WESTERN MAINE ALUMNI MEET IN PORTLAND.

The Western Maine Colby Alumni Association held its annual meeting and banquet in the Congress Square Hotel, Portland, last Saturday evening. Interest in the Endowment Fund brought out a large attendance.

Ernest F. Noble, president of the association, introduced President Roberts as the first speaker. Prexy mentioned the present national crisis and the necessity of educated men standing behind the administration. Speaking of the Endowment Fund, he traced its history and purpose briefly and stated that $319,000 had already been raised. "Loyal co-operation of all Colby men is necessary to complete the project," he said.

The next speaker, Judge Warren C. Philbrook, expressed his belief that increased loyalty of the alumni is essential to the growth of the college. William L. Bonney, the Speaker of the Maine House of Representatives spoke of his work there. Mayor Wilford G. Chapman stated that he believed this the happiest time that Colby has ever known, and expressed himself as sure of the necessary sum for the Endowment being raised. Dr. Zenas Hanson, the oldest graduate present, pledged his aid to the project. Frank B. Nichols pledged $1000 from the Class of 1892.

The following officers were elected: President, William B. Jack, '00; secretary-treasurer, Clifford H. Libby, '08; executive committee, W. G. Chapman, '88, J. F. Tilton, '88, F. V. Mathews, ex-'89.

Those present at the meeting were: Ernest F. Noble, '97, A. J. Roberts, '90, W. G. Chapman, '83, Warren C. Philbrook, '82, W. L. Bonney, '92, E. F. Thompson, '82, J. F. Tilton, '88, L. M. Felch, '07, C. W. Foster, '71, E. H. Phillips, ex-'82, C. D. Chapman, '09, A. D. Gillingham, '14, L. W. Grant, '15, R. R. Thompson, '15, Arthur L. Field, '05, Charles E. Gurney, '98, Rex W. Dodge, '06, H. E. Wadsworth, '92, F. B. Nichols, '92, Holman F. Day, '87, Fred K. Owen, '87, W. H. Looney, '77, J. F. Liscomb, '62, C. H. Libby, '08, G. A. Gould, '08, W. B. Jack, '00, Dr. Zenas Hanson, '57.

ATTENTION, JOKSTERS!

All reasonable and seasonal literary efforts adapted to suitable music and intended for rendition at the Waterville concert by the musical clubs, whose content is directed toward proper objective points in and about our worthy institution, will be gratefully received by the members of the clubs.

PACKED HOUSE EXPECTED AT TAFT LECTURE.

Indications point to a packed house for the Taft lecture, which is to be held in the Opera House, next Wednesday night. Students who have not already made arrangements for seats should do so at once, since only a limited number of student tickets are available. Student tickets may be procured from Vern Tooker at the D. K. E. House. These tickets can be checked at DeOrsay's Drug Store on Monday morning at nine o'clock, instead of on Wednesday, the 7th, as was formerly planned.

Two big receptions will be given to Mr. Taft on the afternoon of his arrival, and all ticket holders will be given the opportunity of meeting him at these occasions. The first reception will be held in Foss Hall between the hours of 3 and 4, at which time the ladies will attend, and the second reception will be held for the men between 4 and 5, probably in the library. At this latter function, Governor Milliken, President Roberts, Judge Cornish and Dr. Taylor will be in the receiving line with Mr. Taft.

The recent rupture between the United States and Germany, and the subsequent developments, makes Mr. Taft's lecture on "Our World Relationships" of live and vital interest. He will no doubt devote some of his time to a discussion of this new and dramatic change of relationship between our country and the rest of the world.

WORD RECEIVED FROM FORMER INSTRUCTOR.

Clarence R. Johnson, last year instructor in Romance Languages at Colby and now on leave of absence engaged as a Y. M. C. A. secretary in France, has been heard from, recently. His work is among the German prisoners of war in the French prison camps, and it consists mainly in giving the men something to interest them, such as reading, music, and recreational games, and to occupy their minds during the long hours of prison life. Because the publication of anything written by Y. M. C. A. secretaries abroad is forbidden, the ECHO cannot print the letter, although it is very interesting. Friends who wish to communicate with Mr. Johnson should address him at 32 Rue Bergere, Paris, France.

A careless compositor, in setting up the words, "Woman: without her, man would be a savage," put the punctuation in the wrong place, which made it read: "Woman, without her man, would be a savage."

COLBY LOSES RELAY RACE.—CAPTAIN THOMPSON TAKES THIRD IN HANDICAP.

In the B. A. A. games, last Saturday evening, Colby was represented in two events. Captain Mark Thompson, '17, and A. D. Colby, '20, ran in the Handicap Mile, and the relay team composed of Martin Wiseman, '19, Wallace Lawrence, '17, Paul Thompson, '18, and Harold Phillips, '20, competed in the relay race for the Maine Intercollegiate Championship.

Captain Thompson and A. D. Colby were entered in a field of classy competitors. The latter started from scratch but was suffering from a strained tendon and did not finish. Thompson was given a 55 yard handicap and led the field for nearly nineteen laps, only to be passed on the home stretch. Mark fought hard and got a well deserved third.

Colby lost the relay race to Bowdoin. Wiseman led for a lap and a half, until Harris passed him and gained a fifteen yard lead. Cleaves, racing

Lawrence, gained ten yards more. Paul Thompson lost ten more to Simonton. Phillips, running in anchor position for Colby made a great fight and gained fifteen yards on the speedy Turner. Bowdoin won the race by twenty yards.

The summary:

Colby (Wiseman, Lawrence, P. Thompson, Phillips) vs. Bowdoin (Harris, Cleaves, Simonton, Turner).—Won by Bowdoin. Time, 3 min. 19 3-5 sec.

Maine (French, King, Donovan, Ziegler) vs. Bowdoin. Won by Maine. Time, 3 min. 8 3-5 sec.*

*A new record.

COLBY PROSPERS WITH YEARS.

It is indeed interesting to look back over a period of nearly a century and see the advancement of any institution. With this purpose in view, we are presenting the following figures which show far more clearly than words the progress that Colby has made. From a college numbering only 52 in 1824 she has grown to be a body of 440 students in 1916. Especially should the growth during the past ten years be noted. It is reasonable to assume that the next ten years will be equally as prosperous; and, with such advancement, it will not be long before Colby will be one of the largest of the small colleges.

From Colby Alumnus:

The ninety-ninth year of instruction at Colby opened with a slightly decreased enrollment, due not to a falling off in the size of the entering class, but to the dropping of some twenty upper classmen for failure to meet the scholastic requirements last year. The official figures of the registration for this year are as follows:

Juniors	51	43	94

HEAT.

On the whole the heat in the dormitories and recitation halls has been good so far this winter. Very little complaint has been heard. True, some of the boilers have been out of commission for a few hours, or even a day, at a time, and some of the firemen have loafed on the job a few times, yet the general average has been good. However, the temperature of Chemical Hall during at least one day of examinations was decidedly "too cool for comfort." Professors and students alike actually suffered during the three-hour periods. Not only this, but the health of those who had colds or a touch of grip was endangered. The examinations had to come off as per schedule, of course, so all were compelled to "stick it out." This brings to the fore a really grave responsibility which rests upon the college, the ever busy Mr. Short, and the corps of firemen. These chill, tempestuous Maine winters, with King Boreas raging outside, make the question of heat one of vital consequence from the beginning of the cold fall rains through the damp spring weather. Not only the comfort but also the health of all demands that every precaution be taken and every effort exerted by those in charge to furnish adequate and continuous heat.

"OUR WORLD RELATIONSHIPS."

The present crisis in the affairs of our country makes it hard to believe that anyone who has the opportunity will miss hearing Ex-president William H. Taft speak upon "Our World Relationships," next Wednesday night. Mr. Taft, without doubt, will devote a large part of his time to an up-to-the-minute discussion of national affairs and the relations of the United States to the other great world powers. The time for the lecture could not have been more fortunately chosen.

Next week, the publication of the ECHO will be delayed one day, in order to give a full account of the Taft lecture.

SOPHOMORE PAPER.

Last year, after considerable adverse agitation, the sophomore class voted to publish a yearly paper according to the custom of the past few years. They conceded, however, that it was unjust for disgruntled individuals to be allowed to use therein language and epithets which they would not dare to use to the person's face. The paper was printed, supposedly by a board of editors previously made known, but, actually, practically all by one man. While the paper was largely harmless, it cannot be said to have served any legitimate purpose. The columns of the ECHO are always open to just criticisms by the students and to real college humor. In fact, there is a dearth of just such material from the student body, at large. Why chip up twelve dollars, or more, for the privilege of publishing just what is sought by a regular college paper? As to returning to the old plan of making the sophomore paper the medium for unjust and vicious personal spite, this, we are sure, would meet with the strong disapproval of every loyal Colby man. A policy which allows a star football man to be called "yellow" and a professor to be the object of a student's personal animosity, has no place among refined college men. No sophomore with a spark of college spirit would vote for a return to such a policy. This year's sophomores have no excuse for continuing the paper, for they were not "slammed" last year. Why not let the thing die while the dying is good? It never served a legitimate purpose. It has done much harm. Will the class of 1919 be the progressive bunch to abolish a so-called "tradition" which is injurious to the college, a black eye upon the student body, and an offence to Colby principles?

SPECIAL LITERARY NUMBER.

In order that the ECHO, at least once during the year, may reflect the literary side of the college work, it is planned to make an early issue largely literary in character. Extra pages will be added. Literary efforts either in prose or verse may be submitted individually, or through the professors in charge of the various courses. It is desired, however, that no story shall be of such length as to prevent a broad representation. Contributions should be submitted before Friday, February 16.

NEW COVER DESIGN.

Those who know say the new cover design for the ECHO is in fine taste. It is expected that it will be ready for use in the near future.

NOTICE.

Those desiring to subscribe to the ECHO for this semester may do so on payment of fifty cents in advance. This is to give an opportunity to those who last fall decided not to subscribe. Surely if you are not yet a subscriber, you will gladly join us and help support your representatives on the paper. Subscribe now so as not to miss any of these interesting numbers.

INTERCOLLEGIATE PEACE CONTEST.

Colby, Maine, and Bates will compete for a first prize of $75 to be awarded the speaker ranking highest in a Peace Contest to be held before the end of the third week in April.

Two speakers from each college will speak in the finals. The preliminaries will be held the first week in April.

The International Peace Society has suggested subjects pertaining to the League to Enforce Peace, principles underlying the world court organization, and questions growing out of the European War and the Mexican situation. Each speaker is limited to sixteen minutes in delivery.

TENNIS MANAGERS MEET.

The annual meeting of the Maine Intercollegiate Lawn Tennis Association was held at the Deke House, Monday afternoon. It was voted to have the annual tennis tournament at Bates, May 24, 25 and 26. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Frank J. Googins of Bates; vice-president, Bela W. Norton of Bowdoin; secretary, John P. Ramsay of Maine; treasurer, Hugh L. Robinson of Colby.

THROUGH THE PERISCOPE.

New Hampshire College has lost a faithful friend through the death of President Fairchild of that institution.

An attempt is being made to produce, through the Victor Talking Machine Company, a record containing the songs of the four Maine colleges. It is rumored that such a record will be finished by spring, and will be available to the students and alumni then.

Since the breaking of diplomatic relations between Germany and the United States a German professor at the University of Vermont has resigned his position. His action was prompted by the desire to relieve the university from any complications arising from the government's treatment of German aliens.

CAMPUS CHAT

The next six weeks is a fine time to get a "half-Nelson" upon this semester's marks,—before the warm spring days roll around.

Harold Guy Don Scott, ex-'18, who is now pastor of the Universalist church at Oldtown and taking courses at U. of M., was in town the first of the week.

The Colby Comets won all three games of the between-semester basketball trip. Millinocket, Ricker Classical Institute, and Patten were defeated in the order named, every contest being fast and hard fought.

FACULTY.

During the last week, Professor Brown lectured at Monmouth, Leeds, Lincoln, and Mattawamkeag, and spoke before the high schools of these towns.

Dr. Grover and his wife acted as chaperones at a party at the Deke House, Saturday evening.

Professor Libby preached at Hallowell, Sunday.

Dr. Wolfe was elected president of the Associated Charities of the city, yesterday.

President Roberts spoke at several high schools in the State, Monday and Tuesday.

Y. M. C. A.

Four of the most prominent seniors will discuss the subject "What I think of the Y. M. C. A. and why!" at the regular meeting of the association next week. No "strings" are tied to them; each will give his candid opinion. Undoubtedly this will be a very interesting and helpful meeting. Further details later!

Fred A. Pottle, '17, led the meeting, last evening, taking for his subject, "The Heart of Wisdom." It was a good address.

D. K. E.

Maurice Ingraham, '17, spent the week-end with his father at Bangor.

After the dancing party, Saturday evening, the boys endured the rigors of military manoeuvres, for about an hour, under the command of Brigadier-General Pratt.

Smith Dunnack, '19, Ralph Hughes, '19, and Merle Lowery, '20, have returned from a recent basketball trip to Aroostook county. They report successes at Millinocket and Ricker Classical Institute.

W. R. Pedersen, '19, has been laid up, for the past few days, with a slight attack of grip.

A. T. O.
