My dear Nannie

Your letter has come at the moment I had read the telegraph about the aeroplane fire. I am doubly curious now to know whether ~~you~~ what has caused you any anxiety & discomfort. I don't at all know whether you are near enough to the frontier to have been in danger or to have had to make

efforts of any kind.

I should be very glad
of a post card saying
how you are.

A thousand thanks for your kind thoughts in writing about me know your <sup>and</sup> support.

Of course I will not allude ~~to~~ to the matter before me.

Thank Eugene for writing — I was going to answer him when the newspaper arrived.

With much love and
affection

for always

Vernon
