STUDENT ENDOWMENT COMMITTEE PLANS ACTIVE CAMPAIGN.

At a meeting of the Student Endowment Committee in Chemical Hall, Monday afternoon, an important committee was elected from the student body to assist in the matter of raising money toward the student endowment fund. This committee, called the Membership Committee, is made up of the following men: Cawley, Upton, Tozier, West, Little, Everett, and Lawrence. It will act in conjunction with the officers of the Student Endowment Committee in a final cooperative campaign for signers of the Student Endowment resolutions.

Among other matters discussed at this meeting was the announcement that the first of the series of lectures to be given for the benefit of the endowment fund will be held early in February, and that a speaker of national reputation had already been secured for that time. The name of this lecturer will be made public at a later date.

McINTYRE WILL MANAGE 1917 FOOTBALL TEAM.

The vote at the football elections, Saturday afternoon, showed a majority for Harris B. McIntyre, '18, as football manager for next year. Charles M. Bailey, '19, was elected assistant manager. The selections are both popular ones.

COLBY DELEGATES ARE CHOSEN.

Colby will send two and perhaps three delegates to the National I. P. A. Convention at Lexington, Ky., December 28-81, 1916. The delegates chosen are: Herbert L. Newman, '18, Miss Helen L. Baldwin, '19, and Charles M. Bailey, '19.

Newman has been prominent in college both in debating and public speaking, as well as in Christian activities, and is well fitted to represent Colby at such a convention. He has always been intensely interested in the prohibition cause and should prove an active delegate for Colby. Newman and Bailey were both delegates to the Student Conference at Northfield, last June. Miss Baldwin will represent the Women's Division.

This convention should arouse a new interest in the I. P. A. here at college. Upon their home-coming, a special evening will be given to our representatives so that they may tell of the program and the spirit of the conference.

DRUIDS CHOOSE NEW MEMBERS.

Candidates for membership in the Druids, the junior honorary society for men, were recently chosen. Twelve men were picked, two from each fraternity: From Delta Kappa Epsilon,, Ross S. Holt and Hugh L. Robinson; from Zeta Psi, E. Reginald Craig and I. March Derby; from Delta Upsilon, Howard G. Boardman and James H. Dunn; from Phi Delta Theta, Paul A. Thompson and Milton A. Philbrook; from Alpha Tau Omega, Francis P. Gately and John K. Pottle; from Commons Club, Carleton M. Bailey and Herbert L. Newman.

MUSICAL CLUBS WILL TOUR AROOSTOOK.

A group of twenty-five men have been practicing daily for the past two weeks preparing a program of songs and instrumental numbers for the Christmas trip. The glee club, mandolin club, and orchestra are putting on the finishing touches, and from all accounts the program will be worthily rendered.

As there are no very talented readers in the college this year soloists will take the parts that are usually taken by the readers. Leader Webb of the glee club will have one number on the program, and Leader Lattin of the orchestra will play twice. It is hoped that a reader will be developed before the next trip, as this department is one of the most interesting of all.

It is expected that the following concerts will be played on the Aroostook trip, although they have yet to be passed upon by the faculty advisors, Professors Little and Chester. Dec. 28, Fort Fairfield; Dec. 29, Caribou; Dec. 80, Presque Isle; Jan. 1, Houlton; Jan. 2, Milo; Jan. 3, Dover and Foxcroft.

The leaders have selected the following men as members for the various clubs. The glee club will be represented by Rouse, Webb, Prince, and Janes as first tenors; second tenors—Davis, Tracey, Hughes, Stowell, and Whiten; baritones—Scribner, Hastings, Perry, Brinkman, and Speare; Bassos—Choate, Robinson and Carey.

The personnel of the mandolin club will be: First mandolins—Gibson, McIntyre, and Hastings; secand mandolins—Ellingwood, Stowell, and Hughes; guitar—Robinson; Drums—Carey; violins—Lattin, and Perry; 'cello—Pratt; piano—Prince.

Those who will compose the orchestra are: First violin—Lattin; second violins—Perry and Ellingwood; cornets—Davis and Robinson; clarinet—Stowell; flute—Rollins; 'cello—Pratt; drums—Carey; piano—Prince,

COLBY WILL PLAY THE BIG TEAMS IN 1917.

Tempting offers have been received by Colby from Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Dartmouth, Brown, Cornell, Rutgers, Colgate, Indiana University, Navy, Holy Cross, Tufts, and Trinity for football games next fall, according to information gleaned by an ECHO reporter from an authoritative source. It will require the wisdom of a Solomon to select a schedule from these inducements. One great difficulty that looms before the management is that the smaller colleges are beginning to consider Colby too hard a nut to crack; thereby obliging her to fight for honors among the largest colleges in the East.

In recognition of this same fact, Harvard has shifted Colby from the opening game to fourth on her schedule, the game coming October 18, next season.

The schedule itself, which will appear shortly, is expected to contain games with Harvard, Dartmouth, Brown, Cornell, and the Navy, as the offers from these colleges look exceptionally good. In addition to these games, there will be the Maine series, of which the Bowdoin contest will be the only home game.

With her bright prospects for a fast team next year, together with a hard and interesting schedule, Colby should be the center of Maine football interest in 1917.

MANY VISITORS PRESENT AT A. T. O. BANQUET.

The Gamma Alpha chapter of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity held its initiation banquet at the Elmwood, Saturday evening. The chapter members, alumni, and delegates from the sister chapters in the province were present. A fine banquet was served and while this was being enjoyed, fraternal good fellowship circled the board in amplest manner.

Dr. Frank L. Tozier of Fairfield, Colby, '94, a charter member of the chapter, was toastmaster of the evening, assisted by George E. Ferrell, '18, as choragus. Province Chief Macomber spoke first, using as the theme of his discourse, "The Province." He was followed by the following undergraduate speakers: "The Active Chapter," Donald W. Tozier, '17; "The Educated Man," Seth G. Twichell, '18; "The College Man and Business," Earle S. Tyler, '19; "The Neophyte," Edison E. Bresette, '20: "Three Mullets of Gold," Fred A. Pottle, '17. Remarks were then heard from E. Stowell of Gamma Beta chapter of Tufts; C. L. Driscoll of Gamma Delta of Brown; N. D. Lebbey, Jr., of Beta Sigma of M. I. T.; L. W. Wood of Gamma Sigma of Worcester Polytechnic; and G. R. Bailey of Beta Upsilon of U. of M.

The initiates of the chapter are: 1918--Wolcott P. Hayes.

1920—Everett W. Bucknam, Edison E. Bresett, Robert B. Dowe, George L. Evans, Alfred L. Frass, Charles A. Mitchell, Moulton A. Pottle, Olin K. Porter, Edward L. Perry, Harold T. Urie, Milford I. Umphrey, Harold C. White.

Pledged: 1920—Rhoden B. Eddy.

CHESS CLUB REORGANIZED.

Fourteen men who are interested in chess met on December 9 and reorganized the Colby Chess Club. At this meeting extensive plans were made for the rapid development of the club, and a schedule of games was arranged for the members. Each member plays each other member twice, and, when these preliminary games shall have been disposed of, a team will be chosen to represent the college. An attempt will be made to secure games with teams in the vicinity and with other college teams.

The officers for the year are: President, Oswald H. Rankin, '17, of Bristol, England; vice president, Robert E. Sullivan, 19,00f Camden, November secretary, Harvard E. Moor, '18, of Ellsworth; captain of the team, Smith Dunnack, '19, of Bangor; executive committee, Coswald H. Rankin (extofficio), Smith Dunnack and Merrill A. Bigelow, '18.

EXCELLENT PROGRAM TO BE GIVEN SAT-URDAY EVENING.

The special concert at the Congregational church, Saturday evening, will be unusually good. The program will include the best and most popular talent that the college affords, and the concert will be a hard one to better in Waterville, this season.

It is an especially fine opportunity to hear Mrs. G. Bruce Franklin, who is a noted reader and entertainer. She has had much experience on the platform, and is described by the press as "An artist of rare ability and charming personality." Saturday evening, she will give, besides several readings of a lighter nature, an original interpretation of several scenes of Victor Hugo's "Les Miserables." She is especially good in this wonderful story, and without doubt it will be the feature of the program.

Among the musical numbers will be a violin solo by Norman Lattin, a tenor solo by W. L. Webb, selections by the college male quartette and the celebrated String Trio, a bass solo by R. O. Brinkman, and also a solo by Miss Marjorie Smith.

The purpose of the concert is to raise funds to send delegates to the I. P. A. national convention. Tickets are only twenty-five cents.

"C" MEN RECEIVE GOLD FOOTBALLS.

Yesterday morning, the gold football watch-charms were distributed among the letter men who represented the college in football this fall. These little watch-charms are very neat, being in the shape of a football, and having the recipient's name and position, a "C 1916" and "Champions" in blue enamel upon the football. It is the custom of the athletic association to give to each of the letter men on a championship team some such gift of appreciation.

ZETA PSI HAS ANNUAL BANQUET.

Chi chapter of the Zeta Psi fraternity held its 66th annual initiation banquet at the Elmwood on the night of December 6th. Donald B. Flood, '17, as toastmaster, introduced the following speakers, of whom Dr. Roy H. Gilpatrick, Yale, '01, of Boston, was the most prominent, being a figure of national note in the fraternity: Greeting, A. Raymond Rogers, '17; Colby and the Chi, Dr. Theodore E. Hardy, '95; The Active Chapter, Edward D. Cawley, '17; Zeta Psi Nationally, Dr. Roy H. Gilpatrick, Yale, '01; The Neophytes, Raymond S. Owen, '20; The Spirit of Zeta Psi, John E. Nelson, '98.

The initiates to the chapter, all members of the class of 1920 are: Raymond S. Owen, Leslie B. Titcomb, Charles G. Brownville, Raymond O. Janes, Ashton F. Richardson, Stanley Shibles, Pearl L. Hanscom.

"LAIZZY FAIRE."

918. A. 33

There is now in the college an unfortunate and disagreeable spirit of "laizzy faire" and unwillingness to assume responsibility. The head of an organization or committee is generously allowed not only to take all the responsibility of the position. but also to do all the work, the office boy's as well as the boss's. In short he is the "goat." The support which he may fairly expect from the other officers or members of the committee is either not forthcoming or else given half-heartedly. Worse still, the student body calmly sits back, often deliberately refusing its support, saying "You're elected! Go to it!" Needless to say, this spirit furnishes a discouraging situation for the one who is trying to do something, and makes results difficultivifanot impossible. It literally forbids one attempting anything out of the ordinary. It is a dead weight to the spirit of progress. A good illustration of the result of this spirit is the difficulty which the Student Endowment Committee is experiencing. An undertaking which should gain the instant and united support of every student gets but a cool reception at best. It is but a working out of the spirit prevading the college, "Let the other fellow do it!" Any man who has held an important college office has experienced it. Why can we not be a little broader than our own selfish limits, take an interest in and support the college organizations and their officers, create some real college loyalty which shall be more than athletic enthusiasm, and make a better and more progressive Colby?

COLLEGE OFFICES.

Along the line of the above and partly accounting for it is the case of the man who accepts an office for the honor of it, without the least intention of doing the work. The man who does this is not only selfish, but is also an injury to the college, and shows a despicable lack of college spirit. Any organization which encourages this sort of thing for its own glory, is placing itself first and the college second. Think it over!

MYSTICS NOMINATE NEW MEMBERS.

The Mystics, the sophomore honorary society at Colby, have chosen the following men as candidates for membership. Two men from each of the six fraternities are chosen annually by the members of the preceding year.

From Delta Kappa Epsilon, Sidney P. Wyman and James A. Knox; from Phi Delta Theta, Ralph C. Hughes and Austin W. Maddocks; from Zeta Psi, Arthur S. Heath and Charles Barron Johnson; from Alpha Tau Omega, Earle S. Tyler and Erroll Chase; from Delta Upsilon, John H. Johnson and Aubrey E. Greelaw; from the Commons Club, Eugene F. Ellingwood and Harold A. Osgood.

COLBY CALENDARS ARRIVE.

The Colby calendars for 1917 are better than in previous years. The cover, which is of brown leather, contains a shaded seal of the college. Directly beneath it is "Colby, 1917" in large, raised type.

On the inside there are sixteen views of the college buildings, athletic teams, musical clubs, and other interesting features of the college. The prints are unusually clear, and are descriptive of the life here at Colby. One of the interesting pictures is entitled "The Colby Mascot," and shows the mascot of the Maine game, a donkey, very much at home with two of the students, Cheerleader Scribner and "Andy" Little.

These calendars may be obtained for the price of one dollar from Mark Thompson, '17, or "Andy" Little, '17.

COMMONS CLUB BANQUET AT THE ELMWOOD.

The sixth annual initiation banquet of the Commons Club was held at the Elmwood, Friday night. After all had done full justice to an excellent seven course dinner, Choragus, C. M. Bailey, '18, introduced J. F. Everett, '17, as toastmaster. "Greetings" by T. B. Madsen, '17, was well responded to for the initiates by M. S. F. Greene, '20. "The past, the present and the future of the Commons Club" were presented in an interesting way by C. A. Rollins, '17, P. G. Whittemore, '17, and H. L. Newman, '18, respectively. Cheers, songs, and music by the C. C. orchestra added spirit and enthusiasm.

The initiates were: 1919: Edward A. Cronin, Eugene F. Ellingwood, Arthur J. Minister.

1920: Stephen Allen, D. Bernal Bailey, Raymond O. Brinkman, John W. Brush, Louis R. Goodwin, Merrill S. F. Greene, Myron F. Hamer, Justin O. Johnson, J. Edward Little, Herbert A. Rockwell.

MEETING OF OFFICERS OF DEBATING SOCIETY.

On December 6th, the officers of the Colby debating society met to discuss the question soon to be debated between teams representing Colby and U. of M.

The question as submitted by Maine did not meet with the approval of the Colby society, hence suggestions were made to Maine that the question might be made to read differently. Maine did alter the question but not in the manner suggested by Colby.

At this meeting it was decided to debate the question in its original form, which reads as follows: Resolved: That government ownership of railroads, in the United States, is desirable.

On January 13 the preliminaries for this debate are to be held, at which time a fifteen hundred word article, on either side of the question, is to be submitted, and an excerpt from the same, not more than five minutes in length, is to be delivered before judges.

FOOTBALL DANCE SUCCESSFUL.

The annual football dance held at Elk's Hall, December 7, was most successful. The dance was given in honor of the football men and for the purpose of raising money to buy lettered sweaters for the team. Since over eighty cohples attended, it proved to be a financial, as well as a social, success. Music was furnished by the Hawaiian orchestra. Dr. and Mrs. J. William Black and Dean Cooper chaperoned the party.
