IV. MEMORIAL HALL

This building was erected in 1869 as a tribute to the students of the college, who had fallen in the service of their country during the Civil War. "No monument may mark their final resting place; the ruthless hand of time may have obliterated forever all signs of their existence; but their names cut in the tablets of this hall will transmit to the latest time the sublime story of their death."

Memorial Hall is built of gray stone and has a clock tower eighty feet in height. In the western wing, on the first floor is the college chapel. Above this is the College Library and Reading Room. Portraits of distinguished graduates and art collections are displayed here. Here is also placed the Memorial Tablet to the soldier dead, surmounted by a marble copy of Thorwaldsen's Lion of Lucerne. The dead lion of Thorwaldsen tells most touchingly of our patriots' devotion to a noble cause.

WOOD IS FAVORITE

The result of the straw vote that was held under the auspices of the Colby Echo in the chapel Tuesday afternoon showed that Leonard Wood is the favorite candidate among the students as he won by a majority of forty-nine votes over his nearest competitor. The candidates in the order of the votes that they received were, Calvin Coolidge of Massachusetts, Herbert Hoover, Senator Johnson of California; William McAdoo, William Jennings Bryan and Senator Lodge of Massachusetts had an equal number of votes each. The last candidate on the list was Governor Frank Lowden of Illinois. In the men's and women's division the majority was for General Wood while the majority of the faculty favored Herbert Hoover. The republican party was represented greater than was the Democratic by a majority of ninety-one votes.

COLBY INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

Last Thursday evening, at the request of Dr. McDonald of the Economics department, a large number of students of the upper classes met in chapel for the purpose of organizing a Colby International Relations Club. Dr. McDonald outlined the purpose of the club, saying that meetings will be informal, an assemblage where the members can discuss national and international political and economic questions of the day among themselves and where they may have the expert opinions from a faculty adviser.

This club will be financed by the Institute of International Education of New York. Many books treating on questions before the public mind today have been received. Miss Margaret Alexander, field secretary of the Institute, has promised that as soon as the club is thoroughly organized and discussions on international conciliations have been held, speakers of national reputation will visit the college to give lectures.

The duty of the club is to hold meetings regularly and work out problems for itself and to receive the speakers who are sent here.

Membership is open to all students of the upper classes. The women will hold their meetings separate from the men, except on special occasions, such as when an important speaker is to be heard.

Don't let the old spirit take a chill. Summer is coming!

FRATERNITY STUNT NIGHT

The Colby Y. M. C. A. has planned a novel event for this coming Saturday evening, in a "Stunt Night," to the program of which every fraternity will be asked to contribute some musical or theatrical feature, the winner to be awarded a prize. Foss Hall will be invited to attend, and, probably, to judge who is the winner. The committee in charge consists of Leonard, Barnes, Baldwin, Woodworth, Bickmore, Song and Little. This event promises to be thoroughly enjoyable. A small admission fee will be charged, to go toward meeting the expenses of the two delegates to the convention at Des Moines during the Christmas holidays.

THE B. A. A. RELAY

Colby will probably contend with the University of Vermont and Rhode Island State at the B. A. A. relays. The second set of trials of the Colby runners has been held. The final set will be held Monday, and those who are to make the Boston trip will be announced in next week's ECHO.

SOPHOMORES WIN CHAMPIONSHIP

Much interest was shown in the Interclass Basketball tournament which took place in the gymnasium last week under the supervision of Athletic Director Michael J. Ryan. Although several of the games were hard fought, the spirit throughout the tournament, was that of good fellowship, and sportsmanlike.

The surprise of the games was the defeat of the Freshmen by the Seniors, after the Freshmen held the Sophomores to an 18-16 score with an extra period of play.

The Sophomores played a scientific game throughout the series, winning their three sets of games.

Coach Ryan feels that a good start has been made toward the revival of interest in athletics, and plans to hold an inter-fraternity meet very soon.

The result:

	Won	Lost	Tied
Sophomores	3	0	0
Seniors	1	1	1
Juniors	0	2	1

THE STUDENT ENDOWMENT FUND

The Student Endowment Committee wishes to make the following announcements and recommendations:

The committee has to date turned over nearly eight hundred dollars to the General Endowment fund. There is at present fifty dollars on deposit in the Ticonic National Bank. The sum of two thousand dollars has been fixed as our goal, and with Colby spirit backing us we are sure to succeed.

The plan of the campaign is as follows:

1. It is recommended that each fraternity and sorority pledge a fixed sum to the fund, this sum to be based on the enrollment of each chapter at the present time. Two dollars per man has been suggested as the amount that each fraternity should pledge. A one dollar assessment has been suggested for the Women's Division.

This plan has already been endorsed by all the sororities and three of the fraternities. We hope that it will meet with general approval.

2. A series of lectures, up-to-date talks, on subjects of interest, by men of ability, will be held.

3. Other entertainments of various character will be held during the year.

This is your fund; get behind it and push; help the Committee to do what you have elected it to do—make money.

This is a test of good old Colby spirit. We are coming through 100% for "the biggest little college in the country."

THE STUDENT ENDOWMENT COMMITTEE.

DRUIDS CHOSEN.

The Druids have given out the names of their newly elected members from the class of 1921. The list of men by fraternities is as follows: Delta Kappa Epsilon, H. Merle Barnum of Corning, N. Y., Roland G. Ware of Waterville; Zeta Psi, Raymond O. Janes of Hartford, Conn., Ashton Richardson of Fairfield; Delta Upsilon, Phil T. Somerville of Houlton, Chauncey L. Brown of Waterville; Phi Delta Theta, Stephen S. Ayer of Waterville, Bernard E. Esters of Houlton; Alpha Tau Omega, Everett H. Gross of Searsport, Thomas Grace of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Lambda Chi Alpha, J. Edward Little of New London, Conn., Isaiah M. Hodges of Vassalboro.

NOTICE

The use of the library on Wednesday evenings is so small that it does not justify the expense of keeping the reading room open. Therefore the library will be closed on Wednesday evenings hereafter.

THAT STRAW RIDE.

A straw ride to Oak Grove Seminary under the auspices of the A. T. O. basketball team took place last Wednesday evening. Dean Holmes and thirty college men and women made the trip in a large hay rack—"Stealthy Steve's Fine." We were sailing along quite peacefully. Everybody appeared to be enjoying himself, when suddenly, like a bolt from a clear sky, a command was heard, "All gentlemen hold up their right hands." It was followed by a few remarks as to the proximity of the _____ students. In a few moments, peace reigned once more and the original posture was resumed by all.

Somebody opened up a bag of peanuts. A gust of wind blew them over the rest of us. Everybody reached for them. I had my mouth open and got two. Miss _____ got one in the eye. A sophomore lit up his pipe. A freshman requested that he prevent the sparks from reaching his eye. "Shut your eye," he shouted, "I am not responsible for the sparks after they leave my pipe." Then the "frosch" got out his pipe, hoping that, by sending a few red hot sparks to those in back of him, he might feel better.

Well, to make a long story short, the anchor was cast on College Avenue about 3 A. M. Thursday.

NOTICE

The government has sent to the ECHO some lengthy information regarding government war insurance. The communications received are far too lengthy to print, but every man with a government policy should know their contents, for they are very important. See the bulletin board in the library.

RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, it has pleased God in His infinite wisdom to remove from this life the grandfather of our beloved brother, Raymond Joseph Bates, be it

Resolved, that we, the members of Colby Chapter of Pi Delta Phi Fraternity, extend to his bereaved family our condolence and sympathy, and be it further

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be placed upon the records of our chapter, and that a copy be printed in the Colby Echo.

"At Colby College there is no interfraternity rushing agreement and the pledging is carried on in a very hit-or-miss manner."—Brown Daily Herald.

DR. LIBBY ON LODGE.

A tall, broad-shouldered, prophet-like, old gentleman, with a manner kindly and courteous, yet one of marked authority, was, in brief, the characterization of Sir Oliver Lodge, given by Professor H. C. Libby in his chapel talk on Monday morning. Dr. Libby heard Lodge's first address at symphony Hall, Boston.

"For two hours, Sir Oliver held the perfect attention of the large audience, scarcely a dozen persons leaving the hall during all that time."

Dr. Libby's report of the subject matter might be expressed briefly thus:

"Keep your minds open; bide your time, wait for the facts. The truth will come.

"Death is not extinction, for nothing can be destroyed.

"Life blossoms into mentality, then mentality into spirit.

"Memory, character, and affection are carried into the new life."

Recent chapel speakers have included Dr. Ashcraft, Dr. Little, and Professor Brown.

UPSILON BETA.

The members of the Upsilon Beta honorary society enjoyed their first feed of the year at Harmon's Cafe, last Sunday evening, January 18, and discussed plans for the remainder of the year.

ZETA PSI BANQUET

The sixty-ninth annual initiation banquet of the Zeta Psi Fraternity was held at the Elmwood, Friday evening, January 23. There were about fifty of the active members and alumni present. Carrol N. Perkins, '04, was toastmaster. Raymond O. Janes, '21, served as choragus.

The toasts were:

- Greeting - Pearl L. Hanscom, '20
- Zeta Psi Brotherhood, - Leon C. Guptill, '09
- The Active Chapter - - Joel E. Taylor, '21
- Zeta Psi Nationality, Dr. Roy H. Gilpatrick, Yale, '01
- The Neophytes, - Raymond H. Daniels, '23
- Colby and the Chi, Hon. Warren C. Philbrook, '82

Oliver L. Hall, '93, and Arthur McQuillan, Bowdoin, '20, gave impromptu speeches. Dr. Gilpatrick presented the chapter with a group picture of the members of the Colby chapter taken in 1858.

The initiates were: Raymond Harris Daniels, James Neil Brophy, Charles Elezar Smith, Dean Matthew Simpson, William Joseph Brown, William Francis Powers, John Joseph Fitzgerald.

The committee in charge was made up of Harley, '20, Jones, '21, Brophy, '22.

CONCERNING ATHLETICS

"We are trying to get athletics on a systematic basis at Colby." Yes, it's Mike Ryan, the Athletic Director, and you'll find him at his new quarters at No. 1, Roberts Hall. There Mike plans to meet the captains of the various teams, the representatives of the classes and fraternities, and cooperate with them in booming athletics at Colby. An interfraternity basketball tournament will be started in the near future,—next week, if possible.

At a recent meeting of the Student Council, the following list of representatives of the various organizations was drawn up. These men are expected to cooperate with Ryan in every way possible.

Class presidents: Tilton, Senior; Spinney, Junior; Grant, Sophomore; E. Smith, Freshman.

Fraternity representatives: D. K. E., Pulsifer; P. D. T., D. Smith; D. U., Greenlaw; A. T. O., Umphrey; Z. P., Crosby; L. C. A., Mayo; P. D. P., Bates.

Managers of teams: Football,; Baseball, Henry Bell; Track, Sturtevant; Tennis,

Captains: Pulsifer, football; Bucknam, baseball;, track;, tennis.

The junior class gave a leap year dance at Foss Hall, Saturday evening. The members of the faculty present were President and Mrs. A. J. Roberts, Dean Holmes, Dr. Harry, and Prof. Weber. There were many novelty dances as balloon dances, etc. The hall was prettily decorated in the class colors, red and white, while the fraternity and class banners adorned the walls. Refreshments were served by freshmen dressed in white with red and white caps.

Dean Benton of Carleton College, Minnesota, gave an address to the college women and some visitors, Wednesday. She was sent to France in June, 1918, and stayed two years. She was chairman of the committee which selected French girls to be sent to American universities. When the French government took possession of Strassburg, the Dean was one of six women to go into the territory almost immediately. In everything Dean Benton showed her admiration for the Y. W. C. A.

President and Mrs. Roberts gave a tea for Dean Benton at 4.30 Wednesday afternoon to which the members of the faculty and the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet were invited.

The first report of the Des Moines convention was given in chapel, Monday noon. It opened with the convention hymn, followed by Gladys Dow's report of the incidents of the trip to the city of the convention. Miss Thurston of Gingling College and Dr. Bousfield were both on the train with the delegates.

Elizabeth Whipple spoke next, giving a description of the city itself and the chief places of meeting. Also she gave the motto of the convention, i. e., the Evangelization of the World.

Grace Foster gave the gist of the first speech by John R. Mott. "He gave a new vision of a new world. The world is plastic now and it is up to us to cast it in the form it is to take. Let us take the spirit of this convention to ourselves."

Σ. Κ.

Mrs. Ethel Haywood Weston, '07, chairman of National Panhellenic Congress, and grand president of Sigma Kappa, called at Foss Hall on Friday.

Grace and Margaret Reed of Portland were the guests of Bernice Butler, '21, for the Junior Leap Year Dance.

The House of Kuppenheimer

Those Good Old College Days

Are here again with their stirring meets, keen rivalries, jolly week-ends, and delightful formal and informal parties. It's a life despite the so called "hard grind"—and a life, by the way, in which good clothes are very important. We've prepared a big showing of exclusive Fall

Kuppenheimer Suits and Overcoats

They are ready now—stylish suits and overcoats that will represent you well, designed especially for well dressed young men who appreciate newer and more distinctive styling and tailoring refinements that express elegance and luxuriousness in every line.

Give us a visit.
