VOTE ON LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

Colby Men Express Their Opinion in Straw Vote.

The ECHO has this week conducted a straw vote of the men of the college to determine where Colby stands on the League of Nations question. The result shows that an overwhelming majority of the students are in favor of some form of league to enforce peace, but that the men of Colby are very strongly against the present draft, as presented by the President. As to whether the question of a League of Nations should be taken up now and made a part of the peace settlement with Germany, or whether the peace settlement should be made first, and then the League of Nations be taken up, the men are about evenly divided, leaning a little, perhaps, to the belief that it should be made a part of the peace settlement and decided now. One hundred and twenty eight votes have been received in answer to three questions:

1. Are you in favor of some form of a League of Nations?
2. Do you favor the present draft for such a league?
3. Do you think this question should be made a part of the peace treaty and settled now, or do you think it should be taken up after peace is made with Germany?

In answer to the first question, one hundred and eleven voted for some form of League of Nations, Ninety-two men are opposed to the league, according to the present draft of the constitution. Eleven men are undecided on this question. The third question brought forth sixty-six answers in favor of forming the League of Nations now, and forty-six answers in favor of a later settlement of the question. Six men are undecided.

NEW PROFESSOR OF ENGLISH.

Lieut. Carl J. Weber Takes Place of Professor Roberts.

There has been a change in the faculty this past week due to the resignation of Professor William L. Roberts of the English Department, who resigned to take up the practice of law in New Hampshire.

Professor Roberts's place will be taken by Lieutenant Carl J. Weber, recently discharged from the service. Lieutenant Weber is well fitted for his position in the English Department. He was graduated from Baltimore City College in 1912, and from Johns Hopkins in 1914. He was elected to Phi Beta Kappa at Johns Hopkins, and was also awarded a Rhodes Scholarship. He studied at Oxford University in England from 1914 to 1917, specializing in English. While at Oxford he was a member of the University Officers' Training Corps. When the war broke out Lieutenant Weber returned to America and enlisted, to receive his commission in a short time. He was assigned to the field artillery, and later became adjutant of the 69th Field Artillery Regiment. He was discharged last Christmas Day.

BOWLING LEAGUE COMPLETED.

Phi Delta Thetas Win Cup by Taking Last Match.

The Interfraternity Bowling League ended on Thursday of this week when the Phi Delta Thetas won the last match, and through winning this match won the cup. The finish was exciting, as the result could easily have been different. If the Phi Deltas had lost the last match, they would have lost the cup. Three teams, the Phi Delta Thetas, the Alpha Taus Omegas, and the Zetas were all bunched together at the top of the standing.

The bowling this year has been unusually interesting as the result was in doubt until the end. The standing of the league was constantly changing, first one team being in the lead, and then another. The Phi Deltas won through having a well balanced and consistent team.

The match which won the cup for the Phi Deltas was rolled with the Alpha Tau Omegas, and resulted in the Phi Deltas taking two points:

Phi Delta Theta
Dunnack	84	79	86	259
Farley	76	96	91	263
Wilkins	81	79	75	235
Smith	90	95	89	274
Nourse	102	84	87	273
	433	433	438	1304
Alpha Tau Omega
Levine	71	96	84	251
James	78	88	69	235
Dolbeare	86	82	87	255
Cushman	98	95	101	294
Bucknam	96	102	78	276
	429	463	419	1311

The final standing of the teams is as follows:

Phi Delta Theta	39	20	.661
Zeta Psi	38	22	.633
Alpha Tau Omega	36	24	.600
Delta Kappa Epsilon	28	32	.468
Lambda Chi Alpha	20	40	.333
Delta Upsilon	14	45	.233
	Won	Lost	P. C.

The records for year:

High Single String, Bradbury, 131.

High three string total, Ware, 313.

Team single string total, Phi Delta Theta, 505.

Team three string total, Phi Delta Theta, 1405.

The individual averages of the men show that Don Smith and Robert Stone led the others with averages of 89. The other averages: Nourse, 88; Heyes, 88; Dunnack, 88; Ware, 88; Farley, 87; Cushman, 87; Bucknam, 87; H. Stone, 85; Loeffler, 85; Marshall, 85; Dolbeare, 85; Levine, 85; Crook, 85; James, 84; Robinson, 84; Bradbury, 84; Pratt, 84; Taylor, 83; Hamer, 83; Small, 83; Wyman, 83; Perry, 83; Rogers, 82; Stearns, 82; Hatch, 81; Hanson, 81; Nickerson, 79; Terry, 79; and Adams, 77.

THE NEW ALUMNUS.

The Colby Alumnus for the second quarter of 1918-1919 will be issued during the week of March 24. Like all previous issues, the magazine will be profusely illustrated with half-tones of graduates, former students, and those of the graduates and undergraduate bodies who have been serving in the Great War. Several special articles of timely interest will make the magazine of unusual value to Colby men. Norman L. Bassett, '91, and John E. Nelson, '98, contribute an historical article on the "Story of the Second Maine." The story deals with the organization of the Second Maine and its important work in France. The Editor continues his article on "Colby in the Great War," recounting the experiences through which the college passed during the days of Government supervision. "The Point of View in '55" is largely a reprint of a report made by the faculty of Colby College sixty-four years ago, and deals with the college curriculum of the former days. Other articles written by Archer Jordan, '95, president of the Colby Alumni Association; Dr. C. E. Owen, '79, secretary of the Board of Trustees; and President A. J. Roberts, '90, telling of the Christmas Gift. "Stars of Gold" is an article containing facts about the six men who have died in the service of the country since the last Alumnus was issued. An honor roll, giving the name of every Colby man, so far as ascertainable, also appears. There are a number of editorial notes dealing with members of the Board of Trustees, centennial plans, work on the endowment, honors for Supt. Condon, '90, faculty changes, and the April Alumnus. The magazine will contain upwards of 50 pages and will contain 50 or more halftone illustrations.

THE SOPHOMORE DECLAMATION.

The names of those who have been chosen to compete for the Sophomore Declamation Prizes were announced this week as follows: Men—Reginald H. Sturtevant, Vicente Mabakaio, Roland G. Ware, Chesterfield H. Marden, Joel E. Taylor, Raymond H. Spinney, and Stanley R. Black; Women—Clara W. Carter, Grace E. Wilder, Eleanor Burdick, E. Kathleen Goodhue, Clara E. Whiteman, and Bernice B. Butler.

These contestants are chosen on the basis of rank obtained in first year rhetoric. This year there are thirteen contestants. The contest will be held sometime in April.

JUNIOR PROM.

The Junior Prom will be held at 8.30 o'clock, Friday evening, April 4th, at the New Elks Hall. An orchestra, consisting of players from Portland, Bangor, and Waterville, assures good music for the program of twenty-four dances. Invitations are on hand and can be secured from members of the Prom committee. The Prom will be, as in past years, formal. The students who intend to be among those present can help the committee a great deal if they get their tickets before vacation.

THE MUSICAL CLUBS.

For various reasons the Musical Clubs, after all the hard work they have put in during the past few weeks, have been forced to give up tours planned for this vacation. A trip had been arranged for New Hampshire, but this fell through; and then it was thought that a trip might be taken to Aroostook, but this also has failed to materialize. Manager Lewin has not given up hope of taking a trip this year, however, and now plans after vacation to visit either Aroostook or some of the coast cities.

Manager Lewin wishes it to be known that rehearsals will go on as usual every Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 4.30 at the D. K. E. House and the men who have been chosen are expected to be present at all rehearsals.

CONCERNING AN R. O. T. C.

Two army officers recently visited this college while on a tour of the colleges of the country, and broached a project for the establishment of Reserve Officers' Training Corps. The government plans to establish in all the colleges that so desire, an R. O. T. C. The plan is to make it the equivalent of one course of three hours a week, with at least one hundred students to be enrolled for two years. A competent officer, to be approved by the college to which he is sent, will have charge of the R. O. T. C. unit, and will become a member of the faculty, paid by the government. This officer has only such authority as is delegated to him by the college faculty and no more.

The students, as has been said, enroll for two years. They are furnished by the government with clothing and equipment. Each summer they can, if they desire, attend a training camp where they will receive a small pay. After the end of the two years, the students can enroll for two more years, during which time they will receive small pay. At the end of the four years of training, those men capable of being officers will be commissioned.

The whole scheme is as yet somewhat vague, but the government wishes to learn the sentiment of the different colleges. It is understood that, in a short time, the proposition will be placed before the students.

DANCE SATURDAY NIGHT.

The third dance of the college series will be given in the Gymnasium Saturday evening of this week. The fraternities with but one exception have voted to allow the expense to be apportioned among the fraternities; consequently, the admission at the door will be free to members of the fraternities. This is the last dance before vacation. Sussman's orchestra will furnish the music as usual. Everybody out!

THE TRACK SITUATION.

Whether track shall be started up at Colby this year now rests with the student body. The Athletic Council recently talked over the track situation, and approached President Roberts. As a result of this, President Roberts said that if the students wanted track and would stand behind it, the Athletic Council and the college authorities would back track to the limit. This means that if the men of this college really wish to have track they will have to give it hearty support, not only by backing it from the cheering stand but also by getting out and trying for the team. We can therefore have a track team if we will promise to get out and work for it. It is up to us. What are we going to do about it? Are we going to permit the other colleges of the state to say that we have no spirit?

CHEMICAL SOCIETY.

At a recent meeting the Chemical Society became organized for the new year and the following officers were elected: President, Ralph H. Drew, '19; vice-president, Robert E. Sullivan, '19; secretary and treasurer, Newton L. Nourse, '19. The other members of the society are George Ingersoll, Arthur F. Scott, Galen F. Sweet, and Julius G. Sussman, all of the class of 1919.

PRESS OF THE CITY JOB PRINT

This announcement is not necessary, merely being used to fill up space: Vacation begins March 26, at noon, and ends April 3 at 8 A. M.

As yet only a few tickets have been sold for the Junior Prom. Since this the biggest social event of the year every dancer in college should buy a ticket and go. The committee needs some money with which to work. Buy your ticket now.

The fence surrounding the campus is in terrible condition. Many of the rails are missing and several of the granite posts have toppled over. This gives the person visiting Waterville for the first time a poor impression of the college. Why can't something be done to repair the fence?

"CLEAN-UP" DRIVE.

The recent mild weather indicates that spring is at hand but the disappearing snow reveals accumulated piles of dirt all about. Why not, before long, have a "clean-up" day for the whole of the campus from avenue to river. It would be a novelty full of good sport for everyone with red blood in his veins to get up early some morning and join in a concerted drive to do a good stunt of house cleaning. The faculty would be glad to join and the co-ords. could aid materially. Making a picnic of the work would inject pleasure into labor and the amount of benefit and improvement to the looks of the campus would be ample recompense. A by-product would be a further development of college spirit concerning which we spoke last week.

THE ECHO CONTEST.

The ECHO is ashamed to speak of this matter, not so much because of the apparent failure of the contest which it announced a few weeks ago, but more because the students of the college appear to have no ambition to write. But one response was received for the contest, and this reply was not from a student now in college. The two prizes of $5.00 and $2.50 mean that some one would have a chance to earn some "easy money." What is the matter with the students? One or two members of the ECHO Board have announced their desire to try for this prize. Inasmuch as the other students appear to have no ambition to try, the contest will be left open until after vacation, and members of the ECHO Board will then be allowed to compete. Any student who still wishes to try may pass in articles before April 10. The subject is, "What shall the undergraduates play in the Centennial Celebration of the College?" The articles are to be not over 900 words in length. Let's hear from some of the students.

STUDENT COUNCIL MEETING.

At a meeting of the Student Council held on Thursday it was voted to confer with President Roberts in an endeavor to have afternoon classes, after vacation, commence at 1:00 P. M., instead of at 1:30. The reason for this is that by setting classes ahead thirty minutes, more time will be given during the latter part of the afternoon for baseball and track practice.

Several other matters were taken up by the Council, concerning which announcement will be made later.

PRESIDENT ROBERTS SPEAKS.Addresses Men of Waterville on League of Nations.

President Roberts, in an address at the Knights of Pythias Hall, last Sunday afternoon, spoke on the League of Nations, urging strongly that such a league be established to enforce peace. President Roberts opened by saying that all Americans hate war and that this country has fought only for its democratic ideals and to insure a lasting peace.

"America might isolate herself and allow other protective alliances, but in time the balance of power would be upset as in the past and we should be drawn into war again, for this war has shown how small a place the world is.

"I am heartily in favor of a League to Enforce Peace. It would be a tragedy if the present effort should fail because of obstinacy and lack of foresight in those who oppose some features of the present draft."

President Roberts went on to say that the overwhelming majority of Americans want the League of Nations in spite of some objectionable features. He said that these objectionable parts of the constitution could be corrected later. He then continued by mentioning some of the chief objections.

In closing President Roberts said, "All Americans should stand up to be counted for the League of Nations, all criticisms should be constructive and not destructive, and the Senate should see to making the necessary changes in the league constitution."

THE GOATS.

The Goats gathered around the table last Saturday night and talked. Professor White of the Greek department, a scholar to the core, and well-gifted in conversational powers, led an informal discussion on "The Value of the Classics." No time was wasted in introductions; no one bothered to address the chair, for the Goats dispense with titles and formalities as far as possible.

Really, the Goats can hardly be called an organization; they just gravitate naturally together to "chew the rag," as the saying goes. Any man in Colby College who has a rag worth chewing, should not keep it selfishly to himself; for whoever desires to chew on the rags already in the process of mastication, is very welcome to ramble with the Goats at their fortnightly feed in the pasture of conversation.

J. W. B., '20.

Y. M. C. A.

On Tuesday night, Professor MacDonald gave the last of a series of series of three talks on "The Economic Teachings of Jesus." His subject was "The Conflict Between Capital and Labor." The members of the Y. M. C. A. gratefully thank Professor MacDonald for these talks, as they have proved most helpful to all who have heard them.

The Y. M. C. A. takes this opportunity to welcome Professor Weber to Colby.

Next Tuesday night Professor Weber will speak at the Y. M. C. A. meeting. He is a Johns Hopkins and Oxford man and has served the past year in the army. With such experience he should have a very interesting talk for us. Let's all turn out, boys, and get acquainted with Professor Weber.

COMING EVENTS.

March 25. Lieutenant Weber speaks at Y. M. C. A.

March 22. Dance in the Gymnasium.

March 26. Vacation begins.

April 3. Vacation Ends.

April 4. General Edwards will be at chapel in the forenoon.

April 4. Junior Prom.

April 14. Goodwin Prize Speaking Contest.

April 19. Patriot's Day. First baseball game.

Professor Chipman, the librarian, has received a communication asking for books, to be used for soldiers who are across and who are returning to this country. This call is urgent, and these books are desired at once. Anyone who has some good books of fiction or recent magazines which are in good condition is requested to leave them at the library before vacation.
