THE BUILDINGS OF COLBY.

I. South College.

Colby's oldest building is South College, one of the familiar brick buildings between the elms and the slope of the river bank. It was built in 1821 when Jeremiah Chaplin was president of the College. An old record says that the mason was a certain Peter Getchell, and the carpenter was a certain Lemuel Dunbar; that it contained eighteen rooms, and that a part of it was reserved for chapel services. Old prints show two entrances on the side facing College Avenue. Now the doors are on the north and south ends of the building, the south end having a spacious, covered porch, and the north end with the uncovered porch built this fall. In 1907, the south end was taken over by the Zeta Psi fraternity, while the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity has since then occupied the north end. On the third floor of the Alpha Tau Omega House is the bell that calls us to our classes. South College, with the other well-weathered bricks, seems to grow finer with age.

Elijah Parrish Lovejoy was a resident of South College almost a hundred years ago.

STRONG BASEBALL SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED.

Manager Henry L. Bell of the baseball team announces this week, through the ECHO, a tentative baseball schedule for next spring. The games have not all been definitely determined, and there may be a change or two, but the schedule will be substantially as announced here. It is a strong list of games, and will tax the playing capacity of the team to the utmost. The schedule:

- April 19 University of Maine at Waterville. (Exhibition.)
April 21 Holy Cross at Worcester.
April 22 Massachusetts Agricultural College at Amherst.
April 23 Amherst at Amherst.
April 24 Springfield College at Springfield.
May 1 Bowdoin at Brunswick.
May 6 St. Anselm's at Waterville.
May 8 Bates at Waterville.
May 12 University of Maine at Orono.
May 15 Conn. Agricultural College at Storrs, Conn.
May 17 Boston College at Newton.
May 18 Harvard at Cambridge.
May 19 Tufts at Medford.
May 20 Lowell Textile School at Lowell.
May 22 Bowdoin at Waterville.
May 28 Bates at Lewiston.
May 30 University of Maine at Waterville.
June 8 Norwich University at Waterville.

It will be seen that this schedule includes eighteen games and two trips. In addition, Manager Bell is trying to complete arrangements with New Hampshire State, at the request of the authorities there for a game at Durham, June 19. There will also be a game with some team at Waterville during Commencement.

BIG TIME AT GYMNASIUM.

Smoker to be Held Saturday Evening.

One of the old time Smokers of pre-war days will be staged in the gymnasium on Saturday evening. The Smoker is being conducted under the auspices of the Student Council and it is only one of the many events scheduled on the extensive program of the Council to help stimulate greater Colby spirit. A delegation of boys from Lynn Classical High will be the guests of the college and will be in attendance at the Smoker. Seniors from Coburn, Waterville High, and possibly other near-by preparatory schools will also be invited to attend.

An evening of amusement is assured everyone by the program that is being arranged by a committee appointed from the Student Council. Boxing, wrestling, basketball and tugs of war will be some of the features of the entertainment for the evening. Several "selections" have been written for the occasion by one of our best Colby humorists, and will read by Neil Leonard. The announcement by "Prexy" that he will pay for the refreshments for the Smoker is still but another of the many big features planned. Every Colby man should be there.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION MEETS.

R. L. Ervin, Graduate Manager, Resigns.

A meeting of the Athletic Association was held Thursday, December 4, in which several important matters were taken up.

A letter was read from R. L. Ervin, graduate manager, tendering his resignation. It was voted that Mr. Ervin's resignation be accepted, provided that the time at which it became effective be extended to the end of the first semester. Mr. Ervin has been graduate manager for the past eight years, and stated that he felt obliged to resign because of the increasing demands of his business. The students are sorry to see him leave as he has done good work, and the Athletic Council voted to send him a letter of appreciation in recognition of the services he has rendered the athletic interests of the college. There is no intimation as to who will be sought to replace Mr. Ervin.

It was voted to award a track "C" to George A. Costley, who finished seventh in the M. I. C. C. R. He is the only man to receive the award.

The matter of getting the track in shape for immediate work was taken up, and the track will undoubtedly be in proper condition by the end of the week, if EVERYBODY gets behind the track manager. If a new board track is found to be a necessity one will be built.

Coach Ryan urged that Colby join the Amateur Athletic Union, provided that Maine and Bates could be induced to join. If the Maine colleges could be affiliated with this association, frequent meets could be held at Portland, and the colleges would not have to meet the extra expense and expenditure of sending teams to the B. A. A. meets at Boston. The A. A. U. is a national organization and it would be a distinct advantage for the Maine colleges to join such a union. It was voted to join provided Bates or Maine, or both, can be interested.

DELTA UPSILON HOSTS AT DANCE.

The Colby Chapter of Delta Upsilon was the host last Friday evening, in Elks Hall, at an informal dance. About fifty couples were present to enjoy an order of fourteen dances with music furnished by a college orchestra. Everyone voted that this music, given under the direction of Harry E. Lewin, '20, was more than satisfactory. From the faculty there were present: Dr. and Mrs. J. William Black, and Professor Carl J. Weber.

The D. U. escutcheon, which hung at one end of the hall, gave a pretty effect, with its gold and blue lights.

FIRST CHAPEL DEBATE.

The first of a series of chapel debates was held Monday evening before a good sized audience. The proposition discussed by teams from the debating class was, Resolved: that German should be dropped from the curriculum of Colby College as a required course. The debate was won by the affirmative team consisting of Bailey, '21; Drummond, '21; and Whittemore, '21. The negative team was composed of Gale, '22; Mayo, '22; and Woodworth, '22. Both sides presented well-balanced arguments. The judges were Professors White, Rollins, and Wells.

While the judges were reaching a decision, several two-minute speakers discussed the resolution that fraternities at Colby should refrain from pledging or in any way binding freshmen until the end of the first semester.

MAINE TOO BUSY TO DEBATE?

Corresponding Secretary Pederson of the recently organized Debating Society in his quest of a contest for the Colby team wrote to University of Maine a few days since. Much to his surprise he received a reply yesterday from the head of the Department of Dramatics stating that he was too busy with dramatics to consider debating, but that the dean of the law school might possibly help out.

This letter also stated that the matter of an inter-state oratorical league had been taken up but dropped, because, it was understood, of lack of funds.

STUDENT STATISTICS.

Professor Herbert C. Libby has compiled some interesting statistics regarding students from the registration cards.

Part of these deal with the geographical distribution of students in the college. Maine is of course the residence of the majority of the students with Massachusetts, New Hampshire, and New York next in order. Eleven of the forty-eight states in the country are represented in Colby, while China, Canada, and Cuba also have representatives. Following is a list of the states represented and the number from each state: Maine, 321; Massachusetts, 65; New Hampshire, 20; New York, 14; Connecticut, 11; New Jersey, 4; China, 3; Rhode Island, 2; Indiana, 1; Pennsylvania, 1; Florida, 1; Cuba, 1; Vermont, 1; Canada, 1. This list includes both divisions. 65% of the men and 82.6% of the women hail from Maine.

The religious preference of the students has also been compiled. Of course as Colby is a Baptist college, nearly half the students claim a preference for the Baptist religion. The Congregationalists are next, followed by the Methodists and the Catholics. The fact that forty students are Catholic shows that while Colby is a Baptist institution, there are no narrow prejudices here. Only twenty-three students express no religious preferences. Following is a table for both divisions of the number and percentage of students claiming preference for different religions: Baptist, 206 students, 44.2%; Congregational, 89, 19.2%; Methodist, 48, 10.5%; Catholic, 40, 9%; no religion, 23, 5%; Episcopalian, 20, 4.5%; Universalist, 12, 2.6%; Unitarian, 6, 1.3%; Hebrew, 6, 1.3%; Christian Science, 4, 0.9%; Friends, 3, 0.7%; Adventist, 1; Lutheran, 1; Dutch Reformed Church, 1; Presbyterian, 1.

DID YOU KNOW?

That Colby has graduated 2270 students, of which 1697 were men and 573, women? In addition, the college has had enrolled students who did not graduate, to the number of 1800, 15 theological graduates, and 55 medical graduates.

That the residence of the first president of Colby, the Rev. Jeremiah Chaplin, was on the site now occupied by the Elmwood Hotel?

That the chapel talks of President Roberts are worth traveling miles to hear?

"I am no good unless I strike," said the match.

"And you lose your head every time you do strike," said the box.

A. T. O. BANQUET.

The largest and most successful initiation banquet in the history of the Maine Gamma Alpha chapter of Alpha Tau Omega, took place at the Elmwood last Saturday evening. After the initiation of Delmont W. Bishop of Waterville, the students, alumni and delegates, sixty-six in number, marched to the banquet hall.

John L. Dyer, of the class of '94, acted as toastmaster. The student speakers were: Charles S. Eaton, '20; Arthur B. Malone, '22; Neil F. Leonard, '21; Earle Tyler, Rhoden B. Eddy and Seth Twichell, '20; John L. Dunstan, and Chauncey Leighton, '21.

From the alumni, Ernest H. Pratt, Dr. Totman, charter members; Raymond R. Thompson, '15; Fred Pottle, '17; and Roy Hayes, '17, delivered short addresses.

The Province delegates were: R. C. Poole, M. I. T.; R. G. Ferguson, Worcester Polytechnical School; E. H. Shannon, New Hampshire State; R. T. Titus, University of Vermont; F. A. Gifford, Tufts; J. R. Donovan and R. F. Mulvany, University of Maine.

Leslie C. Cook, '21, lead the cheering and music was furnished by Ray Daniels, '23, Haynes, '22, and Wilkins and Lewin, '20.

DRAMATIC CLUB RE-ORGANIZES.

The Colby College Dramatic Club on account of the resignation of the former president, Rafael J. Miranda, who is leaving college, has reorganized with the following officers: President, John W. Brush, '20; Manager, Bernard Esters, '21.

The club will stage no production this year unless financial assistance is immediately forthcoming. All good plays demand a big royalty and the club is without funds. Consequently no play has been selected and rehearsals cannot begin. President Brush has high hopes, however, of securing backing from the college and if this is received, the undergraduate talent will stage the usual excellent play, probably a comedy. Manager Esters has an extensive schedule in prospect.

COLBY COMETS REVIVED.

The Colby Comets, an independent basket ball team composed of Colby students, are to be seen on the basket ball surface again this year, as for the last few years. Don Smith is the manager and he has been arranging games with fast Maine teams. One game has already been won against the Pittsfield A. A., 38 to 28. This evening, the 10th, Oldtown will be played at Old Town and Friday, December 12, the Comets will play the Newport A. A. at Newport. Arrangements for games are under way with Bath, Lewiston, Portland A. C., Dexter, Dover and Foxcroft, and Bangor teams. A coast trip to the Belfast and Camden region is also planned.

The following men are candidates for the team: Powers, Burke, James, Grant, P. Bailey, Song, R. Smith, Perkins, Lampher, M. Smith, Chamberlain, D. Smith. From these men a fast outfit will undoubtedly result as all are experienced players.

IT'S COMING.

What? Oh, the Sophomore Hop. The sophomores after much trial and tribulation have succeeded in obtaining Elks Hall and making other arrangements for this event, January 16. The music will be furnished by a college orchestra, and the sophomores are planning to give all a rousing good time. So the men had better begin to decide what members of the fair sex they may hope to take that night.

FACTS ABOUT COACH RYAN.

Many of us do not realize what a capable man we have at Colby as athletic director. Here are some of Director Ryan's records as a runner and as a coach:

Member American Olympic teams at London, in 1908, and at Stockholm, in 1912.

Running for Canada, in 1911, second in Marathon from Windsor Castle to Stamford Bridge.

Records in Boston Marathon Race, April 19, 1912, and in Canadian Marathon at Hamilton, Ont., May 24, 1910, still unbroken.

Other records held: Indoor Marathon, Pittsburg, March 30, 1909; 10 mile team race, Madison Square Garden, N. Y., January 31, 1911; 5 mile military hike in full marching equipment, N. Y. State Fair, September 15, 1912.

Coach at Bates three years, during which time he completely reorganized track and never had less than 150 men out.

Instructor at Physical and Bayonet Training School at Camp Gordon, Georgia.

Physical Director at Camp Upton, N. Y., the largest demobilization camp in the country, where he developed championship relay teams.

PRESS OF THE CITY JOB PRINT

COLBY For COLBY MEN For COLBY

The ECHO is being published this week under the direction of the Student Council. This is because of the resignation, Saturday last, of D. Milton Crook thus far, this fall, the editor. At the request of President Roberts and by a vote of the Student Council the direct oversight of the present issue has been had by Thaddeus F. Tilton, president of the Council and last year's editor of the ECHO. He will continue as the agent of the Council, temporarily, until a new editor has been chosen.

When the news of the resignation of the editor was learned, Saturday, the Student Council, after conference with President Roberts, voted to formulate some plan for a re-organization of the ECHO, on the basis of an ECHO Publishing Association. This plan will be presented to the student body as soon as possible, probably by the last of this week. The Student Council also voted to ask a committee composed of its president, and Professors Libby, White, Weber, and Brown, to recommend the men in college who it considers are best fitted to act as editor for the remainder of this year. These names will be placed before the students for a vote in conjunction with the proposed ECHO Publishing Association constitution.

The Student Council has acted with absolute impartiality in all its transactions this year. In this particular matter it intends to be equally impartial. It intends to recommend an Association for publishing the ECHO which will insure a college paper of the highest type. It will recommend men who typify the best in our college. The college paper is, or should be, the mouthpiece of the students, the mirror of the life of the institution; and the responsibility for making accurate reflections from this mirror is not slight. The Council asks the co-operation of the students in its efforts to select the best possible man for editor, regardless of who he may be. Watch for announcement of a mass meeting this week, and be there.

Two years ago this fall there came to Colby, "Eddie" Niles. He donned his football togs and reported for practice. He worked hard and faithfully, and by his modest unassuming manner soon won the respect of his fellow students. But one day, in practice, he broke his leg. Without a whimper he was borne to the hospital. After recovering, he finished the year, working his way.

This fall "Eddie" returned to Colby after serving in the Canadian army. Again he reported on the gridiron. No man worked harder, played a better, cleaner game, or was more liked than he. Near the end of the season he again broke his leg. He is still in the hospital and will be there for some weeks.

"Eddie" has given all that he could, has given of his best, to Colby. In return, Colby and Colby students owe much to him. A movement has been started to raise a fund for him in appreciation of his service and loyalty to Colby, and the high regard in which he is held by his college mates. When YOU are approached, show YOUR appreciation of his services to the Blue and Gray.

Whole-hearted loyalty cannot be felt unless sacrifice is made. Sacrifice usually means work. We cannot have whole-hearted loyalty to Colby, unless we sacrifice for Colby,—unless we work for Colby. Are YOU working,—doing something for Colby?

It is high time that we began to think seriously of the spring track and baseball seasons. We cannot have good teams without men; and men will not make good teams without adequate preparation. This means that men must report now in order to receive adequate preparation. Coach Ryan can be found in the gymnasium every afternoon to receive candidates for track,—candidates who have not yet made their appearance. The time is short, in the spring, to prepare for the Maine Intercollegiate meet; and if Colby is to be represented by a worthy team, work must be done this winter. Is our track team to make as feeble an appearance as did the football team? Then let's get out and work to see that it does not do so. The B. A. A. Relay Races will be held the first of February. If we are to have a team to represent us at that time candidates must report at once.

Last year we clamored for a track coach. This year we have one. But men are not trying for track. While at Bates, Coach Ryan never had less than 150 men in his charge. What shall be said of Colby? We may not be able to do much, but to do the best we can is better than to do our poorest. So let's see a large number of men in the gymnasium these afternoons.

Remember the preliminary speaking in the Goodwin Contest next Wednesday, the 17th. The prizes are well worth an effort to obtain them.

CAMPUS CHAT.

Because of a lack of space, the fraternity notes this week are eliminated with the exception of the most important, which are grouped under the above heading. Since the ECHO has so few pages every inch of space is needed for important news.

Theodore N. Bramhall, ex-'22, of Belfast, attended the D. U. dance last Friday evening, and stopped at the house over night.

Hodges, '21, has been elected by the L. X. A. fraternity to act as its delegate at the national convention of the fraternity in Ann Arbor, Mich., December 31.

Conary, '21, has been chosen manager of the L. X. A. basketball team.

John La Fleur, '15, is in the employ of the War Department at Washington.

Errol Chase, ex-'18, visited the A. T. O. House this week. He is now on his way to New York, from which he will sail for Paris and thence for Constantinople where he will be engaged in relief work.

Raymond R. Thompson, '15, is visiting the A. T. O. house for a few days.

The A. T. O. basket ball team defeated the Clinton A. A. last Friday evening, by the score of 22 to 14, in a fast, clean game. Burke and Umphrey were the stars.

The Colby catalogue for 1919-1920 is now on the press and will probably be ready for distribution before the Christmas vacation. Professor Libby, the editor, states that there will be but few changes from the last catalogue.

Professor Marquardt had the misfortune last week to lose by fire a dwelling house owned by him in Oakland.

The D. K. E. fraternity announces the pledging of Alan Mercer, '23, of White Plains, N. Y.

Marlin D. Farnum, '22, writes that he hopes to return to college after Christmas.

The Rev. Mr. Knickerbocker of the Universalist Church was the speaker at chapel yesterday and this morning. He was also at Chemical Hall this (Wednesday) afternoon, to meet all students who wished to talk with him on any subject. He will speak again tomorrow morning, continuing his helpful talks of the last two chapel exercises.

Professor A. G. Wells of the Philosophy Department was the speaker at the Y. M. C. A. last evening.

Clyde Flint, ex-'18, spent the week-end at the Phi Delta Theta House.

Bernard T. Esters, '21, attended the Initiation Banquet of the Sigma Tau Alpha Fraternity of Tufts College, Saturday night, and spent Monday in Boston on business.

STUDENT ENDOWMENT COMMITTEES

The students will shortly be asked to select a Student Endowment Committee. Three years ago there was a committee from the students for the purpose of raising money as a gift from the student body to the Endowment Fund. This year the need of such a committee is again felt. The proceeds of the Col. French lectures, which were given under the auspices of the Student Council have been placed to the credit of this Student Endowment Fund. The Student Council looked after these lectures, but feels that there should be a Student Endowment Committee with raising of student funds its sole object.

A year ago Friday of this week was the happiest day in the lives of many Colby men. Why? Think it over and you will recall that on that day Colby men received an imposing looking document stating that they were no longer members of Uncle Sam's S. A. T. C.

If the Colby team had done as did the now famous Centre football team, this fall, what might it not have done to its opponents? No football follower now says that prayers are not effective.
