HALLOWELL PRIZE CONTEST.

Speakers in Final Exhibition Announced.

The members of the Public Speaking Class who have been chosen to speak in the final exhibition of the Hallowell Prize Speaking Contest have been chosen. The names on the list, which is unusually large, are as follows: Raymond J. Bates, '22, Henry L. Bell, '20, Chesterfield Marden, '21, William J. Pollock, '21, Ransom Pratt, '21, Libby Pulsifer, '21, Phil T. Somerville, '21, Raymond H. Spinney, '21, Joel E. Taylor, '21, George B. Wolstenholme, '22, Vi-tsu Sun, '21, Gladys E. Dow, '21, Elizabeth R. Eames, '19, Adelle M. McLoon, '21, and Elfrieda M. Whitney, '21. The final exhibition will be held in the chapel on the evening of May 8.

COLBY 6, MAINE 3.

Team Opens Season With Victory.

By bunching hits in the fifth inning, and by good playing, except in one inning, Colby defeated Maine on Alumni Field, last Saturday, in the opening baseball game of the year, the final tally being 6 to 3. The playing was good on both sides, considering that it was the first game of the season.

The two teams went out in short order, the first inning; but in the second, three Maine men got on bases with scratch hits that hardly deserved to be called such. Reardon, the Maine captain, then came to bat and brought two men home by lining out a long sacrifice fly. In her half of the second inning, Colby scored once, when Fraas got on first and came all the way home though errors by Maine fielders.

The fifth inning, when the next scoring came, sealed Maine's fate. Williams singled, and Marshall struck out. Pulsifer reached first on an error, but Sullivan struck out. Nourse then came up and laced out the longest hit of the game, a two-bagger to left field, which brought in two runs. Taylor walked, and Driscoll singled, bringing Nourse home. Bucknam singled, scoring Taylor, but was out himself by being caught off first. The inning ended with Colby four runs in the lead. There was no more scoring until the ninth when Maine scored once more.

Colby used a large number of substitutes in the latter part of the game. In the fifth, Bucknam and Driscoll exchanged places, Driscoll going into the box. This reversible battery worked well.

Nourse and Driscoll played the best games for Colby, while Captain Reardon of Maine, behind the bat, and Faulkner, on second, did some fast work.

TRUSTEES MEET.

Important Matters Taken Up at Last Gathering.

Several important matters were discussed at the last meeting of the Board of Trustees, held April 12. The most important from the standpoint of the students, was the vote of the board to release President Roberts next year from his teaching and administrative duties that he may devote his whole time to the raising of the remainder of the Endowment Fund. Some person will be secured to teach President Roberts's classes, and such administrative assistance as is needed will be furnished.

The board discussed the question of establishing military training at the college but no decision was reached. The faculty was asked to present for the June meeting some method of giving Colby boys in the service college credit. Plans for the Centennial Celebration were also talked over.

The trustees present were, Justice Leslie C. Cornish, President Roberts, Dudley P. Bailey, William C. Crawford, Albert F. Drummond, George C. Wing, Frank W. Alden, Herbert E. Wadsworth, Rex Dodge, Rev. C. E. Owen, George E. Murray, Rev. E. C. Whittemore, and Rev. I. B. Mower.

THE RHODES SCHOLARSHIP.

To the Editor of the Colby Echo:

Dear Sir:—

Before the terrors of final examination and the multitudinous activities of Commencement Week lay siege to all the time, interests, attention, and aspirations of our students, I should like to use the "ECHO" to "say a few words" concerning the opportunities offered Colby students by the Rhodes Trust.

The war has possibly increased for every one of us, if has not given birth to, an interest in things European; and it will be increasingly difficult to continue our pristine isolation and our (perhaps too much vaunted) indifference to transatlantic affairs. Under these circumstances, an opportunity to live for three years in Europe, free from all financial worries, to move among the most cultured of its people, to study in its most famous institutions of learning, to travel and see cities and peoples, countries and beauties of nature which have drawn hundreds of thousands of Americans to the Old World, an opportunity for all this should not be lightly passed by.

The Rhodes Scholarship consists of $4,500, paid in cash sums of $375 each quarter, over a period of three years. There are no limitations placed upon the expenditure of this sum of money, other than that the Rhodes Scholar must become a member of one of the twenty-two colleges in the University of Oxford. This will necessitate his residence at Oxford during 24 weeks in each year: the other 28 weeks, he is free to go anywhere in the world he may choose. The money paid him by the Rhodes Trust is sufficient to cover all his expenses,—clothes, books, traveling expenses, college fees, board, etc. His work at Oxford may lead to the degree of B. A., M. A., B. Litt., B. Sc., and Ph. D.

There seems to be a lamentable amount of ignorance throughout our country concerning the difficulty of obtaining appointment as Rhodes Scholar. To be eligible for appointment, only three things are necessary. The candidate must be (1) unmarried, (2) between 19 and 25 years of age, and (3) a student in an American college with at least two years' residence. There are no examinations to take, it is not necessary to have a degree, it is not necessary to be a Greek scholar, it is not necessary to be a star athlete, it is not necessary to be the son of a Senator or the State Governor, and there are no registration fees to pay to the Rhodes Trust.

The next Maine scholar will be appointed in October of this year, and will be expected to go into residence at Oxford in October, 1920. The appointment will be made by a committee of three from among those men who apply to it. There are no limits set to the number of those who may apply. Application need not be sent in until after June, and should then be accompanied by a complete statement of the applicant's education,—especially his college education,—with his scholastic and athletic records, his activity in his student societies, fraternity, club, etc., and by whatever credentials and testimonials he may wish to submit from college professors, business men, or friends, who have known him. He should also submit a birth certificate. The committee will consider each applicant with regard to (1) his scholastic record, (2) his love of outdoor sports, (3) his character, and (4) his qualities for leadership among his companions; it will then select that applicant who seems best fitted to represent the State at Oxford.

Why should we not plan to make the Maine Rhodes Scholarship a permanent Colby prize?

CARL JEFFERSON WEBER,
e coll Reginae Oxon 1914.

PRIZE CONTEST ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The next month will see much activity in speaking, circles, as several contests are due to be held in that time. Professor Libby this week made announcements regarding these affairs as follows:

The annual Lyford Interscholastic Prize Speaking Contest is to be held under the auspices of Colby on Friday, May 9, afternoon and evening. Enrollment blanks have already been sent out to the preparatory schools of Maine and New Hampshire, and up to Tuesday noon, the following schools had notified the College that they would have representatives present: Cony High, Waterville High, South Portland High, Maine Central Institute, Lawrence High, Kent's Hill Seminary, Foxcroft Academy, Bangor High, Portland High, Monmouth Academy, Mexico High, Windham High, Lincoln Academy, Bar Harbor High, Leavitt Institute, Freedom Academy, Good Will High, Hebron Academy, Coburn Classical Institute, and Kimball Union Academy.

The subject for the Goodwin Prize Speaking Contest, open to all students of the Men's Division, is "National Dangers." This contest is set for the evening of May 19, the preliminaries taking place May 1.

The Murray Prize Debate which was to be held in the chapel on Monday evening, April 28, has been postponed until a later date. The debaters, whose names were announced in the last issue of the Echo will argue the question, Resolved: That universal military training should be adopted in the United States for men between the ages of 19 and 26.

A contest is also being held by the class of '88. There are prizes for each division of the senior class for the best thesis written on the topic, "Americanism and the Foreign Born." A prize for the best thesis written by a Junior in the Men's Division is also offered, the topic being, "Colby's One Hundred Years of Service." These theses must be submitted by the 15th of May.

Preliminary speaking in the Hamlin Prize Speaking Contest for the women of the Freshman Class is being held this week. The twelve women who survive the elimination will speak in the final exhibition the first of May.

Announcement regarding the Hallowell Speaking Contest will be found in another column. The prizes in the Lyford, Goodwin, Hallowell and Murray contests each aggregate one hundred dollars. The prizes in the Hamlin Contest are ten dollars for first and five dollars for second prize.

NEW ALUMNUS.

Since the last issue of the Echo, the mid-winter issue of the Alumnus has come from the press. This issue, like the previous ones, is filled with articles and items of interest to Colby men. The most notable article is the story of the Second Maine by John E. Nelson, '98, and Norman L. Bassett, '91. This gives the history of the regiment from the time it entered the Federal service until the first of last August. Another installment of this story will be in the next issue of the magazine.

The Alumnus contains also a continuation of the story of the part Colby has played in this war, and several other interesting articles, beside a number of editorial notes. The issue is well worth the reading.

MUSICAL CLUBS ON TRIP.

To Visit Four Maine Towns This Week.

The Musical Clubs left Waterville Monday afternoon on the first trip of the year, the places to be visited being Unity, Brooks, Camden, and Vinalhaven. The clubs have worked hard this year under discouraging conditions, a previous trip having been cancelled. A good program has been arranged, which the leaders believe will completely satisfy the audiences played to.

Twenty-two men were taken on this trip, as follows: Leonard, '21, Hois, '21, Pratt, '21, Sussman, '19, Wilkins, '20, Barnum, '21, Bradbury, '19, Black, '21, Snow, '21, Esters, '21, Sturtevant, '21, Pollock, '21, Brinkman, '20, Shearman, '22, Whittermore, '22, D. Smith, '21, Bickmore, '22, Wallace, '22, Sweet, '19, and Manager Harry E. Lewin, '20.

Y. M. C. A. ELECTION.

The Y. M. C. A. election of officers for the ensuing year has been held, and the result is as follows: President, John W. Brush, '20; vice-president, Henry Bell, '20; secretary, Stanley R. Black, '21; treasurer, Walter R. Guthrie, '22. The standing committees elected were: Deputation committee, Walter Moreland, '22, Raymond Bates, '22, George Currier, '22; social service, Wendell Farrington, '21, Edwin Gates; music, Evan Shearman, '22, Donald Smith, '21, and Frank J. Hois, '21; membership, Henry L. Bell, Chauncey L. Brown, '21, Chesterfield Marden, '21, Roger Bousefield, '22, Hugh Whittermore, '22, and Hugh Smith, '20; Northfield, Abraham Segal, '22, and Raymond Spinney, '21.

BASEBALL TEAM AWAY.

The baseball team is away this week, on the first Massachusetts trip, playing Harvard, Tufts, and Rhode Island State. Twelve men left yesterday noon, accompanied by Coach Allen and Manager Cronin, '19. These men were, Captain Driscoll, catcher; Bucknam, '20, and Hamer, '20, pitchers; Marshall, '19, first base; Nourse, '19, second base; Fraas, '20, short stop; Heyes, '19, third base; Brudno, '21, utility infielder; Taylor, '20, Pulsifer, '21, Williams, '22, and Wills, '22, outfielders.

After opening the season with a victory over Maine, the men left confident of making a good showing, even if they do not win all the games.

Don't forget that the annual concert of the Musical Clubs is to be held in the Opera House next Tuesday evening. Let's all support the Clubs by attending.

CHANGE IN ECHO.

As announced in the last issue, several changes have been made in the Editorial Board of the ECHO. Department editors have been appointed who will each week be responsible for their departments. The Alumni editor will have charge of an alumni column, and all the notes regarding alumni will be placed there, and not under fraternity notes. Fraternity notes will be abolished, that is, the news of the fraternities will all be under one heading,—Campus Chat,—after this week. In this way many items which are of no interest will be done away with. It is believed that these changes will be for the better interests of the ECHO.

There was some talk of changing the form of the ECHO,—that is, making it more in the form of a newspaper. By so doing, nearly double the present amount of reading matter can be used on the same amount of paper. But for financial reasons, and because such a step would break up the present volume, this change has been postponed until next year. Hereafter the ECHO will appear each Wednesday.

In another column appears a letter from Professor Weber to the Editor, in reference to the Rhodes Scholarship. Every Colby student should know at least what the Rhodes Scholarship is. Professor Weber desires the ECHO to state that he will be glad to furnish additional information to anyone who may be considering the possibility of becoming an applicant, or may wish to begin now to prepare himself to be a successful candidate for appointment later on. Maine will send a Scholar to Oxford in 1920, 1921, 1922, 1923, 1925, 1926, and so on, skipping one in every three years.

Why not have the tennis courts fixed up a little? A large number of students find great enjoyment in this game, but at present both courts are in poor condition and need to be taped. There is also but one net for two courts. Tennis offers a pleasing means of recreation to many who cannot compete in other forms of athletics. These students would greatly appreciate it if something should be done toward the repair of the courts.

A victory over Maine is a good starter for a good baseball season.

NOTICE TO EDITORIAL BOARD,

All material for the ECHO must be handed to the Editor or left in the college library by Monday night of each week. Absolutely no material received later will be used.

The Y. M. C. A. furnished the college a treat in the lecture given by David Beach, Tuesday evening, on the subject, "Christianity and the World Problem." Mr. Beach is the "Y" secretary of the University of Maine. He has spent one year across and is well fitted to give such an address. About one hundred beautifully colored slides were shown to an audience of nearly one hundred students, men and women. Professor Brown introduced the speaker and Arthur Scott, '19, handled the lantern.

As no track coach has been secured, and as it is now so late in the spring, nothing will probably be done in track this year, much to the disappointment of many of the students who wished to try out for this sport.

THE VICTORY LOAN.

The following was received this week from George Otis Smith, '93, director of the U. S. Geological Survey and a trustee of the college:

To Colby Students:

Our last chance to help in financing Victory! America has "delivered the goods" at the front, and now comes the fifth and last call for our payment on account. April 21st is the date when we are given another share in the business, which now bears the name of "Victory-Unlimited." The doubts of ultimate success that some felt but all disregarded when we invested in Liberty bonds are now forgotten, and the gilt-edge on these Victory notes is the brightest that ever adorned an investment. Never before has the business inducement of absolute security and adequate return been combined with so strong an appeal to true sentiment.

The stars of gold on our service flags, the white crosses on the soil of France, the golden V's on the right arms of our returning soldiers—these are the symbols of the great price America has already paid for Victory. Life and limb has been given to the nation, freely and in the exalted spirit of sacrifice;—can we refuse, or even hesitate, to loan money to our Government when our turn comes?

GEO. OTIS SMITH.

CAMPUS CHAT

At a recent meeting of the Druids, that organization voted to hold an interfraternity tennis tournament this spring, and the committee appointed for this tournament is now working on the schedule. The Druids also voted to award some trophy to the winner, and to award the Druid Cup to the fraternity having the best scholarship for the past year.

The next dance of the college series will be held in the gymnasium Saturday evening of this week.

At a recent meeting of the Athletic Council, Graduate Manager Ervin resigned from the Maine Intercollegiate Board of Athletics, to which he was recently elected, and Percy Keene, a recent graduate was chosen in his place.

The college was recently the recipient of a bust of Nathaniel Butler, an old alumnus and the father of Nathaniel Butler, a former president. This bust was executed by the sculptor Franklin Simmons, and was presented to the college by Nathaniel Butler, his son. It is now in the college library.

The Upsilon Beta initiation which for years has been held on the day of the first Maine game was not held this year, it being postponed to later date.

Dr. Atwater of New York City has been invited to visit the college, Thursday and Friday of this week. He will meet men and women who are looking toward over-seas work following the war.

Professor Clarence H. White is to be one of the judges for a debate at Hebron, tomorrow evening.

Donald H. Curtis, ex-'20, now at Brown, recently took first prize in a speaking contest there.

Professor Brown is to deliver an address before the Washington County Teachers' Convention, at Machias, next Monday.

Professor Libby preached last Sunday at the Methodist Church in this city.
