BATES LOSES LAST GAME OF SERIES, 7-5.

Under ideal weather conditions, Colby decisively defeated Bates in the last game of the Maine intercollegiate schedule, yesterday, on Alumni Field.

The game was an interesting one from the beginning to the end. The lead frequently changed from one side to the other until the end of the seventh inning, when Colby, by means of three consecutive hits, by Driscoll, Greenlaw and Deasy, aided by Bates' errors obtained a lead that was kept thereafter.

Umpire Tilton called the game at 2.50 P. M., Capt. Deasy playing first base in place of Ashworth, who has enlisted in the Marine Corps. Otherwise, the team was unchanged.

The first tally came at the end of the fourth inning when Lawrence reached first base on balls, advanced to second by Klain's sacrifice and went to third, and home when Duncan dropped a throw from Talbot who had just fielded Greenlaw's grounder.

Bates scored in the fifth inning when Wiggin obtained first base on balls, advanced upon second at Duncan's sacrifice, stole third and went home on a sacrifice by Kennelly.

Score follows:

COLBY WINS BASEBALL CHAMPIONSHIP.

Although the final outcome is still in question, there is scarcely any doubt but that Colby has won the state intercollegiate baseball championship this year. The uncertainty is caused by the fact that in two of the championship games, Bowdoin played a pitcher, Lannon, who is ineligible for Maine intercollegiate contests under the "one-year rule." Maine successfully protested the game which he pitched against her, and Colby has sent in a similar protest, which has not as yet been heard from. If it is allowed, as it must be by all laws of consistency, Colby will have won the championship.

The present standing, disregarding Colby's petition but reckoning in Maine's, is as follows:

	Won	Lost	Per Cent
Bowdoin	4	1	.800
Colby	4	2	.666
Maine	2	2	.500
Bates	0	5	.000

The final standing, which will be true when Colby's protest is allowed is:

	Won	Lost	Per Cent
Colby	4	1	.800
Bowdoin	3	1	.750
Maine	2	2	.500
Bates	0	5	.000

FRESHMAN PRIZE READING HELD.

The Freshman Prize Reading for the men's division was held in the chapel, Tuesday afternoon. Owing to the unrest due to the war, the semi-finals were omitted this year and the contestants in the finals were chosen directly from the men who spoke in the preliminaries.

Although the audience was small, the program was unusually interesting and the contest very close. The decision of the judges gave Thomas Grace the first prize of ten dollars, and Curtis H. R. Hatch the second prize of five dollars. The judges were Rev. F. H. Stedman, Prof. F. W. Grover, and Prof. T. B. Ashcraft. President Roberts, the instructor of the Freshman Reading class, was the chairman.

COLBY SWAMPS U. OF M., 8-3.

Colby took her third straight baseball game from the University of Maine team at Orono, last Saturday. The eighth inning for Colby was a lively one, as the gray team sent seven runs across the scoring sack. The final score was 8 to 3.

The two teams fought neck and neck up to the eighth inning, although Maine forged ahead in the third with a two-run lead. The four following sessions Colby spent studying the opposing twirler. It was evident that Colby had the better team and the notable eighth proved it. "Link" Heyes started the slaughter with a single. "Mike" Driscoll laid out a triple, scoring Heyes. Greenlaw grounded out. Joe Deasy scored Driscoll and planted himself on second. Fraas, Tyler and Nourse kept the good work going and Buckman received an error from Pendleton. Greenlaw, Fahey and Heyes were the outs of the inning, Heyes having faced Johnson the second time. Driscoll led the batting with a triple and a double.

The score:

MIDNIGHT DISTURBANCE ON COLLEGE AVENUE.

Fully three hours after the sidewalks had been taken in last Monday night, a gentle tinkle boomed upon the peaceful midnight calm of H20-ville. Could it be the bell on Fred Short's cow or the first gong at Foss Hall? Nay, gentle reader, it was a mandolin, a really-truly, swear-provoking mandolin. And where was it, you ask. Ah, that is the question. Patient and persistent search on the part of an ECHO reporter revealed nothing in the shape of musical instruments woven into the landscape, until at last, driven to the depths of despair, he raised his eyes to heaven, and beheld on the roof of the Phi Delt House, the long sought mandolinist. Perched upon the ridgepole was he, and clad in scanty raiment, such as an affluent cupid might wear. And as the reporter gazed, another sound broke forth, the mighty singing of a quartette of noble youths, all clad in evening clothes (to put it mildly). Song after song rang out, from the classics of Irving Berlin to the rag time of Bobby Burns, and then, as the first streaks of dawn appeared over the Kennebec, the tumult ceased, and Waterville sank back to its wonted state of repose. Requiescat in pace.

ANTHOLOGY OF WAR VERSE.

Colby is about to have an addition to the literature of her graduates. Professor Franklin and George G. Watson, '17, are engaged in the collection of an anthology of verse written concerning the present war. It is their intention to make the collection complete from August, 1914, to the time of publication. This volume is designed to fill a need for a reliable collection of unbiased poems of real literary value which have sprung from the great conflict. A few incomplete anthologies have appeared, but authors and publishers think that there is room for another, especially as the former volumes have been made from poems of all languages, and as such do not greatly appeal to the mass of American poetry-lovers.

At the Senior Chapel, held this morning, Dr. Anton Marquardt addressed the graduating class. Harry H. Upton acted as chaplain and F. Wallace Lawrence as marshal.

It's a poor mule that doesn't work both ways.

WOMEN'S DIVISION OBSERVES IVY DAY.

The eighth annual Ivy Day exercises of the Women's Division were held Saturday afternoon at Foss Hall. Preceding the customary ceremony of planting the ivy, a pageant written and directed by Mrs. Robert W. Crowell, was given on the tennis courts, which were screened with evergreen. The pageant opened with a dance of the flowers by the senior girls, in green costumes and crowned with wreaths. At the end of the dance the flowers formed into three flowerbeds and then Helen Kimball, '18, appeared in a solo butterfly dance, flitting about among the blossoms with all the grace and airy charm of the winged creature which she represented. The juniors, as birds, were the next to appear, clad in unique costumes of blue and brown. After hopping about, whistling, and chirping to one another, they tucked their heads under their wings and went to sleep with the flowers, while Marjorie Smith, '20, sang "A Bird Lullaby." Then came the dance of the sunbeams, represented by the sophomores, robed in yellow and carrying yellow scarfs. They awakened the flowers and birds and then Marion H. White, '17, as the May Queen, was conducted to her throne by Hazel Whitney, '18, the Spirit of Legend, and Jennie Sanborn, '18, the Spirit of Song. A discussion followed between Song and Legend as to who should crown the Queen. Peter Pan, impersonated by Kathryne Sturtevant, '17, was called and consulted, and it was finally agreed that the Queen ought to be crowned by fairies. Peter Pan requested everyone in the audience who believed in fairies to clap their hands, and in response to a hearty clapping, the freshmen appeared as fairies, and the May Queen was properly crowned, while a solo, "A Ladder of Clover Bloom," was sung by Marion Griffin, '19. After the grand finale, in which all the dancers took part, led by Peter Pan and the May Queen, a procession of all the girls was formed, and marching to the front of the building, the regular Ivy Day exercises took place. Ruth Murdock, '17, as Mistress of Ceremonies, welcomed the alumnae and guests. Then the ivy was planted, each senior, in turn, participating in the solemn rite, and Mildred Greeley, president of the senior class, presented the trowel to the junior class president, Eunice Chase. The exercises were closed by the singing of the Ivy Ode, composed by Annie Treworgy, Marion Daggett, and Lucy Taylor, the committee from the senior class. The ode was sung to the tune of "Little Gray Home in the West."

Here's to Colby, the Gray and the Blue,

Alma Mater we all love so dear;

We have gathered today our fond tribute to pay,

With hearts that are true and sincere;

The ivy we plant with a song,

May it prosper, our love to proclaim;
And to each one it calls, as it clings to the walls,
"Cherish Colby and honor her name."

There are memories that never grow dim,

They are linked with devotion and love,

Gently guiding our way, helping us thus to say

"Like the ivy, reach out, and above;

"Cling to Colby; be loyal and true,

"Every year her fond teachings renew."

So we heartily sing, as this tribute we bring,

Here's to Colby, the Gray and the Blue.

In the evening, the Shakesperian play, "A Midsummer Night's Dream" was presented by the junior class, under the direction of Miss Exerene Flood. The tennis courts, which were converted into a stage by the screens and shrubbery, made a very picturesque setting for the players in their Grecian costumes. Many of the parts were long and difficult, but all were very well represented. Mary Jordan, as Puck, was especially delightful with her graceful vivacity and natural interpretation of the role, and Nick Bottom, as impersonated by Gladys Craft, created a laugh at every appearance. Oberon and Titania, king and queen of the fairies, acted their parts so naturally as to make the world of fancy seem almost real, while the dreams and disillusionings of the lovers furnished a plot for the play. From the humorous standpoint, the climax was reached when Moonshine appeared, leading his dog, the well-known "Rags," who displayed much natural ability in the interpretation of his part. The other parts were interpreted well, and the play, as a whole, was a grand success.

NEW SORORITY ORGANIZED.

Gamma Delta is the name of a new local sorority which completed its organization last Tuesday evening. The members are Marguerite Bradbury, '18, Gertrude Megquier, '18, Grace Lermond, '19, Belle Longley, '19, Josephine Rice, '19, Josephine Ketchum, '19, Vera Moore, '19, Eleanor Burdick, '20, and Ruth Wills, '20.

CHEMICAL SOCIETY.

The Chemical Society held its annual election of officers in Chemical Hall, last Monday evening. The following officers were elected: President, Seth Twitchell, '18; Secretary and Treasurer, G. E. Ingersoll, '18; Advisory Council, Dr. Parmenter.

A. B. Crossman, '17, read a paper on "Coal Tar and Its Products." Light refreshments were served after the meeting.

PRESS OF THE CITY JOB PRINT

In order to include the Bates game, and thus really finish up the year's activities, this issue of the ECHO has been delayed one day. The next issue will come out on the first Wednesday of the fall term.

THE NEW STAFF.

This issue is published by the new editorial staff, which will have charge of the paper for the coming year. The necessity for an editor from the junior instead of from the senior class has arisen from the enlistment of the two men who were associate editors for the past year. Norman D. Lattin, '18, who was the logical candidate for the editorship, enrolled for work at Plattsburg and is not expected to return to college in the fall. The withdrawal of Mr. Lattin from the board is to be regretted by all readers of the paper. The three remaining news editors have been promoted to associate editorships and ten reporters have been chosen by competitive tryouts. The term "news editor" has been changed to "reporter" because the new name corresponds more closely to the work done by the junior members of the staff. These new men have done their work well, on the whole, and the news department will be little affected by the war.

Y. M. C. A.

In order to help the Y. M. C. A. take a more prominent place in college life than it now occupies, it has been decided to give that organization a special column in the ECHO, beginning with next fall. Henry L. Bell, '20, has been appointed press representative of the Association and will have a place on its cabinet.

THE SOPHOMORE WALLOP.

In recent years a feeling has been growing that the Sophomore Wallop is an institution working against the best interests of the college. Last year, the Druids, the Mystics, and the ECHO made an attack upon the underhanded methods of the paper, with the result that its former vulgarity changed to mere inanity. This year the paper has died a natural death, seemingly overcome by the lack of interest in such a periodical among loyal Colby men.

FINAL EXHIBITION GIVEN BY MILITARY COMPANY.

Last Friday the Colby Military Company, at its final drill, gave an exhibition for the benefit of the members of the faculty, their wives, and members of the women's division. The first part of the drill was a demonstration of marching in the different close order formations, and the second part consisted of skirmish work. At one time the onlookers were somewhat startled when the company, in its skirmish manoeuvres, suddenly charged the reviewing stand. This last drill was the best one Company A has had this year and much comment was made on the progress achieved.

At the close of the exhibition the company picture was taken. Just before dismissing the company, Captain Miranda thanked the men for the loyalty and earnestness which they have shown toward the company this spring. The honor roll of those who had been present at every drill was read, and the appointment of H. E. Lewin, '20, as corporal was announced. After the company was dismissed, cheers were given for Captain Miranda and Drillmaster McAlary.

The bleachers and grand stand were practically deserted yesterday afternoon when the half past three train came in, as everyone left the game to see the Scotch "kilties" who were on their way to Boston for recruiting duty.

"TOM" JOYCE EXONERATED.

President Roberts received a letter from the commanding officer of the Plattsburg Officers' Training Camp, last Thursday, in which "Tom" Joyce, '17, is exonerated from all blame in the mixup with H. A. Miller referred to in last week's Echo.

RESOLUTIONS.Hall of Alpha Delta of Alpha Delta Pi.

Whereas, God in His infinite wisdom, has taken unto Himself the uncle of our sister, Jennie O. Sanborn,

Be it resolved, That we, the members of Alpha Delta Pi, extend to her and the members of the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy, and,

Be it further resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to our sister, and that they be published in the Colby Echo.

ATHLETIC ELECTIONS POSTPONED.

A meeting of the athletic association was held after chapel last Saturday. This was the regular date of the annual meeting for the election of officers and managers, but W. F. Erbb, '17, president of the association, announced that at the last meeting of the athletic council, it was voted to recommend the association to adjourn until the second Saturday of the fall term. The council made this recommendation because of the absence from college at this time of many who are eligible for offices and who would like to become candidates. By waiting until next fall it was believed that the students would make better choices as they could select from those who will be certain of being here to fill their positions. A full list of the candidates eligible and approved by the council will be posted previous to the fall meeting. The recommendation was unanimously approved by the athletic association.

PROFESSOR BROWN UNDERGOES OPERATION.

Owing to the fact that the two fractures which Professor Brown sustained in his right leg, several weeks ago, were not knitting as they should, an operation had to be performed on the limb, the first of this week. The hospital reported to an Echo representative, yesterday, that the operation was entirely successful and that recovery is now much more rapid.

CAMPUS CHAT

The Commencement invitations are being distributed.

A carpenter is busy at work reshingling the gymnasium. All classes will have to invest in paint in the fall and again put their numerals on the roof.

At the suggestion of President Roberts, several of the fraternities have invited Company E to make use of their social rooms, while in town. The athletic field has also been placed at the disposal of the company for drill.

Mrs. G. Bruce Franklin left Thursday morning, for Delaware, Ohio, to attend the conference of Delta Sigma Rho, the national oratorical fraternity. Mrs. Franklin will also visit her parents for several weeks in Washington C. H., Ohio.

The 1917 number of the oracle is being distributed. The book is dedicated to the Professor of the Greek language and literature, Clarence Hayward White, "the thorough scholar, the sincere friend, the polished gentleman, whose devoted service to Colby is of inestimable value to the college."

The day assigned for registration for the coming draft, found the college with its duties all performed in advance.
