seminary will be represented. A first prize of $75 and a second prize of $25 will be awarded. The winner will represent Maine in the inter-state contest at Topeka, Kansas. The Colby contestants are Claude A. LaBelle, '17, and Cecil A. Rollins, '17.

DRUID CUP TO BE AWARDED.

Professor Libby is working upon the fraternity ranks for the last four semesters ending February, 1916. On the results, the Druid Inter-fraternity Scholarship Cup will be awarded before commencement.

COLBY RECEIVES LARGE GIFT.

At the recent meeting of the General Educational Board in New York City, Colby College was the recipient of a gift of $125,000 with the provision that a certain added endowment be subscribed. The terms of the gift have not yet been publicly announced, but it is rumored that this donation is the direct result of the efforts of the college authorities to secure a bigger endowment to meet the increasing needs caused by the expansion of the college. It is a great start toward the endowment of $500,000 that President Roberts asked to be subscribed, last winter, and it should serve as an effective impetus towards the subscription of the much needed half million dollars.

The General Education Board was organized in New York in 1902 and was incorporated by an act of Congress in 1903. It is composed of men of prominence and wealth including Andrew Carnegie and J. D. Rockefeller, Jr.

At its annual spring meeting the board announced appropriations amounting to $789,890 for educational and research work. Besides the appropriation of $125,000 to Colby, which was the largest single donation, New Hampshire State College received $5,500 for educational research and $8,500 for farm demonstration work and the University of Maine received $21,500 for the same purpose.

The purposes of the Board are "to promote education in the United States without distinction of race, sex, or creed, and especially to promote, systematize, and make effective various forms of educational beneficence." Since its organization, it has appropriated $18,396,968, including its gifts this year.

NEW OFFICERS OF THE MUSICAL CLUBS CHOSEN.

The election of the officers of the Colby Musical Clubs was held early in the week. The following men were elected: President of the combined clubs, Roger A. Nye, '17; secretary, Herbert L. Newman, '18; manager, Ernest R. Scribner, '17; assistant managers, Ellsworth Prince, '18, and Carl W. Robinson, '18; leaders—glee club, Winthrop L. Webb, '17; mandolin club, Wallace G. Hastings, '17; orchestra, Norman D. Lattin, '18; band, Lloyd L. Davis, '17.

An amendment was passed by the club to make the band a separate organization from the musical clubs, with the power to nominate and elect its own officers.

COLBY WINS EXHIBITION GAME FROM BATES.

With "Fanny" Gately working again in the box, Colby walked away with the fastest game of the season at Gardiner, Saturday, by downing Bates 6 to 0. It was a case of air-tight baseball from the first inning. Bates was clearly at the mercy of Gately, who let them down with only two hits, one of which was a scratch single to the infield.

Bates rushed three pitchers to the scene of action only to have each one greeted with a bombardment of hits from the bats of the Colby team. Once only was Bates at all dangerous in the scoring line and then a fast double play, Nye to Cawley to Smith, cut off the run and retired the side.

When the Colby team appeared on the field there was a decided change in the line-up. Captain Simpson was absent, being ordered to quit baseball for the rest of the season by his physician. "Chet" Ashworth held down "Swipes" position in left field, while Jimmie Knox worked behind the bat. "Link" Heyes was shifted to the outfield to take Deasy's place. This combination looked to be the strongest seen representing the college this season.

Both sides were retired in quick order in the first inning. Davis, the lead-off man for Bates, fanned the breezes. Thurston walked but was immediately cut down when McDonald hit to Nye, who touched Thurston and threw to Smith at first, doubling McDonald. Colby was just as easy, Nye, Cawley and Schuster going out at first on infield hits.

Bates started things in the second but nothing came of it. Duncan was thrown out at first. Lord was hit by a pitched ball and stole second, but was cut down at third when he attempted to reach that base on an overthrow. Hall fanned and the side was out. For Colby, Ashworth started fireworks by smashing the first ball pitched into left. The ball hit a rock and bounded through the fence while "Chet" circled the bases for a cheap homer. Knox got a life on Talbot's error but was forced by Heyes, who in turn was thrown out attempting to go from first to third while Harvey was throwing out Driscoll at first.

In the third a serious accident occurred which stopped the game for a few minutes. After fanning Talbot and Phelan, Gately picked Harvey in the "bean" with his fast one, which necessitated the withdrawal of the Bates twirler. Again Colby added a single run to her total. Smith stung the ball for a sharp single, but Gately struck out. Then Nye and Cawley both singled and Smith came across the pan.

Nothing alarming occurred in the fourth, and in the first half of the fifth all three men went out via the Cawley to Smith route. Again "Smithy" came to Colby's assistance in the last half. This time he opened with a long double to center and romped home when Phelan threw Gately's bunt into the crowd. The next three batters were easy outs.

Colby ended her scoring in the seventh when two runs were pushed across. Gately walked, went to second on Nye's out, and scored on successive singles by Cawley and Schuster. Davidson took no chances on Ashworth and he was passed up, but Knox was there in the pinch and lifted a long fly to center on which Cawley easily scored. Heyes ended the inning with a fly to Hall.

McDonald was the first up for Bates in the ninth, but Schuster took care of his long fly. Lord went out the same way. Duncan grounded to Cawley, who easily threw him out at first for the third out.

DA MAN DAT'S EDUCATE.

Antonio Spurdutto was no more een school some day,
 He lef' da book also da class an' took da train away;
 Was grumble all da time he's here, was never satisfy,
 An' eef he's got a leetle pain, for sure he's gona die;
 "Wat's the mat' " I say, "maybe you theenk da lesson come to you?
 You better keep on study lik' da other fella do;
 You're gona leave? All right, good bye, some day
 you'll mourn da fate,
 An' you weell see eet's fine for be da man dat's educate."

"How 'bout eet when you're call upon for mak' da leetle speech?
 You hav' not got da elocush so voice ees scream an'
 screech;
 'All up for Colby' you don't seeng, for why? You don't know how,
 Eenstead of sweet voice lik' da bird you mak' noise
 lik' da cow;
 How much you know 'bout Christopher Columb' dat
 cross da sea,
 An' find America's good place for heem an' you an'
 me?
 Den eef you're chased you cannot tell straight line
 ees short to gate,
 Ah! Tony Boy, dere ees great joy for da man dat's educate."

"Maybe you call da teacher too for spend da eve some day,
 You spik da Anglesh all mix up an' don't know what
 for say;
 An' eef da President send note for see heem by
 and by,
 You run around lik' crazy man weeth wild look een

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION ELECTIONS.

At the annual spring elections of the athletic association, held in the chapel, Saturday afternoon, the following men were elected to offices:

President of the athletic association, William H.
 Erbb, '17; senior councilman, Andrew C. Little, '17; junior councilman, Wallace G. Hastings, '18; manager of baseball, John F. Everett, '17; assistant managers, Milton A. Philbrook, '18, and Howard G.
 Boardman, '18; manager of track, Alfred H. Patterson, '18; assistant managers, Gerald R. Mac-Carthy, '19, and William R. Pederson, '19; manager of tennis, Hugh L. Robinson, '18; assistant manager, John F. Choate, '19.

NAVAL TRAINING CRUISE ADVO-CATED.

In chapel, Tuesday morning, Rex W. Dodge, '06, of the Board of Trustees made a speech advocating the naval training cruise for civilians that will take place this summer. The conception of such a trip is novel and the voyage will be the same to the navy as the Plattsburg manoeuvres are to the army.

The cruise, which is primarily for college men, will start August 12. It is designed to teach them the operations of a battleship in time of war. Maine students are to be on the U. S. S. Virginia, which will go to Long Island to participate in the naval manoeuvres there, returning September 12. While on board ship, the men are required to subject themselves to and to be governed by the U. S. Navy Regulations and Instructions. Upon the termination of the required time, however, there will be no obligation unless one should express his willingness to volunteer in time of war during the ensuing four years. The expense is not to exceed thirty dollars.

The plan has gained immediate favor at Colby and several of the student body have already signified their intentions of taking part in the navy war-game. The trip should prove popular on its merits.

DRAMATIC CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS.

The Dramatic Club has formally closed its year's work by the election of officers for the ensuing year. The officers-elect are Carleton M. Bailey, '18, president, and Howard G. Boardman, '18, manager.

PRESS OF THE CITY JOB PRINT

During the past college year there have occurred several occasions which have made quite apparent the need of a student representative body similar to the form of a student council. On at least two of these occasions, it became necessary for the President of the college to call together the student body for the settlement of the questions at hand, and this of course involved a lengthy process at a time when haste was needed. Had there been a student council at the time it could have dealt with the matter more speedily, and certainly just as judiciously. For a number of years there was such a council at Colby, but it died out a couple of years ago, due mainly to lack of interest. What is now needed is a council that will be self-originating and self-perpetuating among the students. It must be a council representative of the whole student body and of the various organizations of the student body. It must be a council that will put the college above all else. It must be one that will be endowed with a considerable power and freedom in dealing with all questions which come before it, and one that invites high estimation and respect. Finally, it must be a council whose meetings have worth and dignity, where sincerity and seriousness are the keynote, and not one which lowers itself to the indifferent, get-together, social kind of meetings. Such a council would be able to act upon many of the important questions which the unwieldy student body is now sometimes called upon to act. It would bring into closer feeling and relationship the faculty and the students, and would serve much to promote Colby spirit of the wholesome sort. H. S. P.

ALEXANDER G. MILLER.

Alexander G. Miller, ex-'16, for two years a student at Colby, passed away, Saturday, May 20th, after a long illness. Services were held the following Tuesday at the home of his parents at Long Cove, Maine. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, and by four brothers and three sisters.

COMMENCEMENT COLLEGE SING.

It is planned to make the college sing, which is slated for Tuesday of Commencement week at 5.30 P. M., a real, live feature of this year's program. To carry out this part of the Commencement exercises is needed a dependable nucleus of singers to lead the gathering of students and graduates in some familiar songs of our student days. A series of "twilight sings" will be held on the D. U. piazza in preparation for the sing, and YOUR HELP IS NEEDED.

RESOLUTIONS.

XI CHAPTER OF DELTA KAPPA EPSILON.

Whereas, It has pleased God in His infinite wisdom to take from us our beloved Brother, Alfred King, of the Class of 1883; be it

Resolved, That we extend our most heartfelt sympathy to the family of our departed Brother; and be it

Resolved, That in his death our Chapter loses a faithful and loyal alumnus, and the Fraternity an earnest and true Brother; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of our departed Brother, that they be spread upon the records of the Chapter, and that they be published in the Colby Echo and in the Delta Kappa Epsilon Quarterly.

TRACK "C'S" AWARDED.

At the last regular meeting of the athletic council, 'varsity track "C's" were awarded to the following men: Captain Irving W. Merrill, '16, Mark R. Thompson, '17, Paul A. Thompson, '18, Irving R. Stanwood, '16, Thomas F. Joyce, '17, Walter F. O'Brien, '16, Peter A. Mayers, '16, Ralph R. Howes, '18, Horace O. Coolidge, '19, Martin M. Weisman, '19.

INTERESTING MEETING OF THE CHEMICAL SOCIETY.

At the regular meeting of the chemical society, held in Chemical Hall, Friday evening, Lyman I. Thayer, '16, read a paper on "Harmones." After the discussion of the paper, the new officers of the society were elected for next year. Oliver C. Wilbur, '17, was chosen for president; Fred A. Pottle, '17, vice-president; and William B. Smith, '17, secretary and treasurer.

CAMPUS CHAT.

The last meeting of the year of the Physical Society will be held in Shannon Laboratory, Thursday evening.

The finals of the Freshman Prize Reading are to be held in the chapel, Thursday, P. M., at 4 o'clock. The six speakers who will compete are: Bourne, Blanchard, Carey, Love, Tyler, and Ashworth.

Professor Brown led chapel, Friday, in the absence of President Roberts.

Little, Webb and Flood have been appointed for the Junior Ode committee.

Mr. Arthur Hammond of Boston has been visiting F. D. Blanchard, '19, at the C. C. house, for a few days.

"Mac" Mogannam is spending a few days visiting friends about college.

Mr. Harry Brown, '99, of Waterville, gave a very profitable and interesting talk on "Latent Power" at the Y. M. C. A., Tuesday evening. In the course of his talk he cited several examples, showing how that latent power within may be brought out by an exceptional interest in one's work.

Harold W. Campbell, '15, is visiting at the A. T. O. House.

"Pat" Hughes, '19, has returned to college after a visit to his home in Houlton.

Clyde Drew of Houlton visited his brother Ralph Drew, '19, over Sunday.

Hervey Allen visited the Phi Delt House, Monday.

Smith Dunnack, '19, played Burleigh Martin, extennis champion of Maine, at Augusta, last Saturday. Dunnack won by straight sets, 6-2, 6-4, and 6-1.

The new band stand is nearly finished.

The bulletin board performs an important office for the student body. Anyone who removes a notice from the board, either for selfish gain or in a spirit of mischief, is directly injuring the students and will be treated accordingly.

Mr. Willis Bird of Somerville, Mass., visited George R. Skillin, '18, Tuesday.

Crawford, '16, left for the woods, Saturday morning, where he has a position as fire patrol. He will return for graduation.

Jacobs, ex'17, spent Saturday night at the D. U. House.

Brackett, '16, Parmenter, '16, and Jacobs, '18, all of Bowdoin, called on friends at the D. U. House, last week.

Whitney, '18, was called home, Monday, by the sickness of his father.

Five seniors, Rockwell, Sanderson, Foster, Fieldbrave, and Miller, are attending the Commencement exercises at the Newton Theological Seminary, as guests of that institution.

Leon W. Crockett, '15, is a guest at the Commons Club House.

Cecil Rollins, '17, went to Vassalboro, Tuesday, to attend the funeral services of his uncle.

The editorial board of the Oracle met in Chemical Hall, this afternoon, to nominate officers for next year. The following slate was chosen: for editor-in-chief, Lester E. Young, '17, and Donald B. Flood, '17; for manager, Bliss M. Ranney, '18; for assistant manager, Hughes, '19, and Love, '19. The election will be held, next Wednesday, in Chemical Hall at 1.30.

Friday evening, in the chapel, John M. Glidden will address the students on "Preparedness." He will speak especially upon the summer training camps and the matter of expense.

At a meeting of the junior class, after chapel, Cecil A. Rollins was elected to present the class gift at Commencement.

Harold Campbell, '15, led chapel, this morning.

Captain Adams, a civil war veteran, gave a short talk before the advanced public speaking class, Saturday. He said that, while he was a peace man, he thoroughly believed in preparedness while other countries are so well prepared. He cited illustrations from all of our great wars, saying that we had never been well prepared. In closing, the speaker paid a fine tribute to Abraham Lincoln, whom he saw many times during his service.

Colby 2nd easily defeated Clinton A. A., at Clinton, Saturday afternoon.

PRETTY DANCES FEATURED IVY DAY EXERCISES.

On Saturday afternoon a large and appreciative audience witnessed the Ivy Day exercises, conducted by the women's division. The first feature, the processional march in which all the classes participated, each displaying its particular colors, was very impressive. Lucille Foster, mistress of ceremonies, gave the address of welcome to members of the faculty, undergraduates, and friends. Then followed the time-honored custom of the planting of the ivy by the senior class, and the singing of the ivy ode, the presentation of the trowel by the senior president, Carolyn Stevens, and its acceptance by Mildred Greene, president of the junior class. Vivienne Wright, '16, read a poem of her own composition entitled "In the Dream Garden," telling in words the pretty myth about to be produced in pantomime by the various class dances. Into the Garden of Dreams comes a slender youth who dances gracefully about in search of his dream. Wearied with his fruitless endeavor, he lies down upon a mossy couch and gives himself up to sweet repose. Suddenly awaking from his slumber, he sees before him his dream maiden. At her beckoning he dances about joyfully with her until the sound of the magic flute calls her away from the enchanted spot. To the youth, mourning the loss of the maiden of his dreams, come the Wood Nymphs, the Spirits of Mischief, the Sunbeams, and the Zephyrs, each group in turn vainly endeavoring to arouse him from his melancholy. But at the sound of the magic flute he starts up, and, seeing his dream girl in the distance, he hastens to her leaving forever the Garden of Dreams.

Antoinette Ware, who took the part of the youth, and Yvette Clair, the dream girl, delighted the audience with light and graceful dancing. Helen Kimball, acted as leader of the Wood Nymphs who, in their light green garments and with flowing hair, gave a dance typical of the fleet, airy tread of woodland sprites. Matilda Titcomb was the leader of the Spirits of Mischief. Her grace and drollery combined in producing a very pleasing effect and drew forth hearty applause. The Zephyrs, preceded by Marjorie Barker, in their costumes of gray and pink, cleverly symbolized the soft, gentle western breezes. And the Sunbeams, in robes of golden yellow, darted in and out like the very rays of fiery Phoebus.

Following the dancing, the semi-final single tennis match was played between Alberta Shepherd and Lyda Turner; and the final double match between Yvette Clair and Marion Daggett on one side and Marion Harmon and Esther French on the other. The semi-final singles were won by Alberta Sheperd, 6-1, 6-1; the final double match was won by Yvette Clair and Marion Daggett, 6-1, 6-2. The final single match will be played in the near future.
