BOWLING SEASON OPENS.

Zeta Psi and A. T. O. bowled the first match of the Inter-fraternity Bowling League, Tuesday afternoon, at the Casino alleys. Although the individual scores were not large, undoubtedly due to the use of new pins as well as to lack of practice, yet competition was keen and an enthusiastic crowd of rooters was present.

The fraternities on the campus are the only ones to be represented this year, since Delta Kappa Epsilon and Phi Delta Theta have decided not to compete for the championship cup offered by the management of the Casino alleys.

The teams will be for the most part made up of new men, Alpha Tau Omega being the only fraternity that has not suffered the loss of its last year's men.

The second match will be held this afternoon, between the Commons Club and Delta Upsilon. The closeness of yesterday's match can be seen from the score which follows:

Alpha Tau Omega, 3.

McCracken	71	73	91—	235
Umphey	83	77	93—	253
Tyler	76	83	92—	251
Pottle	84	84	71—	239
Bresett	77	88	97—	252
	391	405	444—	1230

Zeta Psi, 1.

Perry	84	84	85—	253
Marshall	76	79	91—	246
Taylor	79	78	90—	247
Stone	67	89	80—	235
Castelli	83	90	68—	241
	389	420	414—	1227

MILITARY COMPANY INDOORS.

Because of the heavy fall of snow, the company has started its course in theoretical training, the two platoons alternating in the use of the gymnasium. The squad assignment has been completed and the following men have been appointed temporary squad leaders: Baldwin, Hois, Pratt, Drummond, Jacobs, Marden, Berry, Taylor, Burleigh, Merrill. The results obtained in class-room work will determine the appointments, which will be announced immediately after Christmas vacation.

Germany is learning that a place in the sun is quite a different thing from all the sun in the place.

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN SPEAKS TO COLBY STUDENTS.

Honorable William J. Bryan gave an address to the students of Colby, in the college chapel, last Saturday morning. Merely passing through the city on his way to Bangor, Mr. Bryan consented to utilize his time between trains, in this way, thus giving us an opportunity to hear one of the foremost orators of the day. The room was crowded with an audience made up of the faculty, students of both divisions, and many citizens of Waterville.

In beginning his speech, Mr. Bryan said that the university is a good place for finishing one's education; but that he believed the smaller Christian college to have greater advantages for the undergraduate, because of the closer contact between students and teachers. He then discoursed for some time on the subject of public speaking, suggesting that, in our day of the subsidized newspaper, the public speaker is more needed than ever before.

In closing, he spoke for a few minutes on "The Purpose of Life;" and among other gems of thought he said: "It takes a great many books to train the mind, but only one to train the heart. Three ideals should disappear from the hearts of all of us,—the ideal of wealth, the ideal of social distinction, and, lastly, the ideal of fame in the way of merely securing a high position. The highest of all rewards is the consciousness of having made the world better for having lived in it."

DRAMATIC CLUB AT HARMONY.

The dramatic club made its first appearance of the season at Harmony, December 5, presenting the three-act farce-comedy, "Ferguson of Troy."

The cast included the following: Drummond, Miranda, Black, Cronin, Esters, Greene, Hanson, President Boardman, and Manager Parker. While in town the men were guests of Mr. C. L. Whittier, who, with true Maine hospitality, threw open his house to them.

Stanley Black, the gentleman, was a "star," as one young lady there was heard to remark. Jerry, the crazy man, was taken for a professional and after the performance as well as during it was always on hand with his airship. Boardman, with his usual complaisance, took the part of the old lady; and the other feminine parts were all well taken. Miranda, especially, caused a fit of laughter at every appearance. When you next see any member of the cast, be sure to ask about the "no soap" joke.

SOME FACTS ABOUT WAR INSURANCE.

Any man or woman of any age in the active military or naval service of the United States can obtain Government insurance. It has been ruled that members of Officers' Training Camps are under the act and can obtain insurance. The cost for each thousand dollars of insurance is from sixty-five cents a month to persons at the age of twenty-one to one dollar and twenty cents a month to those of the age of fifty-one.

The beneficiaries are limited to wife, husband, child, grandchild, brother or sister, stepbrother or stepsister, adopted brother or adopted sister of the insured, as well as parent, grandparent, or step-parent either of the insured or of his or her consort.

The insurance is not compulsory, but the cost is low and the protection great, and not only are all persons eligible afforded every opportunity to obtain this insurance without trouble or extra expense but they are specially urged to do so.

General Pershing and thousands of other officers and tens of thousands of soldiers have already taken out insurance. Up to date policies of insurance have been issued aggregating $1,032,938,000.

"No, it was only a roomer."

DELTA UPSILON BANQUET.

The fifty-second annual initiation banquet of the Colby chapter of Delta Upsilon was held at the Elmwood last Saturday evening. A large number of members and alumni were present, and a military touch was given to the affair by the presence of several of the enlisted men. Boatswain Robert F. Lord, '20, was initiated at this time, this being the first war initiation. After the banquet the toastmaster, Merle Hunt, '15, introduced the following speakers: Charles N. Perkins, '93, who spoke for the older alumni; Reginald H. Sturtevant, '20, who spoke for the boys in the service; C. L. Batchelder, Bowdoin, '18, representing the Bowdoin chapter of Delta Upsilon; A. B. Lorimer, '88, who gave the "Principia;" and Phil T. Somerville, '21, who represented the neophytes. Following these there were impromptu speeches, cheering, and singing of fraternity songs.

The enlisted men who were present were: Boatswain Robert F. Lord, '20, Quartermaster Reginald H. Sturtevant, '20, Seaman Wilbur N. Baxter, '20, and Lieutenant Harold Hersom, Bowdoin. The initiates were: 1920, Robert F. Lord, William P. Hancock; 1921, Ernest A. Adams, Ralph C. Bradley, Chauncey L. Brown, Arthur J. Golder, Harold Good, Arthur H. Hebert, Willard A. Seamans, Albert Grindle Snow, Phil T. Somerville, and Alfred Nickerson.

ZETES HOLD INITIATION BANQUET AT CHAPTER HOUSE.

Breaking away from the long established custom of patronizing the Elmwood Hotel, Zeta Psi set a good example in wartime conservation by holding its annual initiation banquet at the chapter house, on the evening of December 5. The house was decorated with national and fraternity colors, and covers were laid at table for fifty. Refreshments consisted of shrimp salad, hot rolls, pickles, olives, and coffee, finishing with ice cream and cake.

Wentworth Driscoll, '19, acted as toastmaster, and Ernest Perry, '19, as choragus. The speakers were: Dr. Hill, '92; Smith, '91; Dunn, '68; Reed, '10; Rogers, '17; and Taylor, '21.

The initiates are: Harvard Moor, '18, Ellsworth; Rudolph Castelli, '18, Chester, Conn.; Joseph Claffie, '20, Dalton, Mass.; Edward Fahey, '20, Dalton, Mass.; William Eurgess, '21, Mahlon Crummett, '21, and Roland Pooler, '21, Fairfield; Harold Stone, '21, Unity; Joel Taylor, '21, Skowhegan.

A Warning—"A mule" said Uncle Eben, "should be a warnin' against kickin'. De better he does it the more unpopular he gets."

"TRENCH" FRENCH PROVES INTERESTING.

"Trench" French is to be a popular course. That much was evidenced at the second meeting, on Monday afternoon, when the large lecture room in Chemical Hall was filled nearly to capacity. At the beginning of the hour, Boardman, '18, gave a short review of the Russian situation, and Black, '21, spoke on the recent developments on the western front. After announcing that he hoped to have at the next recitation some views of trench life and a graphophone with French records, Professor Johnson gave a drill on simple French words and sentences, using prominent members of the class in his illustrations. Lieutenant A. R. Rogers, who has since left to join his regiment in France, gave a forceful talk, closing with the words, "Wherever you are, on God's green earth, you're a Colby man and you should be proud of it."

DRUIDS ARE ELECTED.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Druids, the junior honorary society, new members for the present year were elected. Two juniors were chosen from each fraternity, as follows: Delta Kappa Epsilon, Charles M. Bailey of Winthrop, Arthur F. Scott of Englewood, N. J.; Phi Delta Theta, Ralph H. Drew of Houlton, Newton L. Nourse of Lancaster, N. H.; Zeta Psi, Ernest J. Perry of Lawrence, Mass., Wentworth Driscoll of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Alpha Tau Omega, William D. Gallier of Boston, Mass., Jacob A. Klain of Norway; Delta Upsilon, J. H. Johnson of Concord, N. H.; Benjamin S. Hanson of Sanford; Commons Club, Edward A. Cronin of Pittsfield, N. H., Arthur J. Minister of Toronto, Canada.

PAYING FOR LIBERTY BONDS.

On November 15, which was the date on which the first installment on Liberty Loan Bonds was due, approximately $2,400,000,000 was paid in, although less than a third of that amount was due.

In other words, nearly two-thirds of the aggregate subscriptions to the Second Liberty Loan have been paid in full, the purchasers not availing themselves of the right to wait until December 15 and January 15 to make their other payments.

MISSED A FEW.

Beatrice—"Is it true that sailors have a girl in every port?"

Midshipman Harold—"Well, I'd hardly say that—there were several places we didn't touch on our cruise."

CHRISTMAS VACATION FROM DECEMBER
21 TO 8 A. M. JANUARY 2.

All pledges to the Students' Friendship War Fund are due and must be paid before Saturday, December 15.

A few have not yet deposited their certificates of vaccination. It is not enough that you are aware of a growing soreness in the left arm, but the Board of Health must also have that information.

Write to the men in service. Lonesomeness is perhaps the worst part of army life, and a letter from the old college is as welcome as the visit of the paymaster.

TO THE MEN IN SERVICE.

Complaints have been received from some of Colby's soldiers that the "Echo" is not reaching them regularly. A copy is mailed each week to each man in uniform, to his latest address as we have it, and the mailing list is kept up to date, so far as possible. These men will confer a favor, as well as insure themselves of prompt receipt of "The Echo" and "The Alumnus," by reporting to Professor Libby any changes in their mail address.

THE MACMILLAN LECTURE.

The sale of tickets for the MacMillan lecture is progressing favorably. This is an opportunity to hear a man of world wide fame, speak on experiences which fall to the lot of but few men. Mr. MacMillan is a graduate of one of our Maine colleges, is a lecturer of ability, and will have with him stereopticon views and motion pictures of life beyond the Arctic Circle.

TECHNICAL STUDENTS IN THE DRAFT.

The following telegram, which explains itself, was received by the President of New Hampshire State College. President Roberts has not received a similar telegram but has information to the effect that its contents are correct.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 4, 1917.

President R. D. Hetzel,

New Hampshire College, Durham, N. H.:

Have just been authorized by Secretary of War to request you to inform all your technical students that if they wait until drafted they can, upon summons to the draft camp, take with them letters from you stating their special qualifications, such letter to be filed with occupational census questionnaire of war department under authority of this authorized telegram, Secretary of War also authorized me to say that every effort will be made to use each student's special training in connection with the specialized occupations in army so as to afford technical students of draft age fully as great an opportunity through the draft as if they enlisted now.

Signed, HOLLIS GODFREY.

Anybody can be your enemy but it is a man's size job to be a friend.

INTERCOLLEGIATE SOCIALIST SOCIETY.

One of the most important meetings of an intercollegiate nature scheduled for New York City during the Christmas holidays is the Ninth Annual Convention of the Intercollegiate Socialist Society, an educational organization devoted to the intelligent and impartial study of Socialism and Socialist movement. Among the speakers scheduled at the convention, which will be held on December 27, 28 and 29, are Dr. Frederic C. Howe, Commissioner of Immigration of the City of New York, Henry Bruere, formerly New York City Chamberlain, Norman Angell, John Spargo, Morris Hillquit, Charlotte Perkins Gilman and many others. All points of view will be given an opportunity to be heard, and the convention throughout promises to be of great interest. All collegians interested in social problems will be cordially welcomed at the various sessions.

Of special interest to undergraduates will be the "prize competition," to be held on Saturday morning, December 29. At this competition, prizes of $25 and $15 will be given to those collegians who deliver the best orations on "Nationalization of the Railroads," "Socialism—Is it a Necessity for American Democracy?" and other subjects approved by the committee. Further information concerning this competition can be obtained from Dr. Harry W. Laidler, Secretary of the Society, 70 Fifth Ave., New York City.

SOLDIER AND SAILOR INSURANCE...

If a soldier or sailor is killed, and he has a wife and children, the Government will provide compensation for the wife, so long as she remains unmarried, and support for the children until they become 18 years of age.

These payments range from $25 for a widow alone to $57.50 for a widow and four children. If the man is totally disabled the Government will make a fixed monthly payment to him ranging from $30 a month, if he is married, to $75 a month, if he has a wife and three or more children. Should he be so helpless as to require a nurse or attendant he will be given up to $20 additional. Should he lose both feet, both hands, or both eyes, or be permanently bedridden, he will be paid $100 a month, whether he is a bachelor or married.

CAMPUS CHAT

How's your arm?

Who started the story, anyway, that college men were urgently needed a tHalifax?

It's nearly time for the mid-semester warnings. Better take a brace.

Professor McDonald delivered a fine address before the men's class at the First Baptist Sunday School, last Sunday.

Henry Bell, '20, and Clifford Peaslee, '21, spoke in the Methodist church of Clinton, Sunday evening.

Rockwell, '20, spoke in the Christian Endeavor meeting of North Vassalboro Baptist church, Sunday evening.

Y. M. C. A.

The freshman banquet will be held next Monday evening, at seven thirty o'clock at a place to be announced later. Only the freshmen and the Bible study leaders will be present. There will be special music, and speeches by President Roberts, Professor Johnson, and A. A. Heald, layman secretary of the state Y. M. C. A. Newman, '18, will act as toastmaster.

The banquet committee is composed of the following men: Alden, '18, chairman, Newman, '18, Brush, '20, Minister, '19, and Charles Bailey, '19.

Last Monday evening the leaders of the Bible groups met at Professor Johnson's house. Lieutenant Rogers and Professor Libby were the speakers.

Mr. Herman Lum, a graduate of Pennsylvania State College, until recently secretary at Wesleyan University, visited here Tuesday afternoon. He is a representative of the student department of the international committee on Y. M. C. A. work. Several of the men had conference with him and he also gave a brief address in the Y. M. C. A. meeting.

Mr. Geo. H. Marr, chief engineer of the Hollingsworth and Whitney mill, spoke at the Y. M. C. A. meeting last Tuesday evening. He explained the process of paper making and illustrated the method by means of specimens showing the different steps.

A committee on the Bible and Missions is planning to form a number of mission groups, to begin this kind of study directly after the Christmas vacation.

There will be classes formed to discuss the Negro problems in the south, South America, India, and the Moslem countries.

D. K. E.

Ross S. Holt, '18, is attending the 71st annual convention of the Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity being held this week in New York City as the guest of the New York chapter.

"Bob" Wyman, '18, and "Sid" Wyman, '19, spent the week-end in Portland.

Lieutenant E. B. Farrar, '14, was a visitor at the house Monday and Tuesday.

Z. P.

"Hy" Ricker, ex-'15, visited the house Wednesday.

Lewis Crosby, '19, has enlisted in the Naval Aviation Corps.

P. D. T.

Lieutenant Fred C. English, '16, was at the house Friday and Saturday, on his way to visit his parents before reporting for duty at Battle Creek, Michigan.

Lieutenant Charles H. Piebes, '18, of the 106th Aero Squadron, passed through Waterville Sunday, bound for "some point north."

Robert E. Sullivan, '19, is substituting as science teacher at M. C. I. for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron A. Ladd are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

D. U.

Lieutenant Thomas F. Joyce of the regular army visited the house over Sunday.

Harold W. Soule, '04, one of the first Rhodes scholars from Colby, visited Waterville on business, Monday. He has until recently been professor of German at the University of Minnesota.

Reginald Sturtevant, '20, Boatswain R. F. Lord, '20, and Wilbur N. Baxter, '20, all of the Naval Reserve, came to Waterville, Saturday, for the initiation banquet. "Scash" Hunt, '15, was also a visitor at that time.

Lieutenant Harold Hersom of the Bowdoin chapter, was a caller at the house, Saturday.

Lieutenant John Wells, '13, stayed at the house one day last week. Lieutenant Wells received his commission at the last Plattsburg camp.

C. C.

Emil Laro, assistant foreman N. E. T. & T. Company, visited Cronin, '19, Sunday.

Cecil Rollins, '17, who is now instructor in Latin and History at Hebron Academy, is visiting at the house.

P. D. P.

Conley, ex-'20, has been visiting friends the past few days while awaiting his call to the navy.

WOMEN'S DIVISION

Edited by the News Editor of the Colbiana,
Doris Andrews, '18.

Assistants: Gladys Twitchell, '18,
Josephine Rice, '19,
Esther Power, '20,
Dorothy Rounds, '21.

The first of the class entertainments given for the benefit of the Y. W. C. A. was held Saturday evening in the college chapel, when the seniors presented "The Old Peabody Pew." About twenty-two dollars was cleared. Cast of characters:

Mrs. Baxter, the minister's wife. . . Margaret Wilkins
Mrs. Burbank, president of the Dorcas Society,

Leila Washburn

Mrs. Miller, wife of the sexton. Helen Kimball
Mrs. Sargent, a village historian. Jennie Sanborn

The Widow Buzzell, willing to take a second risk,

Gladys Craft

Miss Lobelia Brewster, who is no lover of men,

Daisy Murray

Miss Maria Sharp, quick of speech, sound of heart,

Cornelia Kelley

Miss Nancy Wentworth, who has waited for her romance ten years. Kathryn Sturtevant

Justin Peabody, sole living claimant to the old Peabody pew. George Wolstenholm, Coburn, '18

Reader Hazel Whitney

The junior class will give their entertainment soon after the Christmas vacation.

The Literary Society held an open meeting Friday evening. The speaker, Miss Olney, who is a well-known lecturer on current events, gave a very interesting talk on the war, particularly on the horrors perpetrated by the Germans. Monday evening, Miss Olney addressed the girls again this time talking on the history and geography of the war, and the present position of all interested countries, both neutral and warring. Miss Olney has traveled a great deal and was in Europe at the outbreak of the war, so that she was able to add many interesting stories and personal experiences to her lectures. The privilege of listening to Miss Olney was given the Colby girls through the kindness of Miss Helen Louise Coburn, a Colby alumna.

An Aroostook Club has been organized with about twenty members and the following officers: President, Norma Goodhue; Secretary and Treasurer, Helen Getchell; Executive Committee; Margaret Wilkins, Hilda Bradbury, Adelle McLoon, Dorothy Mitchell.

The Y. W. C. A. meeting last Thursday was led by Gladys Dow, '21, subject, "The Mountains of Our Daily Life." Dorothy Knapp, '21, sang a solo, and the orchestra played Rossini's "Adoration." Although the attendance was not so large as usual, nearly every one present took an active part in the discussion and made it one of the best freshman meetings thus far held.

Vaccination is at present the chief topic of discussion at the hall.

Chi Gamma Theta, the sophomore society, held a meeting and "feed" Thursday night.

Members of Coburn Y. W. C. A. cabinet were the guests at the regular cabinet meeting Tuesday evening, December 4.

Alberta Shepherd, Winifred Greeley and Isabelle Wing, all of the class of 1918, were initiated into Alpha Delta Pi Saturday afternoon.

Miss Marie Cornell, Bates, '21, was the week-end guest of Ruth Ostrom, '21.

Helen Clark, ex-'18, now a graduate of Simmons College, was a recent guest at the hall.
